Big Boost to Cabana Fund

A profit of $500 was realized by the Girl Scouts of Irish Hills Council, at their Cabana Carnival, Saturday in Tecumseh High School. Thirty girls worked on the project, including several young troop members from Tecumseh and Clinton.

Local girls also served the dinner for Past Presidents of VFW at the VFW Hall, Saturday night.

Father of one of the Girl Scouts, Dr. Robert Buslepp, came from Jackson to administer, without charge, the necessary four inoculations which each girl needs to prepare for her trip to the Cabana in Mexico in August.

School Funds Explained

By ROBERT DUHAN,
Asst. Supt.

The Tecumseh Public Schools receive their major revenue from two major sources, local property taxes and State School Aid.

The largest source of revenue during the current 1968-69 school year is local property tax. There are two parts to the local property tax (1) allocated, (2) extra voted. The equalized valuation of the Tecumseh School District is $50,674,172 made up from the following units of government:

Unit of Government	State Equalization Valuation
Tecumseh City	$28,435,090
Adrian Townshin	71,559
Clinton Township	287,175
Franklin Township	3,043,878
Macon Township	1,950,508
Raisin Township	13,003,010
Ridgeway Township	743,622
Tecumseh Township	3,109,420
Total	$50,674,172

The allocated portion of the local tax is 9.2 mills in the City of Tecumseh and 8.2 mills in the Township areas of the School District. The extra portion of the local levy is 14 mills. The total levy for the operation of school is $1,153,402.12, which is 50.4% of the revenue for the year.

The second largest source of operating revenue is State School Aid. The basic State School Aid formula is based upon number of students enrolled on the fourth Friday of the school year, plus state equalized valuation per pupil.

The State School Aid formula has four sections which gives more money to schools with lower valuations. Section A is for school districts with a valuation of $21,000 to $30,000 per pupil. The formula for this type of district is $348.00 per pupil, less a deductible millage of 7 mills.

For example, a school district with a valuation of $25,000 per student would figure its state aid as follows:

Per Student Allowance	$348.00
Less 7 Mills x $25,000	175.00
	$173.00

Thus, the state aid allowance for a $25,000 valuation per student district would be $173.00 per year.

Section B of the State Aid Act is for school districts with a valuation of $13,000 to $20,000 per student. The formula for these districts is $216.75 per student, less a deductible millage of 5.86 mills. A school district with a valuation of $17,000 per student would receive $227.13 per pupil.

Section C is for school districts with a valuation of $10,000 to $12,000 per student. The formula is $474.75 per pupil less a deductible millage of 17.48 mills. For example, a school district with a valuation of $10,000 per student would receive $229.95 per student.

Section D is for school districts with a valuation of $3,000 to $9,000 per student. The formula is $499.75 less a deductible millage of 20 mills. A school district with a valuation per pupil of $5,000 would receive State Aid of $399.75 per pupil. A school district with a $5,000 valuation receives $266.75 more per pupil than a district with a valuation of $25,000 per pupil.

Tecumseh Public Schools had an enrollment of 3,424 students on the fourth Friday of the 1968-69 school year. The state equalization of $50,674,172 divided by 3,424 students gives Tecumseh a per student valuation of $14,799.70. Thus Tecumseh falls under Section B of the State School Aid Act and its basic State Aid is as follows:

Per Student Allowance	$326.75
Less 5.86 mills x $14,799.70	86.73
Total	$240.02

Total basic state aid for Tecumseh then is 3,424 students times $240.02 which is $821,828.48. In addition the Tecumseh Public Schools receive additional State Aid for transportation, Remedial Reading, Special Education, Driver Education and Vocational Education.

The reimbursement for these programs if figured by formula and on actual costs and actual amounts aren't known until near the end of the school year. Estimated amount of aid for the above program for 1968-69 is $136,363.77. Total estimated State Aid for 1968-69 is $958,192.25 which is 41.9% of the expected revenue of the year.

Federal Aid is a third source of funds. Tecumseh is receiving a Federal grant under Title I of the Elementary and Secondary Education Act of 1965. The grant is for a Helping Teacher Program in the amount of $33,921.00. Federal Funds are also received under the National Defense Education Act. Federal Aid makes up 1.7% of the estimated 1968-69 receipts.

Monies of $1,595,797.35, or 69.79% of the 1968-69 Tecumseh Public School budget, are allocated to the instructional program, with teachers salaries being $1,304,149.67 or 82% of that total.

Operation of the School plant is budgeted for the 1968-69 school year at $187,705.00 or 8.21% of the total budget. Other larger expenditures are as follows: Transportation 7.47%, Administration 3.26%, Fixed Charges 2.63% and Maintenance 2.12% of the budget.

There are 526 High School Districts in the State of Michigan, of these, 30 have a student enrollment between 3,000 and 3,500 students. In comparing the total school tax rate of these 30 districts it is found that it varies from a high of 45.8 mills in the Nankin Mills School Disrict which is in the City of Westland to a low levy of 16.7 mills in the Ionia School District.

Tecumseh ranks 20th out of these 30 districts with a levy of 24.82 mills, that is 19 schools levy a higher total tax levy and 10 have a lower levy.

Comparing the portion of the levy for operations, Tecumseh ranks 10th with a levy of 23.2 mills. The high was Nankin Mills with a levy of 38.8 mills and the low was the Chesaning School District with a levy of 11.55 mills for operation.

Out of the 30 schools, in the area of debt retirement, Tecumseh Public Schools rank 27th, with a levy of 1.62 mills. The high levy for debt retirement is 12 mills levied by the Mason School District and the low is the Hamtramck School District which doesn't have a debt levy.

VFW Honors Past Officers; Give Bonnie Set Of Wheels

Seventy-five members and guests gathered at the VFW Post Home, Saturday evening, to honor the Past Commanders and Presidents of the Hall-Slater Post and Auxiliary. The invocation was given by Post Chaplin Earl Smith.

Commander Norman Sisty welcomed the members and guests and introduced Mrs. William Flanders, a member of the Auxiliary, as toastmistress.

Mrs. Flanders introduced the distinguished guests, Jerry Surateaux and his wife, from Holt. Mr. Surateaux extended the greetings of the district and department.

Commander Sisty read the names of the past commanders of the post and president Pauline Mueller read the names of the past presidents of the Auxiliary. A candle lighting ceremony was held for all deceased members. Seven members of the Auxiliary received continuous membership bars and three charms were awarded to members who had served three or more years in the same office. Those receiving charms were, Mrs. Lloyd Stites for completing eight years as treasurer, Mrs. James Felton, five years as secretary and Mrs. Richard Eisenminger, four years as chaplain.

Toastmistress Betty Flanders introduced Voice of Democracy chairman Lloyd Stites, who welcomed third place winner, Edward Pope, and presented him with a $25 savings bond and bronze medal. Edward gave his essay of "Freedom's Challenge" and received a standing ovation from the group.

The special guest speaker, Ray Nash, manager of Southeastern Michigan Rural Electric Co-Op, Inc., and Past President of the River Raisin Toastmasters' Club, spoke approbably on the subject, "Let's Face It; We Are All Salesmen For America".

A surprise presentation climaxed the evening when Bonnie Sniffen was presented an adult-trike, a gift from the Veterans of Foreign Wars Post 4187 and Auxiliary.

The beautiful centerpiece and table decorations were carried out in the red, white and blue theme. Posters from the recent "Your Land and Mine" contest were displayed on the walls.

The chairmen for the gala affair were Mr. and Mrs. Harlon Boyes.

HAVE WHEELS, WILL TRAVEL — Mrs. Bonnie Sniffen was presented with an adultrike Saturday evening by VFW Post 4187 and Auxiliary. With her and representing the Auxiliary is Mrs. Norman Sisty. Bonnie is unable to walk alone, but, with some assistance, she hopes to learn to ride the tricycle by summer. The tricycle seat has been removed and replaced with a tractor seat and straps were added to hold her feet on the pedals, and so, as Mrs. Sniffen took her first ride Monday she remarked, "now you can tell everybody that Bonnie has wheels now will travel.

Missionary Wife Speaks to Women

Mrs. Robert White, wife of Dr. White of Adrian, a former medical missionary to Africa, will speak to the community-wide World Day of Prayer Services to be held Friday, March 7, at 1:30 p.m. at the Tecumseh United Methodist Church.

It is especially significant that Mrs. White is addressing the group since the theme for this year's observance, "Growing Together in Christ," was chosen from the experiences of women from Africa, a continent rich in national development yet torn by conflict and racism.

This year the program, originating in 1887, will be a "barrier breaker." The first Friday in March has been established as the official date for this international celebration, sponsored by the Church Women United, since Lent comes at a different time for Orthodox communions. To make this observance truly ecumenical this adjustment was made.

Women from all of the Tecumseh churches have been invited to join in this celebration where the offering will be used for many significant projects — racial problems, migrants, women's education, and many others.

Participating in the service will be Mrs. Carlton Cushing, Mrs. Carrol Sprague and Mrs. William Steele, Jr.

Mrs. James Danforth will be the soloist with Mrs. Donald Bush as the organist.

Mr. and Mrs. Mark Bauer moved this weekend from 211 W. Shawnee St. to the home of his mother, Mrs. Jacob Bauer on Clinton-Manchester Rd. When the tenant house has been remodeled at the Bauer farm in a couple of months, they will move into it.

Franklin 4-H Top Hustlers

The N. Franklin Hustlers 4-H Club was named as the first place club in Lenawee County at the Kiwanis Award Presentation Night and club officers training workshop, held Feb. 26 at the Michigan Producers Dairy, Adrian. This was the seventh year the club has earned the top club award. Accepting the award was John Vincent, 1969 president.

N. Franklin Hustlers' treasurer's books placed second, and the 1968 treasurer, John Vincent, accepted the award.

Joyce Richardson, 1968 secretary, accepted the fourth place award for her secretary's books.

Sherry Richardson accepted the first place award for her reporter's books.

Other 1969 officers who attended the workshop were Sherry Richardson, Cathy Hartung, Susan Richardson, Jane Woodward, Joyce Richardson, Gregg Williams, Lynn Winzeler, Kim Hartung, Ruth Vincent. The parent advisors present were Jack Hartung, John Vincent, Sr., and Mrs. James Winzeler.

Teen leader Barbara Vincent helped plan the workshop with leaders Mrs. Claude Greger and Mrs. Thomas Adams.

The club also received a 4-H pledge banner for having 100 percent officers, parent advisors and leaders present to participate in the workshop.

The next meeting will be Monday at 7 p.m. with Jim and Gail Christan. Members are reminded to bring their green record books.

Pack 4 Banquet A Big Success

The Blue and Gold banquet was attended by 130 Cub Scouts of Pack 4 and their parents, Feb. 25, in St. Elizabeth School cafeteria.

The theme of the banquet was "Boy Power — Man Power" and the tables were decorated with small figures of Cub Scouts shaped out of folded magazines, and also wooden plaques with plaster of paris molds of a wolf, bear, and Indian on them. These decorations as well as nut cups were made and painted by the boys.

Pack 4 has four active dens with an enrollment of 33 boys. Our sponsors are the members of the First Baptist Church of Tecumseh. Rev. Bashore, who is pastor of our sponsoring church, gave us an invocation before the meal. Our meal was like an old fashioned family reunion with each family furnishing a dish to pass. It was so much fun trying a little bit of everything.

As the program got underway, Den 4 presented the colors and asked every one to join them in giving the pledge to the flag and singing the Star Spangled Banner. Charles Gross, cubmaster, asked each den to be heard from and they resounded with their different den yells.

Next on the program was the awards and 33 boys made their way to the front of the room where Mr. Gross and Edward Koscho presented their badges.

Wolf badges — Thomas Conklin, James Harris, Christopher Jackowski, Mark Jackowski, Stewart Jones, Timothy Ries, Jeff Scott, Tom Haeussler, Mark Barrett, Jeff Young, Darryl Dunbar, Peter Hammang.

Bruce Bugbee, 1 gold arrow, Ross Darnan, 1 gold arrow, David Roberts, 1 gold arrow, Kim Shewman, 1 gold arrow, Larry Davies, 1 gold arrow and 2 silver arrows.

Bear badges — Jeff Robideau, David McCrate, Michael Barrett, David Smith, Tony Barridge, Scott Barwick, Bill Cook, Greg Curran.

Michael Sieverts earned his gold arrow under his bear badge and also a one-year service star.

Other one-year service stars were given to Jeff Dehring, Wayland Engle, Kevin Gross, Kevin Stevens, David McCrate, Michael Barrett, David Smith and a two-year service pin to Bill Ousterhout.

A special recognition was given to the den mothers by their boys in form of a rank pin that the boys have earned. Receiving these awards were Mrs. James Dehring, Mrs. Joseph Conklin, Mrs. Charles Gross, Mrs. Allen Barrett, Mrs. Wes Haeussler and Mrs. Larry Davies.

For a special program Mrs. Gross arranged to have Trooper Kaiser from the Jackson State Police Post come and show slides of the canine department of the State Police. Trooper Kaiser had his dog, Odie, with him and it was a very interesting and exciting program.

CHAPTER 9

Historic Threshing Pageant

About the same numer of people gathered again for the threshing on July 22, as were there for the cutting two weeks previously. However, Ed Clark had built a wire fence around the huge assembly of ancient and modern threshing equipment out in the field, which scattered the crowd over a much larger area. The 2,500 enthusiastic people packed the bleacher seats, lined the fence around the equipment and sat under the trees near the covered speaker's platform. It was a hot day and many also crowded around the refreshment tent operated by the ladies of the Grange.

The Ford Party had not arrived at the scheduled starting time for the program, but at 10:20 a.m. Pastor Edward Escolme began the usual preliminary devotional services preceding the activities. Invocation was given by Rev. Blair Bashore of the Tecumseh Baptist Church. The Scripture lesson was read by Rev. John R. Scarlett, Rector of St. Peter's Episcopal Church. Mrs. George Parsons, assisted by Clarabelle Kerr at the organ, directed the Edison Institute children from the Macon area, in singing. The service was closed with a benediction by Rev. Norman MacNaughton of the Tecumseh Methodist Church.

A few prominent guests were called on for short talks, including Rev. Worthy A. Spring, President of the Cleveland Bible College; Charles Figy, State Commissioner of Agriculture; Howard Rather, Dean of the new Basic College at Michigan State College; and Merrill C. Meigs of Chicago.

While Mr. Meigs was speaking, the Ford Party drove into the grounds, including Mr. and Mrs. Henry Ford, Henry Ford II, Frank Campsall and John W. Thompson. Excitement ran high from here on. It was truly a picturesque event, with a holiday spirit and a riot of color, as the crowd surged about from one interesting event to another. The official pageant of threshing soon got under way.

First was a demonstration of flailing the wheat, as it was threshed in Biblical days. Genuine flails from the Edison Institute were used for this part of the program. David Boyd, 80, and Eugene "Spooks" Harris, 76, swung the flails, which consisted of a long handle with short sticks fastened to the ends by leather thongs so they would strike the wheat flatly when swung. The sheaves of wheat were laid out on a canvas where the grain could be swept up when loosened from the heads.

The next step in threshing was the horse-drawn "sweep." This turned a shaft and powered the "Birdsall Separator" which was used in the preceding harvest demonstration. It was a beautiful sight to see the ten horses, each weighing at least a ton, going around and around as the dust swirled up about them.

Next in the progress of threshing was an old upright steam engine built by the Westinghouse Company in 1882. Mr. Ford seemed happy as a child with a new toy, as he pulled the whistle, turned on the steam and posed with a smile for the photographers. The old-time engine went to work as smoothly as the day it was built.

Merrill C. Meigs, and his brother, James, who was the Western Advertising Manager of the American Weekly, flew from Chicago in their own Stinson plane and landed on the Tecumseh Airport. They came to operate their old J. I. Case engine, which ran a Case Separator. Merrill climbed to the platform on the rear of the engine, and upon a signal from Perry Hayden, pulled the throttle. The ancient engine started the long belt running out to the thresher. The breeze was blowing through Meigs' hair as Henry Ford climbed to the platform with him — hanging on to his straw hat.

William Clark, Vice President of the J. I. Case Company of Racine, Wisconsin, was there to watch their out-moded equipment still able to do a good day's work.

Mr. Clark asked, "Who is paying for all this colorful show?"

"The Lord is taking care of that," explained Rev. Bashore.

Mr. Clark remarked, "I drove over here expecting to see a mechanical demonstration of some obsolete equipment, but never dreamed that I was going to see such a wholesome spirit of Americanism and community religious co-operation. The moral value of this project is amazing."

One of the features which attracted the most attention was the "Si-Ben-Jo-Bill," the miniature thresher being operated by a group of the Macon school children. Henry Ford II, who had played with this thresher when he was a boy, pulled the lever which started the steam engine turning the little separator. Small bundles of wheat were fed into the thresher. The grain came out into miniature bags and was loaded into tiny wagons.

All through the event, which resembled a cross between a Revival meeting and a day at the State Fair, "Red" Becker and his Grangers hustled about from one exhibition to the other keeping things going.

Mrs. Hayden had been released from the hospital just in time to watch the celebration from a car.

Following the threshing, the Ford party went to the modest Hayden home at 512 West Logan Street in Tecumseh. The rambling old house is surrounded by large shady maple trees which add to the atmosphere of cordial hospitality. Mrs. Hayden had supervised the dinner, prepared by Mary Jane, Martha, Betty and Grandmother Comfort, and climaxed a perfect day by sitting at the head of the table. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. Henry Ford, Henry Ford II, Merrill C. Meigs, Rev. Worthy A. Spring, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Figy, Rev. and Mrs. Edward Escolme, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Comfort and Raymond J. Jeffreys.

While discussing the future of the project at the dinner table, Perry mentioned that it would be nice to cut the 5th crop, thresh it, grind it into flour, bake biscuits on the grounds and "feed the multitudes" — all before their very eyes.

Mr. Ford's countenance beamed, "That's a great idea."

"There is a creek running through the field where we are going to plant the fifth crop, and there's a natural beauty spot of several acres with huge trees, where we can hold the ceremonies," Mr. Ford explained. "We can dam the creek and build a mill there."

The whole party was spellbound as the famed "mass production manufacturer" visualized the next celebration . . . but no one even dreamed what big things were passing through his mind.

An excellent photograph was taken of this distinguished gathering, as well as other interesting "shots of the demonstration, by the unique, nationally-known photographer, "Snap Shooter" Joe Clark of Detroit. Joe signs the following letters after his name: H.B.S.S.

"Other famous people have letters after their names," Joe laughs, "why shouldn't I?" He explained that the H.B.S.S. stands for "Hill Billy Snap Shooter."

Joe Clark is proud of his Hill Billy title. He is from the hills of Tennessee. Joe has sold more pictures of Tennessee life to national magazines than any other photographer in America. He has also been called to Hollywood as a consulting authority on scenic backgrounds for southern pictures.

The exact yield of the fourth harvest was not known for several days, because there was a great deal spilled on the ground and strewn around the many threshers on Saturday. In order to salvage as much as possible, all the chaff and loose wheat under and around the threshes was gathered up and run through a combine.

Monday, Pastor Escolome, Roland Mohr, Horace Phillips and Perry untied the 187 bags brought to the mill warehouse from the field on Saturday. After weighing the grain, they again filled and retied the bags. The wheat was "60 pound" test. It weighed 22,765 pounds which is 379 bushels and 25 pounds. This was a yield of 27.1 bushels per acre — a bumper crop which saved the experiment from failure, after the unfortunate third harvest. It was eight bushels above the state average.

When the wheat was cleaned, about 540 pounds of screenings were taken out, which meant 9 bushels. That left a total of 370 bushels and 25 pounds of good wheat. This would make the tithe amount to 37.04 bushels, leaving 333.37 bushels of seed for the fifth planting. The screenings were sold and the receipts placed in the Dynamic Kernels fund to help defray the running expenses of the experiment.

Howard Brooks, Clarence Hall and Ralph Daniels hauled the seed wheat to a good clean granary on one of the Ford farms, to be stored until planting time in the Fall.

The following Sunday, the 10% tithed portion of the wheat was taken to the Friends Church for a symbolic service. After the service a check for $52.97 was presented by Mrs. Naomi Sallows, Treasurer of the Church, to Rev. Worthy A. Spring of the Cleveland Bible College, as was done the preceding year.

Good fertilizing had produced a heavy stand of straw and when it was later baled and sold, it brought $180. Ralph Comfort handled the details of selling the straw and turned a check into the Dynamic Kernels fund for $162, after the 10% tithe had been given to the church, which further helped with the current expenses of the experiment.

The total income from the fourth harvest was thus increased to $700, which made $70 for the Lord.

CHAPTER 10

"Plowman's Folly"

The land selected by Mr. Ford and Ed Clark, his farm manager, for the planting of the fifth crop of Dynamic Kernels was near Macon. They figured that the 333.37 bushels of seed would require about 165 to 175 acres of ground, but Perry reminded them that he had been planting only a bushel of seed to the acre, which would require 333 acres.

This project has demonstrated that many eastern farmers have been planting too much seed per acre. The yield in this experiment, planting only one bushel per acre, has been about the same as the yield on farms where one and one-half or two bushels of seed have been used. Kansas farmers plant less than a bushel per acre in some places, and never more than one and one-half bushels per acre, according to a report by H. L. Collins of the United States Department of Agriculture in Topeka, Kansas.

Louis G. Hall, Lenawee County Farm Agent, says that theoretically wheat should yield 100 bushels per acre, but in reality that is impossible.

When the seed was treated for smut at the Kahlbaum Brothers' Mill at Carleton, Michigan, and cleaned again, another twelve bushels of light wheat was taken out, leaving 321 bushels of seed to be planted on the same number of acres.

The season started off with a new undreamed-of-angle which caught the imagination of farmers all over the nation.

Edward H. Faulkner of Elyira, Ohio, director of the Farm Program for the National Broadcasting Company on WTAM in Cleveland, had written a book called, "Plowman's Folly." This book advocated the elimination of plowing in favor of discing. It had attracted nation-wide attention, but there had never been a prominent demonstration to convince the farmers of the wisdom of this revolutionary theory. After all, farmers had been plowing for centuries and it was not easy to change their ways. Here was Faulkner's opportunity to demonstrate his idea in a nationally-known project, which was being followed by people all over the world.

Mr. Faulkner contacted Mr. Hayden and a conference was arranged. Edgar Clark, Vern Weber and George Parsons were delegated as a committee to meet Mr. Faulkner at the Union Station in Toledo, and bring him to Tecumseh.

"They sent all the way to Boston for that special piece of glass. Look closely, and you may see it in the east front window. From inside you can read the inscription: "In Memoriam . . ." and then his name.

Grandpa called himself "a retired handy-man." But in those days lumber was cheap and labor wasn't. So when they said "we can't afford to build a church," Grandpa disagreed.

"Get me the boards and a few strong fellows to set the beams. I'll build your church," said Grandpa!

Before he finished, there were fifty men and lots of dollars to help him. You can see why they sent all the way to Boston for a piece of glass.

Grandpa is gone. Yet the Christian who is eager to put his faith into action is still able to share God's blessings with hundreds of his neighbors . . . and posterity as well!

One of the many hats of Consumers Power — COMMUNITY PARTICIPATION

A. Frank Brewer, Division Manager, Consumers Power Jackson Division

The Consumers Power division manager has a big area to serve. But some of the ways in which he serves it may surprise you. Yes, he manages office operations. Supervises the people who perform their various jobs. Keeps a tight rein on expenses. Troubleshoots in emergencies.

It's an eight-hour day, plus. Plus Crippled Children's Society and Tuberculosis Association; plus service club and Chamber of Commerce and industrial development projects . . . plus urban problems and rural problems. Study committees, civic projects, advisory groups — all have a claim on this man's time.

The division manager is on the move, participating in community affairs, representing Consumers Power as a good citizen and neighbor. His example is followed by many other Consumers Power people, too. Besides working at their jobs, they work in their communities to help make them better places in which to live.

It's all part of the high standards of service that Consumers Power sets for its people. Plus the recognition of an old truth: what's good for the community is good for the businesses in it.

A&P Let's talk about budgets!

Budgeting is tough these days.
It seems that every time you turn around the cost of something is going up.
The economists tell us it's to be expected.
Maybe so, but it sure makes running a home difficult.

We wish we could tell you that A&P has the answer to all your difficulties, but we can't...no store can.
We can tell you this:

There is one guaranteed way to cut your food bill without sacrificing quality; buy A&P's own brands.
Hold it...don't scoff...we're serious.
We don't have our own private national brands
just to have low prices.
If it isn't a quality product, it can't carry the A&P Seal.
Take A&P Brand Canned or Frozen Vegetables for example.
They're GRADE "A"...you can't buy better.

If you buy A&P Brands,
we guarantee you'll reduce your total food bill.
We also guarantee you'll be pleased with every A&P product you buy...unconditionally.

A SECTION OF THE TECUMSEH HERALD
EDITOR — MAXINE CALHOUN

Friends and relatives are invited to attend an open house Sunday, March 9, from 2 to 4, when Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Swanston of Macon will be honored on the occasion of their 35th wedding anniversary. The event will be held at the Tecumseh Grange Hall located on Milwaukee Rd. Hosts will be their children, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald (Karen) Miller, Mr. and Mrs. John William Swanston, and Mr. and Mrs. Paul (Sylvia) Schafer, all of Tecumseh. Thomas Swanston and Eunice Harwood were married on March 10, 1934, by Rev. Edward Escolme at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Harwood. Mr. Swanston was originally from Ireland and came to Tecumseh in 1930. They have lived in the area all but two years since their marriage. They have seven grandchildren. The couple asks that gifts be omitted.

Yen for Art? Visit Library

CLINTON — The Clinton Township Library has on display 21 newly-purchased reproductions of famous oil paintings. The pictures are framed and may be borrowed, two to a family, for a period of two months. There is a variety to appeal to many artistic tastes.

The former group of paintings which have been on loan at the library for a long time, will now be offered for sale, according to the librarian, Mrs. Janet Welch.

See Washington Through Lenses

CLINTON — The March 12 meeting of the Clinton Woman's Club has been changed to an evening meeting at 8 p.m., in Lyster Hall, with husbands and guests invited.

Joseph R. O'Donnell, former photographer for the U. S. Information Agency, Washington, D. C., will present the illustrated program, "Washington Reminiscences."

Mr. O'Donnell is the son-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. Hans Schmidt. He and his wife, Ellen, recently moved to Clinton.

The club business meeting will be held at 7:30 p.m.

Mary Marthas Plan To Welcome Spring

CLINTON — A Welcome Spring Breakfast Social was planned for March 20 at a meeting of the Mary Martha Class of the United Church of Christ, Monday night. Mrs. Robert Vogel will host the breakfast at her home at 10 a.m. Proceeds will be used for the choir robe fund benefit.

The group also planned to host a coffee hour following the morning worship service, March 16, and members of the congregation will be taken on a tour of the church school rooms to show the work of redecoration which is being done there. Mrs. Charles Steffens is chairman of the coffee hour.

Announcement was made of the Women's Fellowship meeting for March 27, which will be a 125th commemorative meeting, with a luncheon scheduled for 12:30 p.m. A program marking the church's anniversary and recalling the history of the Fellowship organization, is being arranged by Mrs. Linn Weaver and Mrs. Lina Stewart. Members are being asked to come to the meeting in old-fashioned dresses or wearing some bit of antique jewelry or millinery.

Mrs. Robert King presented the devotional study from the Study of Matthew.

A swap shop auction, conducted by Mrs. Donald Corwin, the president, realized $9.50 for the choir robe fund.

The April 7 meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. William Kaiser.

Green-tinted whipped cream topped the dessert, served by Mrs. Milton Grossman and Mrs. Ben Mahrle, II, and St. Patrick's napkins set the theme.

Retarded children at the Lenawee Institute find many meaningful experiences each day. The purpose of the school is to train children to live meaningful, expressive lives. These children must often be taught simple social graces and community living. The facilities at the Lenawee Institute vary from the most modern to an early nineteen hundred barn which lends itself to the wide scope of the training program.

Firemen Hopping With Grass Fires

CLINTON — Seven grass fires kept Clinton Firemen hopping since last Wednesday.

Four of the fires got out of control when property owners set fires to burn off stubble fields: Wednesday, at the Gary Korte farm on Hack Rd.; Saturday night at the Ray Bellmore farm on Arkona Rd.; Sunday afternoon at the Charles McCalpin farm on Able Rd. and Monday car fire on US-12.

Two fires started accidentally when trash burners in the vicinity ignited the grass, spreading the fire out of control: Saturday afternoon at the Russell H. Miller farm on Tipton Hwy.; Sunday afternoon on fields north of the John Underwood Bonanza lot, on Sheridan Rd.

Monday afternoon there was a grass fire at the farm of Mrs. Roy Haft. Minor fires, Tuesday, included a fire at the Village dump at noon, and a grass fire at the corner of Hogan Hwy. and Taylor Rd., at 10 p.m. Firemen were at the Donald Everett farm on Pennington Rd. from 3:30 a.m. Tuesday until 8 a.m., where a garden produce shed burned.

Clinton Fire Department trucks and equipment was moved Sunday to the vacant plant, formerly occupied by Budd Co. on Tecumseh-Clinton Rd. Work was to begin this week on demolishing the present fire barn and adjacent service station, in preparation for construction of a new fire barn.

DISTRICT CAMPIONS — Although a loss to River Rouge Tuesday night has taken some of the luster off the Tecumseh Indians' tourney windup, the Indians were jubilant here in receiving their trophy after edging Willow Run Saturday night in the district finals at Saline. Accepting the trophy are Jim Hunt (50) and John Kennedy (20), co-captains and sparkplugs in the THS win over the Flyers. Coach Vic Lawson, down front, outsmarted WR for the upset victory by having the Indians play a deliberate game.

MARRIED LESS THAN ONE YEAR

Donald Rudd Killed in Vietnam Battle

Naval Corpsman Donald Rudd, 23, husband of the former Connie Schneider and son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Rudd, was killed March 3 in combat in Vietnam.

Personal calls from the Navy to the families were made last Friday evening, and confirmation via telegram followed Monday night. He is the third Tecumseh youth to die in battle in the Far East in the past three years.

Death occurred in his final year of service to his country. He enlisted in January 1966 and was due for discharge in January 1970 and probably before. It also ended a short married life, one which started just last June 14 when he and the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Schneider were married.

Families know little — if anything — as to the particulars of his death. Only information released so far indicates he was killed while attending a wounded soldier during a skirmish with the Viet Cong.

His wife Tuesday morning expressed hopes of receiving information soon from his commanding officer as to how he died, and from the Navy as to when he will be brought home for burial.

Usually, war casualties are flown home within 10 days or two weeks after being killed. When this occurs for the Corpsman, a military service will be held at St. Elizabeth Catholic Church and interment will be made in Brookside Cemetery.

Don Rudd was born Jan. 25, 1946 in Meadsville, Pa. He was brought to Tecumseh by his family after his father became associated with the button factory, former business at what is now the Tecumseh Center.

He graduated from Tecumseh High School in 1963. After attending Michigan State University for a while, he worked at the Tecumseh Products. Just before his enlistment in 1966, he had returned to MSU for a term.

After his induction, he was stationed at Great Lakes and then went to a base in Boston. At both of these Naval stations, he took medical training. He later spent 15 months on Guam, and took additional training and became attached with the Marines — an outfit which he was serving with at the time he was killed.

DONALD RUDD

Last fall, his father became seriously stricken with heart trouble, and he was home on leave for approximately five weeks. Service rendered in the intensive care ward at Herrick Memorial Hospital is said to have saved his father's life — and because of this, his wife and family have asked any contributions in Don's remembrance, be made to the local Heart Fund.

Shortly before Christmas, 1968, he returned to active duty and was in Da Nang on Christmas Day.

Survivors include his wife, a Registered Nurse for the Detroit Association of Visiting Nurses and who lived shortly with her husband at Highland Park; his parents: a twin sister, Mrs. Norman Stein; two other sisters, Mrs. George Heeman and Ruth Rudd; two brothers, Thomas and Richard; and seven nieces and nephews.

James Bush Wins Award

James Bush, son of Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Bush, was the first winner of a $75 scholarship to a music camp of his choice, at the competitive program of the Junior Music Makers for Tecumseh Music Club, Tuesday, at Gloria Dei Church.

Carol Ann Christman, and Patti Mannino were chosen as first and second alternates, respectively.

Others who participated in the competition are Diane Mannino, Mary Ann Bush and Paula Brantingham.

Notices Due This Week

Assessment notices to property owners in Tecumseh were expected to be in the mail Wednesday or Thursday, according to Robert Hamden, city assessor.

These assessments will include an average 10% increase for approximately 70% to 80% home owners in town, and some hikes will be up to 20%. Increases, brought about by inflation and greater house values, will add approximately $1.5 million in assessed evaluation from residential property alone.

Property owners, dissatisfied with new assessments, will have opportunities to be heard before the Board of Review on Monday, March 24, at City Hall.

4th Tecumseh Box Expansion

The fourth expansion in just six years will take place this spring for Tecumseh Corrugated Box with a plastic division in the former Brown Manufacturing Company building in Adrian.

James Robideau, company president, says negotiations were underway for sometime for the Adrian facility and finally completed Tuesday. Operations in the 20,000-sq.-ft. plant are expected to start by mid-April with an employment of about 20 — eventual employment of 50 or more is probable.

"A plastic division is being set up to complement our corrugated shipping container product line," explains Mr. Robideau. The local plant is a large supplier of many local industries of corrugated box shipping containers.

In the beginning, the new plant will produce two types of plastic packaging materials: polystyrene foam to be specially molded for specific articles or blocks to replace built-up corrugated parts; the Palaspan Pack (trade name for Dow Chemical Co.), shredded-type plastic to replace excelsior, die cut boards and other similar materials for loose-fill packaging material.

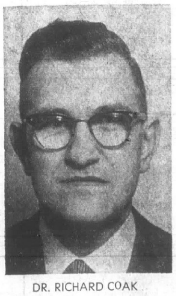
Tecumseh Box will be the exclusive Michigan distributor for Palaspan Pac.

Present plans call for the division to produce a plastic block, 22 feet by 49 inches by 16 inches, which will then be cut into various required sizes for uses in shipping containers.

Merrill A. Becht, Port Huron, will be the new manager. He has 25 years in packaging and related fields, including 15 years in foam plastic.

He has a chemical engineering degree, advance study in chemistry and business administration, plus a Ph.D. He, his wife and two children will live in Adrian.

Since establishing Tecumseh Corrugated Box here six years ago, the company has new plants at Van Wert, Jate and Cleveland, all in Ohio. At one time, the company planned an expansion program here but was turned down by Council and the Board of Appeals, when its plans did not conform with city zoning.



DR. RICHARD COAK

Dr. R. D. Coak Is Ending Practice

Dr. Richard D. Coak, Tecumseh physician for the past 12 years, has announced plans to limit his practice exclusively to anesthesia after April 15.

He has informed his patients by letter that his office practice will end and has urged families to select other local physicians.

I'm retiring from private practice, he says, "I have found increasing interest and have had training in the field of anesthesia which has been challenging. With progressively increasing amounts of my time required in this area, I find I am unable to devote adequate time to the remainder of my practice."

Dr. Coak's plans leave Tecumseh and this immediate area in a somewhat critical shortage of physicians. He points this out in his letter and asks anyone acquainted with a physician who might be a candidate for moving to this area, to contact him.

Chamber Total Nears 70 Mark

Tecumseh's Chamber of Commerce is realizing its biggest growth in years this winter with 69 subscribers aready reported for 1969 — a total which could be increased considerably after the Chamber's banquet at the Country Club on March 27.

Delbert King, Chamber president, reports 11 new members have signed up in the past two weeks and indicates that several more are likely within the next few days.

Chamber officials are anticipating a large turnout for the banquet and report ticket sales of over 40. These tickets may be purchased at the United Savings Bank from Mary Bowers or Arnold Sayler, both Chamber directors or at Flanders Music and Cal's Tog Shop.

Directors having tickets also include Betty Flanders, Cal Damon, Joe Hayden, Dave Criss, Charles Buhrman and Sally Hunt.

He will also conduct a question-answer period about a Chamber's function, problems and other related factors for a community the size of Tecumseh.

Reservation deadline for the banquet is Monday, March 24.

Timmy Rutherford, 11, reaching over to pick up his bike after leaving Gregory's Barber Shop, corner of E. Chicago and Ottawa, happened to glance between an opening of the building and a fence and discovered the balance of the loot taken two weeks ago when burglars went on a spree here.

Discovered behind the building were rifles and power saws taken from Baldwin Hardware. Rest of the stolen merchandise—mainly TVs and electric guitars from Flanders Music — were found the week before in a field just off a road north of Tecumseh.

Two Agreements Now Coincide

A proposal from Dee Stucker, owner of Lenawee Disposal and its landfill on N. Ogden Hwy., near Adrian to have the industrial and commercial usage agreement to coincide with the residential was approved by Council last week.

The industrial pact originally was for a three-month trial period. No increase in cost was requested.

Vera Zornow, city clerk, reported that only 300 residential permits for the dump have been taken out. The permit cards are free and may be obtained from her at City Hall.

Supervisor Vote Rejects Mental Health, 11 to 10

By BILL SANFORD

The trumpets of dissent sounded, the charge enveloped. The dome of the court house in Adrian rocked in response to the ludicrous comedy beneath. The stage had been set for the show of strength of forces seeking a mental health program for Lenawee County. Instead one supervisor from Adrian submitted three motions, all on the floor at the same time.

Russell Roback, Adrian Democrat, rose and stated that the board should accept a proposal offered earlier which asked for no money from the county coffers. The Rev. G. Todd Roberts, representing the Mental Health Board, leaped to his feet to reiterate a compromise which he had offered the supervisors earlier.

The Rev. Roberts had stated the Board of Supervisors could channel present funds for Huron Valley Child Guidance Clinic thru the Mental Health Board. These funds would satisfy the state requirements for funds from local supervisors. He also stated that private citizens had contributed $9,000 toward instituting the program.

These figures would satisfy the state law thru the present state budget, of which the figures for state participation are necessary. He also asked that two supervisors be appointed to the MHB as soon as legally possible.

The main body of the dissenting supervisors sat silent, while the comedy of errors was enacted. At last month's regular meeting of the supervisors, a proposal by the Mental Health Board asking for $9,000 for the initial budget, needed to coincide with state law, for a program costing $125,000 in taxpayers' money. The board returned the proposal to the Ways and Means Committee which had met briefly in February and considered the new expenditures too much for an already overburdened budget.

Several other items of parliamentary guff were sought; Hugh Fiippo, another of the Adrian Democrats, sought a public participation in debate over the issue. The supervisors' room was packed for the morning session.

The chair, in the person of Merrill Hull, banged the gavel, saying that it was not an open meeting and that unless the chair gave permission the public could not embark upon a discourse in legislative affairs.

By a vote of 11-10, the passage of a mental health plan for Lenawee was defeated Wednesday afternoon at the Board of Supervisors. Only three votes changed after a strenuous campaign to put pressure on supervisors to do so.

Area votes were: against, Fay Whelan, William Mackey, M. M. Halley, Ron Brown, Stacy Zilke and for: T. J. Wagner.

New Diner Is Ready

The Diner, at 114½ W. Logan, has reopened after being rebuilt and redecorated at the location beside the parking lot area behind Gambles.

There'll be a reopening celebration on St. Patrick's Day, Monday, from 2 to 7 p.m.

Mr. and Mrs. David Mack, 5340 E. Monroe Rd., have operated the restaurant at that location for 16 years. Their four children, all married and away from home now, each worked in the family business throughout their growing-up years.

The reconstruction project was accomplished over the past several months by utilizing an adjacent garage, then tearing down the original Diner building. The business was closed for only three days in the process.

Dick Eggleston Heading Group

Richard Eggleston, member of Planning Commission, was appointed Tuesday night to head a committee to investigate avenues of financing off-street parking developments.

Cal Zorn, city manager, offered to work with the committee and has suggested the possibility of special assessments.

Jane Ann Iffland and LaVerne Charles Stites exchanged marriage vows Saturday evening in St. Paul's Lutheran Church in Blissfield. The Rev. Vernon DeVantier officiated at the double ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Iffland of Blissfield. Parents of the groom are Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Stites, 1954 Russell Rd.

The bride approached the altar on the arm of her father wearing a floor length gown designed with a full Victorian pennier skirt that revealed tiers of lace. The bodice was fashioned of sequined Chantilace which formed the scalloped Sabrina neckline. Her elbow length veil of illusion was caught to a rose with forward Chantilace petals.

Mrs. Nicholas Thompson was the soloist. She was accompanied by the organist, Mrs. Melvin Rodesiler.

Janet Iffland was her sister's maid of honor. She wore an empire gown of mint green. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Larry Iffland of Blissfield, sisters-in-law of the bride, and Kathy Demusky of Riga.

Maryanne Krahn of Blissfield, cousin of the bride, was a junior bridesmaid. They wore empire gowns of maize.

Connie and Bonnie Iffland, nieces of the bride, were flower girls. They wore gowns of mint green.

The groom chose his brother, Jimmy Stites of Adrian, to serve as best man. Thomas Ruff, brother-in-law of the groom, and Gary Dunham of Britton were ushers. Allen Stites, brother of the groom, was junior usher.

After the ceremony a reception was held at the church for 200 guests.

The bridegroom's parents entertained at a rehearsal dinner at their home Friday evening.

High-cost resistant rootworm insecticides don't make sense for Michigan corn

All you need is low-cost aldrin. Why? Because there is no resistant rootworm problem in this state. But this doesn't mean that the rest of the soil insect complex (including rootworms) can't cause you serious losses in your corn.

On unprotected land, cutworms can cut your profits by $11.50 per acre, grape colaspis by $7.00 and wireworms by $4.00 (Based on 100 bushels/acre @ $1.00/bushel.)

You can keep your crop out of this kind of trouble with a single application of aldrin. Year after year on millions of acres of cornland, aldrin has proved that it can make a profit in nine out of 10 fields—over and above its cost. In the tenth field, the grower will break even.

This year, don't buy a high-cost resistant rootworm insecticide to control a problem you don't even have. Go it alone with low-cost aldrin. Order your supply today.

VOICE of THE HERALD

Good Man is Gone

One of Tecumseh's great men was laid to rest Saturday in Brookside Cemetery. His deeds were not of a monumental nature, he was not large in stature, but he had the biggest heart.

During his eulogy, the Rev. Blair Bashore said, "You are remembering the many small kindnesses that Floyd Bryan did for you. I don't have to enumerate but people have told me." And they did remember — the quick, ready smile of their friend because he made friends wherever he was. They remembered the rides to town, to the club meeting, to church and Sunday School and the patient waiting while they finished their business. They remembered, too, that people were always welcome at the Bryans, those who needed a home for the rest of their lives or just the little guy across the street who needed lovin' and a cookie.

"I don't think he ever had an unkind thought," was the tribute his wife made once during the day as she talked with the multitude of friends gathered to pay their last respects.

Certainly it seems an understatement to say that he will be greatly missed.

Mrs. Randall is 90 Years Young

Mrs. Mark Randall will observe a 90th birthday anniversary Sunday, March 16.

Addie Randall has lived at the White Nursing Home since December. She was born in Lenawee County, and has lived in the Macon area all her life.

Her parents were Martin and Catherine Hendershot. Her grandfather, Michael Hendershot, was reported to be the first stage coach driver from Saline to Brooklyn, down the La Plaisance Trail (M-50).

She has two children, Leland Randall, 213 N. Maumee, and Mrs. Ben Hammack, Sr., 305 W. Chicago Blvd. There are five grandchildren, 13 great-grandchildren, and one great-great-grandson.

Mrs. Randall and her husband lived on a farm near Macon, and in later years, Mr. Randall was employed at the Tecumseh Products until his death in 1952.

She's able to be about, although her eyesight is failing.

A family party, will be held Sunday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Hammack, where it is expected there will be a gathering of five generations.

Youngsters To Be Tested

Vision and hearing screening tests are available again this year to pre-school children, but unlike past years, parents will not receive such information via mail, due to postal costs.

These tests, required by law, are sponsored by Lenawee County Medical Society, County Health Department and Michigan Department of Public Health. Children from three and a half to kindergarten age are checked.

The screenings, to uncover eye and ear defects, will be conducted in April, May and June in clinics throughout the county. Application forms will be distributed through the schools and at pre-kindergarten round-ups.

The screenings are free of charge.

Fluoride Offered To Youngsters

Topical applications of sodium fluoride will again be offered to Lenawee County children this summer, according to Mrs. Roger Richards, chairman of the Lenawee Dental Health Committee.

Parents who wish to have their children enrolled in this summer's topical fluoride program had until March 12 to fill out an application blank.

Letters and forms were sent home from school with the child in the eligible grades. All three or four-year-old, kindergarten, second, fifth or eighth grades are eligible.

If you did not receive a registration card, one can contact Mrs. Richards in Adrian by phone (263-9615), or call your school office.

A fee of $3 for the first child and $2 for each additional child to cover the cost of operating the clinic must be submitted along with the registration card.

Tecumseh clinic will be held during the summer, and parents will be mailed an appointment card about 2 weeks prior to their child's appointment at the clinic.

Council Agrees

Council agreed to a compromise pact last week with Dean Cunningham, of Ayling-Cunningham Asphalt and Paving, in completing the development of Indian Hills Subdivision.

Since the subdivision was approved some 12 years ago, a contractor is not required to put in bituminous concrete or asphalt streets. There are still two streets to be developed.

In lieu of seal coating the streets, Mr. Cunningham offered to install asphalt and pay $1 a lineal foot for concrete curb and gutter on the north side of Sutton St., which adjoins the Tecumseh Acres School property.

Council agreed to the plan and also to pick up the balance of the tab — estimated to run less than $1,000 — rather than have the schools pay the cost.

Accepts Position

Russell Hyatt, 6671 Mill Hwy., has accepted a position with Thetford Engineering Company of Ann Arbor and Dexter. He will work in purchasing and expediting.

Mr. Hyatt has been an employee of the Tecumseh Products Co. for the last 14 years. He was an inter-plant Expediter for 11 years and in material control for the last three years.

Mrs. Hyatt also works for the same company in the Ann Arbor office. The couple have three children, Carrie Sue, Janie and Michael.

Mr. Hyatt was honored by his friends in the Products plant with a party his last day of work there.

NEW AREA CENTER — Architects have released the drawing of the new Area Vocational-Technical Training Center to be located on M-52 north of Adrian. Construction should be completed by August 1970.

Vo-Ed Construction Beginning in July

The long-awaited completion of plans for the Vocational-Technical Education Center have been completed by Sanborn, Steketee, Otis and Evans, Toledo architects. Construction on the $2.5 million complex is expected to begin July 1. Tentative completion date is for sometime in August of 1970.

The building will be a single level structure with nearly two acres of floor space for rooms of instruction in 20 to 25 occupational areas. Also included in the architectural plans will be administrative offices, student lounges and group instruction facilities.

The firm, in their plans, created a flexible design that will feature "demountable" partitions which can be moved to other locations if and when the curriculum is expanded to accommodate additional programs.

The floor plan allows 85% utilization by education-instructional functions, about 10% higher than the normal ration in most school buildings.

The new education facility will be located north of Adrian on M-52 adjacent to the Girls Training School on a parcel of 40 acres of land.

Letters to the Editor

TO THE EDITOR:

I am writing in response to the communication over the signature of Michael W. Murphy in the Thursday, March 6, issue of The Herald.

I recommended Mr. Schultz to Mr. Hart and Mr. Brazee on the basis of several testimonials from school administrators over the country highly commending his presentations.

I have no desire to criticize Michael Murphy for his observations, for certainly he is entitled to his interpretations; however, am concerned that Mr. Hart and Mrs. Brazee be absolved of censure in this case.

If an apology is in order it should come from me and not from them.

Sincerely,
Rev. Paul Brantingham.

Tories Lose

Luck ran out on the Britton Tory basketball team last Friday when the Sand Creek Aggies defeated the Britton boys, 65-63. Twice before in the season the Tories had set back the charges from the southern county school.

Twice in the closing seconds of the game the Tories had a crack at tossing in the tieing basket. Once the ball was stolen in their own territory and two layups under the nets missed the mark.

Britton started the game off with a head start going 6 points up, 6-0, before the Aggies could untrack. Then the Sand Creek five poured six field goals through the hoop to push ahead 12-6, halfway through the first period. By the time the buzzer sounded the Aggies led by ten, 22-12.

Influenza had most of the starting team for Britton in its grips through the week and it showed in the first period, the boys were slow responding to the running of Sand Creek.

In the second period the Tories came to life and narrowed the lead to five by the end of the first half. The Tories this season had been down before in the early quarters and had come back to take the victories. Friday was different.

The Tories kept pace with the Aggies through the third period. In the fourth period the Tories led briefly 53-52. Sand Creek came back with a three-point play and kept the Tories at bay until midway through the final stanza when they managed to tie the game but were unable to push the lead points through the nets. At the end of the third period Britton trailed by three.

The Tories managed to outscore Sand Creek through three periods, but that first period explosion by the Aggies proved too much and the Tories suffered their first loss of the season and went home to pack the gear away until next year with a brilliant 18-1 record, but that one loss came on the worst night of the year.

Last Wednesday the Tories picked up No. 18 against Adrian Catholic Central, 56-39.

It was not only an emotion-charged game, like any other tournament game for the young men on the court, but also from the standpoint of Adrian CC, more so, it was the last game of the season, and the last basketball game in the history of the school.

Mounting the two factors, the game had its moments. The Tories played a confident, poised game and easily handed the Fighting Irish their last defeat.

Rick Maska led the team against the Irish with a fine 21 point effort. Jim Skelton tallied 14 and Dave Fairbanks 11 to aid the cause. Against Sand Creek, Dave Fairbanks tossed in 15 to lead the Tories and Jim Skelton 13, and Jim Brown 11.

Tecumseh Indians Cop District Class B Crown

Coach Vic Lawson's Indians pulled the biggest upset of the season Saturday night with a 54-50 victory over Willow Run in district tournament finals at Saline.

Just about three weeks ago, the Flyers had completely outclassed Tecumseh, 68-54, and there was little hope that the Indians could grab the top tourney trophy.

After one period of play, WR indicated that another win over the Indians was in the bag. The Flyers had rolled to a 15-9 lead. Tecumseh then whittled away at the lead, tied the game and then left the floor at half ahead by one point.

The Indians stretched this lead to four points at the end of three quarters, only to have the Flyers come back and go ahead by four points with less than two minutes to play in the final quarter.

Jim Hunt, top scorer for both teams with 23 points, closed the gap to two points with a lay-up. John Kennedy, who turned in one of his best games, was then fouled and Tecumseh's co-captain made both of a one-and-one situation to send the game into overtime.

JOHN KENNEDY

Midway through the three-minute overtime, Kennedy scored a goal on a drive, then followed it up with two free throws, again on a one-and-one situation. WR had a chance with just seconds left, but missed at the foul line. Hunt picked off the rebound and was fouled. He sank two free throws and the ball game was over.

Tecumseh's deliberate play undoubtedly threw the Flyers off stride and accounted for the low scoring game. Although the Indians slowed the game down, time after time Lawson's club drove through the WR defense for easy buckets, something the Indians were unable to do here last month.

In winning, it was easily Tecumseh's finest game of the season. Although posting a disappointing 7-11 record, the Indians were often the hard-luck team, losing in the final minutes and once in the last second.

If the Indians had put their games together earlier in the season, they would have been contenders for the Huron League crown.

Eidson Speaker At Rotary Session

George Eidson, coordinator of Special Education for Lenawee County, was the speaker at the Rotary meeting Tuesday evening.

He emphasized his talk by the use of pictures of children already in the county program.

Next week's meeting has been cancelled in lieu of the Quad-City meeting of Clinton, Tecumseh, Adrian and Blissfield, to be held at the Moose Hall in Adrian Thursday, March 20.

Dinner will be served at 7 p.m., following a cocktail hour.

Music will be furnished by the River Rats.

Director Named

Charles H. Mensing became director of purchases at the Tecumseh Products Co., replacing Chester E. Damuth, recently retired after 17 years of employment there.

Raymond Stockinger assumed the position of director of material control, reporting to Mr. Mensing.

Mr. Damuth and his wife went to Florida for a vacation.

He was honored by 250 friends at a party at the Tecumseh Country Club and was presented a set of matched luggage, before the couple left.

Senior Citizens Enjoy New Games

The new table games at the Community Center were enjoyed by 35 Senior Citizens Thursday at their Drop-In meeting.

Election of officers will be held March 13. Present officers urge that everyone interested come and participate at the meeting and in games following.

Nina Kief and Purnell Osburn served assorted rolls, team and coffee for refreshments.

Opal Bandy and Blanche Halberstadt will be the hostesses for the next meeting.

Indians Lose

Tecumseh met the state's best in Class B basketball Tuesday and came out on the short end of an 86-62 final. The Indians put up a valiant effort against a taller River Rouge quintet.

The scoring for Tecumseh was spread out against the downriver perennial state champs. The early period spelled doom as Rouge broke off to a 14-3 lead before the Tribe could find its bearings in Trenton High School auditorium.

Tecumseh came back in the closing minutes of the first quarter to leave the floor trailing, 24-12.

During the second period the Tribe kept pace with the Rougemen but still could not hold their ground, to give a chance for a repeat of their efforts against Willow Run last Saturday.

It was the final game this year for the Indians. The season which was disappointing, received a big boost in the district win. A repeat showing and Rouge might well have suffered a big blow.

Tecumseh players hit well from both the field and the foul line against River Rouge.

50 Years Since Post Founding

The Underwood-Orr Post No. 34 of the American Legion and the Auxiliary will celebrate the 50th anniversary of its founding at an annual dinner to be held March 15 in the Post Home at 7 p.m.

Tecumseh veterans of World War I formed the organization in July 1919 in meeting rooms of the Grange, located above the present Des Ermias Furniture Store.

Perry Satterthwaite and Jack Smith were among the enthusiastic group who elected the late Dr. H. H. Hammel as the first commander.

Others elected to office at that original meeting were:

Vice Commander — Louis Schneider

Adjutant — R. K. Anderson

Finance Officer — Karl A. Braman

Executive Committee — John Clark of Clinton, Perry Satterthwaite, Kenneth Pennington, Macon.

Al Hammond and the late Charles Hanna and H. H. Hanna was also present at the meeting when the name was selected honoring David Underwood of Ridgeway and Wilford A. Orr, both members of the 32nd Division who paid the supreme sacrifice for the country.

Posts were being organized throughout the nation by men coming home following the founding of the first American Legion in Paris March 15-17, 1919. Frequently they were named in tribute to fallen heroes.

In keeping with the national custom, an Auxiliary was organized here in 1921 to assist the Post. Mrs. Louis Schneider was the first president. Other officers were:

Vice President — Mrs. Fred Marsh

Secretary — Kathryn Reed

Treasurer — Naomi Horn

Historian — Mrs. Karl Braman

Chaplain — Mrs. E. M. Bowen

Among the many projects of the local Legionaires is the sponsorship of Wolverine Boys State each year.

For some time, the local organization with the cooperation of businesses, individuals and other groups have sent more boys to the Michigan State University campus for the summer American citizenship activity than any other Post in the state.

Don Maves, chairman, has arranged for 18 boys to attend this summer.

The Tecumseh Police Department is sponsoring a boy for the first time this year using funds from the Policemen's Ball. The Jaycee Follies provided the Jaycees with money to sponsor their candidates. The boys and the sponsors are:

Marc Brown, Paul Burns, Bruce Costigan, Lee Dollison, William Gibson, Jack Greenfield, Paul Hamilton, Russell Johnson, James Kane.

Sponsors: Tecumseh Products, Tuttle Co., Exchange Club, Jaycees, United Savings Bank, Rotary Club, Chamber of Commerce, General Telephone Co., United Products Workers, Tecumseh Police Department, American Legion, Schneider Bros. Chevy-Buick, Business and Professional Women.

The late Louis Schneider was a staunch supporter of the Legion, local, state and national. Through his efforts the Underwood-Orr Post raised the number of young men they send to Wolverine Boys State from one or two to 20 or more. He is pictured leading the annual Memorial Day parade as marshal, a duty he assumed for many years. An able child welfare chairman, Mr. Schneider was responsible for the many awards received here by the local post.

She said the war was a bloodless battle over which state would own the land which is now Toledo. She was assisted by Mrs. Purnell Osburn who spoke of humorous facts about schools and teachers of her school days.

Mrs. Duaine Service spoke of outstanding women of Tecumseh and their good deeds. Mrs. Service also presented the devotions.

Through My Window

PLEASE BEWARE OF MARCH

I never did trust March. It is fickle, perverse, and at times just downright ornery. One day can be sunny and warm, promising every type of springtime goodness, but overnight everything can change and well, we all know too much about March blizzards and snowstorms. The flip-flop weather presents a quandary, do I discuss spring happenings or winter goings on? One thing for sure is that whichever I do March is bound to pull a double-cross.

Unfortunately — and I mean this only in the context that my mentioning them will probably bring a blizzard — but anyway, most of the action lately has been of a forward looking type.

For example, the 24th of February brought the first report of geese traveling north. On his way home from work, the General saw them. And on the first of March, Ella called with the exciting news that she had just seen a flock.

We must keep our ears open for more than just the happy twitter of the song sparrow, the cheery whistle of the cardinals, and the raucous rattle of the kingfisher.

Although I seldom see any of these distinctive V-shape formations, the geese occasionally fly low enough so that I can hear their marvelous honking. I say marvelous because to me there are few things which stir the imagination the way wild geese talk does.

DID I CAUSE any raised eyebrows by the mention of a kingfisher? They are back, since almost the middle of last month there has been one patroling the creek.

Usually the first kingfisher sighting of the year, or as far as that goes any kingfisher sighting, is prompted either by hearing that loud call or simply glancing out a window and seeing a big blue and white bird perched on a limb.

This year, however, everything is different, including the kingfisher's first appearance.

It happened on one of those deliciously warm afternoons and I was suffering with an acute case of much too early spring fever. Instead of attacking the pile of letters which were waiting patiently to be answered, I found it much easier to just look up the creek and daydream.

Suddenly I was shocked back to awareness and just as suddenly what started to be a cry of alarm became a laugh. I had seen something blue fall into the creek and in that split second before 'the light dawned', I was wondering what in the world Gertie T. could do to rescue a bluejay who had an unplanned dunking?

Well, of course, it was not a bluejay at all, neither was it an accidental fall which I had seen — it was a kingfisher. A kingfisher who had taken a very well calculated dive. A well executed and successful one, too, because when she reappeared, there was a small silvery minnow securely held in her over-sized bill.

I am calling our kingfisher 'she' because on the next appearance we had an excellent close-up look and, even without the aid of binoculars, that distinctive breast stripe was clearly visible.

BOTH MALE and female wear the blueish-grey band across the top of their whitish front, but, surprisingly enough, the ladies of the family also show a rufous stripe slightly below the blue mark.

This rufous stripe is almost like an unbuttoned vest, a little of the color shows along her sides and then, when it starts across her breast, it is seldom a solid band.

Our third kingfisher 'look' was an excellent back view. She was high-balling up the creek and I'm always amazed at how fast these birds fly when they put their mind to it. She was certainly in a hurry this day but even so we had a good look at what an extremely pretty blue she was. It was not the bright gaudy bluejay blue but was instead a lush dusty grayish blue. Lovely.

So it is that although nothing would make me happier than sailing through the rest of this month with warm weather and bright sunny days, I simply do not have that much faith and all of this pre-springtime activity prompts me to warn the early birds, "Please beware of March!"

NEXT WEEK:

"Sirens and Songs."

GM Employee Offers Company Suggestions

George Winn, of Hudson, Suggestion Plan Investigator, discusses with Tom Allor, a resident of Onsted and a Toolmaker at the Fisher Body-Tecumseh Plant, some finer points contained in a recent suggestion.

Since his employment at the plant in 1965, Mr. Allor has averaged over 50 suggestions per year and has submitted eight thus far in 1969, which are being investigated for possible adoption under the provisions of the GM Suggestion Plan Program.

Although Mr. Allor hasn't hit the maximum award of $10,000 provided for in the plan, he has received many extra cash and bond awards for his accepted and implemented suggestions.

Because of his outstanding participation in the Suggestion Plan Activity, Tom was designated the 1963 "Suggester of the Year," which earned him a $100 United States Savings Bond under the local plant provisions in the Suggestion Program.

In 1963 at Fisher Body-Tecumseh, 430 awards were earned by successful hourly and salaried employe suggesters for a total of $17,293.89.

In Seabees

Equipment Operator Construction Apprentice Larry M. Brockway, USN, son of Mrs. Gloria Kerr of 12995 Mull Rd., Tipton, is attending Equipment Operator's School at Naval Construction Schools, Port Hueneme, Calif.

The West Coast Seabee school turns out a corps of skilled craftsmen and constructionmen who form the backbone of the Navy's Mobile Construction Battalions now engaged in vital front-line construction in support of U. S. and Allied combat forces in South Vietnam.

The wide variety of construction skills taught at the Seabee school is comparable to those offered at trade and vocational schools across the nation. The Navy Seabee can perform any construction task as that of a comparable civilian trade, but under combat conditions.

Tri-County Event

Lenawee County, along with Monroe and Washtenaw Counties, conducted a Tri-County Horse Judging Event Saturday, Feb. 22, 1969. Each county sent participants from each of their 4-H Horse Clubs. Lenawee County has 14 Horse Clubs.

The participants from all three counties met at the Washtenaw County Fairgrounds Saturday at 9 a.m., where they received their instructions for the day. From there they went as a caravan to different horse stables in the area, where they observed and judged different breeds of horses. Each participant took their own individual notes and judged the horses as they thought they should be placed. After the tour of the stables, the group returned to the Washtenaw Fairgrounds to study their notes and then give their oral reasons to a group of judges from the Michigan State Judging Team.

After compiling all the scores each county selected the top four to represent their county at the Michigan State competition which will be held on March 29 in Lansing. This judging event, held on the campus of Michigan State University, will host participants from every county in the state.

Lenawee county participants include Debra Swift, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Swift, of Tecumseh, taking first place; Diane Meyers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Meyers, Adrian, second; Barbara Powell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Powell, Tecumseh, third; Dawn Mitchell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mitchell, Palmyra, fourth and Rod Neiblo, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Hicks, Onsted, acting as alternate. These 4-H members will be representing the senior members for the county, all 14 years of age and over.

The junior members (under 14 years of age) which placed for Lenawee County are: Cynthia Swift, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Swift, Tecumseh, taking first place honors; Ben Stevenson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Stevenson, Tipton, second; and Kathy Underwood, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Underwood, Tecumseh, third.

The Lenawee County 4-Horse Developmental Committee stated they were very proud of all their participants who conducted themselves very well and would like to thank and congratulate each and every one of them. They concluded with, "Keep up the good work and good luck at State!"

Trooper Testifies in Campbell Trial

CLINTON — At a preliminary examination of Mrs. Chalmers Campbell Jr. March 5 at the Washtenaw County Circuit Court, Clinton State Police trooper Bruckner Shanan testified that the post had received a call Jan. 8 from a woman who said, "I shot my husband and I think I killed him."

Marilyn Campbell is charged with shooting her husband in the family home on Wellwood Rd., six miles west of Clinton.

The officer further related how he found the victim on the kitchen floor, and that the fingerprints on the shotgun found at the Campbell home, were those of Mrs. Campbell.

Judge Conlin adjourned the hearing until March 12, when four more witnesses are to testify.

Robert E. Meader, special administrator of the Campbell estate, has asked the Washtenaw Circuit Court to bar the victim's wife from sharing in his estate.

Meader's petition to the Circuit Court states that Michigan law provides that a person who has caused the death of a spouse is not entitled to participate in the distribution of the deceased's estate.

According to Meader, Campbell owned land in Manchester Township, personal property, an account in the Adrian Savings and Loan Association and household goods at the rural Tipton home.

Thomas Bivins received several stitches for a head wound and was released the next day from Herrick Memorial Hospital.

Kenneth Breeding was admitted to St. Joseph Hospital, Ann Arbor, with a severe concussion. His condition is reported improved, however he remained a patient for several days.

Opening Thru Finale, 'Oklahoma' Delightful

By DIANA HARBAUGH

From the opening number to the final bow, the Tecumseh Players production of "Oklahoma" is a delightful evening of entertainment. Though the story is trite and the music familiar, the performers give freshness and excitement to this overworked script.

Due to fine staging and pacing, the show moves smoothly through the uncomplicated plot of getting the belle of the territory to admit she loves the good guy in white. The poor bad guy in black finally dies as the sun sinks slowly in the west. Thanks to the excellent score by Rodgers and Hammerstein, an insipid play becomes a simple, but beautiful musical.

Bertha Vallelunga, as Aunt Eller, is an outstanding performer in the show. She has professional control and poise in her character as the aging, but spunky Aunty. Although this reviewer feels Aunt Eller should be more realistically portrayed, in this particular production a comic interpretation of this role is necessary and successful.

Erven Lhotka, in the role of Curly, has excellent stage presence. He is relaxed and poised; yet dynamic and refreshing. One of the highlights of the show is Erv's treatment of the song "Poor Jud". Erven's beautifully-trained voice overshadows the lack of maturity in his character. He is inconsistent in projecting the necessary personality for the male lead, but you can't help but like a feller who'd sell his horse for the sake of his true love!

His true love, Laurey, is played by pretty Barbara Streby. Her well-trained voice floats through the musical selections with lovely quality and ease; however, she too falters in her role due to little experience in acting. Miss Streby's lack of facial expression and failure to project emotion makes Laurey's personality seem weak and shallow. But all is forgotten when she starts to sing, the part of performing she has polished.

And then there's Will Parker, played by Phil Baker, who wants to marry Ado Annie. Baker is successful in his performance of the comic male lead. He handles the music and the acting admirably.

And then there's Ado Annie, charmingly portrayed by Peggy Kisor, who wants to marry Will and the peddler-man. Ado Annie captures the audience immediately and never lets them go. Miss Kisor has an innate quality that projects personality-plus. She gives a polished performance of the girl who "can't say no!"

And then there's the peddler, Ali Hakim, delightfully played by Joe Cherry, who wants to woo but not wed whoever is handy. Cherry has an exceptional ability of projecting facial expressions and gestures. He has a tendency to overact, but as the superficial playboy from Persia, Mr. Cherry is perfect.

Jud Fry, the bad guy, is handled convincingly by Hal Weakly. Although the mean, crude side of Jud's character is a bit forced at times, the glimpse we see of the sensitive, bitter man is the best dramatic moment of the show.

The farmer and the cowman should be friends! Or so says Ted Broderick in the role of Andrew Carnes. Broderick's maturity and experience are evident through his command of the stage.

Now to say a word for the chorus! Although the chorus is basically too young, they make up for it with their bounding energy. They are especially effective in the second act. The dancers do a fine job and add greatly to several scenes.

Besides recognizing the long, hard rehearsal hours, tribute must be paid to the three brave souls who built the set: John Raymond, Ron Wisner and Judy Sherwood.

Joe Balsanek deserves credit for a fine production. He provided the necessary glue to stick and hold the production together.

The choral director, Dennis Kisor, did a remarkable job with the chorus and leads. And there would be no musical without the excellent playing of the combo, Helen Bendes, Don Dobrosky, Philip Otter and D. James Bush.

LAST WEEK — Final performances of "Oklahoma" by Tecumseh Players are scheduled this week. Members of the cast include Bertha Vallelunga, Joe Cherry, Barbara Streby and Peg Kisor in above scene from the musical.

Girl Official Attends Clinic

Mrs. Theresa Wells, who is a National official on the Southeastern board of Women Officials, attended a clinic at Adrian College last Saturday. The board holds a clinic every March so that any woman interested in applying for a rating in basketball may attempt to do so. They first have to pass a written test with a minimum score of 84 out of a possible 100 points. Next they have to officiate one-half of a regulation game in which they are rated by officials holding a National rating. A combined score of 86 is necessary to obtain a National rating. A woman may receive a Local rating with an 82 average score.

All girls' basketball teams are encouraged by the Division for Girls and Women's Sports to use rated officials in order to upgrade sports in general, to encourage wholesome competition, to have a better knowledge of the rules, and to practice good sportsmanship in interscholastic sports.

One of the games played during the day was between Tecumseh and Onsted. Tecumseh won rather easily with a 32-10 victory. Nancy Dustin who was playing with the Varsity for the first time was high scorer with 8 points. She was followed by Peggy Martinus with 7. All 10 players saw action.

The girls Varsity team ended the season with a record of six wins and three defeats. Two of the defeats were by a total of three points. Senior Peggy Martinus was high scorer for the year with 115 points. Other seniors were Linda Marine, Kathy Goodman, Gail Greene, Linda Young, Brenda Watson and Lisa Pence.

The girls Junior Varsity team won all of their games, which should make them a power house next year since 10 of the 12 girls are freshmen. A freshman, Nancy Dustin, led her team with 97 points.

Protestant Churches One Hour of Sharing

Dr. Robert Brown, a director of special services at Adrian College, will deliver the message Sunday morning at the worship service of the Tecumseh United Methodist Church at 10 a.m. during which time the congregation will participate in the One Great Hour of Sharing.

Dr. Brown is a member of the Adrian College administration staff and is a holder of the Ph.D. degree in higher education from the Michigan State University.

The One Great Hour of Sharing, participated in by 30 protestant denominations, helps combat root causes of world hunger and provides funds for overseas relief. A portion of the offering also supports a Crusade Scholarship program, celebrating its 25th year of service in which more than 1500 qualified Christian young adults have been given the opportunity for graduate study.

Capital funds assist in emergency church extension in Alaska, Hawaii, and Puerto Rico. Of special interest is the Ministry for Servicemen in the Far East where centers provide a homelike atmosphere affording our servicemen the opportunity meeting fellow Christians learning more about the cul of these lands.

Blue Birds Busy Girls

RIDGEWAY — Mrs. Jorge Galindo's Third Grade Blue Birds have been busy lately. Beginning in February, the girls made centerpieces and place markers for the Father-Daughter Banquet Feb. 15. The centerpieces were of sugar cube igloos and Eskimo dolls and the place markers, also Eskimo dolls, held place cards for each father and daughter.

February 19 the girls took a trip to the U. S. Post Office in Tecumseh. They were given a tour by Postmaster Jack Metcalf, which they agreed was not only informative but enjoyable as well.

After many busy weeks the girls took some time off to work on posters for Campfire Week, March 23 to 29. Also in preparation for a future trip, they learned of the Indian legend about maple syrup — how it was discovered and how the Indians learned to gather and preserve it.

March 5, the girls visited the dairy farm of Herbert Long. They saw the young calves. Later they watched as the cows were milked and the method was described to them.

Members of the group are Jamie Browne, Maureen Galindo, Lisa Goll, Kathryn Harris, Karen Kapnick, Colleen Kopka, Suzanne Long, Pam Palmer, Janet Rundell, Suzanne Sanchez, Susan Wegner and Wendy Moore. Mrs. Roger Palmer is assistant leader and the sponsors are Mrs. Richard Birdwell and Mr. and Mrs. James Rundell.

Ministry Of Helps Explained To Group

BRITTON—Just laying bricks or helping to build a temple was an illustration used by Mrs. Sam Burns to depict her work in London when speaking to the Ladies Missionary Society of the Bethel Baptist Church Thursday.

Home on furlough, Mrs. Burns is the daughter of Mrs. H. S. Fish of Tipton Hwy.

Speaking from First Corinthians, chapter 12, concerning gifts, she singled out helps as pertaining to the work being done by she and her husband. "Ministry of helps in London" she said, best describes their work.

"The schools in Nigeria are patterned after the British," she said, "where religious instruction is compulsory. This, however, is not limited to one religion but a choice of Moslem, Protestant, etc."

She told of helping several persons enroute through London either to or from the fields of Africa or elsewhere. Hospitality was ever present in their home as their lives touched the lives of others.

"Without faith it is impossible to please God," she said.

Mrs. Jack Hintz presided at the business session explaining a number of new work projects to be undertaken. Felt banners, art foam turtles, pillows and slippers of wash cloths for a camp in Cleveland were mentioned.

It was decided to hold a special work session March 20 at 7 p.m., at the church to prepare the articles requested from Cleveland as these were needed in April. Each member is asked to bring pinking scissors and two wash cloths to this meeting.

A love offering of $28.20 was received of which $12.65 was used to purchase sheets for a home missionary family.

Mrs. Walter Stutesman, Mrs. Margaret Van Vorst, Mrs. Harlan Parker and Mrs. Robert Hunt, representing the group, offered prayers for the missionaries supported by the church as each had a definite need concerning their health.

Mrs. Ethel Miller and Mrs. Earl Olds served sandwiches, Jello, punch and coffee to the 20 ladies present.

The next regular meeting is April 3 with a special meeting March 20.

Times Change, So Must Schools

By WAYNE KAISER
Curriculum Director

The Tecumseh Public Schools have maintained a curriculum that attempts to meet the needs of the students of the Tecumseh School District. As the community and times change, schools must change.

We are no longer a small static agricultural community, and our curriculum is not designed for such. Many of our graduates move to other parts of the country. About one out of every five families in the United States moves each year. This mobility means that a person must be able to be a productive citizen not only in his present community, but also in some future community.

Technology is changing so fast in many industries that the person who learns a particular skill today may find this skill is not needed by the time he is ready to seek employment.

It is estimated that most of our present high school students will have to learn new skills or update their present education at least four times during their working years. This means that greater emphasis on learning how to think and to learn and less concern for assembling and calling forth factual information must be one of our goals in education today.

The curriculum is many-sided. It is complex. It consists of more than academic subjects and vocational materials that are presented.

Methods of instruction and the way materials are presented, as well as the material itself, have a bearing on curriculum.

The type of community and what it wants and expects from the school is one of the great influences on the curriculum. The post graduate plans of the students determine many of the course offerings as well as the depth of these courses. The philosophy of the school board, teachers, and administrators affect curriculum. The state also has laws and recommendations that must be considered in curriculum planning. In its broadest sense the curriculum is the total experience a student receives while attending school.

What are some of the areas of curriculum in which we are now concentrating?

In the elementary school we are selecting English books to replace our present out-dated textbooks. The teachers are also writing a new course of study for the elementary social studies program. Herrick Park School first grade is doing a pilot study on the new Macmillan reading series. The Sutton School and Ridgeway fifth and sixth grades are in the second year of a Federal Helping Teacher program which supplies three extra teachers to help the six regular teachers. Some of the sixth grade teachers are serving on a Middle School Committee which includes the 6th, 7th and 8th grades, to help plan our Middle School building and curriculum.

Tecumseh Junior High teachers have also been working on the Middle School curriculum. They are using new English books which they selected last year. Eighth grade social studies teachers have up-dated their program and are now concentrating in United States history from the discovery period through the Civil War.

The eleventh grade teachers will review pre-Civil War history and then concentrate their study from the reconstruction period to modern times.

Tecumseh High School has a team of teachers that is teaching ninth grade algebra, English, and social studies. This is proving to be a fine innovation and consequently a tenth grade math-science team plus a ninth grade social studies, reading, and general math team is planned for next year. However, lack of space and room arrangement is a major problem to overcome and may limit the team approach.

The Phase One English program is new this year. This is a program developed by the Bureau of School Services in Ann Arbor. This course deals with the individual's character and personality, the individual in society, and the individual and his vocation. The ninth grade social studies course has been revamped for this year and it is being closely evaluated.

This is the first year for closed circuit television at Tecumseh High School. A received, video tape, tape deck, and camera were purchased cooperatively by the Board of Education and the Tecumseh Fan Club. This equipment is used for athletics as well as academic classes. Many of the high school teachers have been helping to plan improvements in the curriculum for the proposed new high school.

Future curriculum planning will concern itself with more individual help for the slow student. This may be in the form of programmed material which will help the individual to work at his own speed on material that he can understand. There is a need for low vocabulary high interest material for older students with reading difficulties.

For the student that cannot learn from printed material, there must be an opportunity to learn from audio-visual materials such as movies, educational television, tape recorded materials, records, and filmstrips. Too many high school students drop out of school because they cannot learn as rapidly as other students nor can they compete with them for grades in our present marking system. One way or another they are forced out of school and do not reach their potential. This may result in a great loss to society.

Another direction of future planning must be in the area of mental health, physical health, use of drugs, sex education, moral values, and citizenship. This is a wide area and they do not all fit together but they are all related to each other. They are all important to the individual and society. These subjects can all be controversial and hard to teach. Each is dealt with in part in various areas of the curriculum at the present time, but they need coordinating and amplifying.

The new county vocational school has made it necessary for us to plan some new courses and change some of our present offerings in vocational education as some of our classes will be preparatory classed for students planning to attend the vocational school. However, we will still need classes for those students that wish to take some vocational education courses, but do not wish to attend the vocational school.

Curriculum changes are also due for the advanced student. We have honors courses in high school in some areas now. However, this is not enough. We hope arrangements may be made for college bound students to take some advanced courses and receive freshmen college credit for them. We also need programs for advanced elementary and junior high students to enable them to work up to their capacity.

A desire to change on the part of all school personnel, the use of appropriate methods of instruction by the teachers, and the acceptance of change by the community, are all necessary if the curriculum is to keep pace with the needs of an individual in this ever-changing world. Additional funds must also be provided because individualized instruction is more expensive than by mass media.

Tecumseh's Doctor Shortage Called 'Grave'

A direct appeal to the public is made this week in a report from hospital officials about the shortage of physicians here.

William Groover, administrator at Herrick Memorial Hospital, cites a grave situation in the decreasing number of practicing doctors and the future of the hospital itself.

It amounts to no doctors, no hospital — and, no hospital, no doctors. Both need each other, and so do folks of Tecumseh and this area.

In the past five years, the number of physicians practicing in Tecumseh and at the hospital has dropped. Dr. R. G. B. Marsh retired, and death took Dr. Archie O'Connor and Dr. W. T. Claxton.

Dr. Richard Hammel left to specialize in psychiatry, and Dr. Richard Coak just announced his intentions to quit his general practice, effective April 15, and to devote his full-time to anesthesia.

Past attempts to attract new physicians here have failed. New efforts are being made by a committee — headed by Dr. Larry Burch and includes Mr. Groover and William Holmes — which has now turned to Tecumseh residents for help. In Mr. Groover's letter he asks anyone knowing of a physician who might be interested in establishing a practice here to contact any member of the committee or any local doctor.

Plans for a major overhaul of the old section of the hospital have been somewhat tabled until officials are able to determine the future of the local hospital. The proposed renovation would put the hospital on par with any in the area.

In recent years, occupancy at Herrick Hospital has frequently been between 60% and 70%. Usually, the hospital enjoys a profitable period the first few months of a year and then loses or just holds its own for the last eight or nine months.

In the past three years the hospital has finished in the red. Mr. Groover is more optimistic this year but a profitable year is still questionable.

Tecumseh has always enjoyed an enviable position in comparison to other communities. The community has much to offer, equal to that of many cities several times its size.

Why don't doctors come? One factor, some officials believe, is the fact that all of our doctors are in solo practices. A trend already has been established towards partnerships, or group practices, for physicians. Many new doctors prefer partnership-type practices, and many such practices involving two, three or more physicians are quite common. They're said to be beneficial to patients, doctors and their families.

Without an adequate number of local doctors, the local hospital is not receiving the number of patients to operate at a break-even or on the black side of the ledger. More doctors mean more patients here rather than at nearby hospitals.

Herrick Hospital has ben a major asset to Tecumseh and the area. It has grown in size and has added the latest medical equipment — all at no expense to the taxpayer.

Additions and new equipment have resulted from gifts from Herrick Foundation, the Hospital Auxiliary and the medical staff.

Large additions to the hospital itself have come as gifts from the Herrick Foundation, which is also responsible for the adjoining Herrick Nursing Home.

Cal Zorn, city manager, says the city has spent practically nothing. At the present, city employees clean off the sidewalks and parking lots after a snow. The city also maintains the parking lots — but no tax money for operation and capital improvement.

TO THE EDITOR:

In an effort to help relieve the present shortage of physicians in the Tecumseh area, Dr. Richard E. Dustin, chief of staff at Herrick Memorial Hospital, has asked that a committee appointed several years ago redouble its efforts to attract new doctors to the area.

This committee has been quite active in the past, however, it has met with little success recently.

The retirement of Dr. Marsh, the deaths of Dr. O'Connor and Dr. Claxton, the decision of Dr. Hammel to specialize in psychiatry, and most recently the decision of Dr. Coak to discontinue private practice and devote his entire time to anesthesiology has made the current situation most grave.

The new committee, chaired by Dr. Larry Burch and assisted by Mr. William Holmes and Mr. William Groover, requests that anyone in the community who has any knowledge of a qualified physician who might consider coming to Tecumseh, contact that physician or let one of the above committee members know about him so that they may contact him.

William Groover,
Administrator.

WILL THEY HELP — After several fatal and serious accidents at the intersection of M-50 and M-52, the State Highway Department has installed a new warning system for motorists traveling north or south on M-52. The system includes two brightly-painted signs, bearing the word "stop" and lit by caution lights and a large red "stop" sign beneath the blinker at the intersection. Inadequate warnings of the stop on M-52 were blamed for many of the accidents. The survey taken by state police and the highway department was concluded last fall.

Plans, Costs of New H. S. on Agenda

School officials will meet architects from the Warren Holmes firm of Lansing next Monday night to review plans and with the hopes of obtaining a cost picture of two proposed plans for a new Tecumseh High School.

Monday evening, the Board briefly reviewed plans for a one-story building and another for two stories. Each plan calls for just over 300,000 square feet, and with school construction in general averaging over $25 per square foot, the total cost of the building could run upwards of $8 million.

Officials decline to comment on the total cost and have released no figure, however, an estimate is expected from the architects at Monday night's meeting.

The new school will be built on 120 acres of land just south of M-50 and east of Rogers Hwy. Cost of the land is $100,000, or just over $830 per acre.

At one time, the officials had hoped to place a bond issue before the district's electorate in April, but chances are slim that an election will be held next month. Regular school election is scheduled this year for June 9.

.1 Mill Increase Set for Library

Tecumseh School Board approved a slight increase in operating monies for the Public Library.

The Board voted to place on the June 9 ballot a millage proposal of .7 mill for a five-year period. This is an increase of .1 mill, and based on last year's evaluation for the district, it will raise about $5,000.

Church Ending Two Grades?

A national trend of phasing out parochial schools may include the seventh and eighth grades at St. Elizabeth Catholic School.

Although no decision has been reached at the local level, and therefor no petition has been sent to the church's archdiocese office in Detroit, Fr. Robert Handley says "our finances are such that we could run several thousands of dollars in the red next year."

The Tecumseh priest said a joint meeting between the church's School Board and the parish hall will be held next Tuesday evening to review the school's financial picture, and to determine the parish's thinking about continuing or dropping the two grades. A question and answer period will be conducted for the parishioners.

Fr. Handley says if the parish agrees with its School Board and the Board's recommendation to phase out the grades, a petition will be forwarded to the Detroit office for its permission.

There are 60 students in the present sixth and seventh grades at St. Elizabeth, and these will be the two grades affected next fall if they're dropped. Eighth grade students normally enroll in the public high school.

Coupled with the church's finances for the school is the possibility of losing a teaching sister.

Members of the church's School Board are:
John Pobuda — chairman
Ed Rapin — vice president
Kay Walper — secretary-treasurer

Other members include Mrs. Jack Ries, Eugene Parros, Mrs. Arthur Lopshire, Sister Marie Carritas, Dr. Carlos Knisely from the church committee, and Fr. Handley.

Although there has been discussion and a recommendation to phase out the seventh and eighth grades, there are no plans for dropping the first six grades.

Supt. James McDowell says enrollment of the two parochial grades would necessitate an adjustment in the school day at the public junior high.

Board of Review Meeting Monday

Board of Review will meet next Monday at city hall for property owners who wish to discuss the assessments on their property.

Robert Hamden, city assessor, sent out new assessment notices last week with about 70% of the homes in Tecumseh receiving increases up to 20%. Most of the hikes average about 10%.

One Injured in Accident

Tecumseh's accident rate jumped back to normal during the past week with local police handling six mishaps, including one which sent a city resident to Herrick Hospital.

Saturday, Frank E. Lasky, 54, of 720 Seneca St., suffered broken ribs and other injuries after he was hit broadside on N. Ottawa St. at Logan. He was taken to the hospital by ambulance and does not expect to be released until this Thursday or Friday.

According to the police report, the Lasky car was struck by another driven by Elva I. Rice, 65, of 310 W. Logan St. She was cited for failure to yield the right of way.

HAPPY YOUNGSTER — Four-year-old Andy Hella, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Hella, 816 Waskin Dr., is a delighted youngster with his new walker. The young boy, victim of cerebral palsey, is now scampering about his home. Until recently Andy's folks footed all his medical expenses, but he now received care from Services to Crippled Children, and has scheduled appointments at Ann Arbor and visits from a county nurse. He is the first to use one of two walkers — loaned free of charge by the Tecumseh Police Department — which were purchased with the proceeds from annual police dances. They cost $100 each. Next policemen's Ball is March 29, and Andy's father, a local police officer, has a good reason to sell you a ticket.

THEY CUT CAKE FOR 50TH — Mrs. H. H. Hammel and Perry Satterthwaite made the initial cut in the 50th birthday anniversary cake of the Underwood-Orr American Legion Post served Saturday evening to 150 attending. The late Dr. H. H. Hammel was the first commander of the local Post and Mr. Satterthwaite was a charter member on the executive board when the Post was organized in 1919.

Rep. Stites Speaks on Legion Birthday

Representative Robert Stites was the speaker Saturday evening for 150 people attending the Underwood-Orr American Legion Post 50 anniversary party.

"Fifty years dedicated to Americanism" was the subject Rep Stites used "and now our freedom, fought for by our forefathers and by you fellows is being jeopardized, behavior that we are not used to in this country."

"Freedom rests on a solid foundation and the only one firm enough is built upon law and order and the maintenance of law and order — justice for victims as well as for criminals," continued the state congressman.

"We can no longer tolerate the malcontents, the trouble-makers and dissenters. These problems are not insurmountable but everyone of us must get involved."

"Only about 3% of the youth of this country think they can take the law into their own hands and families have a great responsibility to that 3%. The minority groups get all the publicity, a great concern of mine and I'm sure of yours.

"We must be concerned for the children that are left to raise themselves. They must be taught that with the rights and benefits there comes responsibility to God and to the community, state and nation. They must have respect for law and order and we must become involved. If we lick this apathy bug we must start at the grass roots," concluded Mr. Stites.

He was introduced by Clarence Natterstadt, 1st Vice Commander of the Legion.

Mrs. Truman Rentschler, president of the Auxiliary, gave a toast to the Post with tomato juice, opening the festivities.

Chaplain Almond Curtis gave the invocation and Mrs. Junior Fouts played organ music throughout the dinner on an organ provided by Grinnell Bros.

Mrs. Rentschler read greetings from several who were away and unable to attend including Jule Anderson in Texas, Charlie and Florence Howe and Orville and Ayshea Laidlaw in Florida, Al and Doris Bashaw in Arizona and Mrs. Louis S. Schnieder.

Dick Colson, commander of the Legion read a telegram of congratulation from Representative Marvin L. Esch.

Mrs. Rentschler introduced the officers and special guests and thanked the committee chairmen for their efforts to make the event a successful one.

Dancing completed the evening.

City Annexes Irelan Property

Approximately eight acres of Tecumseh Township was annexed to the city by Council Monday night. The action paves the way for construction of new apartments there by Robert Holmes.

The property was formerly owned by Charles Irelan. It is located just south of W. Chicago Blvd. and west of Occidental Rd.

Mrs. Moore Quits As Teen Advisor

Mrs. Darlene Moore, via letter, submitted her resignation to Council Monday night as the teenage class advisor for functions at the Tecumseh Community Center.

Her resignation leaves the teenagers without adult help in handling their dances and functions at the Center.

Mrs. Moore has been advisor for the teenagers since John Hamilton moved from Tecumseh, some three years ago. Whether a new advisor will be sought, or some other action will be taken, will probably not be decided until Wednesday evening when the teenagers hold their regular meeting at city hall.

Mrs. Moore pointed out her problems which she was confronted with and stated that the job was more than one person could handle — at the big dances, between 300 and 350 youngsters attend.

Officials have known for some time that additional help was needed. Teenagers, for the most part, were supposed to line up chaperones for parties and dances. Often, this was neglected.

Tecumseh Jaycees have offered to help but had asked that possible chaperons be notified in advance — more than an hour or two before festivities were scheduled to start. Occasionally, some functions had to be cancelled due to lack of chaperons.

In the past, local police have had to quell disturbances, often caused by outsiders. The Teen Club has since gradually disintegrated.

Judges To Hear Small Claims

District Court Judges Yale Leland Kerby and Kenneth Glaser will hear cases for small claims — under $300 — the last day of each month in the magistrate office of Ernest Oliver.

The first schedule date is Monday, March 31.

Mrs. Harold Wilson, 1010 Red Mill Dr., was among 11 students from Siena Heights College who were selected among the country's most outstanding and will have their names in this year's edition of Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges.

Mrs. Wilson is a registered nurse employed part time at Herrick Memorial Hospital. Her husband is employed at the Tecumseh Products Co. in tool engineering. They have two children, David, 12, and Ann, 9 years old.

Mrs. Wilson (Lorraine) will receive a bachelor of science degree in chemistry from Siena Heights College in May.

She is active in the work of Gloria Dei Lutheran Church, teaching Bible School in the summer and assisting with Girl Scout activities.

A campus nominating committee and editors of the Who's Who annual directory select names of students, based on their academic achievement, service to the community, leadership in extra-curricular activities and potential leadership.

Anyone Top This Mark?

Larry and Steve Coscarelli could well be the champion kite fliers in Tecumseh!

Sunday afternoon, they, along with some other youngsters, started a kite from the playground of Patterson School and about four hours later the kite was soaring high over Herrick Park, almost a mile away.

Mr. Coscarelli said they began with a cone-shaped grocery-type spool of twine and eventually added two and a half balls of regular kite string. About 7 p.m. and faced with the momentous task of winding in a mile of string, the Coscarellis tied the string to a tree and left, leaving the kite still flying high over the subdivision.

It was gone Monday morning.

VOICE of THE HERALD

Teen Club Flounders

Tecumseh's Teen Club is floundering and in trouble.

For many years John Hamilton, a former resident, shouldered the responsibility of guiding and nursing the Tecumseh Teen Club. His performance was excellent, and he saw that he had others participating in the chaperon roles.

After he left, the Club was left without much guidance until Mrs. Darlene Moore volunteered to help the youth. Her work was equally appreciated by many, and without her the Teen Club would have undoubtedly disappeared some time ago.

Council expressed appreciation to Mr. Hamilton, and Monday night asked the clerk to write a letter of appreciation to Mrs. Moore for her work and time spent in helping our youth.

It's not Council's fault that the Teen Club is in such a dilemma. It certainly is not Mrs. Moore's fault. Much of the blame probably falls on the type of activities — or lack of activity variety — and lack of interest from the teenagers.

We would like to see some organization — not an individual, as the job seems too big — to take hold of the Teen Club project and make it worth while. Make it interesting to our local youngsters so they will want to participate.

This type of job, like so many, is a thankless one. If a group can achieve some personal gratification in helping our teenagers without due recognition, then it is time for that group to step forth.

With a little help from the Teen Club officers and more Hamiltons and Moores, the Teen Club could be a popular club — and for local youth!

Blame Inflation

Last Thursday and Friday, many property owners here were disgruntled and unhappy with their tax assessments sent from city hall. The Herald carried a story previously that most taxpayers would find a hike in assessments. Folks were warned.

Don't blame the city, don't blame Bob Hamden, our assessor. Blame inflation, it's as simple as that.

Folks who bought a $15,000 house 10 years ago must realize that their home is more valuable today. All that one has to do is check the sale of houses in his own neighborhood to realize that property is up in value.

If you're dissatisfied with the assessment, then your alternative is to seek relief from the Board of Review next Monday. But, before you go, ask yourself this question: "Would I sell my home for double the assessment?"

The assessments are supposed to be at 50% of true value. If they're over 50%, and you think that you can prove it to the Board, take some time off next Monday and tell your woes to those who will listen.

If you're below the 50% assessment figure as required by law, pat yourself on the back, take Mommie and the kids out to dinner, blow a few bucks on the town — and hope that the city assessor doesn't catch up with you next year.

Nothing is so delightful as springtime on the farm! First crocus . . . then a shower of springtime flowers, baby lambs and litters of cute, pink piglets . . . grass trying to shake off the severe effects of winter, and overhead, the raucous cry of the crow.

M. L. Woell of the Michigan Farm Bureau writes this interesting bit concerning the upcoming season in his spring planning bulletin. He reminds farmers that it is time to oil machinery, secure and treat seed and make preparations for chemicals to kill off the cutworms, grubs, molds and fungi.

Well, March 21, the first day of spring, is Friday. Man the dust caps, ladies.

State Senator Reports

SEN. JAMES G. FLEMING .....

Parochaid, one of the most controversial issues to hit the capitol in the state's history, seems to have rather general agreement on at least three things.

1. Non-public schools are in financial trouble.

2. Public schools are in financial trouble.

3. The state of Michigan is in financial trouble.

Beyond that, you can get just about as many versions of the virtues and the dangers of aid to non-public schools as the people with whom you talk.

Completely ignoring emotional issues involved, a study of the economic factors is involved is as multifaceted as the main issue itself.

There are an estimated 2,100,000 children in the state's public schools at present and about 315,000 in non-public schools.

Governor William Milliken's proposed budget for the next fiscal year beginning July 1 is $748.3 million from the general fund, or an increase of about $96 million over the current year. In addition, $498 million is expected from restricted or earmarked funds, over which the legislature has no control. This will total more than $1.2 billion outlay for education for the next fiscal year.

The state currently is providing an average of $250 per child in state aid to public school pupils. Governor Milliken's budget would provide an increase of about $17 per child.

The big problem with public schools is caused by the necessity of increasing teachers' salaries, the higher cost of materials, and the constantly increasing number of children entering public schools.

Essentially, the problem of financing non-public schools is much the same, with some differences. The cost of materials rises about the same for both school systems.

Catholic schools in recent years years have been hit harder by increases in teachers' salaries because the percentage of nuns and priests teaching in schools has been declining and they must be replaced by lay teachers, whose salaries generally are more comparable with those of public school teachers.

On the other hand, largely because parents have been unable to carry the greater load, enrollment in Catholic schools has been declining. In the past five years, non-public school enrollment in Michigan has dropped 18,000.

There is a difference of opinion on how much non-public schools are saving taxpayers by educating the 315,000 children and how much more it would cost the state if all, or a great share, of these pupils should be phased out of private schools and into public schools.

Proponents of aid to non-public schools say that it would cost taxpayers $200 million if all 315,000 pupils were to be transferred to public schools. This is based on the conclusion that there is an average $600 in tax money of various kinds behind each public school child.

Public school people say the cost would not be nearly so high because many children could be absorbed into existing classes without any additional staff or building.

State financial experts, say that, without additional taxes, the state will not be able to provide state aid to non-public schools or to absorb all the 315,000 pupils.

They point out that, even by tapping the $70.3 million treasury surplus expected at the end of the current fiscal year, next year's budget — without allowing for any unexpected contingencies — will have a balance of only $12.9 million.

Even this $12.9 million surplus is very "iffy" because it is extremely difficult to predict what the state's economy will produce in taxes in the next 16 months ending June 30, 1970.

Backers of the principal parochaid bill now in the legislature says it will cost $40 million the first year.

Right now, several important questions remained unanswered on parochaid:

Will financial assistance be given to non-public schools?

Will such aid be legal under the Constitution?

If is voted, how much will it cost?

If new taxes are required, what will be taxed?

If public aid is not given to private schools, how many of them will close and how many pupils will be transferred to the public schools?

If that happens, how much more will it cost Michigan taxpayers?

And what taxes will be increased?

The answer? Anyone know a Super-Solomon?

The Toledo Museum of Art is showing a new acquisition "Still Life with Lobster", by Anne Vallayer-Coster. It has never before been exhibited outside of France, where it was painted in 1781. The painting, which depicts a lobster and a splendid silver soup tureen, measures 28 by 35 inches. It is still in the original frame in which it was exhibited at the Paris Salon of 1782. It once belonged to Achille Fould, finance minister to Napoleon III, and can now be seen in the entrance court of the Museum.

THEY CUT CAKE FOR 50TH — Mrs. H. H. Rep. Stites Speaks on Legion Birthday

Representative Robert Stites was the speaker Saturday evening for 150 people attending the Underwood-Orr American Legion Post 50 anniversary party.

"Fifty years dedicated to Americanism" was the subject Rep Stites used "and now our freedom, fought for by our forefathers and by you fellows is being jeopardized, behavior that we are not used to in this country."

"Freedom rests on a solid foundation and the only one firm enough is built upon law and order and the maintenance of law and order — justice for victims as well as for criminals," continued the state congressman.

"We can no longer tolerate the malcontents, the trouble-makers and dissenters. These problems are not insurmountable but everyone of us must get involved."

"Only about 3% of the youth of this country think they can take the law into their own hands and families have a great responsibility to that 3%. The minority groups get all the publicity, a great concern of mine and I'm sure of yours.

"We must be concerned for the children that are left to raise themselves. They must be taught that with the rights and benefits there comes responsibility to God and to the community, state and nation. They must have respect for law and order and we must become involved. If we lick this apathy bug we must start at the grass roots," concluded Mr. Stites.

He was introduced by Clarence Natterstadt, 1st Vice Commander of the Legion.

Mrs. Truman Rentschler, president of the Auxiliary, gave a toast to the Post with tomato juice, opening the festivities.

Chaplain Almond Curtis gave the invocation and Mrs. Junior Fouts played organ music throughout the dinner on an organ provided by Grinnell Bros.

Mrs. Rentschler read greetings from several who were away and unable to attend including Jule Anderson in Texas, Charlie and Florence Howe and Orville and Ayshea Laidlaw in Florida, Al and Doris Bagshaw in Arizona and Mrs. Louis S. Schnieder.

Dick Colson, commander of the Legion read a telegram of congratulation from Representative Marvin L. Esch.

Mrs. Rentschler introduced the officers and special guests and thanked the committee chairmen for their efforts to make the event a successful one.

Dancing completed the evening.

City Annexes Irelan Property

Approximately eight acres of Tecumseh Township was annexed to the city by Council Monday night. The action paves the way for construction of new apartments there by Robert Holmes.

The property was formerly owned by Charles Irelan. It is located just south of W. Chicago Blvd. and west of Occidental Rd.

Mrs. Moore Quits As Teen Advisor

Mrs. Darlene Moore, via letter, submitted her resignation to Council Monday night as the teenage class advisor for functions at the Tecumseh Community Center.

Her resignation leaves the teenagers without adult help in handling their dances and functions at the Center.

Mrs. Moore has been advisor for the teenagers since John Hamilton moved from Tecumseh, some three years ago. Whether a new advisor will be sought, or some other action will be taken, will probably not be decided until Wednesday evening when the teenagers hold their regular meeting at city hall.

Mrs. Moore pointed out her problems which she was confronted with and stated that the job was more than one person could handle — at the big dances, between 300 and 350 youngsters attend.

Officials have known for some time that additional help was needed. Teenagers, for the most part, were supposed to line up chaperones for parties and dances. Often, this was neglected.

Tecumseh Jaycees have offered to help but had asked that possible chaperons be notified in advance — more than an hour or two before festivities were scheduled to start. Occasionally, some functions had to be cancelled due to lack of chaperons.

In the past, local police have had to quell disturbances, often caused by outsiders. The Teen Club has since gradually disintegrated.

Judges To Hear Small Claims

District Court Judges Yale Leland Kerby and Kenneth Glaser will hear cases for small claims — under $300 — the last day of each month in the magistrate office of Ernest Oliver.

In a letter to Mr. Oliver, the judges states the schedule will be expanded if the number of cases warrant it.

The first schedule date is Monday, March 31.

Mrs. Harold Wilson, 1010 Red Mill Dr., was among 11 students from Siena Heights College who were selected among the country's most outstanding and will have their names in this year's edition of Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges.

Mrs. Wilson is a registered nurse employed part time at Herrick Memorial Hospital. Her husband is employed at the Tecumseh Products Co. in tool engineering. They have two children, David, 12, and Ann, 9 years old.

Mrs. Wilson (Lorraine) will receive a bachelor of science degree in chemistry from Siena Heights College in May.

She is active in the work of Gloria Dei Lutheran Church, teaching Bible School in the summer and assisting with Girl Scout activities.

A campus nominating committee and editors of the Who's Who annual directory select names of students, based on their academic achievement, service to the community, leadership in extra-curricular activities and potential leadership.

Anyone Top This Mark?

Larry and Steve Coscarelli could well be the champion kite fliers in Tecumseh!

Sunday afternoon, they, along with some other youngsters, started a kite from the playground of Patterson School and about four hours later the kite was soaring high over Herrick Park, almost a mile away.

Mr. Coscarelli said they began with a one-shaped grocery-type spool of twine and eventually added two and a half balls of regular kite string. About 7 p.m. and faced with the momentous task of winding in a mile of string, the Coscarellis tied the string to a tree and left, leaving the kite still flying high over the subdivision.

It was gone Monday morning.

Teen Club Flounders

Tecumseh's Teen Club is floundering and in trouble.

For many years John Hamilton, a former resident, shouldered the responsibility of guiding and nursing the Tecumseh Teen Club. His performance was excellent, and he saw that he had others participating in the chaperon roles.

After he left, the Club was left without much guidance until Mrs. Darlene Moore volunteered to help the youth. Her work was equally appreciated by many, and without her the Teen Club would have undoubtedly disappeared some time ago.

Council expressed appreciation to Mr. Hamilton, and Monday night asked the clerk to write a letter of appreciation to Mrs. Moore for her work and time spent in helping our youth.

It's not Council's fault that the Teen Club is in such a dilemma. It certainly is not Mrs. Moore's fault. Much of the blame probably falls on the type of activities — or lack of activity variety — and lack of interest from the teenagers.

We would like to see some organization — not an individual, as the job seems too big — to take hold of the Teen Club project and make it worth while. Make it interesting to our local youngsters so they will want to participate.

This type of job, like so many, is a thankless one. If a group can achieve some personal gratification in helping our teenagers without due recognition, then it is time for that group to step forth.

With a little help from the Teen Club officers and more Hamiltons and Moores, the Teen Club could be a popular club — and for local youth!

Blame Inflation

Last Thursday and Friday, many property owners here were disgruntled and unhappy with their tax assessments sent from city hall. The Herald carried a story previously that most taxpayers would find a hike in assessments. Folks were warned.

Don't blame the city, don't blame Bob Hamden, our assessor. Blame inflation, it's as simple as that.

Folks who bought a $15,000 house 10 years ago must realize that their home is more valuable today. All that one has to do is check the sale of houses in his own neighborhood to realize that property is up in value.

If you're dissatisfied with the assessment, then your alternative is to seek relief from the Board of Review next Monday. But, before you go, ask yourself this question: "Would I sell my home for double the assessment?"

The assessments are supposed to be at 50% of true value. If they're over 50%, and you think that you can prove it to the Board, take some time off next Monday and tell your woes to those who will listen.

If you're below the 50% assessment figure as required by law, pat yourself on the back, take Mommie and the kids out to dinner, blow a few bucks on the town — and hope that the city assessor doesn't catch up with you next year.

Nothing is so delightful as springtime on the farm! First crocus . . . then a shower of springtime flowers, baby lambs and litters of cute, pink piglets . . . grass trying to shake off the severe effects of winter, and overhead, the raucous cry of the crow.

M. L. Woell of the Michigan Farm Bureau writes this interesting bit concerning the upcoming season in his spring planning bulletin. He reminds farmers that it is time to oil machinery, secure and treat seed and make preparations for chemicals to kill off the cutworms, grubs, molds and fungi.

Well, March 21, the first day of spring, is Friday. Man the dust caps, ladies.

State Senator Reports

SEN. JAMES G. FLEMING .....

Parochaid, one of the most controversial issues to hit the capitol in the state's history, seems to have rather general agreement on at least three things.

1. Non-public schools are in financial trouble.

2. Public schools are in financial trouble.

3. The state of Michigan is in financial trouble.

Beyond that, you can get just about as many versions of the virtues and the dangers of aid to non-public schools as the people with whom you talk.

Completely ignoring emotional issues involved, a study of the economic factors is involved is as multifaceted as the main issue itself.

There are an estimated 2,100,000 children in the state's public schools at present and about 315,000 in non-public schools.

Governor William Milliken's proposed budget for the next fiscal year beginning July 1 is $748.3 million from the general fund, or an increase of about $96 million over the current year. In addition, $498 million is expected from restricted or earmarked funds, over which the legislature has no control. This will total more than $1.2 billion outlay for education for the next fiscal year.

The state currently is providing an average of $250 per child in state aid to public school pupils. Governor Milliken's budget would provide an increase of about $17 per child.

The big problem with public schools is caused by the necessity of increasing teachers' salaries, the higher cost of materials, and the constantly increasing number of children entering public schools.

Essentially, the problem of financing non-public schools is much the same, with some differences. The cost of materials rises about the same for both school systems.

Catholic schools in recent years years have been hit harder by increases in teachers' salaries because the percentage of nuns and priests teaching in schools has been declining and they must be replaced by lay teachers, whose salaries generally are more comparable with those of public school teachers.

On the other hand, largely because parents have been unable to carry the greater load, enrollment in Catholic schools has been declining. In the past five years, non-public school enrollment in Michigan has dropped 18,000.

There is a difference of opinion on how much non-public schools are saving taxpayers by educating the 315,000 children and how much more it would cost the state if all, or a great share, of these pupils should be phased out of private schools and into public schools.

Proponents of aid to non-public schools say that it would cost taxpayers $200 million if all 315,000 pupils were to be transferred to public schools. This is based on the conclusion that there is an average $600 in tax money of various kinds behind each public school child.

Public school people say the cost would not be nearly so high because many children could be absorbed into existing classes without any additional staff or building.

State financial experts, say that, without additional taxes, the state will not be able to provide state aid to non-public schools or to absorb all the 315,000 pupils.

They point out that, even by tapping the $70.3 million treasury surplus expected at the end of the current fiscal year, next year's budget — without allowing for any unexpected contingencies — will have a balance of only $12.9 million.

Even this $12.9 million surplus is very "iffy" because it is extremely difficult to predict what the state's economy will produce in taxes in the next 16 months ending June 30, 1970.

Backers of the principal parochaid bill now in the legislature says it will cost $40 million the first year.

Right now, several important questions remained unanswered on parochaid:

Will financial assistance be given to non-public schools?

Will such aid be legal under the Constitution?

If is voted, how much will it cost?

If new taxes are required, what will be taxed?

If public aid is not given to private schools, how many of them will close and how many pupils will be transferred to the public schools?

If that happens, how much more will it cost Michigan taxpayers?

And what taxes will be increased?

The answer? Anyone know a Super-Solomon?

Washington Report

by Congressman

MARVIN L. ESCH

Last year over 165,000 persons complained to the Post Office Department about the smut and pornography which was mailed into their homes. Each month I receive numerous indignant and well-justified complaints from parents whose young children received filthy mailings. My discussions with postmasters in the Second District indicate that the problem is widespread and that obscene mail is frequently received in homes with small children.

There is no question about it. It is high time that action is taken to put a halt to the use of the mails to distribute such obscenity and pornography. We can no longer tolerate the use of the Post Office to do the work of the smut merchant, and I have introduced legislation which I feel will go a long way in correcting this problem.

My bill will prohibit mail-order sales of obscene materials to children of school age, and it will make the unsolicited mailing of "hard-core" pornography to a family with children under 16 a Federal crime punishable by fine and jail sentence.

The bill does not seek to limit the freedom of speech or expression in the adult world. The legislation is specifically directed at the protection of children. It sets forth specifically the types of materials which cannot be mailed and therefore avoids difficult legal questions about the definition of "obscenity." It places responsibility for unsolicited offensive mailings to children and families on the obscenity racketeers whose materials have no redeeming social value.

In a 1968 decision, the Supreme Court made it clear that offensive materials are not constitutionally protected where the interests of minors are involved.

"Constitutional interpretation has consistently recognized that parents' claim to authority in their own household to direct the rearing of children is basic in the structure of our society."

It is my conviction that this legislation is clearly Constitutional within the reasoning of the courts. It in no way impinges on the rights of legitimate publishers or members of the literary community and is designed to cover only those whose materials are clearly, purient in intent.

I have urged the House Post Office Committee to take prompt action on this legislation. There is no excuse for further delay in fighting back against the despicable elements in our society who make their money from the sale of obscenity.

Until this legislation can be approved, however, I urge residents of the Second District to make use of the legal remedies which are presently available. Under Public Law 90-206, which I strongly supported last year, an individual can require a mailer of offensive material to remove his name from the list and cease such mailings in the future.

If you receive an offensive mailing, you should take the mailing, including the envelope, to the local Post Office where the Postmaster will gladly furnish you with a legal complaint form.

Your name and those of your children under 18 must be removed from the list within 30 days or the mailer is liable for federal prosecution. My office will be glad to assist you in making this complaint.

Lansing Report

By GIL BURSLEY

Michigan tourism will be given a big shot in the arm if many proposals in the works are approved by the legislature and adopted by state departments.

It isn't that Michigan isn't well supplied with tourists. Last year an estimated 13 million tourists spent $1.17 billion, of which more than $75 million was for such tax-producing items as meals, rooms, gasoline, cigarets and liquor.

But tourism is becoming an increasingly competitive thing and, unless progress is made constantly, Michigan could slide backward in the field.

Hopes are high — and preliminary indications seem to back them — that the recently reduced Mackinac bridge tolls will stimulate tourist traffic. January traffic, the first under the $1.50 cent toll, showed an increase of 14.3 per cent over the previous January. Tourist officials are hopeful this increase will be even more when summer traffic reaches its peak.

The legislature, which last year passed legislation making reduced bridge tolls possible, this year will consider a bill to reduce the daily park fee for non-residents from $2 to $1 in hopes of encouraging more non-residents to visit Michigan and its state parks.

The legislature will be asked to set broad guidelines for distribution and use of money from the $100 million recreation bond issue approved by Michigan residents last November. This money, along with federal and city matching funds, will be used to expand and improve recreational facilities at all levels of government.

The Highway Department is seeking legislation to prohibit camping, organized group meetings, and picnics in highway parks and rest areas. This is primarily to avoid congestion for tourists. The department reports increasingly heavy use of the state's 57 highway rest areas and 100 roadside parks.

A move is under way to broaden present industrial development bond act provisions to include development of tourist and resort recreational facilities and attractions.

Another move is on in the legislature to establish Washington's and Columbus' birthdays, Memorial Day and Veterans' Day as week-end holidays to coincide with federal law, which goes into effect in 1971. This is expected to stimulate tourist traffic thru long weekends.

In an effort to make highways more attractive (and save taxpayers' money), the highway department also is seeking legislation to ban throwaway beer bottles.

The Tourist Council is seeking legislation to allow it to review applications for resort liquor licenses and to require council approval before such licenses are approved.

Because of the state's tight financial situation, the Tourist Council has not requested an increase in its budget for the next fiscal year, asking that its present budget of $1,054,563 be continued. But council officials are considering some structural changes which they hope will bring more tourists to Michigan.

Wan Ci Ku Girls Visit Ko Ki Kids

The Wan Ci Ku Camp Fire Girls and their leaders, Mrs. Paul Hover and Mrs. James Thomas, were guests of the Ko Ki Camp Fire Girls, at their leader's, Mrs. Russell Cadmus, home in Ridgeway recently.

The purpose of the joint meeting was to take part in their first ceremonial. The Wohelo candles were lighted by Gloria Sanchez, Denise Stradler and Sally Costello. The traditional ceremonial songs were sung.

Individual candles, decorated with each girl's symbol, were lighted as the girls told of their Camp Fire names and explained the meaning of her symbol.

Debbie Moore, who had decided to change her Camp Fire name, ceremoniously burned the paper on which her old name was written.

The girls received their candy sale certificates and charms, and their craft honor beads, which they had earned. Special Martha Allen Membership Charms were awarded Vicki Cook, Meg Moore and Judy Thomas for their work in securing new Camp Fire members.

The Wohelo candles were extinguished by Minnie Lopez, Marianne Sackett and Bobbi Hyder at the close of the ceremonial.

The date of the next ceremonial for the Tecumseh Area Camp Fire Girls will be the Grand Council Fire, on June 3, 1969. At this time the girls will receive rank certificates and the 3rd grade Blue Birds will "Fly Up" and become Camp Fire Girls. All parents and sponsors should plan to attend.

Our Readers Write

TO THE EDITOR:

May we please take this opportunity to say how proud we are to be citizens of Tecumseh, this day, Mar. 17, 1969! We awoke to a beautiful day, to see our American flags flying, some at half-mast. This boy, and others before him have not died in vain.

We cannot find words to express our very deep, very real feelings. None of us know the Rudd family personally, but may the city's gesture of flying the American Flag help just a little in expressing our way of hope and life.

What better tribute to any American could there be; how could it be said any other way, to the Tecumseh families who are so much in our thoughts and in our hearts today?

Yes, life goes on, through the Supreme Being we may not understand, but we will never forget.

Sincerely,
Tri-Town Extension Study Group.

TO THE EDITOR:

While reading this week's Herald I ran across the death of Floyd H. Bryan. I have known Floyd from a little boy up when we were living on the John Heesen farm west of Tecumseh. Floyd's father ran a milk route in Tecumseh in the horse and buggy days. How well I remember those days when I was a boy living in my grandfather's old home just a block from the Baptist Church south. My people were members of that church. I also went to Sunday School there. I could tell a great deal about Tecumseh. My father was a harness maker at one time in Tecumseh, too. There is not many of us old timers living today. I remain very truly yours,

Mr. Harry O. Munger

TO THE EDITOR:

I am writing to ask you to change my name on my paper. I have re-married and my name now is Mrs. Charles A. Smith.

I enjoy getting the paper when I can get someone to read it to me as I am totally blind.

I had a reader before I was married and my husband also has poor eyesight, but lately Mrs. Gladystene Daisher from Tecumseh has been coming over and reading to me. That way we both get to enjoy the news.

My address is:

Flying Operation Due Here Soon

Meyers Airport in Tecumseh will be the site of operation for a new flying school which will be operated by John Leslie Calhoun in the near future.

Mr. Calhoun's flying experience dates back to 1942, when he first started flying in Adrian with the late Ken Morey. Shortly after, Mr. Calhoun entered Aviation Cadet training in the Army Air Corps and upon completion of the course he became a flying instructor in World War II. During the Korean conflict he went back on active duty with the U. S. Air Force as a Jet flying instructor. For the past year he has worked part time as an instructor for Jacobs Flying Service in Adrian.

Musings

by Bill Sanford

Opposition abounds against the new County Board of Supervisors. Talk now is that they will be recalled. But that is all it is, talk. Opponents in this county of any change in local government have always been long on talk and short on action.

For the county, this is sad. We have able-bodied persons who can work toward reform of the county government. These reformers remained silent throughout the apportionment commission meetings less than a year ago. Now they are up in arms because they do not believe the county is doing its job. Eight months ago they had equal opportunity to help change it.

Considering the task of reapportioning Lenawee Supervisors, the one accomplished was good. I have always been a critic of local government, but let's face it, the ones who want to change it are inferior in knowledge of Lenawee government and other facets that involve the people.

The hunger of the "outs" is not a good springboard for reform. County reform will be needed and in the very near future. But the efforts of the recent groups to push through a mental health program were typical of what happens. They goofed, because of a lack of knowledge of the program as well as the workings of the local government.

Several persons stated and laughed that this issue would break the back of John Keller & Co. But it didn't and my old friend, John, had the last laugh.

Too many answers were needed from both sides and none was forthcoming. Pressure applied through a show of force is not the way to reform. I have observed the supervisors often and seldom, if ever, does anyone show up to watch them work.

When Lewis Glaser, Russell Roback and some of the other new supervisors realize that a speech does nothing more than pass time, perhaps things will happen, they are bound to.

Grandstanding went out a long time ago. The inferior knowledge put forth on the mental health issue and the ability to bring taxpayers any enlightenment of the program was the cause of defeat, not John Keller's stubbornness in spending money.

High-cost resistant rootworm insecticides don't make sense for Michigan corn

All you need is low-cost aldrin. Why? Because there is no resistant rootworm problem in this state. But this doesn't mean that the rest of the soil insect complex (including rootworms) can't cause you serious losses in your corn.

On unprotected land, cutworms can cut your profits by $11.50 per acre, grape colaspis by $7.00 and wireworms by $4.00 (Based on 100 bushels/acre @ $1.00/bushel.)

You can keep your crop out of this kind of trouble with a single application of aldrin. Year after year on millions of acres of cornland, aldrin has proved that it can make a profit in nine out of 10 fields—over and above its cost. In the tenth field, the grower will break even.

This year, don't buy a high-cost resistant rootworm insecticide to control a problem you don't even have. Go it alone with low-cost aldrin. Order your supply today.

SIRENS AND SONGS

The wail of the fire siren has become all too familiar. Just lately, and of this writing I count only two days, there has been a slight let-up but, my goodness, for a while there it seemed that we were averaging three or four fire alarms a day. Things must be tinder dry and unless there is a good soaking rain or one of our famous March snowstorms, I fear the siren wailing will start again.

Several weeks ago, I believe it was on a Thursday afternoon, I thought perhaps the dry spell was over. The snow started tumbling down and all of us figured that it spelled the end of our early spring.

I should have known that it would not pile up to any great depths, over and over again, my weatherman has explained that a northwest wind usually does not bring us more than token flurries.

The western part of the state may be clobbered but, by the time the breezes reach us, all of the moisture they have picked up while crossing Lake Michigan has been dumped. I was not thinking such technical thoughts however — I merely looked out, saw one of the prettiest snowfalls ever, and found myself wishing that it would continue.

It was a regular storybook snowstorm, as the flakes drifted down, they seemed to tumble over themselves. I am almost wrong in calling them flakes because instead of flat geometric particles, what I saw falling looked for all the world like puffs of cotton. Absolutely beautiful.

JUST AS THE storm did not last, neither have any of our other flurries amounted to much. And I almost feel guilty about criticizing because, usually late March snowstorms or any cold miserable rainy spell brings on some bitter complaints, but this year, we need them. We need the moisture. The creek is low, the ground is dry and the fire hazard must be high.

Before going futher, may I join what should be a loud chorus of "Hurrahs, Congratulations, and Thank You" aimed at our firemen. They do a great job and no matter what time of the day or night the call comes, they are Johnny-on-the-spot. After dropping everything and rushing to hop on the fire truck two or three times a day, it just cannot be easy to pile out of bed in the middle of the night. They have done a lot of it this month though and I just hope we all appreciate their efforts.

ON THE OTHER hand, I wonder if the firemen appreciate some help they are getting? The help is not in the actual fighting of fires, it comes before that and involves the spreading of the alarm.

Missie, our black German shepherd, is a self-appointed auxiliary fire siren. And what a job she does! With nose straight up in the air, she howls just as long as the siren wails.

She is a big dog and has an even bigger voice — at least, when she puts her mind to helping, she speaks loudly and oh, what a true tone. Of course, when the siren screams during the night or if it goes when she is in the middle of a nap, I must be truthful and admit that she might miss the first blast. For a dog, she is an especially sound sleeper.

She does not wake up too quickly either and often her accompaniment to the second and third wails is a bit on the sleepy side. When wide-awake though, she puts her whole heart into helping — her whole voice, too!

So it is that my fire siren wailing has droned on too long and I shall not be able to go into the birds' voices which were to be the second half of "Sirens and Songs".

Beware of.... Arthur Kopit

By BILL SANFORD

The theatre patrons of Adrian College were treated to the utmost lesson in theatrical absurdity last week when the college presented Arthur Kopit's, "Oh, Dad, Poor Dad, Mama's Hung You In The Closet and I'm Feelin' So Sad." Only one thing was more lengthy and more boring than the title, the play.

Kopit, like so many demented intellectuals, believes that the senses create the mood, leaving nothing to the imagination. To have possessed an imagination anywhere near the one needed to comprehend this bit of pop sentiment would take another Arthur Kopit.

The senses saw no realization at all and an explanation of what the play intends is needed on the program. The playwright used shock techniques in the guise of farce. Really he was saying, "the whole human race stinks and I wanted to get you to pay money so I could tell you."

What little there was to say about this production lie in one or two performances. The play itself concerned a widow who carries her husband around in a coffin, hanging him up in the closet wherever the wings of her fancy have flown her.

She has this son who is an imbecile, because she has made him an imbecile. She has this "thing" about complexion "white as snow" and the son, Albert or Jonathan or Poor Soul, whichever you like, is supposed to possess such a complexion.

Barbara Hess played Madame Rosepettle, the cool Mamma with the hang-up. Miss Hess played the role with one thing in mind, it seemed, getting the whole thing over with. She boomed out each line in such a fashion it was hard to catch what was being said.

Jonathan or Albert or Poor Soul was Arnold Koester, who carried it a bit too far. He over did the foolish actions to the point it distracted. Even Kopit wouldn't put a fool on stage for two hours without having him say something, but then he might.

A playwright can write a six course meal into a play, carry it out in six minutes and make it believable. Koester should have presented the idiot and then set about explaining the torment, tragicomic as it was, to the audience. The performance in Adrian swallowed half of the dialogue through inaudibility.

Jane Tinker played Rosalie, a littl trollop who decides to take Jonathan away from it all. Miss Tinker giggled her way through the saga of dum-dum.

Mike Metzel was the only human in the romp of lost souls, he was Commodore Roseabove. Metzel is a talented young man who came to the college this year and is a welcomed addition. While on stage he brought some sort of equilibrium to an otherwise tedious and far from relaxing venture in theatrics.

The bellboys, who trot around with Pirana Fish, an indigestant swimmer if ever there was, and two man-eating plants, acted like they had been trained at Parris Island and the Marine Corps had lent them out for a weekend.

The performance was not the fault of the college so much as it was of the piece. It survived on Broadway in 1960, somehow, perhaps because the day of the dramatist is asleep temporarily. I see plays like this and then I think of the truly good plays of O'Neill and company gathering dust and I wonder if perhaps these wouldn't give more of a challenge to young actors than plays that push the audience away rather than seek their compassion or understanding.

Three-Year Training Offered To Students

High school graduates, including those of next June, up to and including 40 years of age, are eligible to apply. Acceptance will be based on examinations.

Applications can be obtained from county clerks, the Michigan Employment Security Commission, the Michigan Civil Service Commission, all Highway Department offices, or by writing the Department of State Highways, Personnel Division, Post Office Drawer K, Lansing, Michigan.

Letters to the Editor

TO THE EDITOR:

In 1937 the National Girls State program began its long successful program of building up a greater awareness in the direction of better citizens in our country. The building of a nation depends on the education that we give our youth. So it's only right that youth should be considered in the great program of Girls State. This is what they do while in attendance at Girls State. They learn about living together in a community, learn about democracy and how it works but mostly learn about what a good citizen should do in taking an active part in the world about her. The girls spend a very busy week learning about the government by actually running their own state-Girls State.

The mythical state has 462 citizens in the 21 cities and 7 counties, named after our Past Department Presidents. During the week the girls go from city to county to state activities, thus learning as they are participating in the great adventure. The climax is the election of governor and state officials.

This year, as in the past, the American Legion Auxiliary Girls State will be held in Ann Arbor at the University of Michigan from June 15 thru the 22nd.

The three representatives from Tecumseh High School have been selected and will submit to you their activities and photos.

The tuition is $50 per girl and has been paid by The Business and Professional Women, The Tecumseh Products Company and The American Legion Auxiliary.

Many thanks for your co-operation.

Shirley Herrick.

TO THE EDITOR:

Congratulations on being named a winner in the 1968 Michigan Weekly Newspaper Contest.

A judgment of "best" from members of one's own professions isn't easy to come by, I know, and when it does come it falls only to those who deserve the honor.

With every best wish,

Sincerely,

Philip A. Hart.

TO THE EDITOR:

Upon reading Michael W. Murphy's letter to the editor I couldn't help but wonder at the silence of the church these days. Are we supposed to draw back in horror when some evangelist offends the delicate nature of some student while Hollywood continues to churn out sex in its rawest form? Is the church to remain silent on the very subject that we seem to be surrounded by in every magazine, book, advertisement, movie and newspaper?

No, Michael, God's instructions are given very clearly in His Word. "Cry aloud, spare not, lift up thy voice like a trumpet, and show my people their transgressions, and the House of Jacob their sins." Isa. 58:1. This evangelist was only doing his duty to try to warn young people of the perils of premarital sex.

The church has been asleep far too long. Never in the history of this nation have we seen sin running this rampant. It's high time a man of God came on the scene to speak out against sin. The church needs to be a united force challenging the powers that are striving to destroy our young people. Pastors need to reread the charge given them by St. Paul in II Timothy 4:1-5 (Amplified New Testament) and put it into practice.

Already we have seen the results of removing prayer and Bible reading from our schools. Colleges, many of which were built and established by Christians upon the Word of God, are in the process of a complete moral breakdown. You cannot remove the foundation without the structure crumbling to the ground, and that's what happens when you remove God, Michael.

Thank God for any person who's concerned enough about our young people to take the time to expound God's Word, even if it is a feeble expression, and thank God for young people who are wise enough to listen and heed.

Mrs. M. A. Jones
712 Ternes Rd.

Sudan Missionary Visits Mom, Sister

By DOROTHY GRIGG

Mrs. Sam Burns arrived here recently at the home of her mother, Mrs. Harry Fish, and sister, Mrs. Margaret Van Vorst, on Tipton Hwy., from London, England, where she and her husband have charge of the British headquarters of the Sudan Interior Mission.

A missionary for 14 years in the Sudan, Mrs. Burns met her husband there in 1948 and they were married in the Sudan in 1950.

Mr. Burns had arrived in the Sudan the year ahead of his wife. The two pioneered in a tribe where no missionary had ever worked before, first learning the language by using Arabic as an intermediary. Both had had linguistic training, which helped them to recognize sounds and learn how to reproduce them in the tribal language.

Double consonants and double vowels caused them trouble, as these were so easily overlooked in tonal pronunciations.

Of course, their purpose was to teach the Gospel, but much basic work was necessary before this could be done.

Mrs. Burns remarked that it is a temptation to start teaching too soon, and then mistakes are made in vocabulary and culture and one teaches the wrong thing perhaps unknowingly.

She and another young missionary were sent to redo language work which others ahead of them had done inaccurately—for instance, one slight error in language had led the people of that tribe to believe they would die for their sins rather that that "Christ had died for their sins".

The people resented the changes at first, but gradually accepted them as younger children learned the new orthography.

The native Clinton girl said that the medical work and language are fascinating but only a means to an end. This work builds the confidence of the people, and by the time they can understand the missionaries they are ready to listen to the preaching of the Gospel.

The Burns left the Sudan in 1962 to work in London, and two years later all the missionaries were put out of the South Sudan due to a north-south conflict — tens of thousands of Southerners have been killed and the conflict is still going on.

People in the north Sudan are Arabic and Moslem and in the south are pagan and Christian.

The Sudan Interior Mission went into Nigeria in 1893 and now have over 1300 missionaries altogether, serving all across the breadth of Africa from the Atlantic to the Indian Ocean, in Nigeria, Liberia, Niger, Upper Volta, Ghana, Dahomey, Sudan, Ethiopia and Somali Republic. (At the time when the Mission was founded, the name "Sudan" was used to designate this entire area.)

The Burns and their son, David, 13, now live in London on the first floor of an old three story home which is also used for the offices of the Mission.

Mrs. Burns came on ahead to visit her family. Her husband and David will arrive soon to stay for a few weeks. David will return to England by himself and will live at a hostel at his school for three weeks until his parents return.

Mrs. Burns spoke appreciatively of the educational system in England. She said that it is hard to generalize but she felt that usually discipline there is more strict than in America. She especially likes the uniform dress of students, but remarked that street dress there of the girls is even more extreme than here.

Happy to be home for a time, Mrs. Burns spoke with understanding of the situation in the churches of this country and also in England today. She quoted from the English writer, John Milton, saying, "The hungry sheep look up and are not fed."

"Some times church goers get worse than nothing when they attend services, for even though they are not 'fed' they seek no further for they have been to church," she said.

USIA Photographer Shows Experiences

CLINTON — "Five Cities in June 1963" was the subject of a motion picture shown to 50 members and guests of the Clinton Woman's Club, Wednesday evening at Lyster Hall.

Joseph O'Donnell, who recently retired after 25 years' service as an official photographer in the White House and with the U. S. Information Agency, had arranged for the production of the film, and he presented it at the meeting.

Shown in vivid color, the dramatic events of that memorable June have had a long-range impact on history.

June 1963 commenced with the death of Pope John and the film depicted the pageantry of the Vatican coronation of his successor, Pope Paul VI, in Rome.

The documentary film, which has been shown around the world contains brief segments, supplied by the Russians, of the first Soviet manned space flight, although it is largely obscured by the smoke of blast-off. In contrast, is shown the sharply-detailed films of the first manned space flight from the United States.

Other events shown include the confrontation of Federal troops with Gov. George Wallace, when the University of Alabama, at Tuscaloosa, was ordered to admit the first Negro students.

Another spectacular scene shows the shelling and burning of Saigon, June, 1963, by the Viet Cong.

The month was climaxed by the tumultuous reception for President John F. Kennedy by throngs of cheering Germans in Berlin. O'Donnell had placed his staff photographer in a church bell tower the day before the reception, and although the fellow was almost deafened by the resounding clanging of the church bell beside him every hour, he obtained the most complete photo coverage of the event, while other news photographers found it impossible to get through the surging crowds.

Mr. O'Donnell began his career as a still photographer during the term of President Harry Truman. From his post at the White House, O'Donnell eventually became a director of the motion film department of the U. S. Information Agency, and by this means was on hand to film many of the major events and foreign tours of Presidents Eisenhower and Kennedy.

He told how he was also present to photograph the famous "kitchen cabinet" meeting of Vice-president Richard Nixon and Premier Krushchev in Moscow, and he was along when Mr. and Mrs. Nixon toured South America, when they were assaulted by demonstrators.

Residing in Clinton now, Mr. and Mrs. O'Donnell, nee Ellen Schmidt, are preparing to open a new antique business, Joel's Barn, in a few weeks. They were introduced by Mrs. Hans Schmidt, program chairman.

Mrs. Ralph Reed, president, conducted the business meeting at which the following officers were elected:

President — Mrs. Ralph Reed

First vice-president — Mrs. John Mabry

Second vice-president — Mrs. Edgar Randall

Recording secretary — Mrs. Nick Karapas

Corresponding secretary — Mrs. Merval Mattis

Treasurer — Mrs. George Wolf

Parliamentarian — Mrs. John Monaghan

Mrs. Reed, Mrs. Roy Bower, Mrs. Clarence Feldkamp and Mrs. Dan Reilly served assorted cookies, tea and coffee at a table decorated with shamrocks and a centerpiece arrangement of green and white daisies and white gladioli.

Mrs. Thomas Pence and Mrs. George Wolf were co-hostesses.

The spring luncheon will be held April 9, at 1 p.m. in the Methodist Church. The featured speaker will be Mrs. William Adams, presenting a travelogue, "Around the World."

The Dance Band will be featured again this year, opening and closing both acts of the Follies. They have had a special arrangement of the song, "And the Beat Goes On" made by University of Michigan music student, John Englert. Mr. Englert also has arranged a Dance Band accompaniment for Debbie Gibbard, who will sing, "Both Sides Now."

Three choreographers are working with the chorus line. A can-can routine is being prepared by Mrs. Frederick McCrate, to be accompanied by the Dance Band, playing "Ballet Parisienne". Mrs. Don Geiger is working on choreography for "The Girl from Ipanema". The 10 dancers will wear pink satin ponchos, as pictured, for this routine. Kris Humble, a former Chorus Line member and Drum Majorette, is helping with the finale, "And the Beat Goes On".

The Chorus Line members this year are Joanne Sharpe, Karen Hull, Jeanne Meeks, Judy Hoyt, Melody Grinnell, Kathy Hertler, Roxanne Merritt, Gala Redman, Jan Shelley and Sylvia Gray. Alternates Carol Dixon and Kay Greenfield are also practicing several hours a day.

Gina Green is Mistress of Ceremonies and John Steffens is Master of Ceremonies. Both are seniors. Seniors are also playing a featured part in the show as Jerry Porter plays a trumpet solo, "Java", and Dave Hawkins plays a solo part in the Dance Band tune, "Almost Like Being In Love".

Senior twirlers Joanne Sharpe and Karen Hull and underclassmen twirlers, Jeanne Meeks and Susie Lipp will perform to "Thoroughly Modern Millie'.

Clinton's band director, Richard Perkins, and a committee consisting of John Steffens, Joanne Sharpe, Karen Hull, Charles Finkbeiner, Dave Hawkins, Don Osgood and Jerry Porter have selected all singers, skits and band numbers to be in the Follies.

Among the singers are Dwight McKenna and Joanne Sharpe, singing "Something Stupid"; Shevawn Sherman, singing "The Love of Love"; Jeanne Meeks, vocalizing "As Tears Go By"; and Janine Green, with "Cruel War". Uruguayan Exchange Student Alice Kramer, will sing a Spanish song and accompany herself on the guitar.

Variety will be added to the Follies by a pop band, the U. S. Steel, and by several skits and fillers, promising an entertaining evening of local talent.

ON CUE — Chorus line members, left, Karen Hull, Jeanne Meeks, and Joanne Sharpe, take a break from rehearsals for Clinton High School's 1969 Band Follies, "And the Beat Goes On". The variety show will be presented March 27, 28 and 29, at 8 p.m., in the high school.

Put Chiefs on Ice

The "Lenawee Chiefs", a new adult amateur hockey organization is starting to turn some heads and alert some of the surrounding community hockey teams.

Knowledgeable hockey enthusiasts from the Jackson area have commented on the fine caliber of play shown by the new "Lenawee Chiefs."

The Adrian Recreation Department this year organized an amateur adult hockey program with surprising success. A turnout far above expectations showed up at the first meeting. Young men from Adrian College, men from other walks of life ranging in age from 18-40!, some with little experience, others with considerable amount of hockey know-how and all showing a deep desire to play hockey, were there.

Because of the extreme popularity, a letter was sent to various communities in Lenawee County, inviting them to help form a county-wide hockey program.

It seemed at the same time, interest was already growing and the group had advanced a little further than Adrian, and the boys from Clinton were more than happy to oblige.

After several workouts in various ice arenas in Ann Arbor, Toledo and Jackson at some late hours, it was decided to have another meeting to discuss joining forces and combine both teams to make one strong team to represent Lenawee County and at that time again surrounding communities in Lenawee County were asked to participate.

A team name was adopted, a temporary manager/coach was selected and the "Lenawee Chiefs" were officially born. The team has now been together for over six weeks and are playing nearly every Sunday at the new Jackson Arena.

Next year the Chiefs will be registered in the Jackson area amateur hockey association and will be included in a regularly scheduled season.

It is hoped that enough interest will be shown by Lenawee County groups that a sponsor or sponsors may be found to help support the team, as these boys, because of their deep interest for a rugged sport, have given much of both their time and money to see this program succeed.

It is also the desire of the Adrian Recreational Department as well as the team that this newest athletic venture be a success and that through it, more interest will be shown in the Recreation Department's Youth Hockey program and that one day a dream of having an ice arena and "permanent ice" will become a reality in Adrian.

Student Teachers

Robert A. Glenn, Linda Kay Easton and James Edgar Fleming of Clinton are among Western Michigan students who plan to become teachers and are getting practical classroom experience this semester throughout Michigan.

Mr. Glenn is teaching at the Waterford School, Miss Easton at Southeastern Junior High School at Battle Creek and Mr. Fleming at Lawton School. All are majoring in secondary education.

Cadet 1/C Gerald L. Hale, 21, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Q. Hale, 108 Evans Creek Dr., has been named to command "G" Company, one of eight companies which make up the cadet regiment at the U. S. Coast Guard Academy.

He will serve as company commander at the New London, Conn., school until mid-March, when the final of four regimental organizations for the academic year go into effect.

He entered the Coast Guard Academy in 1965, following his graduation from Tecumseh High School. He is currently on the Commandant of Cadets' List at the school for superior military performance and conduct.

Cadet Hale is scheduled to graduate with his class in June and will receive a commission as ensign in the Coast Guard.

Life After Death Studied

By MAXINE CALHOUN

The uniquely complicated problems of preparation for a possible life after death, will be the subject of the second annual National Conference of the Cryonics Societies of America, April 11-12, at the Michigan Union, University of Michigan, Ann Arbor.

It won't be necessary to "look it up in a Funk & Wagnell's" if I explain that the word "cryobiology" comes from the Greek kryos (icy cold) and biology, the science of living things.

Cryobiologists are chiefly concerned with freezing living matter to preserve it for future use. By this process, medical technology has made it possible to store frozen tissues of human skin, eye corneas and blood, and to use them later for transplants.

Cryonics Societies are nonprofit organizations, which have been formed by those who believe in the theory that human bodies can be stored, at clinical death, at certain sub-freezing temperatures, with the possibility that eventual research will permit their revival to life.

Conley Hall, of Monroe, one of 80 members of the Cryonics Society of Michigan, hosts for the National Conference in April, explained the cryonics plan as "a person's only chance" for survival after death.

"With burial or cremation, one will certainly not have that chance," Mr. Hall said.

Cryonic suspension modules (for human cold storage) are now being manufactured in Phoenix, Ariz., and these will be on display at the conference.

So far, there have only been 12 persons whose bodies have been permanently stored thru the cryonic system, at locations in Arizona, Ohio, and New York, Mr. Hall reported. However, many others, like himself, are making the necessary arrangements for their own cryonic care in the future.

Cost of the storage module is about $4,800, with an estimated yearly cost of $300. Those who choose to arrange for the cryonic care upon their eventual death, are urged to first make adequate provision for the financial support of their survivors. Then, it is suggested they place a $15,000 life insurance policy in trust with the Cryonic Society to insure their perpetual care until such time as they may be restored to life.

The legal, ethical, religious and scientific aspects of cryonics will be discussed by experts in the various areas of concern, at the conference, which is intended for the general public and for professionals in the life-extension sciences.

Information about registrations may be obtained from: John C. Erfurt, Treasurer, Cryonics Society of Michigan, 405 S. Fourth St., Ann Arbor, Mich. 48103.

God Is My Landlord

A party of soil experts had assembled to meet the author of the controversial book. They adjourned to the field where Mr. Faulkner gave them more details of his philosophy. He assured them that the field, which had been neglected for a number of years and was heavily overgrown with weeds, would disc perfectly and raise a good crop of wheat. It was decided to make this project a "proving ground" for the new theory, and test it in the Dynamic Kernels fifth planting that fall.

Some of the experts present at the conference were Dr. C. E. Millar and Paul Rood of the Soil Department of Michigan State College; Frank Trull, U.S.D.A. Soil Conservation Specialist; Donald Currie, teacher in the Ford Schools; George Parsons, Vice President of the Michigan Association of Agricultural Teachers and Clarence L. Bolander, Deputy Commissioner of Agriculture.

Following the conference at the field, the group went to the Saline Rotary Club where Mr. Faulkner spoke:

"'Plowman's Folly' is not just an argument against that farmer's friend, the moldboard plow; it is much more than that. It is an argument for the development of qualities in our land which will make it naturally productive."

Mr. Faulkner explained, "Millions of acres of farm land in this country have become so low in productivity that they no longer grow profitable crops, and such land cannot finance its recovery in the way that usually is suggested — fertilizer, lime, etc. My book's chief mission is to show how land so depleted can be renewed without the customary expense. The methods suggested are especially useful on such land.

"Essentially, earth develops its own productive ability wherever conditions permit. The manner in which raw earth gradually covers itself with a mantle of productive soil is so simple that it can be copied by man. The moldboard plow, because it is designed to displace surface soil and replace it with subsoil, cannot be used to imitate the natural way of mixing earth and trash together. In order to do such mixing as is done naturally, it is necessary either to use some implement other than the moldboard plow or use the plow differently from its ordinary use. Some men remove the moldboard from the plow and in that way do a fair mixing job. Others plow very shallow, later mixing together the earth and surface matter by discing as deep as the plowing. Others ploy twice, the second time a few inches deeper than the first."

Mr. Faulkner closed his interesting talk by saying, "Regardless of the implement or method, the object is to have the most possible decay going-on in the soil while the crop roots are searching for their food. Such practice results in higher yields, and the crops so grown are of better quality."

It was difficult to secure fertilizer during the war, but Clark Brody, Manager of the Michigan Farm Bureau, undertook the responsibility of seeing that this project had all that it needed. It was estimated that the requirements this fall would be 50 tons of "9-12-12" analysis fertilizer. . . . Directly or indirectly, no matter how one figures it, the Lord's Biblical Wheat was favored.

About a month after the harvest, Ed Clark took Perry out to the site of the next celebration. Workmen were busy everywhere. A dam was being built, the banks of the creek were being sodded, a natural arena was being cleaned and seeded in a beautiful valley along the road and the foundation for a fine mill was already under construction!

Perry rubbed his eyes. It surely must be a dream!

Ed said to Perry, "Mr. Ford went back to his office the very next day after the dinner at your home and started on the drawings for a mill with suitable grounds for the next great harvest of Dynamic Kernels." . . .

Now, here it was, actually under way.

A few days later as Mr. Ford left for Canada on a vacation, he said to Ed Clark, "When I come back, I want to see a beautiful little lake out there."

Perry couldn't believe his eyes, as he looked at that beautiful lake already taking form.

Several weeks later, Billy Hayden, Ralph Daniels, Martin Eggert and Perry were hauling the 333 bushels of seed to the Kahlbaum Mills for smut treatment, in the big Fruehauf Trailer, when Ed Clark flagged them down along the road and detoured them around past the new Biblical Wheat grounds. The exact location of this site was across the road from the John Ladd place, and southeast of Pennington's Corners, in Macon Township, about six miles northeast of Tecumseh.

They pulled off the road into the little valley of the Macon Creek, where the hills arose on both sides like a huge natural amphitheater, protected by giant cottonwood trees. The ground had been leveled off in the center. When seeded with grass, it would form a natural carpet for the anticipated 10,000 people to comfortably view the ceremonies next year.

Ed Clark showed the little group the drawings and architect's sketches of the whole dream as it would appear when completed.

From this natural amphitheater under the trees, one could get a complete panoramic view of the fields all about in a great semi-circle. The sparkling creek and the beautiful white mill with a waterwheel, were in the center of the arc. Mr. Ford even went so far toward completing the picture, as to order the old farm homestead of Perry's maternal grandfather, Leroy Mead, moved to the site on top of the hill nearby, for the miller's home. The cost of Mr. Ford's elaborate preparations for the next harvest were variously estimated from one hundred thousand to three hundred thousand dollars.

As they drove out of the little hollow, Perry suggested, "Wouldn't it be wonderful if the mill might be named, 'The Dynamic Kernels Mill'?"

Perry was breathless as he anticipated what Ed might say, but did not have to wait long, for he smiled and answerd quickly, "That's exactly Mr. Ford's idea, too — and that's to be its name."

They had even discussed the style of lettering — white letters on a black background, against the white mill.

Another high spot in this visit was Ed's confirmation of Mr. Ford's intentions of making 5,000 acres of land available for the project the following year. Mr. Clark explained also that every thing else would be sidetracked, and all of their labor and equipment would be used most of the summer in getting the ground ready for this sixth and final crop.

CHAPTER 11

Tragedy Stalks the Fifth Year

The first four years of this colorful experiment with God's Word and His lessons, had their many difficulties and problems, but the fifth year was destined to encounter a major crisis which came very nearly ending the now world-famous Dynamic Kernels "Biblical Wheat" demonstration.

The sowing of the fifth crop had been set for September 19, on the Ford land near Macon, where the mill and amphitheater were being constructed. Several days before the event, Perry felt as though he should check with Mr. Ford on some details. When he called Frank Campsall, Mr. Ford's secretary, he was told that Mr. Ford was planning on being in Tecumseh, and to "sit tight" at home until he was contacted later.

About 11:30 a.m., Bill Beardsley called Perry at home and reported that the Ford party was on the way out to the house. Mary Jane, Martha and Betty, gave the house a "hit and run" cleaning and told their father and mother that it looked all right — if they kept the visitors out of the dining room, which was being used as a promotion office for the Dynamic Kernels project.

In a few moments, the girls excitedly cried, "Here they come!"

Mr. Ford's shiny black car was first, and then another official Ford Motor Company automobile, followed by Ed Clark's grey Ford. They all pulled into the drive along side of the house, which was overhung with huge shady maple trees.

Mr. Ford announced, "We can stop for only a moment," but when Perry invited them into the house, they all entered and found comfortable chairs in the living room. In the party were Henry Ford, Frank Campsall, John Thompson, Ed Clark and Rufus Wilson.

Perry suggested that they should make a few definite plans for the Fifth Sowing and asked whether they might like to hold a preliminary service in Ford's Martha Mary Chapel in Macon.

Mr. Ford was pleased with the idea and remarked, "You know my ideas about churches. I like these little chapels and believe that we should have them all over the country, where people of all faiths and creeds might feel free to gather. We do not need churches. We need chapels. I know of churches costing a million dollars, and too many of them are for 'show'. . . ."

When the details were completed, Mr. Ford remarked, "I like this project because wheat is a divine and complete food. That's all I had for breakfast this morning."

Mrs. Hayden asked, "How do you cook it?"

"I just allow it to soak for a day or so, until it almost starts sprouting, and then eat it as it is. I eat from one-half to three-quarters of a cup every day."

Mr. Ford then related how a number of students lived on nothing but wheat when they were working their way through college. "It was a wholesome, healthful and balanced diet."

It was decided that Mr. Ford would plant some of the wheat with an old drill from the Edison Institute Museum, and also sow some of it by hand from a shoulder bag, as was done in the Biblical days.

Perry started for Dearborn immediately after the Ford party left, to make the necessary arrangements with Fred Smith, Director of the Museum, for the equipment desired for the planting.

On the way home, Perry stopped at Ford's Macon school to see Superintendent Carl Hood regarding the part that the children were to play in the program at the Martha Mary Chapel. Mr. Hood turned the details over to the new teacher, Donald M. Currie.

One of Mr. Ford's characteristics, and probably the one most accountable for his phenomenal success, was his ability to delegate full responsibility to his associates, and then demand and expect satisfactory results. This trait stood out in all of his contacts with the Tecumseh Biblical Wheat project. There was something about him that commanded respect, and he did get results.

Several days before the planting, Ed Clark asked Perry what he planned on doing with the last crop — or what he intended doing with the money from its sale.

Perry failed to catch the significance and the foreboding of this question. It had evidently been passed down to Ed, from Henry Ford.

"We are going to use it for Christian work," replied Perry. "Probably a large portion will be sent to some war-stricken area as a gesture of good will, to help bind up the wounds of the war."

"Confidentially, Mr. Ford asked me what you were going to do with it. He thought it would be nice to build a little school house with a workshop back of it."

"It's my conviction that the whole harvest should go to some Christian work, and Mr. Ford's suggestion is for educational development only."

"We might sell enough of the last crop in the form of cubic inches to raise extra money for education," continued Perry. "I want to do something with the major portion of the crop to exalt the Lord who gave us the inspiration and the wheat."

On the morning of the planting, September 19, Perry was sitting at the desk in his home, when Mr. Ford telephoned from Dearborn.

"I want to have a talk with you as soon as possible. In the meantime, get as many preachers and priests out for the planting services as you can. I have an idea. I want you to build a lot of school houses with the money from the final harvest and have them named after you."

Perry quickly objected to that, "Oh no, Mr. Ford, that would be out of the question."

After Perry had finished the conversation, he turned to Mrs. Hayden and shook his head, "This matter is serious. If I object to his plans, he may withdraw his entire support and then we would really be in trouble. I have publicly stated that the money would go into Christian work, and feel that I cannot retract now."

They entered the living room and knelt in long fervent prayer over the "clouds gathering in the sky." They concluded that they would follow the leading of the Holy Spirit, whatever it appeared to them to be. They felt reconciled to the outcome.

The night before the planting date arrived, Perry was notified by the New York Central freight agent, that 50 tons of fertilizer was in a box car on the railroad siding. He had no trucks to haul it to the field. His own trucks were all tied up with deliveries and Ed Clark's men were on other jobs. Burnell Moon, a local trucker, could only squeeze in one load.

Perry was almost desperate, when he thought, "God has been taking care of us at every turn, and this will work out." . . . Ed Clark came to the rescue and arranged to have all of the fertilizer hauled from the cars just as it was needed in the drills, and thus saved double handling.

A large crowd assembled at the Martha Mary Chapel on the morning of the planting, to see the celebrities who gathered for the services, but only one hundred and fifty could be admitted to the small auditorium. Perry did a good job in getting out a representative group of ministers from the surrounding area.

Whatever Mr. Ford had planned to say about the idea he broached to Perry, he mysteriously refrained from mentioning it at the service.

Many notables from all parts of the country were present for the program at the Chapel, and then adjourned to the field to witness the planting of 321 bushels of seed from the fourth harvest.

The ground had been disced according to the instructions of Edward Faulkner, author of "Plowman's Folly," and was ready for the dozen or more Ford-Ferguson tractors and McCormick-Deering drills to put in the wheat. Mr. Faulkner was one of the most keenly interested observers following the whole procedure.

we've been expecting you

On a busy night in New York—or any other city—it pays to be expected. After our wanderings we crave welcome.

There is somewhere else we are expected . . . and welcomed!

Here is an aspect of religious concern which isn't emphasized enough: Whatever you've done about it, you are conscious of the fact that you need God. But are you aware also that God needs you?

Or, putting it another way, do you realize that one of the churches in our community has been expecting you—waiting for you to add your strength to that of your neighbors, your brothers in faith?

You don't need a reservation. Only a reverent heart.

Haze Happy, Simon Sad

CLINTON — Mr. and Mrs. Ted Kiebler spent the weekend in Charleston, W. Va., where they entered their poodle, "Haze" in the obedience trial. Haze captured two firsts, in Open B and Utility classes and earned the highest score in trial award of $85 and five pieces of pewter ware.

Simon, Haze's young son, too young for the competition, went along just for the ride, but Mrs. Kiebler reports that the pup is not a very good traveler, unlike his globe-trotting papa.

HALLWAY OF NORTH WING OF LEDWIDGE HALL AFTER SATURDAY BLAZE.

Fire Threatens Siena

By BILL SANFORD

The quiet solemnity of the noon Angelus being rung from the spires of Siena Heights College was shattered last Saturday with the presence of fire engines from the Adrian Fire Department.

At 9:30 a.m. a call went out to the department that a fire had started on the fourth floor of Ledwidge Hall, a girls' dormitory on the campus.

Girls ran from the building as the firemen made attempts to reach the blaze that quickly enveloped the north and east wings of the structure. The fire had started from an electric blanket which short circuited and set fire to a mattress which smoldered unnoticed.

According to firemen, the fire was extremely difficult to reach with hoses and ladders. They also stated that the treated lumber used in the ceiling joists kept the roof from going. The possibility of a complete loss of the dormitory complex of Ledwidge and Archangelus North Hall was turned back.

Six rooms were completely destroyed and several others suffered extreme damage. Over 210 girls were dislodged as a result of the blaze.

Estimates of damages are still coming in as personal belongings such as clothing, typewriters, tape recorders, record players and other possessions of the students are accounted for.

Other damages were to items upon which no value is based, the memorabilia of youth; stuffed animals, reminders of a dance, some night of another spring, recordings, books.

An anxious moment arose early in the alarm when two girls from the dormitory were not accounted for. They were quickly found.

Many of the students at Siena Heights were not staying on the campus last weekend. This factor and the time of the tragedy diminished what could have been. Only sophomores and seniors, both undergoing tests, were at the college, plus a few other students.

Two Tecumseh area students, Linda Wright and Beth Frownfelder were housed in the dorm. Both were in Tecumseh at the time of the fire but did lose personal belongings. As of yet no estimate can be made.

Ledwidge Hall opened in the fall of 1967 and was dedicated in the spring of last year, had just opened the fourth floor to residence this past November. To the Sisters of St. Dominic, who operate the college, Ledwidge was the showplace of the college complex. Many public meetings have been held in the formal lounge on the ground floor.

Smoke damage to the rooms on the third floor of the dorm and to rooms on the adjoining Archangelus fourth floor was considerable. The walls and bedding looked as though they had been sprayed with soot.

The hallways of Ledwidge looked much as if a bomb had been dropped. The walls along both hallways were completely burned, the roof could be seen from almost any point.

The students and sisters who gathered outside to watch the fire Saturday stood in chilly March winds. Those whose rooms were being destroyed wore robes, many more were without coats. Most stood in nervous tension.

Sadness was also evident among those who watched. One sister walked to the foyer leading to the lounge of Ledwidge, tears brimming her eyes. A policeman led her to another part of the college. To the Sisters of St. Dominic, Siena Heights is their home, their pride and their distinction. Many sat in cars and watched their "home" being marred by fire.

It cannot yet be determined when the dormitory will be available for occupancy. Hope is that by Easter the second and third floor would be available as well as the part of Archangelus which suffered smoke damage. For the rest it will be some time yet.

Richard Bohn, assistant to the president, said in walking thru the rubble of the fourth floor, "We're lucky we didn't lose life." In the other parts of the campus, Webber Hall and the occupied rooms of Archangelus, life goes on at Siena while plans for rebuilding are made.

At a special low price.

Everyone says special, but we really mean it. Snapper's a new limited edition car like Plymouth has never made before. It'll shield you from weather's whims under a groovy turtle-shell vinyl top and carry you in a metallic muted-gold body. It has a "camp" Snapper emblem, like the one in the middle, on each roof pillar. An extended roofline that lets your rear seat passengers actually lean back (over 3" extra head room). And, of course, many of the "special" features that most people want: deluxe vinyl interior, white sidewalls, deluxe wheel covers, bumper guards, and a kicky little time-delay ignition switch light, all at a special package price (again, we really mean special). Naturally, you can personalize a Snapper even more, with everything from a Super Commando 440 V-8 to air conditioning or 8-track stereo; just ask your dealer. classes, giving the Plymouth line of cars winners in three out of the nine classes of competition.

Other Plymouth winners were a Valiant Signet in Class VII for six-cylinder compact economy cars, and a Barracuda in Class IX for sports compacts.

The Union/Pure Oil Performance Trials, held under the supervision of the National Association for Stock Car Racing, compared the basic performance characteristics of American-made 1969 models which are in the popular price ranges.

The fuel economy tests measured a car's fuel consumption at an average speed of 40 miles per hour over a distance of 18,567 miles.

The acceleration tests measured the time it took a car to accelerate from 25 to 70 miles per hour.

The braking tests demonstrated the car's high-speed stopping capability immediately after severe brake usage.

The 60 stock cars competing in the tests were taken directly from dealers' showrooms throughout the country to provide a realistic comparison of various makes and models.

Wagon Air Deflector

The 1969 Plymouth Fury station wagon models have a new and efficient air deflector, mounted at the rear of the roof to divert air around and across the big rear window, significantly reducing vision obstruction. By blowing clean air over the window, the deflector prevents rain, dust and grit from accumulating.

The winning two-man team at each of the 100 regional and state contests being held this spring will compete for $125,000 worth of scholarships, prizes, trophies and automotive equipment for their schools at the National Finals at the Indianapolis 500 Speedway in mid-June.

Winners at local and national contests are chosen by the speed and skill with which they find and fix malfunctions under the hood of a new Plymouth and restore the car to normal operating condition. All teams work on identical cars that have been deliberately tampered with in the same way.

Plymouth Dealers sponsor a two-man team from their local school and make a Plymouth car available to practice on. The teams from the 2,000 participating schools, which have a combined enrollment of 150,000 students taking automotive shop courses, are selected by school instructors.

The Plymouth Trouble Shooting Contest originated in Los Angeles in 1949. It was sponsored by Plymouth Dealers there who sought to recruit young men as mechanic trainees. The annual contest grew in size as educators gave it their support.

Since the contest became national in scope in 1962, scholarships have been awarded to 116 students and full or part-time jobs have been found for more than 15,000 young men.

New THS School Building, Projects — $9.9 Million

Largest construction project ever proposed by the Tecumseh schools will probably come before the electorate on June 9.

Monday night at a special School Board session, officials approved projects costing $9,900,000, including an expenditure of $7,846,100 for a new Tecumseh High School at M-50 and Rogers Hwy.

In the total package, $1,943,900 is planned for an addition and remodeling of the present high school for a middle school — grades six, seven and eight. The balance of $110,000 will go for equipment, fixtures and landscaping at the Sutton Elementary School, now under construction.

As to additional millage, school officials will not be able to determine the exact amount until a later date, perhaps a few days or weeks.

If our legislators at Lansing re-enact a 1965 law, the millage on the June ballot could amount to seven mills, an increase of 5.38 mills over what taxpayers are paying now. Officials here believe the law will be reinstated. However, if the state officials reject the law, the ballot could carry a proposal for 10.6 mills, of which 8.98 mills would be new.

As to the cost of a new high school, architects told the Board that it would probably run about $26 a square foot for the 232,000-sq.-ft., one-story structure. Estimated cost per square foot is approximately national average.

Cost per square foot could actually be less as officials are figuring in the architectural fees, sale of bonds, site and site work and legal work plus the building. The building itself, therefore, would come in considerably less.

The proposed high school would have 50 teaching classrooms plus other areas — 2,200-seat gymnasium, 45x75-ft. swimming pool, 800-seat auditorium, library, locker rooms, phy. ed. instruction areas, cafeteria for handling 400 students at one time, and other educational areas.

Tecumseh's present high school has 36 teaching classrooms, gym, cafeteria, library, locker rooms and smaller rooms.

Improvements in the new high school also would be many — vocal and instrumental music rooms, practice music rooms, a lecture room for 150 students, larger hallways to avoid congestion, a closed campus-type school, and many other advantages.

As to the proposed middle school, a 55,000-sq.-ft. addition is planned plus some remodeling. The addition includes additional classrooms, a large instruction room including a stage, a swimming pool for instructional purposes, locker rooms and an adapted sports arena for teaching.

The addition would extend north off the present cafeteria and also east towards N. Maumee St., and then south towards E. Shawnee. The present loop in front of the high school would practically be filled in by the addition.

The addition would also enable officials to have a closed middle school campus, something most merchants and many parents have been wanting.

The new high school could accommodate 1,500 to 1,800 students, depending on whether the schools were running a six- or seven-hour school day.

The middle school could handle 1,200 students and also eliminate any immediate need for a new elementary school building, since the sixth grade would be taken out of the present elementary section.

If the voters approve the bond issue in June, the Board would seek construction bids and hopefully have the high school ready for occupancy in 1972.

It would mean the end of the present Junior High, a building over 50 years old and one that has had constant repairs, some demanded by the state fire marshal. The 20-year-old high school would continue to be used but as a middle school.

Permission Sought To Drop 2 Grades

St. Elizabeth Catholic Church's School Board stood firm Tuesday evening at a general parish meeting in recommending the dropping of grades seven and eight.

The church informed the parish last week that the school's finances were in the red, and that the Board had recommended dropping the top two grades. Also affecting the Board's decision was the announcement that a teaching nun may be transferred.

Church pastor, Fr. Robert Handley says the archbishop office in Detroit will be petitioned for their permission to phase out the two grades.

Between 40 and 50 parishoners attended the meeting, and reluctantly agreed with the Board after considerible discussion. John Pobuda, Board president, presided at the session, which included a question-answer period.

Fr. Handley says the school will still have a deficit next year unless additional monies are obtained.

At the present there are 263 pupils attending St. Elizabeth school with 60 in grades six and seven, the two grades which will be affected next fall. Most students in the current eighth grade will probably enroll at Tecumseh High School, and most of the pupils in the sixth and seventh grades are expected to enroll here.

With only six grades next year, school officials hope to expand the library and the art and science facilities.

The petition to Detroit will probably be sent within the next two weeks.

Bomb Threats Close Tuttle's

A threat of a bomb in the H. W. Tuttle Co. plant Wednesday forced officials there to close the plant for searches Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. Madeline Tuttle, chairman of the board for the company and former president, said, in closing the plant, "We can't expect our people to work under this strain."

Local police searched the plant early Wednesday morning, following a threatening call shortly before 7:30, and searched the plant again in the afternoon, following a second call received at 11:50 a.m. Front offices were searched first and office employees worked Wednesday afternoon.

Police Chief Murell Clark says there's a new statute in regards to bomb threats and says such calls may come under a felony charge.

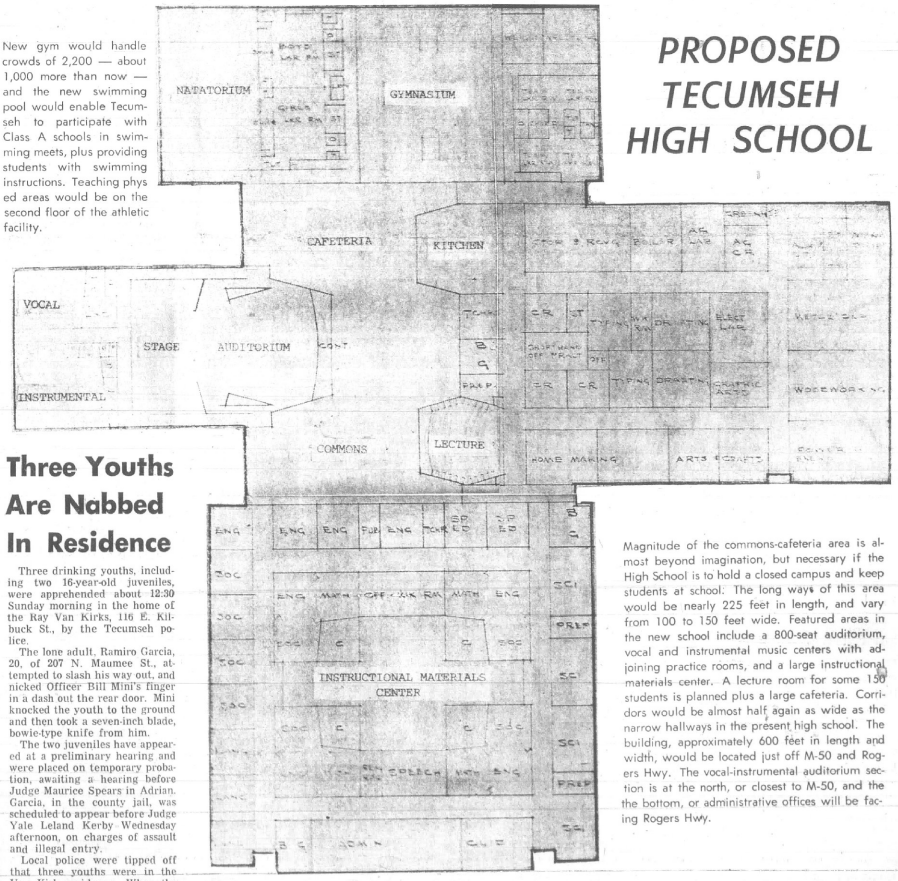
William Kaiser Picks Wrong Spot To Take Snooze

William L. Kaiser, 21, of 2164 E. Monroe Rd., picked a peculiar spot to take a nap early Saturday morning — and it resulted in an arrest and a trip to the county jail.

Shortly before seven o'clock, Karl Schneider was on his paper route on Seminole Dr. and spotted a car in Brookside Cemetery, plus a body on the ground. The young boy then called the police who hustled the youth to the station and to the hospital.

He was charged with being disorderly, and after being confined here, deputies took him to Adrian.

New gym would handle crowds of 2,200 — about 1,000 more than now — and the new swimming pool would enable Tecumseh to participate with Class A schools in swimming meets, plus providing students with swimming instructions. Teaching physed areas would be on the second floor of the athletic facility.



PROPOSED TECUMSEH HIGH SCHOOL

Magnitude of the commons-cafeteria area is almost beyond imagination, but necessary if the High School is to hold a closed campus and keep students at school. The long ways of this area would be nearly 225 feet in length, and vary from 100 to 150 feet wide. Featured areas in the new school include a 800-seat auditorium, vocal and instrumental music centers with adjoining practice rooms, and a large instructional materials center. A lecture room for some 150 students is planned plus a large cafeteria. Corridors would be almost half again as wide as the narrow hallways in the present high school. The building, approximately 600 feet in length and width, would be located just off M-50 and Rogers Hwy. The vocal-instrumental auditorium section is at the north, or closest to M-50, and the the bottom, or administrative offices will be facing Rogers Hwy.

Three Youths Are Nabbed In Residence

Three drinking youths, including two 16-year-old juveniles, were apprehended about 12:30 Sunday morning in the home of the Ray Van Kirks, 116 E. Kilbuck St., by the Tecumseh police.

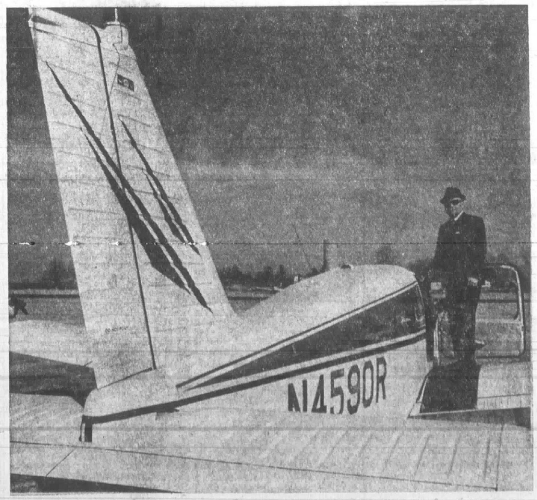
The lone adult, Ramiro Garcia, 20, of 207 N. Maumee St., attempted to slash his way out, and nicked Officer Bill Mini's finger in a dash out the rear door. Mini knocked the youth to the ground and then took a seven-inch blade, bowie-type knife from him.

The two juveniles have appeared at a preliminary hearing and were placed on temporary probation, awaiting a hearing before Judge Maurice Spears in Adrian. Garcia, in the county jail, was scheduled to appear before Judge Yale Leland Kerby Wednesday afternoon, on charges of assault and illegal entry.

Local police were tipped off that three youths were in the Van Kirk residence. When the officers walked in, Garcia and one of the 16-year-olds were in the basement preparing to fight.

Officials figure they had been in the home about five hours, long enough for one to stretch out in bed for a nap.

Mr. Van Kirk says he and his wife, a local school teacher, had left Saturday morning for Holland to visit his father. Police here notified him of the incident after arresting the boys.



STARTS FLYING SCHOOL — Veteran pilot Les Calhoun has opened a new flying school at Meyers Airport for local and area folks. The former Air Force Jet instructor holds a certified pilot's instruction certifiate and has already schooled several in the art of flying — including 16-year-old Tom Adams, son of Dr. and Mrs. William Adams. Mr. Calhoun is also operating a charter flight service plus rental of planes.

50 Complainers at Review Board

Board of Review heard complaints Monday and Tuesday from 50 local property owners.

Complaints voiced resulted after the city sent out tax assessment notices the previous weeks. Most residences were given hikes in assessments.

"Lady, will you come and get your soaking wet husband and son?" said the voice on the phone March 22. Kaye Steele took Teresa and piled into the car to go and find Bill and Bruce on Staib Rd. They had put their canoe into the River Raisin at Clinton and came down almost to the Newburg Bridge before pleep, they fell in. With waste left in that area from the Palm Sunday tornado, they had no choice but to return to the canoe dripping with the dirty river water and get as far as the road where Kaye picked them up. "It's a nice canoeable river," the guys remarked "if it just wasn't so full of trash from the last couple of winters." Burp!

You Told Us

By DOROTHY GRIGG

"I like to live in a little town, where the trees meet across the street,
Where you wave your hand and say 'Hello' to everyone you meet.
I like to stand for a moment outside the hardware store
And listen to the friendly gossip of the folks who live next door.
For life is interwoven with the friends we learn to know,
And we hear their joys and sorrows as we daily come and go.
So I like to live in a little town, I care no more to roam,
For every house in a little town is more than a house—
IT'S HOME."

Kaye Steele brings this priceless bit of poetry for Herald readers this week. It was printed on the back of a card from the Milan Inn in Milan, O., the birthplace of Thomas Edison. Two of the Seminary Singers who were guests of the Steeles' following their concert at the United Methodist Church recently, left it.

Intrigued by the poem, Mrs. Steele said, "Too bad the feeling in this poem can't be conveyed across the country — the interest in people as individuals. After all, it's the individual who makes any place what it is or seems to be." We are with you, Kay, and are pleased to speed the friendliness in our town on to the next city or village, hoping it will spark others to "Love Your Neighbor" as Christ taught us to do.

March is Hot for Tax Boards

By BILL SANFORD

Death and taxes are inevitable, or so the saying goes. For many area citizens they go hand in hand; taxes are going to be the death of them. Boards of Review in the local government sub-divisions have been holding their annual appeal sessions and in the words of Supervisor James Mitchell of Raisin, "I have never taken such abuse in my 26 years in the township."

Raisin, like many townships last year, was hit with a factor on the township tax rolls. In this case the equalization committee of the Board of Supervisors tacked on a 1.09 figure to Raisin.

In assessing the property in that township this year, Mitchell added two million to the tax rolls in the state equalized value column. Over 50 persons made the trek to the Raisin township hall to protest the increases.

Ridgeway township was also hit with criticism when the Board of Review met there. Ridgeway, which sported a 1.05 factor, has increased its tax rolls by over $300,000, according to Gustav Tiede, Ridgeway Supervisor.

Macon Township also the object of a factor, one of the larger given out by the county committee, 1.24, has increased its evaluation from $4,084,000 to over $5,100,000 for this year. The number of complaints was relatively low compared to Raisin and other townships.

Clinton Township has also had its problems along the county line. Eardean Roe, newly-elected to the position last November, has been working with the county to reduce a factor of 1.07 which was added to the rolls last April.

Industries in Clinton Township have been unhappy over the 7% charge against their figures. The industries were studied and found to be at 50% state equalized value. But with the factor applied, this 7% is added to the figure already taxed.

There are eight industries in Clinton township and several have indicated dissatisfaction at the added taxes.

According to the new constitution, industries which are overtaxed and can submit proof of this, the money can be regained from the county. One industry alone paid over $200,000 in additional taxes due to the factor.

Increase in assessments in Clinton for the coming year will reach nearly $1 million, going from $13,200,000 including the factor to $14,133,578. The figure placed on Clinton's assessments before the factor was $12,682,000.

Franklin Township also has increased its assessments considerably. A study was taken by an Ohio assessing firm last fall of the value of property in that township. With the report finalized, it is expected that the figures reached by the firm will be used as guidelines to this year's final tax roll.

Franklin received the largest factor in the county, a whopping 1.50, which has been a headache, of likewise size, for both Ray Jackson, former Supervisor and for Richard Platt, who took over the post when Jackson resigned to head the Products Workers Union.

Tecumseh Township has an increase of $300,000 on its books this year. The increase is thru new construction and few reappraisals were needed. Supervisor Art Eaton has been warned about assessing some properties in the township too low. This has not been high enough, however, to warrant a factor being applied.

Injured In Accident

Gerald C. Ra[illegible], 29, of 705 Outer Dr., received a fractured left collar bone, multiple bruises and minor cuts early on March 13, in a one-car accident. He was treated at Herrick Memorial Hospital and released.

Mr. Roberts recalls that he was driving south on Chelsea Rd., north of Manchester, when he became drowsy. The next thing he remembers he was in a farm house, being offered coffee.

Apparently the Roberts automobile, a two-months-old 1969 model, had left the highway, narrowly missed hitting a tree and struck a ditch and rolled over. All that was salvaged was the spare tire.

He learned that a man had found him wandering around the highway in shock, and had taken him to the farm house, where he slowly regained consciousness.

An insurance salesman, with nearly a million miles of driving in 20 years, this was Mr. Roberts' first accident.

In the 10 a.m. Easter Sunday service, new members will be welcomed into the fellowship of the church.

The Master's Men Quarter will sing in the Easter evening service. All are welcomed to these services by the pastor, the Rev. Paul Brantingham.

OUR READERS WRITE

TO THE EDITOR:

Subject: "A New Boston Tea Party is Brewing."

I am yelling UNCLE!!! Because I think it is high time someone pointed out these inconsistencies at the local level through news mediums.

The United States Internal Revenue allows only $600 income deduction to raise a child for one year. But allows $1,200 per year for a Cuban refugee, and if the Cuban boy or girl is going to school, an extra $1,000 per year.

The Vista Training Program costs 3.1 million to train only 202 young people. This costs more than $15,000 per year per trainee.

The Job Corps, so far, has spent approximately $18,000 per year to teach each high school drop-out.

But the following takes the cake . . . A married couple is allowed only $600 to take care of a child, but through A.D.C. $800 to care for a fatherless child. This seems to say it is more important than mine.

The fact that the U. S. Congress as well as the State Senators raised their salaries and expenses because their cost of living went up. But they expect us to stay as we are.

This is a real injustice to the American taxpayer. The Senior Citizen is forced to not earn over $1,680.00 or he will get a cut on his already earned Social Security check.

Sincerely,
Hugh T. Walter

P. S. Another jab just received by the taxpayer, 10% to 20% increase on property without a popular vote of the people.

Senator Bursley's LANSING REPORT

Citizens of Tecumseh should know my position on some of the more important and controversial subjects now before their Legislature. I will discuss key issues during the coming three weeks in this column.

Earlier this week the previously established deadline of March 17 for the introduction of bills was reached with some 1300 bills still in the drafting process. Consequently the Legislature extended until April 16 the final date for introducing bills. The principle followed was that every bill requested by a legislator should be drafted with enough time remaining for it to be introduced and considered.

Recently I have been reviewing returns from a legislative questionnaire mailed to a cross-section of several thousand area citizens. Tabulated results, which I will release in a couple of weeks, together with literally thousands of letters which I have been receiving, make it possible for me to appraise fairly accurately prevailing sentiment within the 18th senatorial district.

Parochiaid is back with us again this year as most of you are well aware. The most serious proposal is H. B. 2424 introduced by Representative Traxler in the House. It would cost about $40,000,000 this year and maybe twice that next year.

I have long been on record in opposition to this legislation and as vice-chairman of the Senate Education Committee shall vote against it if it arrives there. I believe that first priority should be given more adequate funding of the public education system which Article VIII, Section 2, of the Michigan Constitution mandates as a responsibility of the Legislature.

I further believe non-public schools would, in the long run, lose control over their own schools if they started accepting the type of financial support which has been proposed.

Abortion law reform has excellent chances of passage in this session. During the past year I chaired an interim committee which studied the subject. We recommended two bills for consideration.

I have introduced S. B. 287 which would permit abortions by a licensed physician (or osteopathic physician) in a licensed and accredited hospital if the mother's mental or physical health were at stake, if the pregnancy resulted from rape or incest, and if there was substantial chance that the child might be born deformed.

Various safeguards have been built into the bill which would be about the most progressive in the country. I co-sponsored a bill (S. B. 288) introduced by my close friend and associate, Senator John McCauley, which would go much further and make the matter solely a decision between mother-to-be and physician.

A major public hearing will be held in Lansing on April 15 by Senator Lorraine Beebe and her committee on Health, Social Services and Retirement which has had the bills referred to it.

Art of Bonsai Shown To Club

Mrs. Neil Person entertained members of the Garden Club Friday and introduced Jack Wikle of Hidden Lake Gardens who spoke on the art of bonsai.

Bonsai is a Japanese culture and can be applied to many trees and bushes in this area. The art requires patience to create subjects with designs from one's own imagination. Suitable containers are a necessity for the best designs.

Mr. Wikle showed many colored pictures of Japanese gardens taken while he was there in military service, also some of his own unusual designs and of bonsai shows in Japan and Cleveland, O.

Gingerbread and whipped cream were served with tea by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Douglas Sisson.

Townships Form County Chapter

Township supervisors, with a loss in power within the townships and on a county level, are banding together to form a chapter of the Michigan Township association in Lenawee County. They met last Thursday in Adrian to form the core of the group.

James Mitchell of Raisin Township was elected president and Charles Bigelow of Macon was elected vice-president. Other officers are: secretary, Harry Dusseau of Palmyra; and Lewis Ruesink of Adrian. The group nominated a by-law committee composed of Richard Platt of Franklin, Ray Allen of Seneca and Don Wood of Rollin, to study the rules for the group.

Joseph Parisi, Jr., executive secretary of the Michigan Township Association, spoke to the group, and is aiding in establishing the county chapter.

Area supervisors are pleased with the idea of forming a group that will give them a greater voice with the newly-formed County Board of Supervisors.

James Mitchell of Raisin said that without the group, the individual supervisors out in the townships would be, as he termed them, "sitting ducks" for whatever the county wanted.

Charles Bigelow of Macon said that it was a good way to keep the supervisors from sinking into the background, and by curtailing a "complacent attitude of 'let someone else do the work' and they probably will".

Gustav Tiede of Ridgeway also felt that the board was a necessary function for the supervisors.

Art Eaton of Tecumseh and Earl Roe of Clinton both concurred with other supervisors that a chapter of the Township Association would aid in local supervisors working more smoothly with the county supervisors, primarily in the area of tax assessments.

Prior to the election of county supervisors, townships and officials held the reins over county government, especially the assessment of property and personal taxes. With the election of the new board the powers of taxation remained with the local supervisors and yet the county board had the power to pass judgment on their assessments.

Many of the supervisors (township) feel that with the formation of their group, a more amicable working condition will arise, with supervisors working together as a group rather than individually.

Musings

by Bill Sanford

We are like dwarfs seated on the shoulders of giants; we see more things than the ancients and things more distant, but this is due neither to the sharpness of our own sight, nor to the greatness of our own stature, but because we are raised and borne aloft on that giant mass.

Bernard of Chartres wrote of the giants of the masses back in the 12th century. Eight hundred years later we seldom run across anyone who could content himself with the fact that he is a part of much history and much evolution and not a separate selfish entity. To most people, Bernard was only a man they named a dog after.

It is to note that somewhere in the past 100 years many things of note were written for the sake of writing. Allan Seager wrote a final book, "The Glass House," the biography of Theodore Roethke. He died shortly before publication.

The Glass House was one of Seager's better works, along with "Old Man and The Mountain."

I never knew Allan Seager well, many people were more familiar with him than I. The last time I saw him was at Herrick Memorial Hospital, shortly before he was transferred to Ann Arbor. He didn't know then, or perhaps he did, that he was going to die. Only briefly did we discuss "The Glass House".

I knew him when he first began to write the autobiography. I remember the night in Spring we sat around the kitchen table over a rich chocolate French pastry he had baked earlier that day. Of the rituals in the Seager house, discussing the title of new works across the kitchen table was one of them.

The reviews for the new work by the Tecumseh author have been favorable, filled with praise. It was a good work, quite probably his best.

I hope some day, someone writes a biography of Allan Seager. There was more to the man than met reached the surface of general opinion. He was a brilliant man and at the same time, a common man of sorts. He was, as the previous sentence implies, a contradiction in terms.

Few men could put things more painfully blunt that he. To withstand his criticism was a chore at times, but a rewarding one. He liked people, not general people, but people who responded to the giants of Bernard of Chartres. He liked young people especially. A part of Allan Seager never grew up, like so many of us. One of his favorite sayings was "I'm just a poor little, old country boy." It was an understatement and he knew it, but nevertheless, he had fun with it.

With the new book coming out and so much going for him, he died too soon. Nevertheless he left something behind.

I sincerely wish that I had known him better. Roetke was a friend; he wrote that biography as a friend, not as someone who chose to peek behind curtains. He was a "country boy" in that respect.

That day at Herrick Hospital, he asked me if I still thought of writing, I did. He asked how I liked my job at The Herald; what my boss was like to work for, the normal banter. We finally got back to writing. I sometimes want to quit but that 15 minute conversation finds me borne aloft again on the shoulders of giants.

Allan Seager was a giant, he had a mind and shared it. Parts remain a secret, they always will. However, in "The Glass House," much of the man comes out as well as the writer.

Easter Cantata To Be Sung

Soprano solos will be sung by Mrs. John Costello and Mrs. Joseph Hall. Mrs. Keith Swain and Lowell Bush will be featured in an alto-tenor duet. Jim Brown and the Rev. G. O. Hannevik will sing the roles of Satan and Jesus in a scene telling of the temptations of Christ. Other male soloists to be featured are Bob Downing and Jim Lister.

Douglas Palmer will read the Scripture narration, and Mrs. William Raeburn will accompany the choirs.

Six Pin, Six Pin Six Pin, Six Pin

Sixteen in a row. That is what Doug Tate had in the Tecumseh Products Bowling League on Wednesday, March 19. He frowns a little when you mention the digit number six because that is the pin he left on Alley 12 in the third game in the last frame for a rousing 299 game.

He ended the second game with five in a row and then proceeded to get 11 in a row in the third game. His three games for the night were 179, 217 and 199, for a total of 695.

Team members urge him, "Nice going, Doug, maybe next time."

Weight Control Study Topic

"Weight Control" was the study topic led by Mrs. Elmer Wilt and Mrs. Wilbur Boyce as eight members of the Northeast Tecumseh Extension Study Group met Tuesday evening in the home of Mrs. John Quigley.

A low calorie dish recipe was the requirement for roll call.

Six members plan to attend College Day for Women at the Monroe Community College. Reservations will be accepted until March 20.

A donation of $5 was given to the 4-H Youth Exchange program.

Mrs. Lester Ruhl, Milwaukee Rd., will be the hostess for the next meeting when a Beeline Party will be held with proceeds to go to the Club treasury.

A mileage table to "Walk Off a Nibble" was distributed during the lesson and members participated in a quiz on the understanding of weight control.

District Nurses Meet at Bixby

Nineteen members of the Lenawee District Nurses Association met Thursday evening at Bixby Hospital, to hear Curtis Neff speak. Neff is a pharmacist employed by the Parke-Davis Pharmaceutical Co. in several research studies at Jackson Prison.

He spoke, with a dry humor, of several studies currently under way at the prison. Drugs tested there include new products (studied to determine the therapeutic dose range and possible side effects), and also products already on the market (studied to recheck their effectiveness). His talk revealed some of the background work that goes into the processing of a drug before it is placed on sale.

Sue Denger, the new director of nurses at Bixby Hospital, was introduced.

Nurses will be contacted by district members regarding a money-making project. It is hoped that the idea will be enjoyable as well as profitable.

President Mrs. Journey Stoner reported on a Cancer Conference for nurses, which she attended in Ann Arbor.

Michigan Nurse Week will be May 4 to May 10.

Family Helps Mom Celebrate

CLINTON — When you raise a big family and they are all grown and live some distance away from home, it's especially pleasant to have them drop in for a visit occasionally.

When they all come the same day to celebrate Mother's birthday anniversary — it's a big surprise and lots of fun, as Mrs. Linn Gray learned Sunday.

All the children were there, except the one farthest away, Mrs. Joseph Feeney, who telephoned from Middletown, R. I.

On hand to share the birthday cake were Mr. and Mrs. Linwood Gray and daughter of Bryan, O.; Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Wallace and daughter of Grosse Pointe; Mr. and Mrs. Cletus Merillat and daughter, Mary, of Holland; Mr. and Mrs. William Weigle and son, Kurt, of Jackson; Mr. and Mrs. Russell Hochradel and family of Monroe. Mrs. Gray's brother, Roy Kern, of Manchester, was also a guest.

To Explain Need

CLINTON — George Eidson, co-ordinator of Special Education in Lenawee County, will explain the program and its need for additional millage at the meeting of the Golden Age Club, Tuesday, April 1, at Lyster Hall, at 7:30 p.m.

The members invite anyone interested to attend the meeting.

Christian Youth Academy Celebrates

By REV. HARLAN R. SANNES

The Tecumseh Lower Light Church is celebrating CYA Week, March 24-30. The Tecumseh "Christian Youth Academy" has been in operation for one year. During CYA Week the youth of the church will place special emphasis on youth participation in all services and meetings.

Mrs. Herman Murphy was elected as commander of the Christian Youth Academy at its inception, and has continued in that capacity. During the Wednesday evening Prayer Meeting, the youth of the church will hear about the youth in the Bible who served God.

Friday night will be the big night for all of the students in the CYA. Friday night all of the parents of the CYA students will be invited to see a little of what has been accomplished in the past year. Any others who are interested in young people are also invited to come. This meeting is open to the public. At this meeting the work of the CYA will be explained in more detail.

The sole purpose of the existence of a Christian Youth Academy is to provide a Christian education for our young people. Our purpose is not to provide entertainment and something just to keep our young people busy.

We want to train our youth for Christian service, wherever God may choose to call them to work. It may be as a: pastor, evangelist, missionary, teacher, layman.

We know that young people want to belong. This is the reason why many of our youth backslide during their school years. They want to be accepted and they want to belong, therefore they begin to let down in their standards.

We have a responsibility to our youth. Maybe you are spending enough time with your own children in their Christian training; but how about those who are not.

What kind of mark will you leave on this world and on humanity? We must work while we have opportunity. We need to train our children while they are young. We only have them for a relatively few short years. We must do our best in our allotted time. They can win if they have the proper training.

In Christian Service we study the Church at work in missions and at home. Active involvement in various activities, in which our youth may come in contact.

We have been pleased with the results we have seen in the past year and we are looking forward to a bigger and better year. When we started the CYA, our intention was to teach the group age 6-18, but we found out that the children under age 8 were not pleased with arrangement and we found ourselves with a younger group which we call the "CANDLES". They are very eager to learn and they are learning. We appreciate the work of our CYA Commander, Mrs. Murphy and for all of the other assistants, and teachers, and those who provide transportation.

One of the highlights of the year was a field trip to Cavanaugh Lake, near Chelsea. Here we visited one of the finest private Bible collections in existence. The owner of the Bible collection invited the CYA group to his home and he personally showed us the collection, some of the Bibles written on skins in the year 1200 A.D., many years before the first printing press was invented. He also showed us fragments of earlier writings.

Students, Teachers Aid Handicapped

At Tecumseh High School there is a class room for high school youngsters who, though physically handicapped, compete with regular students proving that a physically handicapped body does not mean that a child also has a handicapped mind.

Many of the students in the room average superior grades. Five of the students are seniors and will graduate along with 250 other students in May. Many of them will be going on to school for further training on the road to being able to support themselves.

Two of the boys are in the top 10 percent of their class. Doug Schoonover is 11th and Craig Benz is 24th in this year's graduating group of youth.

Fourteen students, eight of whom are permanently in wheel chairs, are victims of various disorders; muscular dystrophy, polio, cerebral palsy, paraplegia, spina bifida, Rheumatoid arthritis, epilepsy, asthma and accidents.

Nine years ago, most of these students would have been confined to their homes. Today, at Tecumseh High School, an integrated program gives the handicapped students a chance to compete on an academic plane with the other students.

Regular students at the high school have taken to their less fortunate schoolmates, many push the wheelchair students to and from their classes. Some carry the books of those who have to use braces and/or crutches.

An elevator was installed a few years ago to enable the students to gain access to the second floor of the high school.

Beyond the students, teachers have also taken a special interest in the handicapped students. Among them they have provided extra time and effort in helping the students adjust to their classes.

One teacher built a special table for a youngster in his biology classes. Another improvised a sewing machine so that a wheelchair student could learn to sew.

Still others have helped in numerous other ways.

In addition to the facilities made available for orthopedic students, there is also an integrated program for the impaired of hearing. This includes participation in regular classes and the provision of special classes in language, speech and reading. Thus far, the students have excelled in their adaptation to normal hearing classes.

In their ability to profit from these classes, their attitudes with respect to sound and thorough education have turned the Tecumseh High School program into a success.

Through My Window

EVERYTHING WAS GREENISH-YELLOW

The slim little goldfinch was only about five inches long and the heavy set evening grosbeak would have measured at least eight inches. Yet, I could not help but think how much alike the birds were. Was the goldfinch a miniature grosbeak or was the grosbeak a gigantic finch? Actually, of course, the similarity was not all that great and had I seen the birds side by each, it would have seemed even less.

The large bird visited us one day and the smaller one appeared the next and I know the resemblance I saw was not due to size, build or mannerisms but was instead completely due to color. Both birds were greenish-yellow with strong overtones of tan and gray, and both proudly sported white markings on black tails and wings.

The female evening grosbeak was here first. She spent almost all of the day either perching on the maple tree limbs which frame the top of our west-facing window or on the near-my-window feeder where she crunched and munched sunflower seeds.

In the tree, where the sun shone on her, we could clearly see the whitish patch on her throat beneath her bill, the large white markings on her black wings and short stubby tail, the yellowish-greenish color of her head and body which, according to how she turned, showed a gray cast on the back or a slightly faded yellow on her front.

When she free-loaded at the feeder, we commented on how strong her bill looked, how big and heavy and broad it was. Truly, grosbeak is an appropriate name.

We kept wishing that other members of her family would come by but none did — she could not even whistle up a boy-friend to show us. Was she a social outcast, had she not listened to the proper TV commercials, or was she merely selfish and keeping the whereabouts of a good supply of sunflower seeds to herself?

THE NEXT DAY was Lady Goldfinch Day. She was hungry and, I must admit, very impolite. She spent most of the morning on the near-my-window feeder — I should say she monopolized it because every sparrow and even a few nuthatches who entertained a foolish idea of feeder sharing were quickly driven away.

Her front and back showed much the same colorings as did the grosbeak but the markings on her wings were dainty stripes and edgings of white. As for her tail, it was ridiculous! It was black and white alright but it was so skinny — yes, skinny is the only word to describe that thin little bunch of feathers.

Supposedly goldfinches have forked tails but this poor gal certainly did not begin to have enough width in hers to show a fork. (And I shall resist the temptation to say anything about a knife or a spoon.)

Her bill was interesting though. It was conical just as the description in "Birds of America" reads but I take exception to their use of the word small.

It seemed to us that, in comparison to the chickadees and juncos, the goldfinch's bill was not small. There was, however, certainly strength and sharpness in it — it sliced through the hard outer coating of sunflower seeds surprisingly well.

OF COURSE, this time of year any talk about goldfinches must, sooner or later work around to their spectacular change of color. The males are quickly shedding their winter drab and slipping into the bright and gay lemon yellow of spring and summer.

Each day we notice that the spots and patches of their new suits are getting larger. Even the females are getting into the act. How nice to have new outfits for Easter.

And just to complete our two days of yellowish-greenish things, the crocus bed in front of the south-facing window exploded into bloom. The green spike-like leaves had pushed up such a few days before that we were hardly prepared for all the blossoming.

The yellow ones always open first and, isn't it amazing how fast the bees find them. Each morning the bright sunshine just barely coaxes the flowers open and buzz, the bed is almost carpeted with bees.

So it is that for two days in mid-March we had an evening grosbeak, then a little goldfinch plus the excitement of the early spring crocuses — everything was greenish-yellow.

NEXT WEEK:
"A Little of This and a Little of That."

Camp Fire Girls Observe No. 56

It was announced today by Dr. Howard Pennington, Council President, that the Tuckahatchee Council of Camp Fire Girls is observing its 56th year of service to girls of Lenawee County this week, March 23-29.

The week-long celebration began with girls attending the churches of their choice in groups. The remainder of the week will be observed by a series of Father-Daughter Birthday Parties throughout the county in the 84 units of Camp Fire Girls. Currently there are 1,023 girls and 290 adults registered in the program in Lenawee County.

Camp Fire Girls was founded nationally on March 17, 1910, as a feminine counterpart to the Boy Scouts of America. Since its beginning in Lenawee County in 1913, the program has served more than 31,200 girls.

The purpose of Camp Fire Girls has always been to help girls grow into and to take pride in womanhood with the counsel and companionship of adults who care. Each girl with her own capacities is encouraged to find and know what is useful, informative, inspiring and challenging to help prepare her for a life of love and service, as a woman, to home, community, family and country.

Free To Pick Says Reigle

"Freedom doesn't mean we're free to avoid taking part in self-government, freedom means we're free to pick the way we will participate in self government," the honorable Donald Reigle stated Friday evening at the Lincoln Day dinner at Ritchie Hall on the Adrian College campus.

"The free man or woman who takes no active part isn't free at all, in fact, they are the captive of those who do participate. Freedom means free to act, free to make a difference, free to change things for the better and free to build the kind of America we want for ourselves and our kids," continued the youthful representative.

"We've got to come off the sidelines and make the difference that only we can make. Your country needs the contribution that only you can make and needs it now," Rep. Reigle concluded.

Mrs. Raymond Platt, Lenawee County GOP chairman, introduced the toastmaster, Peter B. Fletcher, Second District chairman, who presented Rep. Marvin Esch, who in turn introduced Rep. Reigle.

About 50 from Tecumseh attended the event.

Mrs. Murray Day was the soloist, accompanied on the organ by Gwendolyn Squires.

Easter Cantata Will Be Sung

"No Greater Love," an inspirational Easter cantata, will be presented Sunday evening at 7 p.m. in the sanctuary of the Tecumseh United Methodist Church by the Chancel and Junior Choirs under the direction of Mrs. James Danforth.

Special soloists from the chancel choir and invited guest soloists will be featured in this program being narrated by the Rev. Donald Porteous.

The musical special is open to the public.

Sunday morning Rev. Porteous will return to the pulpit for the worship service following a two-weeks' vacation with his wife. His meditation will be "Applause or Decision."

Space Work Involves Hubby

The husband of a Tecumseh girl plays an important role in the operation of the Air Force's newest and most advanced space surveillance "super radar" that can detect and track more than 100 satellites, missiles and other objects in space almost simultaneously.

U. S. Air Force Sgt. David B. Adams, husband of the former Karen Penrod, is a radar repairman at the Aerospace Defense Command's (ADC) gigantic new "phased array" radar facility at Eglin AFB, Fla., that became operational recently.

The first electronic sensor specifically designed to detect and track objects in space, the new radar provides capability for rapid warning of missile attack aimed at the southern United States. It als assists in American space missions by precise location of earth-orbiting objects so that astronauts and other space vehicles can be positioned to avoid them.

Plymouth Scores Most Points in Three Tests

A Plymouth Fury I scored the highest number of points of all 60 cars that competed in fuel economy, acceleration and braking tests of the Union/Pure Oil Performance Trials at Daytona Beach, Fla.

The Plymouth Fury, competing in Class V for cars equipped with standard V-8 engines, scored a total of 98 performance points out of a possible 100.

Two other Plymouth entries finished first in their respective classes, giving the Plymouth line of cars winners in three out of the nine classes of competition.

Other Plymouth winners were a Valiant Signet in Class VII for six-cylinder compact economy cars, and a Barracuda in Class IX for sports compacts.

The Union/Pure Oil Performance Trials, held under the supervision of the National Association for Stock Car Racing, compared the basic performance characteristics of American-made 1969 models which are in the popular price ranges.

The fuel economy tests measured a car's fuel consumption at an average speed of 40 miles per hour over a distance of 18,567 miles.

The acceleration tests measured the time it took a car to accelerate from 25 to 70 miles per hour.

The braking tests demonstrated the car's high-speed stopping capability immediately after severe brake usage.

The 60 stock cars competing in the tests were taken directly from dealers' showrooms throughout the country to provide a realistic comparison of various makes and models.

Wagon Air Deflector

The 1969 Plymouth Fury station wagon models have a new and efficient air deflector, mounted at the rear of the roof to divert air around and across the big rear window, significantly reducing vision obstruction. By blowing clean air over the window, the deflector prevents rain, dust and grit from accumulating.

Everyone says special, but we really mean it, and we can prove it. Snapper's a special car, limited edition model from Plymouth. Once the model is discontinued, it will be pretty tough (or impossible) to get one. Among the features that make it unique is a special roof, a kicky new turtle-shell vinyl top with "camp" Snapper emblems scampering across the roof pillars. Snapper's special paint is an exclusive metallic muted-gold; cool. And Snapper comes equipped with a lot of other neat features, too: deluxe vinyl interior, white sidewalls, deluxe wheel covers, bumper guards, and a helpful little time-delay ignition switch light. The whole package goes at a special price (and we really mean special) for a limited time. Equip one to your personal needs, with anything from a Super Commando 440 V-8 to 8-track stereo, and it becomes a truly individual vehicle. At your Plymouth Dealer.

2,000 Teams of Students Competing in Plymouth's Trouble Shooting Contest

Teams of student mechanics from more than 2,000 high schools and colleges in every state of the Union will compete for $125,000 worth of prizes in the 21st annual Plymouth TroubleShooting Contest.

The contest is sponsored by the Chrysler-Plymouth Division of Chrysler Motors Corporation and Plymouth Dealers of America to encourage students with mechanical talent to continue their education and pursue careers in the growing automotive service business.

The winning two-man team at each of the 100 regional and state contests being held this spring will compete for $125,000 worth of scholarships, prizes, trophies and automotive equipment for their schools at the National Finals at the Indianapolis 500 Speedway in mid-June.

Winners at local and national contests are chosen by the speed and skill with which they find and fix malfunctions under the hood of a new Plymouth and restore the car to normal operating condition. All teams work on identical cars that have been deliberately tampered with in the same way.

Plymouth Dealers sponsor a two-man team from their local school and make a Plymouth car available to practice on. The teams from the 2,000 participating schools, which have a combined enrollment of 150,000 students taking automotive shop courses, are selected by school instructors.

The Plymouth Trouble Shooting Contest originated in Los Angeles in 1949. It was sponsored by Plymouth Dealers there who sought to recruit young men as mechanic trainees. The annual contest grew in size as educators gave it their support.

Since the contest became national in scope in 1962, scholarships have been awarded to 116 students and full or part-time jobs have been found for more than 15,000 young men.

NEW EDITION — New edition of Clara Waldron's book, "One Hundred Years A Country Town," has been published and is available in Tecumseh at Ken-Ray Drug Store. The paperback edition is also available by mail order.

Family Sunday Speaker Named

The Rev. Parvin C. Lee, Michigan District Home Mission director, will be the speaker Family Sunday, March 30, at the Assembly of God during the 11 a.m. worship service.

A fellowship dinner will be held at the Products Union Hall at 1 p.m. and a fellowship sing at the church at 3 p.m.

The Rev. Gordon MacRea, long time missionary in Taiwan, will be the featured speaker at the evening service at 7:30 p.m.

The Rev. MacRae, born in Detroit, and his wife, Donna, a native of Lansing, have lived the past nine years in Thailand. They love the Thai people and live as they do.

The four MacRae children, Bootsaba, Walee, Sang and Gee, were all born there.

The Thailand pastor has said, "God is showing mercy to the Thai whom He loves and has given them visions of the future which are just now coming to pass. Communism is creeping in and I have visited these young soldiers who have been blinded by propaganda."

The MacRaes met God in a special way in an hour of trouble while in Thailand. They returned to the United States in October of 1968 and must be back in Thailand by October of this year.

The Rev. Harold Sneer enthusiastically invites all interested persons in the community to come and hear the interesting story that the missionary has to tell Sunday evening.

Evergreens Need Patience

It takes patience to grow your own evergreens, but the effort is well worth the trouble, according to Mrs. Earl Baldwin.

Some of the plants she started from cuttings at her former home on Murphy Rd., soon will be gracing the banks of the Red Mill Pond, next to the Baldwins' newly-remodeled home on N. Evans St.

Mrs. Baldwin welcomed members of the Little Garden Club to her home for the group's March meeting, and also presented the program on propagating evergreens.

Late spring cuttings of new growth on the evergreens can be used, from prunings in May or June. These can be side branches pulled off the main branch so a "heel" remains. The end of this cutting is dipped in a rooting hormone, available at gardening centers, then placed in a rooting medium. This can be sand, vermiculite, peat moss or a mixture of these.

Being a green thumb gardener with a knack for growing plants, Mrs. Baldwin simply sticks the cutting in the ground outdoors, gives it plenty of water during dry periods, and has a thriving plant the next spring.

After this early rooting, the plant is transplanted once, in sun or shade, depending on the particular plant's preference, before being placed in its final site. Four years will produce a good-sized plant from a small cutting, Mrs. Baldwin notes.

Most important point is to keep the cutting from drying out, she said. It should be started in the shade, even covered with a plastic bag if necessary, and be sprayed to keep the needles or leaves from drying. Mrs. Baldwin mixes plant food in the water and feeds the plant as she sprays it.

Because of the watering needed, the plant also must be started in soil that is well drained, she added. A cold frame, or mulching will help the tender cutting through its first winter.

Mrs. Baldwin recommended a book for those wishing to go further into the subject, "Plant Propagation in Pictures" by Montegue Free, available at the Tecumseh Public Library.

Before the business meeting, Mrs. Richard Carmean, Mrs. Kenneth Strack and Mrs. Hal Weakly were welcomed as new members.

A change in the club's constitution to make its fiscal year coincide with that of the Michigan Federation of Garden Club's was discussed and recommended.

Mrs. Owen Merrill and Mrs. Strack were named chairmen of a spring, 1970, flower show.

A discussion of conservation of natural resources brought out several ideas for local community work and efforts to encourage legislation benefiting conservation.

One idea is to encourage planting of flowering crabapple trees, such as those which bloom in the spring along N. Evans St. Now is the time to plant such trees and shrubs, the gardeners noted, just as soon as the ground has thawed enough for holes to be dug. A flowering crabapple will be planted behind Herrick Hospital in memory of Mrs. Al Helzerman.

Mrs. Howard Furry reported on current projects of the club members working with students at Lenawee Institute.

Mrs. George Stewart and Mrs. Donald Moffatt served refreshments.

Hostess for the April 15 meeting will be Mrs. Judson Miles, assisted by Mrs. John Walper and Mrs. Glenn Breckenridge. Jack Wikle, naturalist at Hidden Lake Gardens, will speak on landscaping.

Communications Cause People Gap

A panel of high school students addressed the Women's Association of the Presbyterian Church at a recent meeting. Michael House, Lee Dollison, Cathy Cook and Natalie Hopson told their audience, "There is a communication's gap, not a generation gap, but this is lessened when the persons involved care for each other".

The students also explained they would like to have their Student Council be more effective, and they said they would like to have more of a voice in student affairs.

The youths expressed a need for a drop-in place for cards, ping-pong, pool table, etc.

It was the opinion of the students that more publicity should be given to such student activities as drama and debate teams, in proportion to sports coverage.

"Is God Dead?" the students were queried, and one replied, when he could see new life in the form of a new baby — he knew God was very much alive.

Revise Awards for 1969 Science Fair

A revision in the awards schedule from former years for the 1969 Southeastern Michigan Science Fair, involving an increase in the amount of awards and large cash prizes in the place of scholarships, was announced today by Dr. James D. Shortt, Jr., executive secretary of the fair.

Open to junior and senior high school students from Washtenaw, Hillsdale, Lenawee, Livingston and Monroe counties, the fair will be held April 18-20 in the University of Michigan Intramural Sports Building.

Also, for the first time in the fair's 11-year history, students who need transportation to the fair from places outside Ann Arbor, will be picked up at their schools on April 18 and housed in U-M housing units before being returned to their home towns following campus tours on April 19, Shortt said.

Another change from previous years will be the elimination of top boy and girl awards, with the first and second place overall winners (either sex) in the senior division receiving expense-paid trips to the International Science Fair in Fort Worth, Tex., from May 3 to 9.

The first place winner in the senior division will receive the trip to Texas, $175 in cash, a first place ribbon and a gold medal. The second place winner, whether boy or girl, will also receive a trip to the International Science Fair, $150 in cash, a second place ribbon and a silver medal.

The third place winner in the senior division will receive $100 in cash, a third prize ribbon and a bronze medal; the fourth place winner, $75 in cash and a ribbon; the fifth place winner, $60 in cash and a ribbon; and the sixth place winner $40 in cash and a ribbon.

The next four students will receive $20 in cash and ribbons. The cash awards are all higher than in previous years.

Senior division category awards will include $10 in cash and a ribbon for first place; $5 in cash and a ribbon for second place; and a University Press Science Series volume and ribbon for third place.

The first place winner in the junior division experiments section will receive the World Book Encyclopedia, $20 in cash, a gold medal and a ribbon. The second place winner a 10-volume set of the Book of Popular Science, $20 in cash, a silver medal and ribbon.

The third place winner will receive $25 in cash, a bronze medal and ribbon; the fourth place winner, $20 in cash and a ribbon; the fifth place winner, $15 in cash and a ribbon; the sixth place winner, $10 in cash and a ribbon; and the next six students $5 in cash and a ribbon.

Prizes in the collections and models section of the junior division will be the same as those for the experiments section, except for the two top awards.

The first place winner in this section will receive an Argus camera and $20 in cash plus a gold medal and ribbon, while the second place student will receive a set of Lincoln Library books, $20 in cash, a silver medal and ribbon.

Nine additional students in both the junior division sections will receive science books, ribbons and honorable mention certificates. Honorable mention certificates also will be given in the senior division.

A list of supplemental awards from area firms and organizations, government agencies and the military services will be announced later.

The senior division is open to students from grades nine through 12, and the junior division to seventh and eighth graders. Since ninth graders are not eligible to enter the International Science Fair, the next highest placing student in grades 10 through 12 will receive the expense-paid trip to Texas should a ninth grader place either first or second.

Offer 4-H Grads Scholarships

High school June graduates who plan to study forestry, plant or biological sciences in college may have a chance for a scholarship if they are or were 4-H Club members.

Four $1,500 scholarships will be awarded to students majoring or minoring in forestry. The grants will be provided by Homelite, A Division of Textron, Inc. Candidates must have completed at least three years of 4-H work and be enrolled in their freshman year at an accredited college in the Fall of 1969.

Two $800 crop protection-crop production scholarships will be offered by Chevron Chemical Co., — Ortho Division, to students with a major or minor in the plant or biological sciences.

Applicants for the $800 scholarships must have completed one year of 4-H work and be a college freshman this Fall.

Scholarship applications should be submitted to the State 4-H Office. High school grade transcripts must accompany the application.

Final judging of scholastic and 4-H records will be done by a committee of extension personnel meeting in Chicago early in November. Winners will be announced during the National 4-H Congress held in Chicago Nov. 30-Dec. 4.

For further details, contact the 4-H Office of the County Extension Service.

Local Jaycees Work "To Save A Life"

Send your coupons to save a life. That's what Tecumseh Jaycees Auxiliary is asking local homemakers to do.

Every Betty Crocker coupon mailed to the Jaycettes will help to amass the necessary 600,000 total to buy a lifesaving machine for some Michigan victim of kidney disease, said local chairman, Mrs. Terry Ridgeway.

She is appealing to coupon-conscious shoppers to mail to her their Betty Crocker coupons from General Mills products like flour, cereal, mixes, snacks, instant potatoes — items on most grocery lists.

If the gigantic total is collected within 18 months, General Mills has agreed to reimburse Michigan Jaycettes approximately $3,000 to pay the cost of an artificial kidney, under a special merchandise plan. Our local deadline is May 1. Canisters are located in the United Savings Bank and Ken-Ray Drug Store.

The Michigan Kidney Foundation will provide names of patients to survive, according to Warren H. Newton of Ann Arbor. Newton is a Michigan Kidney Foundation field representative and Michigan Jaycees "Operation Purchase" Chairman. Purchase of a kidney machine was made a state-wide Jaycee project this year, with Jaycettes assisting.

The 170 Auxiliaries across the state started the coupon drive in December under Mrs. Frank C. (Rhea) Adams, 5138 Michael, Dearborn Heights, 48125, state Jaycee Assistance Chairman.

According to the Michigan Kidney Foundation, 60 Michigan residents were receiving lifesaving treatment on kidney machines as of September, 1968 — 11 of them on their own machines at home.

Are You Satisfied With Your City Council?

MANY ARE COMPLETELY SATISFIED WITH THE WAY COUNCIL IS RUNNING OUR CITY. IF SO, WE URGE YOU TO SUPPORT THEM; HOWEVER, WE WOULD LIKE TO REMIND YOU OF A RECORD THAT IS NOT EXACTLY ENVIABLE:

CONDEMNATION SUIT — Tecumseh lost thousands and thousands of dollars on a condemnation suit, one which may not have benefited the community for many, many years even if the City had won — and the City did not win.

HIGH CITY EVALUATIONS — Our assessed property evaluations keep going up, but has the City lowered its operating millage? If our evaluations keep going up, one would think the millage would drop or at least remain the same.

BUSINESS GROWTH RESTRICTIONS: Council allowed a permit for a discount gasoline station and allowed a house trailer be converted for a retail outlet — but refused a $200,000 investment in a business district after Planning Commission recommended its approval. Make sense?

FIRE DEPARTMENT IMPROVEMENTS: Tecumseh Firemen have sought a tanker for runs into rural and city areas which do not have hydrants. They were refused. Local Firemen sought a new emergency vehicle. Tecumseh Firemen are supposed to have funds in the City Treasury for these purchases — but local Firemen believe their funds have been used or are not available due to other city expenditures.

INDUSTRIAL GROWTH: Tecumseh Corrugated Box wanted to expand here, not in Ohio and in Adrian. Through a technicality, Tecumseh Box was turned down — four expansions have occurred, but none in Tecumseh. Lost were tax dollars, payrolls and a favorable business climate.

OFF-STREET PARKING: Council nearly prevented a huge expansion in downtown Tecumseh by a local merchant. Its approval of a zoning ordinance — requiring excessive payments from merchants and other developers or investors — could restrict further growth by downtown businesses.

"Donut Dollies" Gain Clinton Girl

CLINTON — Susanne O'Fiaro, daughter of Mrs. Grace O'Fiaro, 318 W. Franklin St., received her bachelor of arts degree at Michigan State University in February.

She has joined the Red Cross, and following two weeks' training in Washington, D. C., she was sent to Korea for a year's service.

She serves as a recreational aide Clubmobile worker with the Red Cross. The Clubmobile girls serve as a communications link from the people in the States to the servicemen in Korea.

They present programs to cheer the servicemen, traveling in ¾-ton trucks from their base, Camp Red Cloud, Uijeonghu, near Seoul.

By helicopters or jeeps, they also travel to isolated missile sites on mountain tops where the men are the loneliest.

Because they pass out so many doughnuts, they're often called

SUSANNE O'FIARO

"Doughnut Dollies," Susanne writes.

The girls who are chosen for this work must have college degrees, and be between the ages of 21-24.

Miss O'Fiaro is a graduate of Clinton High School.

Her address is:

Pvt. John O'Connor recently completed his basic training with the Army at Ft. Lewis, Wash. He spent a two-day leave in Clinton before reassignment to Military Police School. He is the son of the late Dr. and Mrs. Archie O'Connor. He is a 1968 graduate of Clinton High School.

Daisy Barrels Are Neat Touch By Girl Scouts

CLINTON — Troop 4 Girl Scouts have undertaken a project of painting large metal barrels dark green, and trimming them with splashy white daisies.

Four of the eye-catching trash containers have been placed about the community and others will be forthcoming soon.

May we suggest — a good way to show appreciation to the girls for their thoughtful gift, would be for everyone to use the new trash containers and help keep Clinton spruced up.

Elect New Fire Chief

CLINTON — Russell Rider was elected fire chief of the Clinton Fire Department, at a meeting, March 16.

Milton Grossman was elected assistant.

Arthur Schuler, who was fire chief for the past two years, and a veteran volunteer fireman for almost 20 years, has retired from the department to "give the younger fellows a chance to serve," he said.

Chosen To FFA Band

CLINTON — Charles Finkbeiner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Warren Finkbeiner, was chosen as a member of the National FFA band, in competition at the Michigan FFA Conference last week at Michigan State University. He will play bass clarinet in the FFA band at the National FFA Conference in Kansas City, Mo., next fall.

David Herndon also competed for a position on the band.

Clinton Chapter FFA delegates to the State Conference were Steven Shelley and Charles Finkbeiner.

Chapter members and their advisor, John Jansen, attended the Farmers Week activities, Thursday. The chapter also exhibited their Fish Identification project.

Custom Work Policies Set For FFA Chapter

CLINTON — The regular meeting of the board of education was attended by several citizens interested in the discussion of the policies concerning the operation of the Future Farmers of America Chapter.

Certain guidelines were established for the intra-curricular organization, which are mainly in regard to the community service activities of the FFA, such as the spraying operation.

It was determined that the school shall provide normal liability coverage to protect the district. Additional insurance costs required for crop, damages, etc., shall be borne by the FFA from proceeds of custom work.

The bid was accepted for a $2,494 incinerator to be installed at the elementary school, from the Walter M. Rogers Co., Detroit.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Jackson of St. Joseph were weekend guests of her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Greenfield, Jr. Thursday and Friday the Jacksons attended the conference of the Michigan Association of Classroom Teachers MACT. Letters to the Editor

TO THE EDITOR:

Mrs. Jones of Ternes Road made me hang my head in shame for not "standing up and being counted" — for I feel as she does relative to the evangelist who spoke to our local high school assembly a few weeks ago — I started my letter of protest, but neglected to get it on to you. I was not at the assembly, however, I did hear the evangelist speak on another occasion and thought very highly of him. I believe our young people can do well to heed his warnings.

Mr. Murphy, here is a quote from a local Lenawee County paper that has no church connection — would you please read it and ponder on its thoughts?

WHATSOEVER THINGS

By Donald Wildmon

I'm a prude. I will admit it. I'm a prude. And I use the word not in the sense of its meaning in the dictionary but in the method which it has found itself used in today's slang language. In that language, you know, a prude is someone old-fashioned, less than a modern he-man. But, like I said, I'm a prude.

I'm a prude because I still believe in honesty. I don't believe in cheating or lying to my fellow man. I do believe I can be something to some men.

I'm a prude because I believe in decency. I can see nothing good coming from speech that is dirty and filled with profanity. Some of the words and their implications some of the songs on today's market turn my stomach. Some of the trash which passes for "art" on the screen of today would make Sodom and Gomorrah look like a fairyland.

I'm a prude because I don't drink. They tell us that 65% indulge in it now. Maybe that's what they want us to believe, maybe that is the correct figure. It doesn't bother me if 99 and 4/100% do it, to me it's wrong. And I hate the whole stinking mess when I pick up my paper and see the number of innocent people who suffer and die because of drink. We scream when a few innocent people die in war, and will not speak a word when thousands die because of drink on our highways.

I'm a prude because I still believe in kindness. I still think you should be kind to your fellowman instead of hard and harsh and rough. A kind word, a small gesture of kindness, a little gift can build lasting friendships.

I'm a prude because I believe in America. Despite all of her faults, it is, to me still the greatest country this world has ever known. I still owe my country more than my country owes me. I believe I don't have the right to criticize it unless I also try to make it better.

I'm a prude because I still believe in God. And to make me more of a prude, I still believe in a good God. I believe He is like a Father, and that He loves us, wants the best for us, and hurts when we shun Him and His way. I believe we will never achieve what we long for the most apart from Him.

I told pou before I began that I was a prude. Now you know why. But you know what? I'm a prude with pride!

Aids In Crash Rescue

Res... ...rs of a U. S. Army helicopter crash in Vietnam tested the airmanship of U. S. Air Force Staff Sergeant Leroy W. King and fellow crewmen from Tuy Hoa Air Base recently.

The downed chopper had impacted on a mountain ridge in heavily jungled terrain and low clouds blanketed the area.

Sergeant King, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herman R. Radant, 210 Iroquois Dr., was a flight engineer with one of two HH-43 Huskie crews who performed the difficult operation after Army gunships had silenced the enemy.

When the first rescue chopper departed with survivors aboard, Sgt. King and his Huskie crew moved into position. It was touch and go as they fought rapidly deteriorating weather to retrieve two men, shuttle them to a secure area and return to the site to repeat the operation. On their third and final trip out, the crew was forced to fly at treetop level, parallel to the mountain until they were 500 feet below the crash site.

Sergeant King flies search and rescue missions from Tuy Hoa as a member of the highly-specialized Aerospace Rescue and Recovery Service that recorded 915 lives saved in Southeast Asia last year.

The Sergeant is a graduate of Tecumseh High School.

Camp Fire Girls Education Program

Who are they and what do they do for you? Any girl, age 7 through high school, of any race, religion, or economic background, who enjoys fun and friendship, can answer these questions for you IF she is a member of the Camp Fire Girl program of education and recreation.

Whether meeting weekly for fun or service, or holding a council fire, or going on a hike, or planting a tree to beautify a bare spot, or taking an historical trip, the major purpose of Camp Fire Girls is to help its members understand and develop as girls and women. It is a flexible creative program, with poetically expressed Laws and Desires, symbolism and ceremonials; and it is found in thousands of communities across the United States.

These interested girls enjoy adventures in cooking, baby care, reading and games. They explore creative ideas, develop skills and talents and earn ranks under the friendly understanding leadership of women volunteers.

In the Blue Birds the younger girl learns to make friends, to go to interesting places, and to make things more beautiful. The older girls in Camp Fire and Junior Hi Camp Fire programs explore "1001 things to do" which fall into Seven Crafts — home, outdoors, creative arts, citizenship, frontiers, sports and games, and business. Horizon Clubs stress community service, career exploration, and the arts and skills of growing up gracefully.

No you know WHO they are. What they DO is to grow to mature, intelligent, understanding and useful young citizens of which any community can be proud.

The Tecumseh Community Fund Foundation assists in this preparation of young womanhood by accepting Camp Fire Girls as a member charity.

Voters To Elect Four at Polls on Monday

Although there are four Council seats in balance at next Monday's election, the turnout is expected to be low as there's no millage proposals before the electorate.

Warden Slays Clinton Dogs

By BILL SANFORD and MAXINE CALHOUN

In an act which his superior called "bad judgment", and citizens called "cruelty" Dog Warden Charles Mitchell shot and killed at least four dogs, probably more, in Clinton March 25. During the past week rumors have been mixed with the facts to cloud just what exactly happened.

Michael Walls, principal of the Clinton Elementary School, reported that a pack of dogs was ranging on the school grounds. Before school on Tuesday they surrounded one girl and High School Principal Jack Miller escorted her out of the pack. Superintendent Richard Wegner felt the situation serious and summoned help from the State Police, who relayed the call to the Sheriff's office in Adrian.

Two weeks ago Mitchell came under the command of the sheriff. Hazy policy for that department, the dog warden, was perhaps one of the causes for the incident.

Sheriff Richard Germond when questioned about the incident said that if anything, "Chuck used bad judgment in shooting the dogs where children could witness it." He also admitted that

$69,800 Bid For Garage

The cost of garage building soared beyond expectations when bids to construct the new city garage were opened. Low bidder on the project was Goodrich Construction Co., who submitted a bid for $69,800 to build a conventional building of concrete and steel. Other bids were received by two other firms for $69,995 and $70,868. The figure was some 65% higher than the city had expected.

Officials felt that the garage could have been constructed for a figure in the neighborhood of $45,000.

Bids on all-metal buildings were even slightly higher than the conventional costs, over $70,000.

City Manager Cal Zorn is meeting with architects to study the bids further before making a concrete recommendation to the Council.

Thousands will be attending services in local churches in observance of the Holy Season, when Christians throughout the world will renew faith in the spiritual rebirth of Christ.

Nearly every church in the city and surrounding area is holding special worship services throughout the remainder of the week to be climaxed Easter Sunday in remembrance of the Resurrection.

Britton, Clinton and Tipton services are listed on their respective pages.

Dogs

his department had not yet had the opportunity to prepare a policy concerning control of county dogs.

Mitchell contended, when questioned, that all of the dogs he shot were on school property. Several witnesses, however, dispute Mitchell's statement contending that they were shot on private property two blocks from the school building. He said he shot none on private property.

One dog, owned by Fred LeBlanc, of 206 Coman St., was shot in the yard of a neighbor. The witnesses to the incident, who did not want their names disclosed, said that the dog had been laying in the yard gnawing on a bone. When the neighbor who was working outside, entered his house for a brief period, he heard another neighbor yelling that something was wrong with "Tippy", the name of the LeBlanc dog.

They went to where the dog lay. Just prior to the shooting of the dog, Mitchell in his truck, was seen stopped in front of the house, he drove forward and then backed up. When the neighbors took the dog to the garage, in hopes of reviving it, Mitchell was noticed watching from the corner to view the spot he shot the dog. The pet died later. He had been shot by a .22 rifle, which Mitchell had used. A local veterinarian cremated "Tippy."

Another dog owned by the Glen Bihlmeyer family, 202 Locust St., was also shot in front of their house. The Bihlmeyers were at work at the time, one son was in the house. A neighbor, Mrs. James Hansen, noticed the dog lying in another neighbor's yard yelping. Before Mrs. Hansen could get to the dog, the warden pulled up in his truck. Mrs. Hansen asked Mitchell if the dog had been hit and he said "yes". She also asked if "he was dead", he answered, "yes". She did notice some movement, yet Mitchell refused to allow Mrs. Hansen to look at the dog, instead threw it in the back of the truck and went on.

Later Mrs. Hansen stated that he came through the alley between houses again chasing another dog, which later fitted the description of a dog missing from the William C. Nighswander home on Church St. Mrs. Hansen and another neighbor of her's were in the yard at the time. The dog seemed to be crippled. He ran away and has not been seen since. The ladies said that when Mitchell noticed them, he drove away in the other direction.

Dr. Edwin Wight also reported that he witnessed the shooting of one dog, owner unknown, on his front lawn, between 9:30 and 10 a.m. According to Dr. Wight, the dog ran about 75 yards after he was hit, then fell over. He went on to say that the warden was firing from the truck window with a rifle, probably a .22 caliber.

Mrs. Albert Caesar, of Tecumseh Pet Watchers, has been working since the incident to get to the bottom of just what happened. Mitchell and Sheriff Germond refused a meeting Mrs. Caesar was planning for Tuesday night for an explanation of what happened from both sources.

It is not known whether another attempt at a hearing will be made. The warden does not have the authority to destroy pets on private property. Many residents of Clinton feel that one should be held.

Some children reported that they witnessed shootings at the school, one school official said he witnessed the shootings and later denied it to one of the owners of the dogs.

Three dogs had roamed the area of the school and stayed in a field to the rear of the school. The dogs were still in the area at last report.

Downtown in Clinton it was reported that several dogs have been shot. Many people had failed to get new licenses for their dogs. This fact kept the number of people who reported lost dogs to a minimum.

Downtown in Clinton Tuesday afternoon a little girl walked the streets looking for her little dog. Her name, address, phone number were on his collar, but no one called a little girl about her pet.

VOICE of THE HERALD

Dwight D. Eisenhower 1890-1969

That smile is gone forever from the panorama of American life. It has faded into the dim memories of D-Day, the 6th of June, January 20, 1953 and 1957. The smile that bore a warmth and compassion before the powers of the world. A smile that waned in battle when he met thousands of GI's crossing the channel that cold morning so long ago. Tears filled the warm sockets of his eyes.

The greatness of Dwight David Eisenhower was not one to be coupled with the aging general who laid in bed in Walter Reed Hospital. It laid beyond the greatness of the generations he spanned with leadership.

Too often we judge greatness in relation to other men. Greatness can only be judged in relation to the times in which men meet the challenge that has been bestowed upon them. Dwight David Eisenhower was great because he drew a people together. He masterminded great maneuvers as well as fostering humility in the face of the awesome powers he held.

In 1953 he came forth on the American scene, the war hero, the knight in shining armor on a white horse. He was the heart and soul of every American. Born in the heart of their homeland, he remained forever that Kansas boy who often let his heart guide the destinies of those who had been commended to his hands.

Dwight David Eisenhower was different from Douglas MacArthur, General Patton, Bradley, the rest. He commanded, but he listened. He listened to the heartbeats that formed the mighty bloodstreams of America's greatest promise, Peace in one world, together.

A great general in war, turned president, sought peace with more zeal than any before or after. He knew war, but felt the great dream of peace in that Kansas heart of his.

Now that smile is gone, that broad grin that welled from a soul men will long admire and remember. The smile is gone but some of him remains and it always will. He once remarked on a golf course, in response to a question of whether he wished to be called General or President, "As long as I live, I shall prefer to be called 'Ike'."

Ike is gone, the smile is gone, but his greatness lives wherever words of peace are spoken. WS

Tecumseh's Problems Discussed by Chamber

Seventeen situations or problems existing in the city were discussed by 110 members and guests of the Chamber of Commerce at a banquet meeting held March 27 at the Tecumseh Country Club.

Carl Jorgensen, manager of public affairs of the Michigan State Chamber of Commerce, was the speaker, introduced by local Chamber President Del King.

Mr. Jorgensen spoke on "How a Chamber Should Operate". He divided his audience into groups of six or eight persons, each selecting a chairman to discuss projects they thought the Chamber should accomplish.

Encouraging physicians to come to Tecumseh headed the list, followed by the parking problem for new and expanding businesses.

Mr. King was told by City Manager Cal Zorn that the City has set up a committee to study this situation.

Industrial improvements, improvement and modernization of county government, full time chamber executive, general clean-up of the commercial area and better communications between city government and the Chamber were some more of the items discussed.

David Criss was master of ceremonies and Cal Damon and Mrs. Robert Bowers were co-chairmen of the event.

MARDA GENE DUNCAN'S Thru My Window

A LITTLE OF THIS AND A LITTLE OF THAT

Things are happening fast and furiously lately. Mother Nature hardly lets one show finish before starting another. We are hard pressed to keep up with all the action.

The grackles are back; they arrived in full force the Saturday before St. Patrick's Day. As usual they have taken over everything — wherever we look there are the yellow-eyed black thieves.

I think their trip north must have been a hard one because even now they are still spending a great deal of time in the creek, part of this time they are bathing but even more often they seem to be just soaking their feet. The birds line up in the shallow water at the edge of the creek and stand. Who knows, maybe they walked part of the way north this year.

I am quite sure that Mother Squirrel is using the same hole-in-the-tree home that she did last year. We see her going in and out quite regularly — sometimes, early on a sunny morning, she comes out so slowly and acts so sleepy that we almost expect her to yawn and stretch.

Twice we have caught her gathering dead leaves; she picks up all she can hold with her mouth, then with movements so fast they are hard to see, puts her front paws up to her mouth and uses them to twist and turn and wad the leaves into a ball.

Thus, with her over-sized load worked into a more easily managed package, she takes off for home. It is never a direct route, though, she makes all sorts of detours and side trips before finally reaching her round doorway. Smart Mother Squirrel, she is not going to broadcast the whereabouts of her home-sweet-home.

OUR EXTREMELY bright and handsome male cardinal is squiring his lady-love closer to the feeder each day. He has not yet invited her to dine with him but it will happen soon, perhaps even by the time this goes to press.

We laughed the other day. The pair came flying across the creek together but, before coming down for a sunflower seed snack, he parked her on one of the little branches of the maple sapling. It was a beautiful day, the sun was bright and shining full on the feeder — it did wonderful things to his scarlet coat, his jet-black bandit face mask, and his flaming red bill.

He was posing in the sunlight just knowing what it did for him. Suddenly we noticed his legs. Now this is a big cardinal, and he has the round, fat-tummied body of a cardinal in his prime. But oh, the legs, they were little spindly things, regular Phyllis Diller pipestems.

Several weeks ago, to be exact, it was on the morning of that blessed little thunderstorm which helped a wee bit, but, to be truly beneficial, should have lasted all day long and then on into the night. Anyway, that was the morning I laughed at a hairy woodpecker. He was hanging on the side of a straight limb high in the elm tree; with tail braced and feet clamped in tightly, he was leaning away from the limb and being so statue-like still that I was almost not sure it was a bird. There is just no mistaking a hairy woodpecker's profile though.

Suddenly there was an exceptionally loud crash of thunder — I jumped and so did the woodpecker. He really did, I could actually see light between him and the limb, there was no flapping of wings, but when he landed again he was a little higher on the tree trunk than before. I was so surprised, I knew the unexpected thunderclap was startling to me but I would certainly never have guessed that a hairy woodpecker's reaction would be the same.

DOES EVERYONE have their bluebird houses out? They should be. Two weeks ago we received a report that the first blue beauties were back. Good luck to all who try for bluebirds!

March just could not do it, could she? She simply could not leave without flinging that last snowstorm at us. It was a beauty — the snow was so wet that it stuck to everything. In addition to the pretty looking, it afforded all sorts of good bird business.

Papa Cardinal sung his skinny legs into the snow on the feeder and paid not the least attention as long as the sunflower seeds lasted; the mourning dove was most impolite and seemed bent on not eating breakfast himself but merely knocking the food from the feeder; a pair of chickadees played back and forth between the feeder and the trees on the other side of the creek; and a poor lost soul of a robin sat huddled on a tree limb wondering "what happened".

So it is that window-watching lately has been busy with a little of this and a little of that.

NEXT WEEK:
"The Pace Continues"

When — or If — You Vote Next Monday . . .

Don't you think it is time for a change?

Don't we need some fresh ideas?

ANYONE WHO WOULD EVEN SUGGEST THAT OUR PRESENT COUNCIL IS ALL WRONG AND HAS NOT CONDUCTED ITS AFFAIRS IN A BUSINESS-LIKE MANNER, DOES NOT KNOW OUR TECUMSEH GOVERNMENT. THERE'S NO ARGUMENT FOR ARGUMENT'S SAKE. OUR COUNCIL HAS BEEN GOOD, IT HAS BEEN BAD, AND IT ALSO HAS BEEN IN-BETWEEN. WE BELIEVE IT CAN BE IMPROVED BY NEW FACES . . . FRESH IDEAS . . . SOMETHING WE'VE NOT HAD FOR MANY, MANY YEARS. IF YOU AGREE, PLEASE SUPPORT OUR CANDIDATES. WE NEED CITY OFFICIALS RESPONSIBLE TO THE COMMUNITY, ONES WHO ARE AWARE OF OUR TIMES, GROWTH AND FUTURE. LACK OF FORESIGHT HAS BEEN LACKING. PLEASE REMEMBER . . .

Underwood Condemnation Suit — Our city officials went to court to take away some property a local resident did not want to sell. We, the city, wanted this property and we were going to take it. But did we? No, we went to court and then withdrew. Thousands and thousands of dollars, perhaps a whole mill of tax money, were lost. And then, our city looked elsewhere and found some saleable property for a new well field. When developed, this will be the most expensive well field Tecumseh ever imagined.

High City Evaluations — A few years ago our city officials adjusted our evaluations to 50% of state equalization as required by law. But did they lower the tax millage in proportion? If your taxes went down — which they didn't — you already know the answer. This year, our evaluations were raised again. Will we get a millage cut? Remain the same? Next month will decide.

Business Restrictions — Isn't it a shame that local business is restricted in growth due to a silly ordinance that would cost a business thousands of unnecessary dollars to expand. Our present off-street parking ordinance must be changed to promote growth, not restrict it. Several merchants already have paid the kitty. Don't you think it should stop?

Industrial Growth — Do we promote industry or restrict it — and their tax dollars, payrolls and employment. Just a few years ago Tecumseh Corrugated Box wanted to expand. Company officials sought relief from an ordinance which would prohibit the company's expansion. Our city turned thumbs down, and Tecumseh Box since has expanded three times in Ohio and once in Adrian. Was this necessary? Don't you think it's time for a change?

Fire Department Relations — It's no hidden secret that local volunteer firemen have been upset with Council's refusal to approve their plans for improving the department. The firemen would like to replace a 1952 tanker, woefully inadequate at the Tecumseh Greenhouse fire, and one which is not adequate in certain other areas of the city. Firemen would like to replace a 1955 emergency vehicle, but no progress has been made. Why? Firemen say there should be over $18,000 in their fund and available.

If you think it's time for a change, time for "fresh ideas", then we ask you to support

Who paints the sky a brilliant pink? Who starts the buds on the lilac bush and the pussy willows in their furry coats? Who gladdens the hearts of fellowman at this special time of year, if it isn't God?

One does not have to seek the stained glass sanctuary of the church to find Him, but it's nice to look for Him there. We suggest that readers select one of the many churches listed in The Herald this week and attend the services this Eastertide.

GI Deserter Is Captured After Chase

Ronald F. Sniffen, 19, charged with desertion from the army at Ft. Polk, La., was arrested here by Tecumseh police Saturday morning after a brief chase and shooting.

The army deserter was first apprehended after Officers Don Rodehaver and Doug Aylesworth stopped a suspicious car coming into Tecumseh from the east. A passenger — which happened to be Sniffen — jerked around in the automobile to check to see what the patrol car and officers were doing.

After pulling the car over, the officers discovered Sniffen and took him to the station. There at the department, Sniffen broke away after being let out of the car. A shot by the officers failed to halt him.

Both Rodehaver and Aylesworth cornered him near Herrick Hospital in their patrol cars. He struggled with the officers and was taken to the hospital for a physical examination.

Military Police from Ft. Wayne took him into custody Tuesday afternoon at the county jail. The youth has a long juvenile record here.

UHGUM — Chief Tecumseh's namesakes, the "braves" come out recently in full headdress at Pack 4 meeting.

Braves Study Indian Lore

Chief Tecumseh might have had a warm twinge in his heart Tuesday evening as some 30 young "braves" from the town named after him, relived some exciting days in Indian culture and customs. Pack No. 4 went all out to explain the ways of the American Indian even down to the making of costumes.

As the meeting got underway the colors were presented. Den No. 1 under the guidance of Mrs. Joseph Conklin, den mother. Den No. 4 gave a presentation of Indian crafts using the various elements in nature as props.

Skins from animals were used for clothing and tepees; cloth was woven from grasses; feathers, claws, teeth and shells were used as ornaments; and jugs and water vessels were made from clay. Gordon Comfort from Comfort Brick and Tile Co., provided the raw clay for the boys to work with.

Housing and Indian villages were discussed by Den No. 8. The boys made Indian tepees and put them together in a village. They explained the reason for a flap at the top of the tepee to let smoke out, and also the various Indian symbols that might be painted on their tepee.

The Indian was deeply religious. He felt the present of the Great Spirit at all times and in all places. Almost everything he did had some religious meaning.

Den No. 9 formed a ceremonial ring and performed a spirited dance around a "hero" who was ill. The sound of the tomtoms and dancing feet made an effective presentation.

Silver Arrow points were presented to Wayland Engle, Bill Ousterhout, Mike Sieverts, Ross Dornan and Bruce Bugbee.

The April 29 meeting will be held at the Baptist Youth House with pets and hobbies as a theme.

HOW CLEAN IS YOUR HOUSEHOLD WATER?
Don't gamble on dirty water! Like MAGIC you can turn your present water supply into CRYSTAL-CLEAR, crisp tasting "spring like" water. You will actually enjoy using your water for drinking, cooking, beverages, etc., knowing it is free from silt, sediment, rust, scale particles, sand, algae, dirt, cloudiness, and most other suspended matter. Aptly named, the Purity Water Filter is the most effective, dependable, lowest-cost protection against these water problems. (It does not soften water.)

TO PRESENT CONCERT — The 40-voice male chorus from Northwestern College in Watertown, Wis., will present a concert at the Grace Ev. Lutheran Church on April 9.

Male Chorus To Sing Here

Grace English Ev. Lutheran Church of Tecumseh is sponsoring the Male Chorus of Northwestern College, Watertown, Wis., in a sacred concert to be given in the church located at Maumee and Shawnee Streets, on April 9, at 7:30 p.m.

The program will consist of chorales, hymns, anthems and carols written and arranged by composers from the 16th through the 20th centuries. The College Brass Quartet will perform with the Chorus, and will play several selections between two of the choral sections.

Student organist, James Schuppenhauer, will present a 15-minute pre-concert musical, and will also play the voluntary. One of the last numbers on the program is an arrangement by the chorus director, Dr. Arnold O. Lehmann, of the hymn "The Church's One Foundation" for children's chorus and male chorus. The children's chorus at this concert will consist of the 7th and 8th grades of the Sunday School, directed by Mrs. Ed. Mengerink.

Northwestern College is a pre-theological college operated by the Wisconsin Evangelical Lutheran Synod. It grants a BA degree in liberal arts upon graduation from the college.

The concert presented by this Chorus is open to the public, and a cordial invitation is extended by the members of Grace Lutheran Church to all to hear this program.

A free-will offering will be taken.

New Concept Aids Students

EDITOR'S NOTE — This is an article on the new team-teacher program which has been started at THS this year. Limited to a freshman class of 82 this year, with three participating teachers, school officials are hopeful of expanding the concept in the future. Patricia is a member of the team group.

By PATRICIA MANNINO

This year at Tecumseh High School a team-teaching program has been set up for the Freshman class. Of the class, 82 students were selected to participate. These students were chosen by their achievement and IQ test scores.

The program encompasses English, algebra, and social studies. Each class meets for approximately 45 minutes in large or small groups, depending on how they are divided. Time is also provided for the individual to receive extra help which is one of the advantages of the team.

Throughout the year, outside speakers have been brought in to talk to the team. Some of these speakers were: Donald Moffatt, city Recreation Director; Murell Clark, Chief of Police; John Shiraef, an expert on Russia, Richard Anderson, an employee at the General Telephone Company, and Miss Motoko Takabayashi, a Japanese exchange student at Adrian College.

During the election campaign, Ernest Oliver, magistrate of the circuit court, and Robert Stites, state representative, led discussions. Students also conducted a political poll of the community during this period.

Next year, a science-math program has been set up for this year's team. A new ninth grade team will be started. Present plans are to extend the team teaching concept throughout the high school with more than one team at each grade level.

Area Doctors Continue Study

Carlton L. Cook, M. D., and Richard Elder Dustin, M. D., of Tecumseh, have been re-elected to active membership in the American Academy of General Practice, the national association of family doctors.

Re-election signifies that the physician has successfully completed 150 hours of accredited postgraduate medical study in the last three years.

The Academy, the country's second largest national medical association, is the only medical group that requires members to keep up with medical progress through continuing education.

The Academy, founded in 1947 and headquartered in Kansas City, Mo., currently is spearheading a movement to create a new specialty of family medicine that will enhance the ability of the family physician to provide comprehensive, continuing care to the public.

The foundation of the new specialty will be the Academy's post-graduate education program.

Plymouth Scores Most Points in Three Tests

A Plymouth Fury I scored the highest number of points of all 60 cars that competed in fuel economy, acceleration and braking tests of the Union/Pure Oil Performance Trials at Daytona Beach, Fla.

The Plymouth Fury, competing in Class V for cars equipped with standard V-8 engines, scored a total of 98 performance points out of a possible 100.

Two other Plymouth entries finished first in their respective

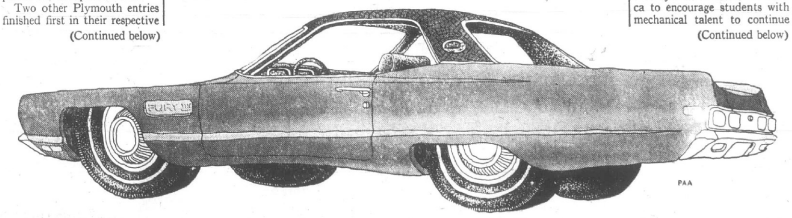
Announcing a special new Plymouth.



At a special low price.

Everyone says special, but we really mean it. Snapper's a new limited edition car like Plymouth has never made before. It'll shield you from weather's whims under a groovy turtle-shell vinyl top and carry you in a metallic muted-gold body. It has a "camp" Snapper emblem, like the one in the middle, on each roof pillar. An extended roofline that lets your rear seat passengers actually lean back (over 3" extra head room). And, of course, many of the "special" features that most people want: deluxe vinyl interior, white sidewalls, deluxe wheel covers, bumper guards, and a kicky little time-delay ignition switch light, all at a special package price (again, we really mean special). Naturally, you can personalize a Snapper even more, with everything from a Super Commando 440 V-8 to air conditioning or 8-track stereo; just ask your dealer. As a limited edition model with your own personal options, Snapper is a truly individual vehicle. See one now, at your Plymouth Dealer.

2,000 Teams of Students Competing in Plymouth's Trouble Shooting Contest

Teams of student mechanics from more than 2,000 high schools and colleges in every state of the Union will compete for $125,000 worth of prizes in the 21st annual Plymouth Trouble Shooting Contest.

The contest is sponsored by the Chrysler-Plymouth Division of Chrysler Motors Corporation and Plymouth Dealers of America to encourage students with mechanical talent to continue classes, giving the Plymouth line of cars winners in three out of the nine classes of competition.

Other Plymouth winners were a Valiant Signet in Class VII for six-cylinder compact economy cars, and a Barracuda in Class IX for sports compacts.

The Union/Pure Oil Performance Trials, held under the supervision of the National Association for Stock Car Racing, compared the basic performance characteristics of American-made 1969 models which are in the popular price ranges.

The fuel economy tests measured a car's fuel consumption at an average speed of 40 miles per hour over a distance of 18.567 miles.

The acceleration tests measured the time it took a car to accelerate from 25 to 70 miles per hour.

The braking tests demonstrated the car's high-speed stopping capability immediately after severe brake usage.

The 60 stock cars competing in the tests were taken directly from dealers' showrooms throughout the country to provide a realistic comparison of various makes and models.

Wagon Air Deflector

The 1969 Plymouth Fury station wagon models have a new and efficient air deflector, mounted at the rear of the roof to divert air around and across the big rear window, significantly reducing vision obstruction. By blowing clean air over the window, the deflector prevents rain, dust and grit from accumulating.

their education and pursue careers in the growing automotive service business.

The winning two-man team at each of the 100 regional and state contests being held this spring will compete for $125,000 worth of scholarships, prizes, trophies and automotive equipment for their schools at the National Finals at the Indianapolis 500 Speedway in mid-June.

Winners at local and national contests are chosen by the speed and skill with which they find and fix malfunctions under the hood of a new Plymouth and restore the car to normal operating condition. All teams work on identical cars that have been deliberately tampered with in the same way.

Plymouth Dealers sponsor a two-man team from their local school and make a Plymouth car available to practice on. The teams from the 2,000 participating schools, which have a combined enrollment of 150,000 students taking automotive shop courses, are selected by school instructors.

The Plymouth Trouble Shooting Contest originated in Los Angeles in 1949. It was sponsored by Plymouth Dealers there who sought to recruit young men as mechanic trainees. The annual contest grew in size as educators gave it their support.

Since the contest became national in scope in 1962, scholarships have been awarded to 116 students and full or part-time jobs have been found for more than 15,000 young men.

"In the March meeting of the Tecumseh City Planning Commission, our attention was directed by Cal Zorn, city manager, to the water consumption for our city. It was noted that, while your company has grown and progressed from 1964 through 1968, your water consumption has dropped from 81% to 55% of the total daily city consumption. This is equivalent to the daily output of two good wells.

"Recognizing that this conservation has been attained through diligent and careful planning, and at considerable expense, we commend you heartily for this demonstration of Tecumseh Products' deep interest in—and great contribution to our city.

Ladies Reminisce The Early Days

CLINTON — A noon luncheon, which was attended by 31 members of the Women's Fellowship in the United Church of Christ, Thursday, was reminiscent of the earlier years of the organization.

It was recalled in the afternoon's historical program that for most of the church's 126 years, the Fellowship meetings had begun with such a luncheon, often held in a member's home and frequently attended by 50 or more women.

Mrs. Linn Weaver arranged the program using information found in early secretary's reports. Assisting with the program were Mrs. Howard Hause, Mrs. Nina Stewart, Mrs. Martin Hoelzer and Mrs. Harold Calhoun.

Soon after the church was built in 1843, the first Women's Missionary Society began, and in subsequent years the name was changed to Ladies' Aid, Women's Union and eventually to the present Women's Fellowship. Study of foreign missions and other timely topics of concern provided the programs for the organization.

Projects over the years have included sewing for missions and collections of used clothing have been continuous. Visits are made and floral gifts sent to the hospitalized and shut-ins, and assistance has been given to families afflicted by disaster or death.

For many of the early years the church women served public suppers and for the past 20 years they have served the weekly Rotary Club dinners, and have used the proceeds from their work to enhance the physical appearance of the church, remodeling the kitchen, refurbishing the church school rooms and supplying equipment.

A Fellowship scrap book, started by Mrs. Clyde Greenfield, Sr., and recently brought up to date by Mrs. John Fox, was on display with other mementos of the church history.

An amusing contest resulted when members were asked to identify childhood photographs of 20 members. Mrs. Fox was able to identify eight and was presented with a plant.

Seven past presidents, who were present, were recognized: Mrs. Clyde Greenfield, Sr., Mrs. Walter Geiger, Mrs. Weaver, Mrs. Mervyn Witherell, Mrs. Agnes Geiger, Mrs. Robert King and Mrs. Harold Calhoun.

Mrs. Howard Hause was remembered with a birthday song, marking her 94th birthday anniversary, of March 26. She is the oldest living member of the church.

Mrs. Robert Vogel conducted the business meeting, and announced the committees to serve the Father-Son banquet on April 12 and the Mother-Daughter banquet, May 10.

The Fellowship voted to assume the cost of the new carpeting in the Kirker Memorial room. The carpeting was installed last week.

Mrs. Arthur Hill, material aid chairman, announced that used clothing may be left at the church by May 1 to be packed for shipment to Church World Service.

The Worship meeting for new officers of the Ann Arbor-Jackson Association Fellowships will be held April 29 at 9:15 a.m., in the West Adrian United Church of Christ.

Members were asked to bring their Easter plants to the church for Easter Sunday.

New officers were elected and they will be installed at the May meeting. They are:

President — Mrs. Arthur Hill

Vice-president — Mrs. Charles Steffens

Recording secretary — Mrs. Mervyn Witherell

Treasurer — Mrs. Martin Hoelzer

Corresponding secretary—Mrs. Howard Hintz

Parish chairman — Mrs. William Shelley

Nominating committee — Mrs. Robert Vogel

Our Christian World Mission—Mrs. Harold Calhoun

Christian education — Mrs. Mary Baldwin

Social concern — Mrs. Agnes Geiger

Evangelism and spiritual life—Mrs. Ben Mahrle, II.

Other appointments include: sunshine committee, Mrs. Paul Dunham; world service and material aid, Mrs. Edgar Randall, Mrs. Dunham and Mrs. Lewis Blaisdell; and OCWM, Mrs. Charles Steffens.

The next meeting will be May 29.

Clinton Chatter

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Follis returned to their home last week after spending the winter in Palmetto, Fla.

Mr. and Mrs. Delbert R. Tallman, Jr., and children will leave Friday to spend the Easter holidays on a camping trip to Palmetta, Fla. Mr. Tallman's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Tallman, Sr., who have been in Florida for a few weeks, plan to return home soon after Easter.

Pre-Schoolers Vision-Hearing Tests Required

CLINTON — The Pre-School Vision and Hearing Clinic for the Clinton area will be conducted at the Methodist Church Education building from 8:45 a.m. to 12 noon, Monday, April 7 and Tuesday, April 8.

The tests are free of charge.

A recently-passed law by the Michigan Legislature requires a child to have a vision and hearing test before he enters kindergarten.

The tests are available through the Lenawee County Health Department, to all children from three and one-half years to kindergarten age.

A major aim of the program is to prevent one-eyed blindness, commonly referred to as "lazy eye". The condition can very often be corrected at the age of three or four, but may become a permanently blind eye at the age of seven or eight.

One cannot detect a slight hearing loss by talking to a child. Only a special instrument (audiometer) can pick up the hearing loss when it is beginning, the time when treatment is most helpful.

Eric Pratt Wins Pinewood Derby

CLINTON — Trophy winners at the Cub Scout Pinewood Derby, Tuesday, were Eric Pratt, first place; David McKeen, second place and Andrew Liscomb, best of show. Presentation of the trophies was made by Cubmaster John Shear.

Individual den winners who reached the semi-finals were: Eric Pratt, Den 2; Andrew Liscomb, Den 3; David McKeen, Den 4 and Guy Beebe, Webelos.

The 36 entries were judged by Troopers Patrick Cody and William Bradway.

Gold arrows were presented by Carl Duda to Michael Williams and Eric Pratt. One-year pins were presented to Michael Williams, James Wilson and Eric Pratt. Gregory Jaqua received a two-year pin.

A blue ribbon was presented to each boy who entered a car in the derby.

No Trip

CLINTON — The annual senior trip has been cancelled due to "lack of interest" by members of the class. The usual trip to Washington had been arranged and some reservations made, when the decision to cancel was made.

Broken Water Main Disrupts Meeting

CLINTON — A broken village water main was discovered shortly after noon, Thursday, when water began to gush into the basement of the United Church of Christ.

Water oozing across the dining room floor threatened to disrupt the meeting of the Women's Fellowship, while several of the women did yeoman service with mops and pails.

Richard Sharpe, village engineer, and several village employees worked until dark in an effort to find the source of the break, and to halt the flow of water into the building. Pumps were brought in to draw out the water, and the water pressure was slowed. Later in the evening the water was shut off in the vicinity, until the broken line was found the next morning.

Meanwhile the water rose to several inches in one area of the dining room, and it was dipped up in pans and carried upstairs and outside by some of the church women who stayed to mop up. The extent of the damage is still undetermined.

Water pressure was restored to the high school and nearby homes early Friday.

Pastor Tell Me...

By DUANE H. McNEIL

IS IT NECESSARY TO GO TO CHURCH?

It is obvious to anyone with but a little knowledge of the Bible that one does not have to go to church to be a Christian. However, we must quickly add that it is necessary to go to church in order to be a "good" Christian.

Hebrews 10:23-25 is one of the places in the Bible where the need of church attendance is stressed. There are some good reasons here that demand our attention. Our profession of Faith is mentioned. Although one is not required to go to church to be a Christian, it becomes one who is a genuine child of God to attend church to demonstrate his profession of Faith in God.

Also, mention is made of the need, "to consider one another." This has reference to that great need among believers which is fellowship. The difference between attending a church service and a sermon on radio or television is about the same as the difference between spending an evening with your girl friend and calling her on the phone.

The greatest reason of all, however, for going to the church to worship is found in verse 25 "Forsake not the assembling of yourselves together". Here is a command from the Lord. To violate this direct Scriptural statement is to go absolutely contrary to the expressed Will of God. The best attitude a Christian could have would be to repeat the words of the Psalmist who said, "I was glad when they said unto me, let us go into the house of the Lord".

Readers with questions for the Rev. McNeil may send them directly to the pastor, addressing them, Britton, Michigan, or may leave them at The Herald. Each one will be given careful consideration. Inquiries should include name and address.

Business Slow In Small Claims

District Judge Yale Kerby sat in on small claim judgments Monday at Magistrate Ernest Oliver's office. The turnout of people from the area was slight.

The magistrate's office is now scheduling small claims for the Adrian office. Oliver has been given the authority to designate the day and hour of appearance.

Only small claim civil cases can be heard in the Tecumseh office.

Meanings of Easter Are Told At WSCS

MACON — Mrs. Herbert Morden opened the WSCS meeting in Macon last Tuesday, by singing "Were You There When They Crucified My Lord?" Hallie Mehler was her accompanist.

A program on Holy Week was presented by Mrs. Charles Gorton, Sr., assisted by Mrs. Charles Bigelow. "What Easter Means to Me", was the comment by Mrs. Thomas Bodley, Mrs. Harold Ruhl, Mrs. H. F. Moore, Mrs. Edward Clark, Mrs. Carl Hawkins and Mrs. Herman Mehler.

A thank-you note was read from Chelsea Methodist Home for quilt pieces they had received. Anyone wishing to donate more pieces, yarn or thread, may see that Mrs. Moore has them and she will see they are delivered.

Help is needed for the Tecumseh Athletic Banquet Saturday, April 19, and for the Spring Eastern Star Banquet on April 26.

The group decided to serve a buffet dinner, May 22, for the Teachers' Organization.

The pledge to the district for seven months will be $285.00.

The annual Ann Arbor District meeting of the Women's Society of Christian Service will be held in the Wayne United Methodist Church on Tuesday, April 22, at 10 a.m. The District Prayer Retreat will be at Waldenwoods on May 16 and 17.

Mrs. Terry Ross closed the meeting by reading "How Can One Doubt?" Several who observed birthday anniversaries in March were presented with corsages from Mrs. Ross. Dessert was served by Mrs. Charles Howell, Mrs. Herbert Morden, and Mrs. Herbert Ayres.

Hospitalized

CLINTON — Mrs. Clarence Follis was admitted to Herrick Memorial Hospital Tuesday as a medical patient.

Band Members Win Awards

Five Britton - Macon Junior Band members participated in the District 8 Junior High Solo and Ensemble Festival held in the Tecumseh High School last Saturday.

Marianne Bush received a first division or superior rating for her performance of a clarinet solo.

Those awarded a second division or very good ratings include Cherilyn Spohr, tenor saxophone solo; Marianne Bush, flute solo; and Ken Wiefaert, French horn solo.

Tom McCarty received a third division or good rating for his performance of a French horn solo.

Joan Willaert also performed a clarinet solo, but she was not given an official rating since she did not have a piano accompanist.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Pihl have returned to Tecumseh again. Lorayne said she was here long enough before to work on some dances for "Oklahoma" before returning to Illinois. Now she is house-hunting.

2nd Book on Stands

Jim Murray, LA Times sports columnist who is rated next to God and Woody Hayes by his sports writing colleagues, has gone to print again and published another selection of his columns.

His latest book, titled "The Sporting World of Jim Murray," is now on the book stands, and if you want a chuckle or two some evening, we suggest you pick up a copy. Don't borrow, heaven forbid!

Although Murray's syndicated column in the Friendly Free Press and in about every large city in the States — he's pretty well known — his main claim to fame locally lies in his marital ties with the former Gerry Brown, ex-Tecumsehite, who has a bunch of friends here, including a sister and brother.

Folks here may recall, however, an article he did a few years ago, in 1964 to be exact, about Marda Gene Duncan and her column on birds. This particular article resulted in Marda Gene writing for several other papers besides The Herald.

Murray's other article striking close to home was a bit about the back door approach to Tecumseh's downtown stores. He chided us a bit and the article pained a few who thought he was ribbing the good town a little too much. Unfortunately, he's right, we do use the back doors, and about as often as the front ones.

"The Sporting World" treats the light and not-so-light sides of baseball, football, racing, boxing, golf and even Little League stuff. His articles are skillfully written for a chuckle or frown, depending on whether your favorite character is being taken apart, piece by piece, or praised in a tongue-in-cheek manner.

Jim's America's top sport columnist, and undoubtedly has reservations this spring for a trip to good old Salisbury, N. C., where he annually picks off the highest sports award. Since he's won so often, don't bet that he won't be selected again.

It was a beautiful day. A good-sized crowd had gathered in the basin near the partially completed mill to watch the wheat being planted. Before the modern machinery started to work, Mr. Ford stepped forward to sow some of the wheat by hand as he had done when he was a boy.

Mrs. C. D. Finkbeiner tied a grain bag around Mr. Ford's neck, with the open end under his arm. Perry Hayden filled it with wheat. As Mr. Ford started broadcasting the grain he said, "This is the first time that I have done this for fifty years."

Mr. Ford went at the task methodically and carefully, as he always did everything. He was keenly interested in the whole venture. When he finished the strip laid out for him, he walked back to the crowd and playfully threw a handful of wheat into the faces of the photographers.

Just before the battery of tractors started off to drill the huge field, Mr. Ford sat at the controls of the lead tractor for a picture. The Ford volunteer workers, headed by Leland Bush, began the big job of drilling the 321 bushels of wheat and the tons of fertilizer. Three hundred and twenty-one acres of land had been cultivated to plant one bushel of wheat per acre, but the drills were set heavier than expected and all of the seed went into about 230 acres.

Some of the fertilizer was lumpy and failed to run through the drills, so there was a great deal left over. Perry was very much concerned over this, but Ed Clark went over the field again later with drills and got it all in.

CHAPTER 12

Perry Faces a Vital Decision

Several days after the wheat was safely in the ground, Perry felt a strange urge to go to Detroit. The only obvious purpose was to check on some pictures that had been taken at the planting. He took Mrs. Hayden, and Evangelist Eva Clausen and Leyla Gaspard with him for the ride, and went directly to the office of Fred Smith. Mr. Smith advised him that he should work through Frank Campsall in the future. Perry had nothing in particular to see any of the Ford people about, but was immediately admitted into Campsall's office, where he found him leaning back in his chair at perfect ease, with his feet on the desk.

Perry asked for some reprints of the October issue of The Ford Times which carried a story of the Biblical Wheat project. When asked how many he could use, he thought, "At least 10,000."

Frank marked this on a pad, and later added a memorandum to also send 25 prints of each picture taken at the planting. Perry then told Mr. Campsall about an offer of the Allis-Chalmers Company of Milwaukee, to build special grinding equipment for the Dynamic Kernels mill and to send Albert Marsh to help set it up at the site of the Fifth Harvest near Macon. At this stage of the conversation, Paul Jones, Director of the Ford Garden Service, entered and announced that Edward Faulkner was due at 11:30 a.m., so Perry left.

Perry drove to Joe Clark's photographic studio to pick up some additional pictures. Mr. Faulkner phoned Joe's studio for Perry, and they met at the Dearborn Inn, where Mrs. Hayden had the opportunity of meeting Mrs. Faulkner and Paul Jones. Mrs. Hayden took the women home in the car, while Perry spent the afternoon visiting the Ford Gardens with Mr. Faulkner and Mr. Jones. At 3:30 p.m., Faulkner and Jones had a conference with Mr. Ford, while Perry waited outside. A short time later, one of the secretaries from the Engineering Laboratory called Perry to come in.

It was not long after he joined the group that Perry subconsciously directed the conversation toward Dynamic Kernels. He asked Mr. Ford whether he had been raised in a "tithing home."

"I never knew anything about tithing until you made it so prominent in your wheat project."

Perry took this opportunity of telling Mr. Ford about Albert Marsh and the Allis-Chalmers offer to build the grinding equipment for the new mill at the site for the celebration.

Mr. Ford responded abruptly, "I don't like flour. Whole wheat itself, is the real food."

"Then let's grind it into whole wheat flour and make graham crackers for each of the guests," Perry suggested. "Would you object to our selling a portion of the wheat to those who might like to take some home as a souvenir?"

Mr. Ford spoke as if he were thinking out loud — "It could be sold in small containers for a penny, or a nickel."

Perry mentioned a glass cubic-inch measure.

"We might use a transparent plastic material," mused Mr. Ford.

"If you have no objections, we could sell the cubic measures for 25 cents, which would net about $500 per bushel.

"Not if it goes for a good cause, but you and I are not together yet on the use of the money from the final crop. I believe in a long range educational program."

Perry replied, "We may not be so far apart as you think, Mr. Ford. I have talked with Pastor Edward Escolme and he thinks that a Christian school in some neglected mountain area might be a good use for the money."

Nothing more was said about this matter and Perry felt as though he had made some progress toward a compromise.

Later in the day Mr. Ford invited his guests to go on a tour through Greenfield Village. It was a rare treat to go on a trip through the Village personally escorted by Henry Ford.

When they were visiting in the Martha Mary Chapel, Perry asked Mr. Ford about the statement made by William L. Sludger, professor of theology at Boston University, that there was a Bible in every room of the Ford mansion. Mr. Campsall thought that Sludger was rather "free" with the English language, but Mr. Ford merely smiled . . . However, there are Bibles in many of the rooms in the Ford home, and Mr. Ford added, "I took a pledge to read a chapter of the Bible every day of my life. I have kept that pledge.

When they returned to the Ford offices and were sitting in the car, the mechanical men in the huge clock on the English Watch Makers Building in Greenfield Village, "Gog" and "Magog," struck the hour with their hammers. Mr. Ford asked, "Do you know what those little characters are saying?" . . . and then he quoted:

"Lord through this hour
Be Thou our Guide
That through Thy power
No foot may slide."

As they were getting out of the car, Perry reminded Mr. Ford about a set of McGuffey Readers that he had promised to give Pastor Escolme. He immediately sent into the office for them and remarked, "I like that little minister."

When Perry asked whether the buses to Tecumseh stopped near the Ford offices, Frank Campsall called the Service Department and had Harley Jenson, formerly of Tecumseh, drive him home.

During the fall months, George Parsons marked off four test plots on portions of the 230 acres of the Fifth Crop, to check on the various methods of preparing and fertilizing the land for raising wheat. No. 1 — Plowed and fertilized. No. 2 — Disced and fertilized. No. 3 — Plowed but not fertilized. No. 4 — Disced but not fertilized. This should prove an interesting test for the theory expounded by Mr. Faulkner in his best-seller book, "Plowman's Folly."

Mr. Ford was now giving considerable time to the completion of the mill on the site of the fifth big harvest of Dynamic Kernels. He called Perry on the phone several days later, to ask about some "Buhr Stones" to be used for grinding in the Dynamic Kernels Mill. Perry had been in Dearborn the preceding day with Albert Marsh of Milwaukee to talk about this very thing, but for some reason could not see Mr. Ford, after waiting a long time in the reception room.

"I'm sorry that I missed you yesterday," said Mr. Ford when Perry answered the phone. "You were just leaving the grounds when I arrived at the office."

Mr. Ford asked about the stones that Mr. Marsh had for sale. In discussing the size stone that could be used with the limited power of the water wheel at the new mill, Mr. Ford offered the opinion, "I think that the stones which we have in the Village are too large for the power that we will have."

Perry explained that Mr. Marsh felt as though the larger stones could be used, but they would have to be run a little slower.

"Keep in touch with me through Fred Smith, and we'll get it worked out," assured Mr. Ford.

The next afternoon, Perry and Mrs. Hayden drove to Macon to discuss matters with Ed Clark. Ed told them, "If you want to make Mr. Ford really smile from ear to ear, just tell him that the money from the final harvest of Biblical Wheat will be used to build a chapel, school and workshop in Tecumseh. He is ready to donate the ground. We would like to purchase the old Seitz place on the corner of Brown and Mill streets; move the icehouse and beautify the whole approach to Tecumseh. At least 400 additional acres of land would be furnished to support the project.

Perry knew definitely now that he was "on the spot." This was not Mr. Clark's idea — but obviously a message relayed from Mr. Ford.

It would be hard to turn down a thing like this for Tecumseh. Many of the townspeople would never forgive him, yet Perry had made public announcements that the final harvest would go to some worthy Christian effort. If he refused it, he would also run the risk of losing Mr. Ford's invaluable assistance and the much needed land. If he agreed to the suggestion, it would mean the increased enthusiastic support of Mr. Ford's entire organization. Perry liked the idea of a permanent monument of some kind, erected in recognition of the tithing demonstration. Here was his chance. And still he felt that the benefits from this project should go to definite Christian work.

After praying and discussing it with his family, Perry firmly refused the idea of a chapel and a school.

"I couldn't feel that I was true to the original purpose of the experiment if I allowed the money to remain in Tecumseh for some selfish interest or personal whim. I want the major portion of the harvest to go to foreign lands to help bind the wounds of the war. I certainly do not want to offend Mr. Ford, but I want above all else, to please the Lord. Wherever God leads me in this matter, I'll follow."

Right at this time, two evangelists were holding meetings in the Tecumseh Friends Church — Eva Clausen and Celeste Richardson. They suggested that the young folks plant, in the churchyard, a replica of the first year's plot of the famous Dynamic Kernels. The children were enthusiastic about the suggestion and planned a fitting service.

All through the fall months Howard Rutledge, engineer in charge of the Dynamic Kernels Mill construction, pushed the work along at the location for the Fifth Harvest ceremonies near Macon. Mr. Ford made regular visits to Tecumseh, to check on the progress of the Biblical Wheat experiment and to visit with Mr. Hayden. On one of the trips, when Perry invited him to get into the Hayden Mill car and ride over to Macon, Mr. Ford accepted.

As they drove on, Perry brought up the subject of having a helicopter from the Edison Institute Museum brought out to the field, to take some of the graham flour to The Lakeside Biscuit Company in Toledo. Arrangements had already been made to have it baked into graham crackers; provided the crackers could be flown back to the field while the crowd was still there.

Mr. Ford did not warm up to the idea, mentioning that the helicopter was fastened to the ceiling of the Museum. Also, he was not sure whether it was in working order. Then he suddenly burst into smiles as he said, "I'm building a helicopter myself. It is about three-quarters finished now, and maybe we can use it."

"Will it carry several hundred pounds of flour?"

"I don't see why not. It is being built to carry several men. Come over to Dearborn some day and I'll show it to you."

As they drove into the grounds where the celebration was to be held the next year, and alighted from the car near the field where the grain had been planted, Mr. Ford exclaimed, "There is your Hayden Mill!"

"No!—Dynamic Kernels Mill." "Whatever you say," replied Mr. Ford.

Perry and Mr. Ford wandered around over the fairyland that was springing up all about them. Finally they went into the new mill and had a long talk.

The engine that Mr. Ford was installing in the new flour mill was taken from the old Comfort Tile Yard.

"Wouldn't it be nice to have Ralph Comfort, who is doing such fine work as our official photographer, turn on the engine in the mill at the celebration next summer?" suggestd Perry.

"That would be all right with me."

Perry then mentioned to Mr. Ford, for the first time, that he had definitely decided to give away all of the wheat from the final harvest.

Vo-Ed Scheduling Begins

Vocational course offerings in the county-wide vocational-technical program for the coming school year will primarily be the same as this year. All courses offered at the present time will be repeated for the coming year.

These programs include basic and advanced courses in automotive mechanics, industrial drafting, machine shop and data processing.

Courses will be offered in the building trades, co-op work experience and Neighborhood Youth Corps program. In addition to these programs there will also be vocational training in distributive occupations, health related occupations and vocational work experience.

Until the new Area Vocational-Technical Education Center is completed, all courses will be taught in temporary facilities in the Adrian vicinity.

Scheduling is underway for the coming school year in most high schools. Bruce Stephens, vocational guidance counselor from the Lenawee office, is visiting high schools to explain the program to interested students.

Stephens also assists local counselors and students in selection of a program that will best meet the occupational goals of the individual.

hymn of the skies

David lived almost thirty centuries ago. He knew nothing of outer space . . . of galaxies hurtling through the void . . . of particles of energy and matter spinning their way from a one-time explosion toward the edges of the universe.

He knew only the skies of his native land . . . their lights and shadows and ever-changing drifts of cloud.

But he knew, as millions before and since, that these skies were no accident. They told him of the Mind and Heart that rules the domain of life. They told him we are not alone.

"The heavens declare the glory of God," he wrote in the 19th Psalm, "The firmament showeth his handiwork."

Through those same skies rode the star that drew men to the scene of our Savior's birth. Against those skies is always silhouetted the Cross on which He died for us.

Under those skies we'll worship together the Risen Lord.

Among the 200 guests were Blue Birds, Camp Fire, Junior High Horizon Girls, their fathers, group leaders, group sponsors and their husbands, members of the county Board of Directors.

Preceding the 6:30 p.m. Swiss steak dinner, the sixth grade Campfire Girls led the group in the Pledge of Allegiance. The Camp Fire blessing was given by Mrs. Allen Bower.

The fifth grade Campfire Girls were introduced by Dennise Ivan, mistress of ceremonies, and they sang three selections, accompanied by Mrs. Donald Bush at the piano.

Brenda Tubbs gave the "Welcome to the Fathers," and her father, LaVon Tubbs gave the "Response to Daughters".

Miss Ivan introduced Mrs. James Arft, president of the Britton Leaders Association who gave a brief review on the year's activities.

She also presented a gift to Mrs. Jerry Benedict on behalf of the leaders for her six years' service to the organization.

Mrs. Arft thanked everyone who helped make the banquet a success, including the mothers who served the dinner and the cafeteria staff who prepared it.

JoAnn Henning presented Mrs. Benedict with a gift from the Senior High Horizon group.

Group singing was enjoyed by everyone, led by Mrs. Bower.

A movie, "We're On Our Way," was shown on conservation which tied in with this year's Camp Fire theme, "Keep America Beautiful".

The program closed with everyone singing the "Camp Fire Law".

The Rev. Edwin Mueckler gave the benediction.

Sheriff, Supervisors: "What do we do about Charlie?"

By BILL SANFORD

In a meeting, where newsmen were evicted, Sheriff Richard Germond and the stock claims committee of the Board of Supervisors discussed the incident of March 25 in Clinton where Dog Warden Charles Mitchell shot several dogs, some on private property, according to eye witnesses.

Mitchell denied to both the sheriff and The Herald that he had shot any dogs on property other than the school grounds. School officials had summoned him to the grounds because of a large pack of dogs ranging the area.

During the month of January Mitchell shot and disposed of 52 dogs, in February, 66 were recorded as destroyed. The figures are based on a report submitted by Mitchell to the Adrian Tankage Co., which disposes of the dog carcasses.

Following a regular meeting of the Board of Supervisors, Sheriff Germond met with Hugh Flippo of Adrian, chairman, Lowell Hammontree of Morenci and Roy Griffin of Adrian Township to discuss the case as it now stands. The investigation by the sheriff's office is continuing.

Flippo asked that newsmen "stay out" of the committee meeting, that they (the committee) wished to meet with Germond in private and the Sheriff also made the request". He stated that he would issue a statement of just what went on after the meeting.

The four men met for over an hour. Upon adjourning, Flippo issued the following statement: "About all I can tell you is that the people of Clinton should take into account that (Chuck) Mitchell has only been on the job three months and isn't quite familiar with it." Flippo has been on the Board of Supervisors the same length of time.

Earlier in the day Flippo stated that he wasn't sure of the evidence as far as he knew. He said many people had told him that there was definitely a dog problem in Clinton and that they felt the warden simply did his job. He could offer no names, nor did he know of the people who witnessed the events of March 25 and disclosed their information to The Herald and to the sheriff's office. He did say that he was considering going to Clinton and seeing for himself.

At the March meeting of the board, the dog warden was transferred to the sheriff's control by resolution. Sheriff Germond did not have a completed routine for the warden at the time of the incident. Since then he has made changes and is working on other policies which he hopes will protect against a re-occurance of the Clinton incident.

Mitchell contends that someone else, with a pellet gun, was shooting the dogs. No one saw, or disclosed that they saw, anyone else shooting. Most identified the truck and the uniform of Mitchell.

It was also determined Tuesday that Germond has no authority to dismiss the dog warden should he feel the incident merits it. The board transferred the supervisory powers to Germond but dismissal authority remains with the board. A recommendation by Flippo's committee would be necessary and a majority vote of the board taken.

Hammontree and Griffin, the other members of the committee, had read some reports of the incident and felt that something was definitely wrong and were interested in the final outcome.

It is not known, as Mitchell has not filed a report for March, how many carcasses will be noted for that month, but reports of lost dogs is high enough to warrant an expectation that it will run on a par with January and February.

Services Held for McKenzie

Services were held Tuesday at the Proctor Funeral Home for Everett McKenzie, 53, of 730 N. Union, who was the victim of an auto accident at 2:15 a.m. last Friday. McKenzie was killed when his vehicle was struck by a car being driven by Mrs. Bart Aiuto of Clinton.

It was assumed that he was standing alongside the car at the time of the accident.

According to sheriff's deputies, the McKenzie car was heading north on Tecumseh-Clinton Rd., one-half mile north of Red Mill Rd., in Tecumseh Twp. The car was running and in "park" gear according to the report.

Mrs. Aiuto stated that she did not notice the car due to foggy conditions. When she did sight the vehicle crossways in the road she tried to avert a collision by pulling right. She struck the left rear of the McKenzie car which swung around in the road, throwing Mr. McKenzie to the pavement some 45 feet, according to investigating officers, from his car.

Mrs. Aiuto's car traveled into a yard 25 feet further down the road. She stated that she was traveling at 35 mph. at the time.

Mr. McKenzie sustained a crushed head and chest injuries and multiple injuries to his body. Coroner Donald Dunmore pronounced him dead on arrival at Herrick Memorial Hospital.

Mr. McKenzie, known as "Whitey", was born in Kentucky, Feb. 17, 1916.

He was married to Eleanor Saylor who died in 1961. Mr. McKenzie married Joyce Kruse in Adrian in 1965. She survives.

Mr. McKenzie was an Army veteran of World War II. He was a member of the Eagles Lodge and the Hall-Slater Post, Veterans of Foreign Wars.

Mr. McKenzie had been employed at the Tecumseh Products Co. for 28 years. He was in the Inspection Department.

Surviving besides his wife are one son, Dean, 17, at home; two daughters, Mrs. Jerry (Sandy)

Franklin Turns Down Salary Hike

An attempt to raise salaries for members of the Franklin Township Board were thwarted Saturday afternoon at the annual meeting of the township.

The Board had sought increases, amounting to $1,000 for Supervisor Richard Platt and similar but smaller increases for Clerk Elwyn Shea, Treasurer Ann Allen, and Leslie Whelan and Glen Fish, trustees.

Platts increase would have been $400 for salary and $600 for expenses. The clerk's hike would have amounted to $300, and the treasurer, $200.

A voted bonus of $200 to Mr. Platt was rejected by him, on the basis that it was probably illegal.

Last winter, the Board had approved a pension plan as allowed by state law. The plan adopted, and one which township residents had no voice in, incurred an annual township expense of $375 for the supervisor, who personally must contribute an additional $125. Similar and smaller amounts were effected for the rest of the Board.

Mr. Platt's current salary is $2,500; Mr. Shea, $1,300; Mrs. Allen, $1,600, and the two trustees receive $250 each. These salaries are low compared to some others in the county, and high in comparison with others.

However, Supervisor James Mitchell of Raisin Township receives $5,000 annually plus fringe benefits and expenses. Along with Supervisor Charles Earls of Madison Township, and Mitchell have the top salaries of all supervisors in the county.

An official from Tecumseh Township said most township salaries were low in relation to the amount of work and time involved in running township affairs.

Between 40 and 45 residents of Franklin Township attended the annual meeting in the Township Hall.

Judges Seek Pay Raise

District Judges Yale Kerby and Kenneth B. Glaser, Jr., have submitted letters to each of the 21 supervisors asking for an increase in salary of $5,000. At present the state pays a salary of $18,000 to the judges. With the increase the individual salaries would jump to $23,000.

In their letters to the board, they stated that the revenue from the courts would be high enough to warrant the increase.

State salaries are set, but, clauses in state law allow for supplemental pay to be given by supervisors to judges if they see fit. The judges felt that their pay should be on a level with the probate judge and circuit judge, both of whom are subsidized by the county board.

Dad Burned At Peerless

Mike Bartenslager, 22, of 408 E. Kilbuck St., is reportedly in serious condition at the Burn Center at the University of Michigan Hospital in Ann Arbor.

While at work Monday at Peerless Gear, Mike crawled into an hydrogen-type furnace to repair it. The furnace had been turned off for three days. When a torch was lit, accumulated gas reportedly ignited, setting off an explosion.

He was burned over his entire body, suffering second degree burns to the hands and third degree burns to the legs.

He passed the critical stage early Wednesday morning and his recovery is expected to take several weeks. No visitors are allowed other than the immediate family.

Gerald Dohm of Adrian reportedly suffered burns to his hands when he pulled Mike from the furnace.

Mike is married to the former Gayle Richardson and has a son, Timothy Michael, age 1½.

Annual Clean-Up Is Scheduled

Tecumseh's annual spring clean-up has been scheduled for the first two weeks in May, according to City Manager Cal Zorn.

City trucks will be around to pick up trash — no garbage — which must be in containers at the curb. Residents may have special collections for a fee, from Modern Disposal.

Mr. Zorn also reminds residents that they may use the Lenawee Disposal landfill, free-of-charge, on Mondays and Saturday mornings. Identification cards are available at City Hall.

Folks who dispose of their leaves, clippings and trash in streets are violating a city ordinance. Those who have raked yards, cleaned out flower beds and have accumulated other similar debris, are urged to wait for the city's scheduled clean-up period for disposing.

City Tables Sewer Action

A proposal from Wes Haeussler to construct a storm sewer along Occidental Rd., in front of the David Ousterhout residence was tabled by Council Tuesday evening to its next regular session on April 21.

Mr. Haeussler, contractor and former city street superintendent, is building a new home just south of the Donald Purkeys'. He proposed to cross the road and then run the sewer north to empty into Evans Creek.

Mr. Ousterhout had complained previously to city officials and explained his reasons to Council. He said the sewer — built within the right-of-way but also within 20 to 30 feet of his pond — could affect the water level of his pond.

He also told officials that he had spent considerable time and effort on the pond, his landscaping and drive into his home. When asked if he objected to the sewer running behind his home in a natural drain from the Haeussler property, Mr. Ousterhout indicated no objection.

He told Councilmen that the builder had created much of his problem by hauling some 1,100 yards of top soil — sold to the schools for $2,800 — from the site for re-building the athletic field.

Council suggested that Mr. Haeussler contact the owners of the property directly east of his new home and see if they will grant permission for a tile, storm sewer.

Driver Cited Afer Mishap

Only three minor accidents were investigated by the Tecumseh police during the past week, but one driver was cited for violation of the law.

Last Friday Vincent J. Giarno, 46, Monroe, started to pass Warren E. Starks, 18, of 11497 Carson Hwy., on W. Chicago Blvd., at Rusty's Drive-In when Starks attempted a left turn into the restaurant. The 18-year-old hit the passing auto and local police cited Giarno with improper passing and for operating a vehicle on an expired license.

During the same day, Curtis V. Ball, Dundee, reported to police that a rock from a passing truck broke his windshield. He followed the truck to Britton where Lee Taylor, driver, asked him to file an accident report at Tecumseh.

In the other mishap, Jerry Robinette, 29, Tipton, attempting to get out of the way of a patrol car on an emergency run, backed into a parked car owned by Robert Mauer, 903 Pontiac Trail. Accident occurred on S. Maumee.

Magistrate Oliver Has 316 Appear in First Quarter

Magistrate Ernest Oliver has submitted his first quarterly report for the new office created Jan. 1. A total of 316 arraignments were held at magistrate court here. Of those who pleaded, 304 entered guilty pleas, 11 were released on bail and five put up bonds.

The amount of $2,723 was received in fines, $2,437 in court costs. Bonds amounted to $180. The total submitted to the District Court Clerk amounted to $5,428. Marriages and civil action costs amounted to another $88.

2 Incumbents, 2 Newcomers Win at Polls

Two newcomers and two incumbents were elected to City Council Monday by approximately 21% of the registered voters in the community.

William Holmes and C. Raymond Puffer were re-elected, and Dr. Carlos Knisely and Wallace Whiting were voted in to succeed George McCombs and Gene Tuckey.

Top vote went to Mr. Holmes with 350, while Dr. Knisely collected 318 votes. Mr. Puffer received 311 votes and Mr. Whiting, 298.

The voting, however, was close as a swing of 20 votes from winners to the losers, would have made a difference in winning.

Two-year terms go to the top three with Mr. Whiting receiving a Council post for one year.

Only 710 voters went to the polls, or about 21% of the 3,251 registered voters. This is a slight increase over a year ago when 703 voted.

Tabulations of the results by precincts is:

	Prec. 1	Prec. 2	Prec. 3	Total
William Holmes	92	149	109	350
Dr. Carlos Knisely	68	148	102	318
C. Raymond Puffer	105	122	84	311

Tax Factor in Make-Up?

Aother hike in property evaluations here? It's possible.

Robert Hamden, city assessor, told Council Tuesday evening that John Brattin, Lenawee County equalization director, informed him that recent increases here in property evaluations were not enough.

Tecumseh's assessor did not say that Mr. Brattin would recommend a factor for the community, but simply stated that he was told the increases were not enough. Tuesday afternoon, The Herald called Mr. Brattin and inquired about recommending factors for certain areas in the county.

The county official said that he would recommend factors for some areas.

Mr. Brattin can merely recommend to the Equalization Committee, a seven-member board comprised of all rural folks except T. J. Wagner, County Supervisor, of Tecumseh. Mr. Wagner said Wednesday morning that the director had no right to indicate a factor to anyone since it was the committee's decision.

The local County Supervisor also inferred that he would oppose any such recommendation for Tecumseh. The Equalization Committee begins meeting this week or first part of next week.

Mayor Harold Easton implied at the session that the city should appeal any factor to the state, if a factor to increase evaluations here was applied.

Last month, approximately 80% of the residential property owners in Tecumseh received hikes in evaluation, ranging to 20%. Some 50 property owners appeared before the Board of Review to complain of the evaluation increases.

These evaluation increases, including new construction, amounted to an increase of $2,079,500 over last year.

Personal property here is now evaluated at $10,631,500, and real estate, $19,883,500. Total evaluation is $30,515,000.

Pole Building for Garage?

Council rejected all three bids submitted last month on a new 8,400-sq.-ft. city garage at its meeting Tuesday night.

City Manager Cal Zorn told officials that he considered the bids — ranging from $69,800 to $70,986— to be excessive.

He said other alternate construction methods are being studied, including the possibility of erecting a pole building. He stated that he felt the bids — figured at about $8.50 per square foot — could be beaten by $4.50 per foot.

In other Council matters pertaining to construction, E&D Construction of Onsted was awarded a contract for removing and replacing the east end of the south wall at the fire station.

E&D's bid was $1,375. Benedict & Cheever bid $1,500.

Council Organizes Monday, April 14

Organizational meeting of the new Council will be held next Monday evening at city hall.

New members going on include Dr. Carlos Knisely and Wallace Whiting. Two hold-overs are Raymond Puffer and William Holmes.

Next regular meeting of Council is April 21.

COOL IT WITH AIR CONDITIONING

Early in the Season Savings On

Cooling Installation

With winter months still here and warm air circulating throughout your home, you've probably paid no attention to the central air conditioning components of the system that served you so well last summer. Whether you realize it or not, now is the time to give some service attention, says Mr. Victor Clauda of Clauda Plumbing and Heating, local Lennox dealer.

Service men are still answering furnace calls, but in between they have time to handle preseason air conditioning checkups. If you do it now, you will beat the rush of all those early summer calls by people who need service on their cooling equipment. Above all, don't wait for your central air conditioning checkup until the middle of a heat wave! Your heating and air conditioning contractor will appreciate being able to give you better attention now. And you will benefit from the fact that he has more time to give you. Now, too, is a good time to ask about a planned program of service for your entire heating and air conditioning system, with regular, periodic maintenance checkup calls. Calls would be made on a routine basis and you would actually save money by avoiding costly breakdowns — always when you need heating or cooling the most.

If you don't have central cooling, this is also a goodtime to contact your heating and cooling contractor about its purchase. Perhaps last summer when it was 100° in the shade you did try to have it installed, only to discover that he was snowed with orders from other people who had the same idea and you had to put it off. According to Mr. Clauda, this sad situation occurs too often to too many unhappy homeowners.

Get ahead of the rush right now. If you have a central warm air system, the addition of cooling will be a simple job with little fuss or muss and you will be ready for those uncomfortable spells of torrid summer heat. Best of all, combining the heating service and the early air conditioning installation could easily result in considerable savings, especially with the addition of a planned program of service.

VOICE of THE HERALD

Did I Vote?

Some 2,500 registered voters in Tecumseh lost their voting privileges Monday for June's election, when they failed to ballot for Council!

This statement is ridiculous, admittedly, but why not? Why not restrict voters who simply ignore a precious privilege only found in free countries? They seemingly do not care about voting unless we're balloting for a governor, president, or a millage which affects the purse.

Would it not be fair, via law, that a voter who misses one election would not be eligible to vote in the next election? We will wager that most of the 78%, which missed voting Monday, will turn out in droves on June 9 when the schools have a couple millage issues on the ballot.

Not that the school election lacks importance — it will be the biggest ever — but isn't the election of our city officials important?

Who passes or rejects ordinances? Who spends our tax monies? Who makes decisions affecting our community? Who makes appointments to various organizations which say this is the way it will be? Who says our taxes will be up or down for city expenditures?

Is this not just as important as a millage proposal? Election of a governor or president?

Last year, 703 went to the polls. On Monday 710 made their choices. Perhaps, since we're improving nothing should be said, but it's difficult to believe, and shameful, that such a few care about our community and a voting privilege.

Some folks say that it doesn't do any good to vote, say for Council. We think this is merely a rationalization on their part, and a confession they're too lazy to vote, they don't want to take the time, or they don't care.

Those who gripe during the next year about our city should first ask themselves, "Did I vote?"

Grounds for Dismissal

An incident happened in Clinton on March 25 that should not have happened. It could have been avoided. Back in December a new dog warden was elected by the Board of Supervisors. That dog warden was the nephew of a supervisor. All in the family.

James Mitchell of Raisin Township helped to elect nephew Charles Mitchell as dog warden.

It is one of the most thankless jobs any way you look at it. No one likes to see a dog destroyed, yet there are times when they must.

However, in Clinton, dogs were destroyed in an almost wanton fashion. Witnesses have spoken to the Sheriff's office, which controls the Dog Warden, as to the events of that day. Their statements are contrary to what Mitchell told the sheriff.

Without a doubt this is serious and grounds for dismissal. If a subordinate does not give an honest account of what happens to other people's property, when he is entrusted to protect it, he has no business being entrusted with anything, let alone traveling the roads of Lenawee County with a loaded gun.

Chairman Hugh Flippo of the Board of Supervisors Stock Claims Committee, to whom the sheriff goes for budgetary matters in this area, remarked that the people of Clinton should "take into consideration that Mitchell had only been on the job three months," he continued, saying, "I, (Flippo) don't have to worry about published reports or what the people say in Clinton or anywhere else, I represent Adrian."

This sort of trivia is in some days a method of covering a bad taste that has come to the mouths of so many people in the area.

Bad officials, those who are dishonest with superiors should and must be removed, or the peoples' trust will be lost and all that Sheriff Germond and others in his department have done will go down the drain.

Seek Jobs for Youth

Albert Stevens, branch manager of the Adrian Michigan Employment Security Commission announces the opening of the 1969 Summer Jobs for Youth Campaign.

According to Mr. Stevens, anyone concerned with today's youth has heard a great deal about their problems. We are becoming increasingly aware of the needs of our young people — particularly those in the 16 thru 21 age group.

This summer, hundreds of Lenawee County youth will be looking for employment. They will have three months ahead of them in which suitable work can make its contribution to their development as citizens of the United States.

Employers in Lenawee County, private, Federal, State and local government, are urged to make their contribution. The Adrian Branch Office is offering its services to any employer who is interested. The office is located at 410 E. Maumee St., and the phone is 265-2128.

Job orders for youth will be gladly accepted. Employment Security Commission personnel will be available to offer information or assistance.

Safe Year At Fisher

The average severity of injuries resulting from industrial accidents was the lowest ever recorded by the corporation.

Extensive training programs and established procedures for employees was credited with the decrease in on-the-job injuries.

Players Ready Comedy

Get ready for laughter with the Tecumseh Players Production of "The Gazebo" on May 9, 10, 16, and 17.

Alec and Mary Coppel's comedy-mystery is in full rehearsal under the direction of Larry Ruff at the Tecumseh Community Center's Glass Room.

This spring's offering promises much hilarity with Ted Broderick and Judy Dornan in the leading roles of Elliott and Nell Nash, with Phil Baker as the shrewd next door neighbor, and a supporting cast of eight.

Alec Coppel was primarily known, before "The Gazebo", as the author of the screen play for "The Captain's Paradise", the Alec Guinness film which was adapted into the musical, 'Oh Captain!". Shortly after the international success of "The Captain's Paradise", Coppel came to the U. S. from England on a contract to co-author an Alfred Hitchcock film with Samuel Taylor, called "Vertigo" and to check on the stage musical version of his film success, "Oh Captain!" then being cast.

When Producer Frederick Brisson and the Playwrights Company optioned Samuel Taylor and Cornelia Otis Skinner's comedy, "The Pleasure of His Company" for Broadway production, Taylor mentioned to his sponsors the mystery-comedy written by his "Vertigo" co-author, Coppel. This was how "The Gazebo" was added to their production schedule.

"The "Gazebo" had its first performances in Wilmington, Del., on Nov. 12, 1958. It was obvious from the audience reaction that "The Gazebo" had tremendous possibilities, some of which, however, were not sufficiently realized. The producers enlisted the aid of Jerome Chodorov (co-author of "My Sister Eileen" and "Anniversary Waltz" among other hits), to re-direct the show and bring a more American point of view to the script. After further break-in performances in Philadelphia and Atlantic City, the production opened in New York, Dec. 12, 1958.

The general approval of "The Gazebo" by the New York drama critics was a secret from ticket-buyers because of a newspaper strike that began the day of its premier. But word of mouth advertising of pleased audiences soon moved the comedy into the "sell-out" class. The Broadway run was terminated June 20, 1959, after 219 performances when its star, Walter Slezak, was hospitalized with appendicitis.

The film rights were sold to Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer and in late fall of 1969 the film version of "The Gazebo" was released with Glenn Ford, Debbie Reynolds and Carl Reiner in the principal roles.

Holy Bible — Pastor tell me

By DUANE H. McNEIL

IS THE BIBLE THE WORD OF GOD?

There are at least three good reasons which compel us to believe that the Bible is indeed the Word of God.

First of all, there is the matter of the synoretical portions. The prophecies concerning the person and work of the Lord Jesus, numbering well over three hundred, were fulfilled to the last minute detail.

The many items concerning the Jewish people, their land, their sufferings, their regathering and possession of the land, their conflict with their neighbors and other matters have been and are now being fulfilled.

These and other subjects forecast beforehand by God, lend great weight to other proofs that the Bible is the Word of God.

Secondly, there is the wonder of the endurance of the Bible. History records the great attacks made in attempts to destroy this book.

Sometimes great raids and confiscations were held and followed with huge bonfires. Still the Bible stood. Men have spent their lives in a vain effort to belittle or destroy it. Yet it has survived all attacks and remains at or near the top of the "Best Seller" list.

Finally, at least in our list here, is the reason which is most persuasive on the individual level. We believe the Bible is the Word of God because we have perceived its promises and found them by personal experience to be truth.

These promises range from those that speak of God's help in our daily life to the matter of a personal relationship with Jesus Christ.

Once one has tried these for himself and found them to be valid, no one in all the world could persuade that one that the Bible is any thing other than the Word of God.

Attend DeKalb Banquet

By PETER FORGACS

BRITTON — John Rowe, Louis Wagner, Doug Wolfaert, Peter Forgacs, Bob Downing, Bill Rowe, and Jim Bush attended the annual Dekalb Banquet at Win Schulers in Jackson, March 31.

This Dekalb Corn Achievement program has been given for the last 14 years to students in FFA who had kept the best records on their corn projects at home. The purpose of the project is to compare the Dekalb seed corn given to the FFA members last spring, to any other seed corn the boys may want to plant. Also, it helps the boys learn to keep better and more accurate records of their corn field.

The project is supervised by the boys' local vo-ag instructor. Students who have planted corn as a project are given a yellow record sheet to fill out. On this record sheet are things such as a map of the field where the corn is planted, soil inventory, population studies, field observation, characteristics of each variety of corn planted, and yield checking and cost per acre.

The student must fill out all the parts on the record sheet to try to receive a high score of 100 points. The seven Britton chapter representatives were able to attend the banquet by scoring a total of 100 points on their sheet. Also, they will all receive a wall plaque with a place for their name to be engraved on it.

Not all students received a score of 100 so anyone who scored 95 or above was presented a Dekalb certificate. For those who scored 90 or above, they were awarded a lapel pin. The instructor of the winning school received a pen and pencil set.

A mounted ear of corn was presented to the Britton FFA chapter for being the regional winner with a high score of 505 points. Regional winners are selected on the scores of the top five individuals plus a point for each additional completion, up to a total of five extras.

Before awards were given, a movie entitled "The Good Seed" was shown and this movie showed steps in producing the Dekalb seed corn. After the movie, slides were presented on how to get a better yield with labor-saving methods.

Robert Gordner, and Eugene Stouffer, both District managers were among the people who helped make the Dekalb Banquet a success.

At the close of the banquet, pictures were taken of the four top FFA chapters who scored the highest total of points. These four FFA chapters were also interviewed by Howard Heath of WPAG radio station in Ann Arbor.

Vo-Ed Advisors On Committees

The occupational advisory committees for the Lenawee Area Vocational-Technical Education Center met recently at the Lenawee Intermediate School District office in Adrian.

Mary Ann Berry and Paul Marks of Britton, Dwight Helms, Bud Aleshire and Paul Burns of Tecumseh, Dr. Fred W. Green and Jack Wolf of Tipton were in attendance.

The committees reviewed the "final preliminary plans" for the new Center with members of the Lenawee Vocational Office and representatives of the architectural firm of Samborn, Steketee, Otis and Evans of Toledo, O. The agenda was centered around the discussion of the floor plans, equipment layout and topical course outlines for the new facility.

Clinton Twp. 1969 Budget

CLINTON — A 1969 budget of $34,012 was proposed at the annual meeting of Clinton Township, conducted by Supervisor Earldean Roe, and attended by six residents, Saturday evening.

The year end financial statement was discussed. It was revealed that local taxes amount to approximately half of the total income of Clinton Township, the other half coming from external sources, mainly returns from the state as the township's proportionate share of State sales and income taxes.

The greatest share of the money disbursed in payment for township services during the past year were for the fire department, dump maintenance, road maintenance and repair.

The Township owns and operates the Clinton Fire Department jointly with the Village of Clinton, at a cost, last year, of approximately $2,700.

Maintenance of the Township roads becomes of more importance each year because of school bus travel and the increased density of population in rural areas.

Many other services of lesser magnitude are furnished by the Township, even to hiring the high school band to play in the Memorial Day parade at a cost of $100.

In the new budget, an amount of $5,000 was allocated in the budget as a dump site fund. In 1968, the Township share of the cost of the dump operation amounted to slightly over $500. This year the Clinton Village officers have notified Clinton Township residents that they will be unable to use the dump facility after June 1, this year. It was noted that residents within the village are in fact residents of the Township of Clinton.

Other allocations are for support of two cemeteries, $825; and a sum not to exceed $500 to underwrite a possible deficit in the school pool recreation program.

Meeting dates of the Township Board were set as the first Monday of each month. Should this fall on a legal holiday the meeting will be on the following Monday. All meetings are at 7 p.m. in the Township hall.

The meeting adjourned at 9:30 p.m.

City Value Up

Evaluation of city real and personal property is up $2,080,000 over last year's figure. The new evaluation, completed after last week's Board of Review meeting, showed the city figure at $30,515,000, compared to the 1968 figure of $28,435,000.

The city operating millage is 11.72 plus 1.28 for bonds. Last year the city operating under the 11.72 mills collected $333,264.06. This year the millage, if retained, would raise approximately $357,635.80.

All tax figures in personal and real property include new construction.

ST. LOUIS SCHOOL — The Rev. Fr. Umberto Mellare and Kenneth Van Valkenburg escorted the students of St. Louis School for Exceptional Children on a tour of the Tecumseh Products recently.

Home Founded for Boys

On a plot of 180 acres near Chelsea, St. Louis School for Exceptional Children operates under the guidance of Superior, the Rev. Fr. Louis Frangi. Father Frangi, along with two other priests from his order in Italy, supervise and works with the children. Four Italian sisters also help with the maintenance.

The boys from the school were in town earlier this week to tour the Tecumseh Products Co., and other places of interest. On the tour the boys were accompanied by Father Umberto Mellare. Father Mellare is the counselor for the boys and also works with them in music.

At present 60 boys attend the school. Accommodations have restricted the number who can presently stay at the boarding school. Hopes are that a dormitory can be built in the future to house the hoped-for figure of 1969. Students are referred to 120.

The school was constructed in the St. Louis School by private families and other sources. They go home every other week.

The Detroit Police department has given the boys tickets to the Shrine Circus as well as trips to the Bob-Lo Boat. Other sources of side trips that the fathers take the boys on have been to various places around the state. Father Umberto explained that the school is run like a small family, when the going seems rough, they take off for a brief journey to something that will interest the boys.

The follow-ups of students who have left St. Louis School prove that the youngsters, with I.Q.'s ranging from 60 to 75 have been able to obtain employment in factories, primarily in Detroit and that some have worked their way to foremen of jobs. Ages of the boys are from 8-16. Some of the graduates — three — are serving in Vietnam.

Some of the extra-curricular jobs is to sponsor a spaghetti dinner this coming May 4. Musical interests have also inspired the boys.

Growth has been slow in some aspects at St. Louis, but the priests are optimistic that things will grow to be brighter in the future.

Plans Underway for Circuit Session

Plans are now underway for a circuit assembly of Jehovah's Witnesses to be held in Ypsilanti the weekend of April 11-13 at the West Junior High School. There will be 16 congregations from Southeastern Michigan represented at the assembly. Expected attendance is approximately 1,400.

The program will begin on Friday evening with a timely opening address entitled, "Making Wise Use of the Remaining Time". The remainder of the three-day program will include appropriate instruction through the use of panel discussions, short dramas, talks and other methods designed to assist all of the delegates in attendance to live by the standards taught in the Holy Bible.

Richard Krebs, Jr., congregation overseer of the Tecumseh Congregation of Jehovah's Witnesses, stated that a cordial invitation is extended to everyone to attend the keynote address of the three-day program, which is scheduled for Sunday, April 13, at 3 p.m. The subject to be discussed is "Law and Order — When and How?" The speaker will be Marvin Holien, district supervisor of Jehovah's Witnesses, from Brooklyn, N. Y.

Message Greets OES Members

Mrs. Charles Manley welcomed members of Tecumseh Chapter No. 51, OES Thursday evening with an Easter message. An Easter memorial was given for the Chapters' departed members of the past year.

The Easter message was read from the worthy grand matron and worthy grand patron, as were a communication from the Educational Board, invitations for the Lenawee-Monroe County Association Spring "Peace" session to be held at Tecumseh High School, April 26, at 2:30 p.m., with dinner at 5:30 p.m. and the evening session at 7:30 p.m. Reservations may be made with Mrs. Donald LaBounty by April 19.

Friendship nights will be: Addison, April 16; Petersburg, April 18; Hudson, April 22; reception and dinner honoring John Scherf, worthy grand patron, at Mackinaw City, May 17; dinner and dance honoring the 75th anniversary of Ypsilanti Chapter, April 12; testimonial dinner honoring Vera Nye, past grand organist and husband, Charles, May 23.

Five members having birthday anniversaries in April were presented cup cakes and the candles lighted as members sang "Happy Birthday".

Large colored Easter eggs were presented to each member from the Manleys as Mrs. Glenn Driscoll played "Easter Parade".

Refreshments were served in the dining room from tables decorated with spring flowers and in keeping with the Easter season, by Mrs. Hamilton F. Moore, Mrs. Douglas Dunn, Mrs. Marvin Rumpf and Mrs. James Quigley. The next meeting will be May 1.

Marionettes Tell Story of Fishes

The Childhood Education Association of Adrian will sponsor a benefit marionette show by the Bixby Players of Saline, "The Golden Fish", Saturday, April 19, at Alexander School, Adrian.

Performances will be at 9:30 and 11 a.m., and at 1:30 and 3 p.m.

Reservations may be made with Ila Spotts, Comstock School, 263-1122.

Just yesterday the sky was gray and snow flakes fluttered down.
Today an April wind blows free above our little town.

"River Ratters" returning from a two-day run on the Cumberland River recently were Glenn Driscoll, Dwight Hodges and Bob Moore. They were accompanied on their jaunt by Jim Hendley of Manchester and Clarence Knorpp of Bloomfield Hills.

Belongings Lost In Sunday Fire, Neighbors Help

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Bock and three daughters burned Sunday in Milan while the family was returning from a Florida trip.

Neighbors and friends are planning an open house for them Sunday, April 20, from 2 to 6 p.m., at the Tri-County Club on Moon Rd.

Only possessions that the family have left are what they had with them on their trip. They are badly in need of linens, bedding and clothing, her mother, Mrs. George Fletcher, 6835 Rogers Hwy., said Wednesday.

The girls are 12, 10 and 7 years old.

FOSBURY FLOP'S NO FLOP FOR BOLDON — The Fosbury Flop, which came on the local track scene at the close of last season, is back again this year. Here Terry Boldon clears the bar at 6' to take a track meet from the Ypsilanti Lincoln.

Thinclads Win Meet

Monday was a sunny and mild day for the thinclads from Tecumseh when they hosted Ypsilanti Lincoln for their first home meet of the season. The harriers and the jumpers pulled a stunning 91-27 win over the boys from Ypsi.

Gary Hannibal tossed the shot put 40' 6¼" for second place behind Lincoln's Jim Bunton, who heaved the shot a good 43' 7½". Terry Boldon captured a first in the broad jump with a leap of 20' 3½". Scott Dalton leaped 17' 8½" for third in the event.

Boldon came back in the high jump with a 6' clearance of the bar. Gary Fairbanks and Lee Cheever followed in second and third, respectively.

Jim Collins finished in first place with an 11' 3" clearing of the bar in the pole vault. Richard Graf ran the two miles in 11:31 for first and M. Graf ran in a 12:05 time as did Tom Rebottaro.

The 880 relay won with Dave Gurtzweiler, Mark Goodacre, Fairbanks and Gerald Girbach running the legs. Fairbanks had the best time of 23.4. The team time was 1:39.

Lamaro Rufner, Jack Edwards and Steve Brosamer finished one, two, three in the mile run with Rufner clocking a good 4:55.

Gary Fairbanks maintaining his form of old, captured both of the hurdle events. A time of 16:05 in the 120 highs and 21:85 in the 180-yd. low hurdles won the medals. In the high hurdles, Hannibal finished second behind his harriermate.

Hannibal and Boldon finished second and third in the low hurdles.

Tony Lisenbee captured first, Paul Randall second and Gary Burns third in the 880 run with a time of 2:12 picking up the win.

Dalton finished in second place in the 440-yd. dash with a time of 57.5.

Girbach won the 100-yd. dash with a 10.7 run.

The speeds of all events should improve as the season progresses, giving rise to some big hopes in the coming season for the Tecumseh thinclads.

In another event Girbach picked up a second in the 220-yd. dash at 24.9.

Jim Hunt Hurls No-Hitter, 2-0

Tecumseh High School Indians opened the high school baseball season against the Adrian Maples in perfect fashion behind the no-hit pitching of Jim Hunt. The tall right-hander hurled the seven innings, giving up five walks and hitting one batsman. The final score was 2-0.

Hunt never found himself in serious trouble throughout the game, 11 strikeouts got the Tribe hurler out of the tough spots.

The Tecumseh diamond corps didn't flex too many overpowering muscles as they managed only three hits off two Maple hurlers. Wally Quinn and Ken Pieh each picked up a double in the win.

The Tribe's first run came on a fourth inning walk to Mike Kane, an error and Quinn's double.

The second Indian tally came in the sixth inning when Larry Cote ripped off a single, Dave Ward walked, a fielder's choice and an error on a fly ball, bit by Mike Kennedy.

The Indians had to travel to Adrian for the season opener due to the wet, soggy condition of the Tecumseh home field.

Hunt also threw a no-hitter last season for the Tribe.

Airport Flies In Red

By BILL SANFORD

Big Daddy (the Lenawee County Board of Supervisors) have said to the inherited child (Lenawee County Airport Authority) that it is time for them to start making a living for themselves. During the month of March the industrious child ran in the red $505.03. Big Daddy was present at the monthly meeting of the authority last Thursday in the person of the three wise men, Tecumseh's T. J. Wagner, chairman of the Airport commmittee and Lowell Hammontree and Melvin Rodesiler.

In order to raise income from the airport, fees for usage of the airport were raised. Starting the first of May twin-engined aircraft will pay $10 per month and single engine owners will pay $7 for the first craft, $6 for the second and $5 for any more that they might own and use from the airport.

While stepfather Wagner wasn't too displeased with the figures on the increases, he still sought a higher charge for gasoline pumped at the airport, a two- to four-cent increase was asked for, to be channeled into the county funds.

In the future county planners have studied and conjectured about presenting plans for a new airport. A study was made three years ago by Williams and Works, an engineering planning firm from Grand Rapids. At present it seems as if the study and the money that had been channeled into this venture has been put aside and a new idea for self-improvement of the inherited problem child will be put forth.

Estimates for a new airport for the county as has been studied, would run approximately $2 million. At present some 600 to 700 municipalities have asked for matching federal funds for airport improvement or development. The appropriations from Congress last year were only $40 under the type of program which Lenawee would offer.

Eight weeks ago county representatives sought a price on 120 acres of land adjacent to present county property. The price was too high for the authority to accept so another price was asked. Sources that revealed the approaches made by the county would not state the price of the land.

The parcel, according to information, would be used for an east-west runway for the landing of smaller jet-powered planes. FAA officials determine that this is the most desirable and necessary runway for wind conditions in this area.

Wind rose figures, based on a 60-month study from January, 1934, to December, 1938, determined the availability of runways in the area. Runway alignments would make the runways available 98.57% of the time with winds from 0-47 mph.

So the headaches and constant refrains of inheritance continue stumping the board and the authority.

As the situation stands until the harvest is made on the Lenawee County airport, the child will operate in the red. One of the main sources of income at the present is cash cropping the land surrounding the runway.

Helps To Fight Cancer

Tom Cunningham, owner of the Tecumseh Airport Bowling Alley, will donate all proceeds from bowling on April 26 from 2 to 9 p.m., to the Cancer Crusade Drive.

He has also donated a bowling ball to be given to some lucky bowler that day.

Mrs. Dyke Helms, Tecumseh chairman, expressed gratitude for the generosity of Mr. Cunningham.

"We need more thoughtful people like him to help in this worthy cause," she said Monday. "Remember, price of bowling is 50c for adults and 40c for students. Bowlers receive one chance to win the ball with each game played. Everyone is welcome, three to 103 years of age. Come and enjoy yourself."

Mrs. Lloyd Stites is co-chairman of the drive with Dr. Jerry Wolf in charge of the dental division, Dr. Richard Coak, medical, Mrs. Yale Kerby, realty and Carl Lamb, independent business.

Area captains are Mrs. Walter Wonderly, Mrs. George Harrold, Mrs. Walter Mueller, Mrs. Richard Creswell, Mrs. Kenneth Beevers, Mrs. George Putze, Mrs. Junior Foula, Mrs. Iva Caswell and Mrs. Lavon Retan.

Mayor Harold Easton issued a proclamation urging public cooperation in the education and fund raising drive of the American Cancer Society.

He said, "I am appealing to the residents of the City of Tecumseh to give their full and generous support to the Cancer Crusade.

THE PACE CONTINUES

Mother Nature continues to produce a fast-paced, action-filled show. These early spring days are great — busy, busy, busy! The robins look happier, now. The ones we saw on the day and a half of snow made us laugh because they truly did look so miserable and confused. One we particularly enjoyed — like all of his newly-arrived friends, he was especially big and fat and oh, such a big red breast.

When we saw him, he was trudging along on the thick horizontal limb of the elm tree and sulking. The limb, of course, had a deep frosting of wet, sticky snow and as the bird, with head bent low and wings drooping, waded through the white stuff, he epitomized a disgusted, disgruntled grouch. Bah humbug!

It was interesting to note how the robins adapted to the snow. They knew exactly which low-hanging bushes to fly under for shelter. They also knew where protection had minimized the snow blanket and it was here that they scratched down thru the snow and dead leaves to uncover dinner.

Along the front of our house was one such place and the walk was well-littered with "scratched out" material. Not a very nice way for them to say thank you.

THERE MAY BE trouble in the cardinal family. A marital tragedy may be in the offing. One day about noon Papa Cardinal did bring his lady-love to the picture-window feeder. Well, he did not actually bring her — it was more that when she followed him to the sunflower-filled feeder he did not chase her away.

It was not a gallant act on his part, though, and, for the few minutes they shared the tray, he stood with his back to her. After waiting hopefully but receiving no encouragement, she finally lowered to the ground. He immediately straightened himself around. The trouble showed itself later the same day.

From way over in the field across the creek, Papa Cardinal came high-balling this way, close behind was Mama Cardinal and, good gracious, then came a second Mama Cardinal.

After such impolite treatment earlier, we wondered why either of the gals were bothering with him now.

The bluejays' courting is going much smoother. Since a rainy Friday, the 28th of March, a pair of them have been dining together. No quarrels or anything, they just fly in and are quite happy to stand side by each as they nibble on the fat sunflower seeds. Occasionally he, at least I prefer to think it is the male being attentive and not the female being pushy — but anyway, once in a while one of the birds will find an especially tasty tidbit and very gently feed it to the other.

APRIL FOOL'S DAY was busy. A trio of goldfinches rediscovered the joys of feeder dining. They had been gone for almost a week and, needless to say, we were most happy to welcome them back. The female had, of course, not changed much but oh, the males — they looked like an April Fool's joke.

Both were showing surprisingly much more of their new yellow shirts but it was still such a patched-up job — and actually they looked worse than they did before because this time their old feathers were ragged and unkempt. There were bright yellow patches under their chins, on their shoulders, and several places on their backs.

Their soon-to-be black caps were just beginning and the new little black feathers had grown in only enough to make their heads look most ridiculous. I think they were a bit embarrassed by their appearance and they really should have been.

So it is that there is just no end to the good bird-looking, things were moving along at top speed last week and the pace continues.

NEXT WEEK:
"Early Morning Goings On."

Grand Canyon On Itinerary

Thirteen members decided to give Mrs. Francis Outram a trip book to take to the Grand Canyon at the meeting of the Daughters of St. Peter's Church, April 1.

Mrs. Arch Wray read Psalm 137 and led the group in The Lord's Prayer.

Mrs. Earl Lindsley, program chairman, read an article on "Resurrection" and one on "He Goeth Before Thee" from the PEO magazine.

Mrs. Jack Smith and Mrs. Agnes Guy served Easter cookies and beverages.

They will also be the hostesses for the April 15 meeting.

Lesson In History Told Monday Club

Mrs. Don Frazier was introduced by Mrs. Lee Purkey, program chairman, to members of the Monday Club March 31 at the First Baptist Church.

Mrs. Frazier of Adrian is the curator of Lenawee County Historical Museum. She spoke on conserving Lenawee County history and told of interesting items from the early days including the facts that Samuel Morse, inventor of the telegraph system and Daniel Webster, the dictionary author, had both been in Lenawee.

Mrs. Frazier urged people who save clippings to include the date line when they bring items to the Museum.

Mrs. Clyde Bailey read "Thoughts For Good Friday" as devotions.

A thank you note from Maple Lane Manor was read for hospital rooms and other gifts club members had provided.

Spring flowers and lighted tapers, in keeping with Easter, were used on the tea table where Mrs. Truman Rentschler and Mrs. Earl Caswell presided.

The calling committee will be taking reservations for the annual spring luncheon April 14, at 1 p.m. Guests will be welcome. Mrs. Robert Murray will be the speaker.

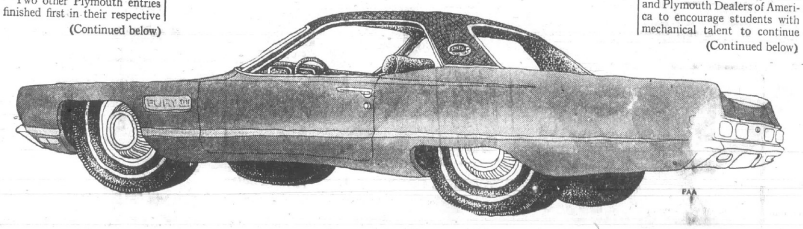
Announcing a special new Plymouth.



At a special low price.

Everyone says special, but we really mean it. Snapper's a new limited edition car like Plymouth has never made before. It'll shield you from weather's whims under a groovy turtle-shell vinyl top and carry you in a metallic muted-gold body. It has a "camp" Snapper emblem, like the one in the middle, on each roof pillar. An extended roofline that lets your rear seat passengers actually lean back (over 3" extra head room). And, of course, many of the "special" features that most people want: deluxe vinyl interior, white sidewalls, deluxe wheel covers, bumper guards, and a kicky little time-delay ignition switch light, all at a special package price (again, we really mean special). Naturally, you can personalize a Snapper even more, with everything from a Super Commando 440 V-8 to air conditioning or 8-track stereo; just ask your dealer. As a limited edition model with your own personal options, Snapper is a truly individual vehicle. See one now, at your Plymouth Dealer.

'classes, giving the Plymouth line of cars winners in three out of the nine classes of competition.

Other Plymouth winners were a Valiant Signet in Class VII for six-cylinder compact economy cars, and a Barracuda in Class IX for sports compacts.

The Union/Pure Oil Performance Trials, held under the supervision of the National Association for Stock Car Racing, compared the basic performance characteristics of American-made 1969 models which are in the popular price ranges.

The fuel economy tests measured a car's fuel consumption at an average speed of 40 miles per hour over a distance of 18,567 miles.

The acceleration tests measured the time it took a car to accelerate from 25 to 70 miles per hour.

The braking tests demonstrated the car's high-speed stopping capability immediately after severe brake usage.

The 60 stock cars competing in the tests were taken directly from dealers' showrooms throughout the country to provide a realistic comparison of various makes and models.

Wagon Air Deflector

The 1969 Plymouth Fury station wagon models have a new and efficient air deflector, mounted at the rear of the roof to divert air around and across the big rear window, significantly reducing vision obstruction. By blowing clean air over the window, the deflector prevents rain, dust and grit from accumulating.

their education and pursue careers in the growing automotive service business.

The winning two-man team at each of the 100 regional and state contests being held this spring will compete for $125,000 worth of scholarships, prizes, trophies and automotive equipment for their schools at the National Finals at the Indianapolis 500 Speedway in mid-June.

Winners at local and national contests are chosen by the speed and skill with which they find and fix malfunctions under the hood of a new Plymouth and restore the car to normal operating condition. All teams work on identical cars that have been deliberately tampered with in the same way.

Plymouth Dealers sponsor a two-man team from their local school and make a Plymouth car available to practice on. The teams from the 2,000 participating schools, which have a combined enrollment of 150,000 students taking automotive shop courses, are selected by school instructors.

The Plymouth Trouble Shooting Contest originated in Los Angeles in 1949. It was sponsored by Plymouth Dealers there who sought to recruit young men as mechanic trainees. The annual contest grew in size as educators gave it their support.

Since the contest became national in scope in 1962, scholarships have been awarded to 116 students and full or part-time jobs have been found for more than 15,000 young men.

City Officials Drop Millage

CLINTON — The new Village Council was organized and committees named by the president, John Truesdale, at the regular meeting, April 3.

The council decided to operate the village on a reduced millage — six mills — this year, since the assessed valuation of the Village of Clinton has increased by the amount of $1,181,000. The total assessed valuation is $11,737,800. The increase in valuation is largely due to the Peerless Gear Division addition, and the addition of several new homes in the village.

The new budget of $108,164.80 was adopted. This represents an increase of approximately $10,000 over last year's budget. Of the budget total, $70,426.80 is to realized from taxes and the balance, $37,738.00 is from miscellaneous income.

Acording to Mr. Truesdale, the additional funding will be necessary to the purchase of a street sweeper, which is under consideration.

In response to a request by residents, an ordinance is to be drawn up to prohibit all parking on the north side of Brown St. in the 100 block, at all times.

The council approved the president's recommendation to employ a second man, as a day-[illegible] to facilitate the enforcement of village ordinances.

John Thomas submitted his resignation, effective immediately, since he has recently moved to the Evans Lake area. The president will appoint someone to fill the vacancy until the next election.

James Beardsley was present to discuss the mobile home park. The council asked that a formal request be submitted to them regarding services needed by the park, for consideration.

The completed renovation of the Smith-Kimball Community Center was approved, with the exception of two minor details. It is now available for use by the public.

Bids were opened for construction of Franklin and Bartlett Sts., with the contractor to be confirmed this week.

Floyd Tate, president pro-tem for the past several years, and a retiring member of the board, met for the closing session of the former council preceding the organizational meeting. Mr. Tate has served continuously on the council for 17 years.

NEW ATTORNEY — Vincent Stapley and Joe Conklin have formed a new law association here in the Town and Country Professional Building on Occidental Rd.

Attorneys Form New Association

A new law association has been formed here between Joseph Conklin, attorney formerly associated with James Beardsley and Gregg Forsthoefel, and Vincent F. Stapley of Jackson.

The two lawyers have established their offices in the Town and Country Professional Building, next to the Sutton Rd. branch office of the United Savings Bank on Occidental Rd.

Tecumseh's new 33-year-old attorney has been in private practice in Jackson. He is a graduate of Bowling Green State University and attained his law degree from University of Toledo in 1965.

A native of Carey, O., he was a meteorologist with the U. S. Air Force for four years and a veteran of the Korean conflict.

Mr. Stapley is a member of the Michigan State Bar Association, Jackson County Bar Association, American Bar Association, Criminal Law Section and Legal Education Section of the ABA, and Committee of Sentencing, Probation and Parole, for the Michigan Bar Association.

His wife, Marjorie, and five children are currently living in Jackson but plan to move here after school recesses for the summer.

Gould-National Acquires Tuttle

H. W. Tuttle Company, a Tecumseh industry for 10 years, has been acquired by Gould-National Batteries, Inc., of St. Paul, Minn., for an undisclosed exchange of stock.

Harold Tuttle, company president, reports there will be no change in operations and personnel here, and that the company will continue to produce heating elements as in the past.

In fact, the company, which will retain its name but as a division of Gould-National, could expand its operations as the parent company intends for Tuttle's to concentrate on electric power concept. No indication of expansion, however, has been indicated.

Sale of the company was finalized last week and employees there learned of the transaction on Friday.

In a statement to personnel, Mr. Tuttle said, "I personally believe this 'marriage' will be of great benefit to us all. It now gives our company greater resources of finance, engineering technology and diversification than we ever have had before."

Gould-National produces a variety of products: dry cell batteries, parts for diesel and gasoline engines, electric storage batteries, electric trucks, railroad lighting, air conditioning and others.

Its sales last year topped $129 million.

Although the local company has been located in Tecumseh just 10 years, it would have been 31 years old next September. It was moved here from Adrian in 1959.

Mr. Tuttle will continue as president of the division for Gould-National, and Mrs. Madeline Tuttle, long-time company president and chairman of the board, will be retained for at least two years as a consultant.

Approximately 300 are employed here.

Proposed Budget Tops $1 Million; 1 Mill Increase Studied by Council

A record budget for the next fiscal year — $1,046,212 in anticipated income and $1,026,427 in anticipated expenditures — was presented to Tecumseh's new Council Monday night by City Manager Cal Zorn.

The tentative budget, which must be acted on by May 19, is based on 14 mills, a hike of one mill over last year. Increased evaluation assessments and the mill increase helps to provide the city with income of approximately $100,000 over last year.

Less than half of the budget — about 42% — will be financed through local taxes.

Based on the city's local assessment of $30,515,000 for the community, $427,210 will be raised by taxes here.

Other monies are obtained from state income taxes, weight and gas taxes, and from other sources.

The budget increase is due mainly to salary increases, Globe Mill Pond dam expenses and for street, sewer and curb and gutter construction.

Pay raises here will average about 10%, except for clerks in City Hall. Their wages will be increased about 5%. In dollars, the approximate total cost is $25,000.

Planned expenses for the next fiscal year, July 1 through June 30, 1970, at Globe Pond, is $30,515. According to estimates by an Ann Arbor engineer, this will pay for about half of the cost for a new dam, a replacement for one washed out last June 26.

Street, curb and gutter and sewer construction will increase about $25,000. Street construction is expected to jump from $49,000 to $74,000 this year; sewer, $5,100 to $25,300; but curb and gutter will drop from $41,300 to $19,900.

Overall for these three projects, the increase is $95,900 for 1968-69 compared to $119,200 for 1969-70.

In regards to salaries, Mr. Zorn told Councilmen that the city's total cost is about 35% of the the total budget. This is considered very low, as some municipalities have payrolls of 70% of their budgets.

However, he pointed out that the outlay for capital improvements amounts to 20% of the budget, and this is rated high.

Last year, Council approved a budget calling for an income of $935,000 and expenditures of $915,000. The hike to 14 mills this year brings the city to within one mill of the 15-mill limitation allowed by law. Over 15 mills, a vote of the people is required.

Although it has not been discussed at any Council session, there is a possibility of a proposed city income tax. Other communities, which have such taxes, have been studied.

If an income tax is proposed and approved by Council, the electorate would have to vote it in. [illegible] of some four or five mills would be possible. This type of tax and drop in millage would be greatly beneficial to many older folks in town.

Young Father Killed in Two-Car Collision

Robert Howard Cubberly, 29, of 223 Herrick Park Dr., died of injuries in a head-on collision at 7:40 a.m., Tuesday, three miles east of Clinton on US12 at Nebo Rd.

The eastbound Cubberly automobile collided with a westbound automobile driven by Jack Bernard Federman, 52, of Southfield. Federman was admitted to University Hospital, Ann Arbor. The extent of his injuries are unknown at this time.

According to Clinton State Police, a witness reported that the Federman vehicle apparently crossed the centerline. The investigation is continuing.

Mr. Cubberly was born Sept. 5, 1939, in Tecumseh, the son of Halbert and Neva Remmele Cubberly. A graduate of Tecumseh High School in 1957, he served in the U. S. Army from 1959 to 1961.

On April 6, 1962, he married Kay Rickard in Saline.

Mr. Cubberly was employed for eight years as a meat cutter at Vesco Markets.

Besides his wife, he is survived by his mother; two daughters, Carolyn Kay, 6, and Kaily Ann, 1; two brothers, James in the U. S. Navy in Spain and Thomas of Tecumseh; and one sister, a student at Minneapolis North Central Bible College.

He was preceded in death by his father.

Friends may call at the Dunn Funeral Home until 11 a.m., Friday.

Funeral services will be held at 1:30 p.m. at the Holloway Presbyterian Church. The Rev. Richard A. Budden will officiate, and burial will be in the Brookside Cemetery.

Council Agrees to Cooperation

What are folks at Britton and Ridgeway going to do about sewage in the future remained unanswered after a village session in Britton Monday evening.

Although little progress was made there, City Manager Cal Zorn told Council here the same evening that he had been approached informally about Tecumseh receiving sewage from the two areas.

City Officials expressed opinions, "we're ready to help," if their neighbors seek it. No formal approach has apparently been made to Tecumseh, although such a possibility was discussed by some 30 folks attending the meeting in Britton.

Mr. Zorn told Council that if the two villages want to use the local disposal plant, it has the capacity to handle their sewage. He said that additional sewage from the Britton area plus industrial waste water from the Tecumseh Products, however, will probably necessitate some expansion in the near future.

He added by saying an expansion and improvements will be necessary in the near future regardless, to handle the processing of phosphates as required by law.

Britton and Ridgeway have discussed building a partial treatment plant with a lagoon, and then eventually allowing it to escape in an open drain, one which eventually leads to River Raisin.

This method, if approved by the County Health Department, could solve the folks' problem immediately. However, in some six or seven years, it would be obsolete as the small plant would not have the facilities to treat phosphates — the same situation in which Clinton will undoubtedly find itself.

A lagoon at Manitou Beach was rejected in the past by county health authorities.

The state is ordering Britton and Ridgeway to dispose of their sewage through means other than septic tanks. A likely answer to their problems may be a pressure or forced sewer line to the Tecumseh disposal plant.

Such a line would require a lift station, probably in Britton. It is also possible that a pressure line would not be necessary all of the way into Tecumseh.

No engineering or other work has been done for such a line, but Tecumseh installed a pressure line about three miles from Fisher Body Plant to the city several years ago. Cost was approximately $100,000.

Britton and Ridgeway costs would be considerably higher, since Britton is between five and six miles from Tecumseh. Folks there would also have the expense of installing sewers throughout their communities plus sewers and hookups at their properties.

Councilmen here asked the city manager how the two villages would pay for using the local plant, and he stated that the sewage would have to be metered.

Although local officials have expressed cooperation, it was also apparent that they hesitate doing anything unless approached by folks at Britton and Ridgeway.

Mayor Easton In 10th Year

Harold Easton was unanimously re-elected mayor of Tecumseh by the city's new Council Monday night.

He is starting his 10th year as mayor and his 11th on Council.

It took two ballots to elect a president pro tem with Dr. Carlton Cook the choice of his colleagues. On the first ballot, the local physician received three votes to one each for Donald Sunderland, William Holmes and Ray Puffer.

The next vote provided Dr. Cook with a 6-1 margin over Mr. Sunderland.

Prior to the elections, Clerk Vera Zornow conducted swearing in ceremonies for Dr. Carlos Knisely and Wallace Whiting, newcomers, and Mr. Holmes and Mr. Puffer, incumbents who were re-elected.

Still Embarrassing

By BILL SANFORD

The saga of Charlie the dog-catcher continues to place the sheriff and the Board of Supervisors in an embarrassing position. A few weeks ago it was reported that Charles Mitchell, dog warden, picked up a dog in Hudson. It was kept for the required three days, at Mitchell's or some other house. When the owners, after four days, found the whereabouts of their pure-bred dog, they contacted the warden and the sheriff.

Mitchell had given the dog to someone else.

The family in Hudson contacted a lawyer and the sheriff. The sheriff reportedly told Mitchell to give the dog back. Attempts to get a confirmation of this were futile as Sheriff Richard Germond refused comment, "I don't want the matter blown out of proportion."

The attorney needed two letters over a period of two weeks to have the pet returned to its

Get Ready for "The Gazebo"

What is a gazebo? The Tecumseh Players are offering the answer to that pondering, and that of a handyman in the play, when they will produce Alex and Mary Coppel's hit play, "The Gazebo", May 9, 10, 16, and 17 at the Community Center.

Larry Ruff, formerly of Indiana University, is handling the directional reins for this production. It is Ruff's first play with the Players.

He has an extensive background in theatre dating back to the Goodman Memorial Theatre in Chicago. He has also appeared in "off Broadway" productions in New York.

Also while in New York he studied at the H. B. Studio under Lee Grant and Uta Hagen. Miss Hagen originated the role of Martha in "Who's Afraid of Virginia Woolf" when that play opened on Broadway.

Ruff has also worked for five seasons in summer stock with a total of 14 years in theatre. At present he is a PhD candidate at Indiana University. He recently was accepted to take part in that university's Renertory Touring Company and will tour the United States.

Assistant to the director for "Gazebo" will be Jeanne Beland. A newcomer to local theatrics, Jeanne was in the chorus of "Oklahoma".

John Day is technical director for the comedy-mystery and player personnel say that he has put a lot of detail into the set creation, lighting and other back stage facets that make aspirin the big seller that it is.

He has been a resident for nine years in Tecumseh and a member of the barbershop chorus.

Tickets for the production will go on sale soon.

3 Accidents Investigated

Three minor accidents were checked by the Tecumseh police during the past week with two drivers receiving citations for traffic violations. A resume is:

April 8 — William J. Skidmore, of Battle Creek, was cited for an improper turn after an accident with Richard J. Simpson, Adrian. Mishap occurred on N. Evans at Logan St.

April 8 — Mrs. Carmon O. Calloway, Manchester, reported her car damaged by a baseball. She was driving on N. Ottawa when a foul ball, off the bat of a Saline player, bounced off her car door, making a small dent.

April 11 — Edna W. Pfaus, 56, Manchester, was cited for failure to yield the right of way after a mishap with Betty J. Lamb, 39, of 302 S. Maumee St., at the intersection of Wyandotte and E. Pottawatamie Sts.

Mrs. Boncile Sniffen is still a patient at St. Joseph Hospital, Ann Arbor following tests. She had hoped to return home last weekend, but apparently didn't make it. Certainly she would enjoy some mail from her friends.

Hugh Flippo, chairman of the stocks and claim's committee of the Board of Supervisors, and overseer of the warden, has reportedly denied citizens to appear before the committee to testify to what happened in Clinton.

Prior to a published report of the Clinton shootings, no investigation was being carried out by either the sheriff or the Board of Supervisors.

When the sheriff was contacted on April 3 as to whether he was going to investigate the Clinton matter, his reply was, "I guess I'm going to have to kill your story." On April 7 he said that he had investigated the matter using statements in The Herald as a guideline. He went on to say that the people confirmed that what was published was what they had seen.

Last week, Flippo at a meeting of the board, sought a resolution giving hiring and firing authority to the sheriff who does not have that power at present.

The Hudson incident was discussed, according to informed sources at the committee meeting where the press was asked to stay out.

Many citizens have expressed pros and cons to what happened on March 25, but as of yet no forum has been afforded them to express their views.

TEA Circulating Tax Petitions

Members of the Tecumseh Education Association are circulating petitions for tax reform.

The Lenawee Superintendent's Association, of which Supt. James McDowell is president, voted unanimously to appeal to the state legislators for tax reform. The petition drive is statewide.

Deadline for collecting signatures is April 23. Mr. McDowell and others will take them to Lansing the following day.

I want to take this opportunity to thank everyone who voted for me at the recent Council election. It was very rewarding for me to realize so many had faith in my ability and integrity by voting for me, and to represent them in our City government.

Thank you,
BONNIE PURKEY

YOU TOLD US

By DOROTHY GRIGG
Herald Society Editor

Mother's Day came early for Ruth Packard and her spouse, Francis. Their only daughter, Brynn, was married Saturday evening to Ronald Tiede and the six sons made a special effort to all get together at one time. It will probably be a number of years before such a happening will occur again as Barry Packard and his bride, of Wallington, N. J., plan to return to Kenya, E. Africa, to resume teaching there.

The Bruce Packards with two sons, Kevin and David, came for the weekend from Fort Wayne, Ind., Terry was home from Chicago and Mr. and Mrs. Brian Packard of Ann Arbor entertained the group Sunday for dinner including Richard and Tim, Grandma Mrs. Opal Brady and to their surprise, the newly married Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Tiede, who delayed their honeymoon long enough to make the family circle complete for one brief afternoon.

We think families are the most and Francis and Ruth certainly have one of which to be proud.

The Russell McConnels of Eliot, Me., are in the Tecumseh area visiting relatives and friends. They were in Mason over the weekend to see Ray and Maxine McConnell and son, Steve, and in Milan last week to see the Wyman Campbells. Monday night, the Lyle Griggs enjoyed a movie and slides of bygone family gatherings of the McConnell clan with Russ and Lu, as well as the pictures of the Banff and Glacier Parks trip they took last summer with her brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Packard. When the McConnells first came from Maine, they spent some time with her sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hyatt and others of the Packard family.

Debbie Sadler, a student at Alma College, accompanied Mrs. Orville Bishop to Spring Arbor Friday for the track meet there where Gus Bishop was running. Miss Sadler spent the remainder of the weekend as a house guest of the Bishops.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Allen observed their 55th wedding anniversary "Thursday and the rest of the week," Mrs. Allen remarked. She said that she and her husband received lovely flowers, cards and gifts and a beautiful decorated cake, the latter from the J. T. Callihan family. They had a special message from their son, A. W. Allen, and family in Murray Hills, N. J., and Saturday another daughter and her family, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Boustead and Marjorie, of Bay City, en route home from Florida, made an overnight stay at the Allen home. Friends who called during the week included F. M. Burroughs and daughters of Grand Rapids, Mrs. Florence Millward of Charlevoix and Mr. and Mrs. Phelps Crouse of Ypsilanti.

Fay McClure and Sandra Ross returned Sunday from a two-week trip to Cape Coral, Fla., where they visited Mr. and Mrs. Edward Richardson.

Mrs. E. J. Aebersold returned home Monday after wintering in Florida.

Mrs. Herbert Munger is expected home from St. Petersburg, Fla., over the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Dermyer and children returned Sunday from Jacksonville, Fla., where they visited her aunt and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Richardson. The Dermyers left Tecumseh April 2 and celebrated two birthday anniversaries while away. April 10, the family visited the Amusement Park at Myrtle Beach, Va., for Myra's day and April 12, they were in Washington, D. C., for the cherry blossom festival on Lawrence's 17th birthday anniversary. En route home they visited the Roldon Dermyers in Portsmouth, Va.

Joe, John and James Bagby returned Tuesday from California, where they were guests of their brother, Sgt. Kenneth Bagby of the U. S. Marine Corps. The boys visited the San Diego zoo, Disneyland and spent a day with Pfc. Richard Sweet, also with the Marines.

Teachers Needed

Five teaching vacancies currently exist in the Tecumseh Public Schools, according to Supt. James McDowell.

There are fifth grade positions open at Ridgeway and Tecumseh Acres, and three vacancies in the English department at the High School.

County Office Opening Friday

Lenawee County Republican Headquarters offices will open Friday, April 18, from noon to 5 p.m. in the basement of the Masonic Temple in Adrian.

Coffee and cookies will be served. Everyone is welcome.

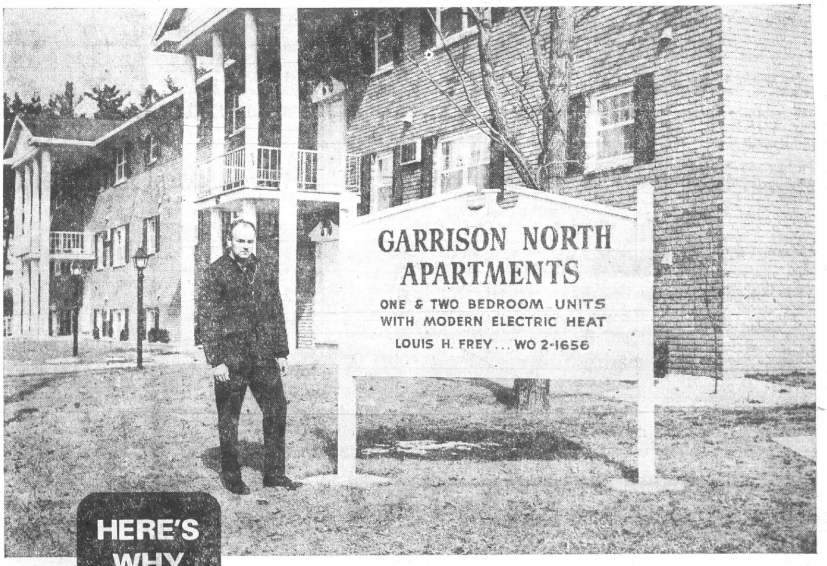
Garrison North Apartments
BATTLE CREEK



HERE'S WHY ANOTHER BUILDER HAS CHOSEN ELECTRIC HEATING

LOUIS FREY, owner Garrison North Apartments, says
"Ease of installation, economy of operation and maintenance are the primary reasons I installed electric heating in Garrison North Apartments. My tenants like its clean, even heat and its controllability. I like its worry-free service."
Mr. Frey is only one of a growing number of enthusiastic electric heating customers. Besides the many advanced comfort-features they get, they're discovering that electric heat is surprisingly economical. Mr. Frey, for instance, found that the cost for heating each 880-square-foot apartment averaged only $64.47 annually.

Major Interests to DAR

Resolutions passed at the 1969 State Conference of the Daughters of the American Revolution were the major interest at the Abi Evans Chapter meeting April 11 at the home of Mrs. Hoyt Whelan and Marian Whelan.

Mrs. Fay Whelan, regent, distributed copies of the resolutions to the members and they were read by Marian Whelan.

Headed by support of disciplinary action including the withdrawal of any loans and grants of tax monies for student rioters, the resolutions included executive orders, localization of power, reform of welfare policies, communism, immigration, guaranteed annual income, sensitivity training, sex education, antiballistic missile system, Panama Canal, metropolitan police forces, aid to Michigan Indians and drug education.

The one on sensitivity read:

"Whereas Sensitivity Training now is being widely used in the United States in educational programs for schools, churches and some police departments in order to institute a change in the established standards of morals, ideals and parental training and while supposedly established for the purpose of creating better understanding, love and trust has proven to do the opposite by isolating the individual and creating feelings of distrust fear and terror;

"Resolved that the Daughters of the American Revolution of Michigan vigorously oppose sensitivity training in all its forms and protest to proper authorities the use of public funds for this purpose."

The meeting began at 1 p.m., as members voted at the previous meeting. Discussion of next year's program was held and the program committee will meet to complete the schedule.

Cheese cake and coffee were served by the hostesses.

Give Glasses For Classes

For the past several years the American Legion Auxiliary, as part of their Child Welfare Program have been supplying the necessary safety glasses for the Industrial Arts Classes at Tecumseh High School. Each year they repair or buy enough new glasses to keep the students protected.

This year they expanded their program to include the 'Chemistry Department. At the Auxiliary's April meeting Natalie Hopson and Pat Weigle of the Chemistry Department and Fred Gerten, Tom Neill and Robert MacGeorge, of the Industrial Arts Department told the organization how the glasses are being used and also displayed some of the work they accomplish while using them for protection.

The work completed by the young people was most accomplished and beautiful, and their stories most entertaining. Since this meeting took place during Easter Vacation and presence of the young people was doubly appreciated by the members.

Following refreshments, Mrs. Truman Rentschler introduced Mrs. Doris Disbrow, district president and her secretary, Mrs. Dorothy Hill. Mrs. Disbrow complimented the unit on this project as part of the Child Welfare Program, and said that she thought it was the only one of its kind in the District.

She also stressed Americanism and ask members to make a special effort to organize a group of volunteers to help at the VA Hospital in Ann Arbor one day a month. Many Vietnam men are now returning home wounded and many of World War I men need special help and attention.

She also reminded members to do a good job during Poppy Days in May so that the necessary funds will be available for the Rehabilitation Program to expand as the need is so much greater with so many wounded men being sent home from Vietnam.

More than 100 women from southern Michigan will gather at the Gloria Dei Lutheran Church Wednesday, April 23, for a South Central meeting. The theme of this assembly is "Extend', chosen to express the idea: "to help the Women of the Lutheran Church make their lives relevant and meaningful in their respective communities by being aware of opportunities for service."

Mrs. James Brookhart, a native of Cadillac and secretary for congregational organizations on the LCW staff in Philadelphia, will be the main speaker. She will present the Volunteer Reading Aid Program.

She was involved in the literacy program in Liberia, Africa, under the Board of World Mission for 18 years. Later she became literacy director for the Liberian government and for four mission boards.

Since 1959 she has been in the United States setting up and conducting workshops in the Pacific Southwest Unit.

The local congregation will be the host for this event. The program and the whole day meeting will be preceded by devotion, led by the pastor.

The Gloria Dei ladies, Mrs. James Colson, president, Mrs. L. Gero, chairman, Mrs. M. Ruettinger, co-chairman, Mrs. E. Mason, organist, Mrs. F. McRae, soloist, Mrs. W. Rohweder, chairman for reservations and their staff cordially invite the ladies of the community to attend this assembly and to enjoy the company of the guests.

The opening devotion will start at 10 a.m. in the church, followed at 12 noon by an ala king chicken dinner for $1.35.

From 9 a.m. on, coffee will be served by the ladies of the Christ Redeemer Lutheran Church, Adrian.

Chief MacGeorge In Right Place

Aid from the Tecumseh Fire Department could not have been any swifter than it was for the young couple on the River Raisin last Sunday. Chief Wallace MacGeorge and Bill Brown, like the young couple, thought Sunday was such a nice afternoon that they would try out the motor on the department boat.

The Raisin River in spring is pleasant for a journey, so the Chief and his companion launched the boat on the river off Newburg Rd. As they were approaching the railroad bridge over the river, they noticed a canoe.

While trying to decide which approach to make through the bridge pilings, MacGeorge and Brown saw the canoe tip over and the adventurers scrambling in the water.

As the firemen reached the young people, they grabbed hold of logs which had jammed against the pilings. Chief MacGeorge said that the current was so strong that the canoe was forced beneath the logs.

The girl in the canoe could not swim and with the quick action of the firemen, a disaster was avoided.

After the canoe had been retrieved and the couple safe, everybody headed for home. Mac told the canoers, "You can't get aid from the Tecumseh Fire Department any quicker than that."

All-Sports Fete Saturday Night

Tecumseh High School's annual all-sports banquet will be held this Saturday evening at the United Products Union Hall on S. Maumee.

Prep athletes in football, basketball, track, baseball, wrestling, and cross-country will be recognized.

Many illnesses which, at best, meant long and costly convalescence are now being cured with a surety and swiftness that borders on the miraculous. Loss of income is sharply reduced. Expensive hospital stays are prevented or shortened. Fewer doctor visits are necessary.

In this alone, today's medicines save more than they cost.

Brynn Packard Weds Ronald Tiede

Brynn Elaine Packard and Ronald Tiede were united in marriage Saturday evening by the Rev. Blair Bashore at the First Baptist Church.

White snapdragons and blue and white carnations filled the altar vases and two seven-branch candelabra with each lighted taper inside a crystal chimney, enhanced the sanctuary. Candles extended down the carpeted aisle and white chrysanthemums, greens and blue bows marked the family pews.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Francis Packard, 511 S. Evans St., and Mr. and Mrs. Albert Tiede, 8735 Mills-Macon Hwy.

Fred Dickinson was the soloist, accompanied by his wife at the organ.

MRS. RONALD TIEDE

The bride entered the church on the arm of her father. She wore a floor length bouffant gown of lace tiers over satin with fitted bodice accented with a blue bow at the back waistline.

Tiny sequins trimmed the Sabrina neckline and long Chantilly lace sleeves. Her shoulder length veil of illusion was secured to a petaled headpiece edged with sequins and she carried a cascade of white camellias, lily of the valley and blue tipped carnations on a white lace-covered Bible.

She wore a sterling silver hand engraved necklace, gift of the groom.

Mrs. Brian Packard of Ann Arbor was the matron of honor in a floor length A-line gown of leaf green chiffon over linen with sapphire blue trim.

She wore a green flower petal headpiece with brief matching veil and carried tinted carnations to match her dress centered with a lighted candle.

Mrs. Kenneth Gambill, college classmate of the bride, of Adrian, Grace and Martha Tiede, sisters of the groom, were the bridesmaids all in gowns styled as the matron of honor. Mrs. Gambill wore violet, Grace Tiede, gold and Martha, pink.

Kenneth Byrd was best man and the ushers were Brian, Terry and Richard Packard, brothers of the bride, and Jack Martin of Adrian.

Timothy Packard was the acolyte and Kevin and David Packard, the ring bearers.

Barbara Kempf registered the guests at the reception in the Youth House. Mr. and Mrs. E. Danforth were the hosts.

Mrs. Bruce Packard of Fort Wayne, Ind., served the brides cake and Mrs. Barry Packard, Wallington, N. J., served the groom's cake and ice cream. Mrs. Kenneth Byrd was in charge of the gifts.

Mrs. Opal Brady, grandmother of the bride, served punch and Mrs. Ernest Collins, sister of the groom, the coffee.

A special table of interest was centered with a bride doll cake, surrounded by doll cakes, representing the bride's attendants in the wedding party.

The bride is a graduate of Tecumseh High School and completed a bachelor's degree in elementary education at Adrian College in January. She is substitute teaching in Lenawee County Schools.

The groom is a graduate of Tecumseh High School, served in the army and is presently employed at General Motors Corp.

The rehearsal dinner was given by the bride's parents in the Youth House Friday evening.

Following a few days' trip south, the couple will live in the Robin Hood Trailer Court, Adrian.

March of Dimes Figures for '69

Final results in the 1969 March of Dimes Campaign were recently reported by Dr. Richard E. Werstler, Lenawee County Chairman. Over $11,500.00, an increase of 15%, was reported received as of April 1. The campaign involved workers from each township and city in Lenawee County.

Volunteer firemen in the townships of Deerfield, Onsted and Irish Hills (Cambridge), Raisin and Dover, directed the campaign while in Tecumseh and Adrian, Jaycees and the Jaycee Auxiliary spearheaded the drive. The Ridgeway Township campaign was completed through activities of the PTA and Mother's Club. Boys and girls groups, including Boy and Girl Scouts and 4-H Clubs and FFA, participated in Palmyra, Rollin, Woodstock and Franklin townships and also in the city of Blissfield.

The Mothers Club of Hudson and the Hudson American Legion and Legion Auxiliary directed an excellent drive.

The Fairfield Grange, Fairfield-Jasper Mothers' Club and interested individuals organized unique programs in several communities. In Medina and Seneca Townships and Morenci, the Kiwanis Club, Child Study Club, Hospital Auxiliary, FFA, FHA and campfire girls completed the March of Dimes campaign.

Students in the Public Schools of Clinton Township organized a student drive for collecting funds. Probably most unique plan occurred in the Village of Riga (Blissfield) where a high school student, Wanda Goetz, organized a one-person campaign for the entire town.

Individuals heading the local campaigns included Norman Ries, Franklin; Mrs. Hamilton Moore, Jr., Macon; Mrs. Lewis Bragg, Adrian; Charles Jackson, Palmyra; Michael Walls, Clinton; Mrs. Russell Scott, Ridgeway; Mrs. William Phipps, Onsted; David Schoonover, Tecumseh; Mrs. Irwin Stoner, Rollin and Woodstock; Mrs. Kitty Osburn and Dale Mitchell, Raisin.

Plymouth Scores Most Points in Three Tests

A Plymouth Fury I scored the highest number of points of all 60 cars that competed in fuel economy, acceleration and braking tests of the Union/Pure Oil Performance Trials at Daytona Beach, Fla.

The Plymouth Fury, competing in Class V for cars equipped with standard V-8 engines, scored a total of 98 performance points out of a possible 100.

Two other Plymouth entries finished first in their respective classes, giving the Plymouth line of cars winners in three out of the nine classes of competition.

2,000 Teams of Students Competing in Plymouth's Trouble Shooting Contest

Teams of student mechanics from more than 2,000 high schools and colleges in every state of the Union will compete for $125,000 worth of prizes in the 21st annual Plymouth TroubleShooting Contest.

The contest is sponsored by the Chrysler-Plymouth Division of Chrysler Motors Corporation and Plymouth Dealers of America to encourage students with mechanical talent to continue their education and pursue careers in the growing automotive service business.

Other Plymouth winners were a Valiant Signet in Class VII for six-cylinder compact economy cars, and a Barracuda in Class IX for sports compacts.

The Union/Pure Oil Performance Trials, held under the supervision of the National Association for Stock Car Racing, compared the basic performance characteristics of American-made 1969 models which are in the popular price ranges.

The fuel economy tests measured a car's fuel consumption at an average speed of 40 miles per hour over a distance of 18.567 miles.

The acceleration tests measured the time it took a car to accelerate from 25 to 70 miles per hour.

The braking tests demonstrated the car's high-speed stopping capability immediately after severe brake usage.

The 60 stock cars competing in the tests were taken directly from dealers' showrooms throughout the country to provide a realistic comparison of various makes and models.

Wagon Air Deflector

The 1969 Plymouth Fury station wagon models have a new and efficient air deflector, mounted at the rear of the roof to divert air around and across the big rear window, significantly reducing vision obstruction. By blowing clean air over the window, the deflector prevents rain, dust and grit from accumulating.

The winning two-man team at each of the 100 regional and state contests being held this spring will compete for $125,000 worth of scholarships, prizes, trophies and automotive equipment for their schools at the National Finals at the Indianapolis 500 Speedway in mid-June.

Winners at local and national contests are chosen by the speed and skill with which they find and fix malfunctions under the hood of a new Plymouth and restore the car to normal operating condition. All teams work on identical cars that have been deliberately tampered with in the same way.

Plymouth Dealers sponsor a two-man team from their local school and make a Plymouth car available to practice on. The teams from the 2,000 participating schools, which have a combined enrollment of 150,000 students taking automotive shop courses, are selected by school instructors.

The Plymouth Trouble Shooting Contest originated in Los Angeles in 1949. It was sponsored by Plymouth Dealers there who sought to recruit young men as mechanic trainees. The annual contest grew in size as educators gave it their support.

Since the contest became national in scope in 1962, scholarships have been awarded to 116 students and full or part-time jobs have been found for more than 15,000 young men.

Special Help Needed

CLINTON — Mrs. Harry Englehart of Tecumseh vividly portrayed the work in Special Education in Lenawee County, using photographs of the work in action and featuring four local teachers from the Clinton area, at the April meeting of the Faith Circle of the United Methodist Church.

Mrs. James Meeks hosted the meeting attended by 12 members and four guests.

Mrs. Englehart explained the contrast in the life of a child needing special help when placed in an institution or when allowed to attend school in their home community, where they can have additional help, security and inspiration of dedicated and resourceful teachers and social workers.

She reported that Lenawee County has made "outstanding progress and the results are now becoming apparent as the first pupils are now having their families and are applying the concepts which they learned in special education classes to deal with their own children.

Mrs. Englehart learned from working in institutions that many children actually die of broken hearts when institutionalized and deprived of the love and security they can receive in their own homes.

She also stressed the scarcity of special education workers, with competition for their services by many other communities.

Lenawee will be losing Mrs. Englehart, as her husband is a graduating law student at the University of Michigan, and the family will be locating in their home state of Pennsylvania this summer. She has been a teacher at the Lenawee Institute at Sutton.

Mrs. Kenneth Smith presented the devotions using the book, "But God", as a basis for a challenging treatise on the opportunity to live fully in times of stress.

The diversion was a series of games and tricks with numbers.

Demonstrating the far-reaching aspect of the Circle's work, the refreshments were served by the hostess at a table covered with a table cloth from a doctor who served in Vietnam; silver from Switzerland and Sweden, and orchids flown from Hawaii. Spring colors of yellow and pink were used in the decorations. Mrs. William Driscoll assisted with the serving.

The May 8 meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Harold E. Satterla. There will be a guest speaker.

State Fair Official Speaks at Banquet

CLINTON — Robert McLachlan, director of exhibits at Michigan State Fair, and a former American Farmer, addressed the members of the Clinton Chapter FFA and their parents, at the annual awards banquet, Tuesday night at Clinton High School.

Mr. McLachlan spoke of the opportunities for youth in agriculture and described the workings of the State Fair. He explained that the State Fair is entirely self-supporting, and does not receive any assistance from the state for premiums as do the county fairs.

The high school vocal ensemble entertained with several songs, accompanied by Marcee Meyers.

Chapter awards were presented by advisor John Jansen to:

Gary Kershner — Star Green Hand.

Jim Woodward — Star Chapter Farmer.

Tim Martin — DeKalb award to the outstanding senior boy; farm mechanic's award.

Charles Finkbeiner — Public speaker pin and certificate.

Tom Moore — Livestock award.

The retiring officers received their pins.

Skin Divers Need Adequate Training

CLINTON — The importance of adequate training before undertaking any skin diving activity was stressed by Cpl. Joel Woods, of Tecumseh, at the annual Father-Son Banquet at the United Church of Christ, Saturday evening.

Cpl. Wood, who has been a member of the Michigan State Police diving squad for the past five years, demonstrated his equipment and suit used in diving.

The hazards to equipment and the diver can be overcome if proper training and conditioning is undertaken, Cpl. Wood explained.

A colored film, prepared by the Los Angeles County Parks and Recreation Department, was shown. Produced by the Walt Disney studios, the film included amusing cartoon segments depicting the history of man's undersea exploration attempts and a documentary portion showing the research and recreational benefits to be gained by skilled skin divers.

Much of Cpl. Wood's experience in skin diving with the law enforcement agency involves the recovery of such things as safes, weapons, boats, automobiles, as well as drowned persons, from area waterways.

More than 80 men and boys were seated at tables, which were decorated with driftwood and replicas of sea and woodland creatures, by Mrs. Thomas Pence. The Swiss steak dinner was prepared by members of the Mary-Martha class and served by members of the Priscilla class.

Charles Steffens served as toastmaster. Mrs. Donald Geiger and son and daughter entertained with a medley of songs.

Recognition was made of the oldest father present, William Sell, who came with his son, Dayton Sell and grandsons and great-grandsons.

Clinton Hoelzer, son of John Hoelzer, was the youngest present.

Airman Bruce Greenfield, on leave from Washington, came the farthest.

David Pratt and son, Eric, gave the toast to sons and fathers, respectively.

The program was arranged by E. John Hoelzer and members of the Laymen's Fellowship.

Life In Cameroons Told Woman's Club

CLINTON — Life in the Cameroons, West Africa, was graphically described by world traveler, Mrs. William Adams, of Grosse Pointe, at the annual spring luncheon of the Clinton Woman's Club, held at Roumell's Wednesday.

Mrs. Adams was introduced by the program leader, Mrs. E. John Hoelzer. She illustrated her talk with colored slides.

Born in Katanga, the daughter of a medical missionary, Mrs. Adams lived in Africa until she was 10 years old.

She returned on a visit last year, to find little had changed in the Cameroons. Although the natives continued to wear clothes, which her father had taught them, everything else was as backward as ever.

She described the red, red, dirty, dirt, abject poverty, hot, moist climate, where all the women serve as beasts of burden because there are no donkeys, doing all the work, little food or schooling, and their life expectancy is 22 years.

In the Cameroons, as in many other parts of Africa, raw vegetables cannot be eaten unless treated with disinfectant, and fruit must first be washed with soap and water.

The white people have to take the back seats in the planes, she recalled.

Mrs. Adams mentioned that, in the last three years, a million Christians were killed in the Sudan, where the Arabs were in control. Missionary schools are no longer popular with the government, she said, although it welcomes organizations that teach agriculture or industrial arts.

The president, Mrs. Ralph Reed, extended greetings to the 45 members and guests, Mrs. Ruth Davis, Mrs. Richard Denning, Mrs. Donald Houghton, Mrs. Dan Goodman, Mrs. Roy Richard, Vivian Powell, Mrs. Celia Rice, Mrs. Nina Stewart, Mrs. Leon Van Deusen and Mrs. Frederick Oberlin of Tecumseh.

Painted pink and white daisy arrangements centered the tables and were later sent to shut-in members.

Past presidents, the speaker, and Mrs. Reed were presented with corsages of pink carnations.

The luncheon committee was Mrs. Maxwell Stamats, Mrs. John Monoghan, Mrs. Louis Roumell and Mrs. Harlon Ruhl.

The May 14 meeting will be preceded by a potluck cooperative luncheon to be held at the home of Mrs. Reed at 1 p.m.

LOOKING AT MY HEART, by Philip Blaiberg. What does it feel like to be reborn with another man's heart inside your chest? This is Dr. Blaiberg's story in his own words — one of the warmest, most hopeful human dramas we have ever read.

Four Grades To Be Tested

The third, fourth, fifth and sixth grade pupils of the Tecumseh Public Schools will be taking the Stanford Achievement Tests on April 22, 23 and 24. These are standardized tests using national norms.

The tests are sent to Iowa City for machine scoring. Test results are returned to Tecumseh and are used in evaluating instruction. They are not used for report card marks.

An individual profile is sent with each report card in June showing the percentile and stanine rank of the child in relation to the national norms in each of the subject areas tested.

Parents desiring more information concerning the tests or test results are urged to contact their child's teacher or building principal.

No Coaches; May Doom Pony League

A lack of coaches is threatening the future of the Pony League baseball this year. The department of Parks and Recreation were hoping to field five teams in the league, however, due to the lack of fathers or other interested men to act as coaches or assistant coaches, the program may be cancelled.

Last year teams were fielded from G. & J. Indians, TPW, Eagles and VFW. These teams are equipped and sponsored by the local organizations with the help of fathers acting as the coaches.

Tryouts for Pony League baseball are scheduled for 10 a.m., April 26, at the high school athletic field. All boys 13 and 14 years of age not already assigned to a team and wishing to play, must register at that time.

If volunteer coaches are not available by that date, the program is doomed. Anyone who is available to coach or act as assistant coach, may call Frank Dalton, 423-4281.

The Pistoles wrote that they hope to be able to return to their home by the end of April. The address is 1470 Terrawenda St., Defiance, O.

Politics and Wars...

By BILL SANFORD

French singer, Charles Aznavour sings of "Children of War" in slow melancholy inflection. "We are children of hunger and unspoken words." Aznavour [illegible] thru another war at another time. Russell Slick of Britton knows of children in a strange war in a strange country.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Slick, 8354 Ridge Rd., Ridgeway.

Hospitalman 2nd Class Slick works with children in four orphanages in Vietnam, in his spare time. Stationed with Seabees or Marines. The life isn't one with too much spare time. Last summer while stationed at Camp Faulkner he noticed nearby that three Catholic nuns were attempting to run a home for the homeless children of that controversial war.

He wrote back home to Tecumseh that he needed clothing and other items for the children. The Jaycee Auxiliary and other people in Tecumseh responded. People from other states in the union also came through with truckloads of goods for the children of Sacred Heart, the name of the makeshift home.

Russell Slick came home on leave recently, he stopped by The Herald office and talked of his experience with the people. He mentioned the war, but only in its relationship to the people he has become involved with.

Slick walks on a stoutly built frame, he is muscular and stands slightly under six feet. When he talks the deep-set blue eyes search back over the past nine months he has spent in "the country". He doesn't like the war, but in September he is going back for another tour of duty.

He has also applied to stay on as a civilian to work with the people, the villagers, the unfortunate by-products of man's inhumanity to man.

His plans for the future are to work with a Civic Action Group, sponsored by the NSA Hospital to help villagers to help themselves. In reaching out to the villagers, Slick has acquired a deep insight into these strange people with the different eyes, faiths and motives.

He spoke of fellow servicemen who "hated" the Vietnamese people. He understood his comrades' feelings. No one likes to leave behind loves, fathers, mothers, homes, the carefree existence of youth. They hate the villagers of "the country" because they have to have someone to blame for being there and since it is their country for which they are fighting, the Vietnamese become the brunt of their frustrations.

The people in many hamlets of Vietnam are constantly harassed by the Vietcong. They cooperate with the enemy as a matter of survival, he said. They are a people confused, thrust between two differing ideologies. A people with a simple philosophy crowded by strange and different ideals.

One of the nurses which works at Sacred Heart, Nguyen Thi Ngoc Qui worked for three years with the Viet Cong. She lives in Phuoc Thanh hamlet. She is 20, and looks twice that.

Slick sees this in many forms, he sees her aging. He sees her 50 by the time she is 25. She is typical of the people. The work is hard, there is no let-up from the pressures of the war. Their daily lives are lessons in physical torture.

Shortly before he left Vietnam he overheard Qui talking to one of the villagers in Vietnamese. The villager was attempting to force Qui to refuse doing what was asked of her at the hospital. She told the villager that he (Slick) was in charge and she was going to do what he asked. Slick said of that moment, he was glad, because he knew then he had gained her faith and trust. Some accomplishment.

Slick sees the Vietnamese people in their religious beliefs. He sees their differing alliance with an Almighty. He leaned back in his chair and looked straight ahead somewhere and said, "Eighty per cent of the people in Vietnam are Buddhist. The Buddhas believe that after death they will come back as something better. With all of the starvation, death, disease and poverty around them they have nothing to do, but believe in something better."

During working hours, Hospitalman Slick works near and around construction areas, primarily runways. Many are bombed out before he has a chance to leave the area. They do not suffer from shelling as much near these areas as they are when Marine units are nearby.

The night before he left 'the country" he said he was transporting a patient to another hospital when several rounds of rocket fire fell in the area.

When he left home Monday, he was going to Port Hueneme, Calif. From there he will go to Control School in San Francisco. Then back to "the country" and the people he feels he can help.

He has a total of 23 months left in the Seabees. He asked for 11 months extension to attend pharmacy school. He hopes to return to where he left off.

Slick's appearance when he came into the office was rather incongruous, he wore a beard and he feels frustration and protest, but not against an establishment, against something bigger, something he might not understand. But his protest is unlike that of other bearded protesters, for he feels he must find out what that something bigger is, then maybe he can help. But perhaps he has already helped more than most because he is trying.

EARLY MORNING IS NOT SO BAD AFTER ALL

If things continue I just might sometime learn to enjoy early mornings. Oh, right now I can agree with those who sing their praises, the beauty, the exhilaration, the freshness, and all such things — I can agree because you see it is now two o'clock in the afternoon. I simply am not a member of the Early Risers Sunshine and Good Cheer Club.

It is not that I have anything against the early rising fraternity, it is merely that I have such great difficulty waking up. Opening both eyes at once and keeping them that way takes a bit of time and waiting — for me to become fully conscious takes some patience on everybody's part. But just lately . . .

Just lately there have been several early morning occurrences which have popped me wide-awake. Of course, it does help to have the day starting and the sun up when Mom opens the drapes. The sun is not quite high enough yet to come flooding into the room but one of these days it will be — one of these days the daybreak bird serenade will be at full strength, too.

Already it is starting; the cardinals are whistling their cheerful greetings, the tufted titmice are trying, not too successfully, to imitate the red bird's soul-lifting singing, and even the bluejays, not out of bed long enough to be cantankerous, are using one of their nicer songs.

BUT THIS IS usual for a springtime and, as much as I enjoy the songfest, it really takes something a bit more of the unusual to shock me into wide awakefullness. Something like Mom looking out the window and exclaiming, "There goes the muskrat!" We had all been telling her about the muskrat but he did not understand banker's hours and never showed up when Mom was home.

Actually, there are a pair of them on the creek, and, of course, our fingers are crossed. There has never been a family of muskrats in our little stretch of the creek and to have front room seats on the child-rearing should be fun.

Gertie T. called my attention to what proved to be another eye-popping open visitor. Sitting bolt erect on a limb of one of the trees across the creek was a hawk. The pose was characteristic and, as the bird twisted his head from side to side, we could see the wickedly-hooked bill.

Even though this was early in the morning, I did try to get the creaky wheels in my head turning. I did try to start thinking. I did try to pick out some field marks. Gertie T. will testify that I was unsuccessful because of the poor light conditions — the hour of the day had nothing to do with it.

The hawk was one of the smaller long and narrow. Absolutely no definite color showed although there was a slight impression of stripes on his back and perhaps some sort of light facial markings. A long search through the bird books gave no clue — our hawk still has no name except an exciting early morning visitor.

AND THE LAST incentive to change my waking up habits happened the day after Easter. For the first time in a long time Mom saw a rabbit. (With another show of great will-power, I will not say anything about the Easter Bunny.) He was most cooperative and stayed around until I was sitting up and could see him, too.

He was a little on the long and lean side but, from the way he was eating, had no intentions of staying that way. What perfect camouflage these animals have.

The neighborhood was full of noisy kids, chasing dogs, and sneaking cats but the bunny stayed on the creek bank itself and blended into the dead grasses and scrubby weeds so well that he almost disappeared.

He knew he was reasonably safe as long as he stayed against that background because, until movement betrayed his presence, he was practically invisible.

So it is that miracles do happen and just think, one of these days if this type of action continues, I may be able to say, in all truthfulness, that early morning is no so bad after all.

NEXT WEEK:
"A Change of Mind."

June 29 Date Is Set For Dawn Patrol

June 29, 1969, has been set as Dawn Patrol Day for Tecumseh. The usual hearty breakfast, plane rides and other events are being planned by the Tecumseh Exchange Club Dawn Patrol Committee under the direction of Doug Dunn.

Lawrence Konke, president of the Lenawee County Historical Society, Inc., gave an interesting talk on the History of the Tecumseh and Lenawee areas.

He showed the club his large collection of Early American artifacts which have been collected on the Konke farm where he now lives.

Seek Tax Change

By BILL SANFORD

For several years, legislators, men who sit or wish to sit, in these austere chambers in Lansing have sought ways to alleviate the heavy burden of school taxes from the property owners. Former Rep. Rollo G. Conlin, Tipton Republican, as chairman of the house taxation committee, fought hard and long for a complete revision of the state tax structure. For his efforts he was condemned by his own party and turned aside. Much of his condemned program is now in effect in Michigan, except the property tax.

In 1959 in the House it was the "Young Turks" or so they were named who fought for state tax revision. Democrats sought the income tax and Republicans denounced it. State Senator Carlton Morris of Kalamazoo torpedoed the bill in the senate after house passage and ran an aborted campaign for governor as the man who torpedoed the state income tax.

Conlin, George W. Sallade of Ann Arbor and Russell Strange of Clare were the leaders for tax reform. All are missing from the house scene in 1969.

Later Republicans sought the tax against Democratic opposition. With George Romney at the helm of the ship of state affairs, it was passed. While tax reform was never truly forthcoming through the Romney years, some hints of it have.

One hint of continued crusading for the woes of the "little taxpayer" comes in the person of Rep. Roy Smith (R) of Ypsilanti. Smith first sought revision on the house floor. But, the House being political in aspect, decided to abandon his cause there and take to the public petition route.

State Sen. Gilbert Bursley concurred with Smith's motive last Friday when questioned concerning the issue. A stumbling block to a certified effort on behalf of Smith and those in his camp would be to change the wording of the amendment thus changing the meaning. A second proposal might be offered and thus offset the efforts of the tax reform backers of the Fair Share Program. Smith felt that a second issue would have confused the voters and been a mark of condemnation on his project.

In essence Smith's proposal which he hopes to submit to the voters of Michigan is one that would remove operational millage from the property tax and place it entirely on the shoulders of the income tax. At present the largest share of monies going for operational, building, equipment and site funds for education come from the property owner.

While by law a certain percentage of the state income tax automatically go to state aid to public instruction, the income is relatively low and does not meet the increasing demands placed upon school districts.

The present constitutional amendment calls for a maximum millage of 15 mills unless voted upon by the people who could in turn up the millage take to 18. In Lenawee county last November a fixed millage proposal passed. With Smith's proposed amendment this would be done away with.

Maximum millage under the revision of Article 9, Sec. 6 would call for a straight millage ceiling 10. Eight maximum for county coffers and 2 maximum for townships. At present the county received 5.7 mills, the townships 1.0 mills for operational expenses.

The county could ask for an additional 3.3 mills if they wished, for capital outlay. This could be done without a vote of the people. Would it? That question is highly unanswerable and yet considering aggregation being brought against county government of late, through mental health and other issues, the county would no doubt seek and get the additional millage.

The rosy part of the plan lies exclusively with the property owner. The dark side of the educational moon project comes with the 2.4% increase in the state income tax.

Smith, along with the other quixotic searchers for answers to the state tax woes, feel that the ones who use public educational facilities are not contributing their fair share to the upkeep of the vital programs.

Apartment dwellers, mobile home parks and other rentals do not contribute funds for the schools, with the exception of the proportion gained through the income tax.

With Smith's reform all would contribute on a fair share basis, earnings as well as owned property.

Often a barb in the sides of tax experts and one of Bill Conlin's favorite themes was that small businesses were being crippled by the heavy burden placed upon them — they paid whether or not they made a profit for the tax year.

Municipalities would still be permitted to levy property taxes within their charter limits, reduced under the Smith Plan, from 50 to 25. Smith feels that this is a fair and necessary part of his plan, due to the fact that only property owners vote upon the issues to bond the district for building or site purchases.

Smith strongly emphasized that the program would deal solely with the financing of education and would have no effect, in either direction, on the question of local control of school boards. The reformers also feel that by permitting administrative and school board members to concentrate more on aspects of education other than financial matters, it should heighten both their effectiveness and their authority.

The petitions will be printed this week and Smith hopes to have them out before the public soon.

Give Glasses To the Needy

A group of housewives in Short Hills, N. J., are once again volunteering their services for "New Eyes for the Needy." Of the 883,835 pair received last year, one included a note scrawled in the hand of a child.

"These glasses were my grammy's, maybe someone else's grammy can use them."

Glasses come into the organization from every state and from people of all ages. "New Eyes" was established to help those who had no one to help them.

Discarded glasses, broken jewelry and precious metal scrap can be mailed to New Eyes for the Needy, Short Hills, N. J. 07078.

Local Pythians Host Convention

Pythian Sisters of Michigan District 6 held their annual convention April 9 at the IOOF Hall, Tecumseh. Josephine H. Hall Temple 49, hosted the event attended by 92 persons.

The temples represented were: Minnehaha Temple, Tipton; Riverside Temple, Dundee; Ann Arbor Temple, Ann Arbor; Huron Temple, Ypsilanti.

Among the grand officers present was Mrs. Lyle Whelan, grand guard and district deputy of District 6.

The Rebekahs served the luncheon at tables colorfully decorated in yellow, white, red and blue, centered with lilies and hydrangea plants.

Yeh! Yeh! Is Saline Battle Cry

"The Radicals", a Tecumseh teen band, and "The U. S. Steal" group from Clinton have entered the Battle of the Bands competition sponsored by the Saline Jaycees April 19.

The "Battle" will begin at 8 p.m. at the Ann Arbor A-GO-GO (Farm Council Building) at the corner of Saline Ann Arbor Rd. and Pleasant Lake Rd.

Bill Humphries is the leader of "The Radicals" and plays the lead guitar; Ken Humphries, drum; Dale Beagle, organ; and Don Burwell, bass viol.

The 15 and 16-year-old musicians are experienced, having played at several Teen Clubs recently at Morenci and also at after-game dances both here and in Blissfield.

They have written two songs and set them to music, "Hollow Skies" and "The Reason Why", hoping to have them published soon.

Clinton's "U. S. Steal" combo is composed of Carl Anderson, organ; Bill Goble, drums; Tim Merritt, bass guitar; Warren Merritt, rhythm guitar; Tracy Vogel, lead guitar and vocalist.

Mrs. Roy Richards, mother of Tim and Warren, noted that the five boys have been playing together since sand pile days — and they're still at it.

The group entertains frequently at teen dances and was a feature in the recent Band Follies, "And the Beat Goes On", at Clinton High School.

Winners of the Saline Battle of the Bands will have an opportunity to compete in State competition, with an ultimate national contest as a possibility.

Lady's A Charmer Thru 100 Years

Many things happen over the period of 100 years. During the past century the changes have been phenomenal to the world around the average person. On April 22 Mrs. Lena Poucher celebrates the anniversary of her birth in 1869, four years after the conclusion of the Civil War.

Mrs. Poucher has lived in the area all of her life. She met and went to school with Bert Poucher at the old Pink School on M-50 and Carson Rd. They were married Oct. 30, 1888. They moved to a farm east of Tecumseh for a while but eventually found their way back to the Poucher farm on M-50. They moved back 73 years ago.

Mrs. Poucher's husband, Bert, died in 1942. Since then she has been making her home with her daughter, Mrs. Marie Listman. She has another child, a son, Bernard Poucher, who lives in Clinton.

Mrs. Poucher remained active up until a few years ago. She has been confined to her home for six years unable to carry on quite as active a life as she had been accustomed to.

According to her grandson, Clayton Greenwald, she is a slight woman and yet when she laid down the law, in spite of Clayton being larger in stature than Mrs. Poucher, he obeyed without another word.

Life for a woman before the turn of the century was not an easy one and yet somehow the slim frailty of the women were maintained. She was always conscious of her weight.

Mrs. Poucher now has many in her family that began nearly 80 years ago. They will all gather around the lady who will be 100 years young Tuesday. Among them will be 12 grandchildren, 6 great-grandchildren, four great-great-grandchildren. They will gather at the home of her daughter where it is hoped five generations will be present.

It is hard to imagine, for someone younger, just how much transistory beauty and changes have passed before Mrs. Poucher's eyes and from her grandson and daughter, there was probably little that she missed.

HS Millage Is Excluded in June Vote

Voters in the Tecumseh School District will be faced with four proposals on the June 9th ballot — but not with millage for a new high school.

Monday evening, the School Board approved a resolution for the election of two board members, 7 mill for the library, and a renewal of existing operational millage. A special education request by the county amounts to one mill.

Officials, due to no decision yet from the state legislators, are not sure of what to seek from the district for a new high school. It could amount to 10.6 mills, or 7 mills, of which 5.38 would be new. Legislative action on a pending bill will decide.

An election later in the summer for the high school is likely.

With negotiations still taking place with the Tecumseh Education Association and other school groups, and without knowing what the district's total evaluation will be until late this week or next, the Board delayed any action as to renewal of the current operation millage.

If there is no change, the schools will be seeking a renewal of 14 mills. Officials were noncommittal as to whether an increase is anticipated.

Board posts up for grabs in June include a four-year term and a one-year term. Dr. Fred Freeman has indicated that he will seek another four years on the Board, and William Macbeth, who succeeded the late Orville Bishop, is expected to run for a one-year term.

Petitions, requiring 20 eligible signatures, are now available at the Board of Education office on W. Chicago Blvd. They must be filed there not later than May 12.

BIG TCC CHANGE — Allie Luckhardt, manager of the Tecumseh Country Club, inspects the progress of work now underway on the front porch of the club house. Two new entries are being constructed plus some interior remodeling by Cheever and Benedict, local builders. Other progress at the Club includes a watering system for six fairways and seven greens.

Local Board Is Opposing Land Change

Tecumseh School Board agreed Monday night to oppose the transfer of approximately 325 acres from its district to the Britton-Macon School District.

Leland Bush & Sons and Raymond Martaloch have sought a transfer of their property. In a notice about the request, no reason is given for seeking the transfer.

A special session of the Lenawee County Board of Education will be held on May 5, in regards to the transfer.

Supt. James McDowell and Assistant Supt. Robert Duhan, along with several members of the Board, will attend the meeting and object to the transfer.

The Bush property amounts to over 320 acres of the 325 total.

Lady Suspected In False Alarm

Folks who purposely turn in false alarms to the fire department face stiff penalties — up to $500 fine and up to one year in jail.

Recently, a false alarm on S. Union St. was turned in by a lady. Police and Fire Chief Wallace MacGeorge have a suspect but no admission.

Tracing a caller is accomplished through a recording device at the department, which is used every time a fire call comes in.

Swimming Costs Are Increased

Cost of swimming at the city pool and at Tecumseh Park will be slightly higher this summer for youngsters.

Parks and Recreation Board has raised the daily rate from 25c to 30c at the pool, and from 35c to 45c at the Park. Family season passes were increased from $25 to $30.

Cost of swimming lessons will remain the same at $5 per session, or $4 if more than one child is taking lessons at the same session.

Country Club Remodels

Two new front entrances and considerable interior remodeling is underway at the Tecumseh Country Club. It marks the second construction program there in the past year.

The addition of the new entrances will enable the Club to eliminate the center doorway and the necessity of a portable enclosure during the winter months.

Present work by Cheever and Benedict Builders, is estimated to cost $8,500. Interior work includes relocating offices, cloak room and storage areas. Completion is expected by mid-May, according to Allie Luckhardt, club manager.

Other work at the Club includes a new watering system for six greens and fairways plus the putting green. Over a mile of plastic pipe has been installed, and all of the greens have been encircled with pop-up sprinkler heads.

The putting green sprinkling system will be on a timer system, first in Lenawee County.

Rick Moran, grounds superintendent, supervised the installation and plans on completing the project within the next few days, weather permitting. The golf course project will cost about $5,000.

Since last fall, the Club has built five new tees, and in three cases has lengthened the yardage on those particular holes.

A year ago a new and enlarged golfers bar and dining room was added.

Doctors Look at Tecumseh

Efforts by Herrick Memorial Hospital and doctors is believed to be paying off in their search for more physicians here to curb our doctor shortage.

Two doctors already have been in the community for an inspection of medical facilities and the community, another was scheduled for a visit Wednesday, and a number of others have contacted authorities here and expressed interest.

One concern of local officials has been lack of office space for a new physician. At the present none is available in Tecumseh, and visiting doctors have expressed some concern in where they would establish their new practices.

Members of a committee heading a search for new physicians are Dr. Larry Burch, William Groover, hospital administrator, and William Holmes, owner of Holmes Pharmacy.

Members of the Hospital Auxiliary have mailed thousands of brochures and leaflets about Tecumseh to doctors in other areas.

Accident Rate Jumps to 11

Tecumseh's low accident rate tumbled sharply here the past week when 11 mishaps were investigated by local police. Several motorists suffered injuries, but none serious.

A passenger in the Wilcox auto, Judy Covell, 17, Murray Dr., sought her own treatment for injuries. Accident occurred on Adrian St.

April 16 — James E. Duncan, 25, of 123 S. Ottawa, was charged with failure to yield the right of way after an accident with Elaine L. Ricker, 21, Palmyra, in the intersection of S. Maumee and E. Kilbuck. Both drivers suffered minor injuries.

April 17 — Eugene F. Kryzaniak, 46, Manchester, collided with Victoria E. Travis, 23, Adrian, when he made a left turn into a parking lot on S. Ottawa St.

City Income Tax Plan Is Before Councilmen

After Council adjourned its regular session Monday evening, officials took up the proposed $1 million budget and possibility of adopting a city income tax for Tecumseh.

In a statement for Councilmen, City Manager Cal Zorn outlined briefly an income tax for the city and what it could accomplish for the community.

The income tax, based on annual earnings, would be 1% for residents and ½% for non-residents. Such a tax would boost city revenue between 15% and 20% compared to what 5 mills on property would bring.

In his statement, Mr. Zorn said, "I believe it is time that most municipalities will have to look to other sources than the property tax for its income."

"With the continual erosion of the local tax base by more and more exemptions, I can see no alternative for local government than to go for income taxes, which many communities have done."

Tecumseh's city manager, along with Clifford Miles, Adrian administrator, recently investigated the advantages and disadvantages of the income tax at Lapeer, a community which had a population of 6,100 in 1960.

"From information available, I believe that the residents of Tecumseh could realize a substantial reduction in the city millage if we were to pass an income tax ordinance," Mr. Zorn stated.

His report to Council listed what the income tax could do:

- Retirees could save money.
- Low income families could save money.
- An income tax, taxed on earning ability, is the fairest form of taxation.
- Property taxes could be reduced 5 mills.
- Income tax would require non-residents who work in the city to help pay for the services they use daily.

A large proportion of additional revenues could come from non-residents.

The income tax undoubtedly will be discussed at length in future Council meetings, and certainly at the budget's public hearing on May 12. If Council approves it, the proposal would go before the local electorate, probably next fall.

Mr. Zorn says Lapeer officials report their income tax as very successful. The community has prospered, industry expanded, and only one high income party moved outside the city limits — and he had planned such a move prior to the tax adoption.

Lapeer is collecting city revenue annually at the rate of $26 to $28 per capita. If the same rate persisted here, Tecumseh would collect approximately $185,000.

Since five mills represents about $150,000, the income tax — and including that from non-residents — would boost the local coffers about $30,000 annually.

In his prediction of a 15% to 20% increase in revenue, Mr. Zorn used what may be a conservative figure of $25 per capita. This comparison would be $175,000 to $150,000. Administrative costs, two persons as required in Lapeer, would reduce the net probably in the neighborhood of $12,000.

If a tax department were established here as in Lapeer, only three persons would have access to the records and to the earnings of residents. Such records are considered confidential, and any disclosures of figures incurs a severe penalty, according to Mr. Zorn.

A piggy back plan has been approved by the state whereby the state would collect city income taxes for communities involved. Implementation of this plan has not been passed, however.

Local persons here who would benefit greatly are those with fixed incomes, mainly older persons on social security and pension plans. Some folks would find little difference, while those with incomes of $20,000 to $70,000 and more would pay considerably more.

Local industrial plants and others would use the payroll deduction system, similar to the state and federal deduction plans. Payments to the city could be made weekly, monthly, quarterly and annually.

Samples of Lapeer income tax forms include those for residents who work in other communities. They would receive the proper forms and expected to remit their share. This would include forwarding a W-2 form, provided by employers in January of each year, to the city each year.

How Tecumseh City Income Tax Could Affect the Home Owner

These figures, compiled by city officials, show how a city income tax would work in comparison to a drop of five mills of property tax. If an income tax were adopted, figures in bold face would indicate a savings to the home owner. Those in light face indicate an increase.

The table is based on a family of four. For each dependent in excess of four, the city income tax would be reduced by $6.00. For each dependent less than four, the income tax would increase by $6.00.

Annual Income	Assessed Property Value $6,000	Assessed Property Value $8,000	Assessed Property Value $10,000	Assessed Property Value $12,000

State Police Will Inspect for 'Safety'

Tecumseh may well have another first during Michigan Week next month, when State Police and officers from the local department will conduct the annual "safety-check" of vehicles here.

State officials have urged the city and Rotary Club, sponsoring organization, to obtain the services of the State Police and have promised their cooperation. They have indicated that a request to Col. Frederick Davis, head of the state's law enforcement department, is all that is necessary to have State Police here for inspections.

This could well mean that passing motorists, as well as local motorists, could be flagged down by the police and have their vehicles legally inspected by state standards.

State Police have been known to set up inspection stations throughout the state, stopping cars and trucks on the main highways for safety inspections.

Urging Rotarians here recently to complete their plans for the annual safety - check were Stanley Johnson, auto industry committeeman; Gerald Shipman, executive secretary of the Michigan Safety Committee; and Lt. Matt Hrebec, chief inspector of the Michigan State Police.

In the past, Tecumseh has dominated safety-check recognition, including parades and contests, for cities of its size. Both state and national honors have been won.

Local members on the Safety Committee who attended a recent meeting include Mayor Easton, City Manager Cal Zorn, Clayton Greenwald, president of Rotary, Hugh Walter, L. L. Simmons, and Charles O. Butler, chairman of the event since its inception here.

Festivities will also include a parade, queen and king contest, art contests, and a banquet.

Tecumseh officials will exchange visits next month with Three Rivers.

Must Retire at Age 65?

According to city ordinance, when an employee reaches the age of 65, he or she must retire.

This ordinance is posing a problem with Council which was asked Monday night for a waiver of the statute to let Merrill Murphy continue as sexton of the cemetery.

He will be 65 in June, and the Cemetery Board of Mel Partridge, Neal Depuy and Fred Dickinson appealed to Councilmen to relax the ordinance and let him continue until the age of 68.

Strongest argument for continuing his employment after retirement age was his outstanding work at the cemetery. Both Council and the Board agreed that Mr. Murphy was exceptional, and the Board pointed out that he will be extremely difficult to replace.

Councilmen also pointed out to the Board that although the sexton has been exceptional, the ordinance for retirement age 65 is on the books, and, what is done for one must be done for all.

Officials tabled any action on the Boards request to the next Council session on May 5.

Mr. Partridge told Councilmen that the cemetery lots had been increased in price from $50 to $60 per grave, effective April 1. He said the cost per grave is less than any other cemetery with the exception of Ridgeway.

Jaycee Auction

Tecumseh Jaycees will hold a household auction this Saturday afternoon at Meyers Airport with proceeds for civic projects and youth activities.

Schools Need Instructors, More Funds

Driver education instruction by the local schools has posed a problem with the School Board — and members still do not have the answer.

Officials know of a backlog of students who want to take instruction but there simply is not enough money and not enough instructors.

Supt. James McDowell reports four instructors are available and the schools could use a total of eight to handle the number of youngsters waiting for instruction.

Help has been sought from the state for additional funds without any results. The state has suggested a remote-control type system for cars, which would not only be costly to implement but one which may be ruled unacceptable in the near future.

James Kane, local citizen, discussed the problem with the Board Monday evening.

Others Changing — But Not Us

Nearly 200 million people in the United States will be setting their clocks back an hour this weekend — but not the folks in Michigan, the only state on the continent to reject the daylight savings time proposal last November.

Folks making phone calls and visits to other areas should keep in mind the time difference. For example, Toledo and other Ohio communities, and even Windsor, just across from Detroit, will be an hour behind us.

Area Artists Exhibit

By BILL SANFORD

Tecumseh artist, Russell Steinke, is one of six artists invited to exhibits works in the first of a series of exhibitions of the Lenawee Fine Arts Association to feature local artists. The exhibit opened Tuesday and will run through May 4 at the Little Gallery at Siena Heights College.

Steinke displayed works done over the past few years. Some are from private homes and others from his own collection of work. Steinke characterizes his work as that of a pure realist. He doesn't feel that he can improve on nature. He has studied at the University of Michigan and at the Art Students League of New York City for three years. The head of an old man was the best work at the exhibit. It displayed Steinke's talent in drawing.

At a preview showing for members of the association last Sunday, the most controversial artist on view was Thomas Burke, instructor in art at Siena Heights College.

Burke stated that he tries to project the pain and frustrations of humanity through the use of symbols both recognizable and unrecognizable in his pieces of art. Though original in symbolism, the works seemed closely influenced by German artist, Kathe Kollwitz.

Thomas Thiery of Onsted is another of those invited to the show. Thiery's water colors present a degree of the temperamental contrast of Burke and Thiery and other artists in the show. In a statement of his objectivity in his paintings, Theiry said that through his work he tried to bring out the good, the natural, the overlooked part of our environment that the average person caught up in the "rat race" has forgotten to appreciate. Artists must have eyes for the people, in his contention as an artist.

Sister M. Jeannine, chairman of the Art Department of Siena, was another of the artists displayed at the show. Her statement of her craft was, "Art is a series of discoveries with one discovery leading to another." She holds a doctoral degree from the Fine and [illegible] Art Departments of Columbia University.

She is a fine craftsman in her field with great multiplicity and variety in her work.

An enamel of the Last Supper was one of the highlights of the exhibit.

Jacques Egan of Adrian states, "Each painting is a new experience, and as such every painting must be treated personally individually. Expressionism is really the best style for me because it is free of most academic rules of painting so that I can create without following conventional rules. Expressionism is individual, it is not abstract nor is it purely realistic."

Raku, was exhibited by Sister Mary Celeste of Siena's art staff. "Raku is more than a technique and procedure, a direction for the Western Potter. For me it is a way of stressing simplicity of form economy of line and softness of color, a projection of light and space, a created thing," sister Celeste said.

The overall exhibit is well worth attending to view the works of the local artists. A wide range of artistic tastes are presented, from the realism of Steinke to the eccentric style of Burke, to the sentimental, moody works of Thiery, the strong, spiritual influence of Sister M. Jeannine, the bold versatility of Egan and the Raku of Sister Celeste Mary.

The Little Gallery will be open to the public Sunday, Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday afternoons, from 1-5 p.m. Evenings Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday from 7-9 p.m.

You Told Us

By DOROTHY GRIGG

"I give my pledge as an American to save and faithfully to defend from waste the natural resources of my country — its soil and minerals, its forests, waters and wildlife."

The Conservation pledge is an appropriate thought for readers this week in recognition of Arbor Week, April 20 - 27, here in Michigan. Requests for 23,000 trees and 5,000 shrubs have been received by the Lenawee Soil Conservation District for planting.

Arbor Day is designated by law in every state of this nation. It was conceived by a Michigan man, J. Sterling Morton, who received his early education in Monroe and was graduated from the U of M in 1854. Now rather than a single ceremonial planting, many thousands of trees and shrubs are being planted by individual schools.

Along with these and thoughts of helping to pick up the rubbish that spoils the spring garb of Mother Nature, I like to think about this, too.

"Let there be peace on earth and let it begin with me."

Hike on the "Faraway Trail"

Twenty-six Boy Scouts and four leaders of Troop 73 hiked the "Faraway Trail" this past weekend. They left the Scout Cabin by car Friday at 6 p.m. for Wauseon, O., and camped overnight at the Fair Grounds in cold heavy rainy weather.

Saturday morning all the boys and leaders started the 15.3 mile hike in snow and strong winds entering State Route 108 to County Road L (old Coach Road) over which passed the early mail stage coaches.

This they followed to historic Winameg. At Winameg on the northwest corner of the intersection stood the trading post out of which Col. Howard traded with the Indians in the 1820's.

Turning south they passed down the sand ridge on which stood old Chief Winameg's village. At the south end of the ridge were rows of maples planted by Col. Howard more than a century ago.

It is in this area that the Indian mounds were located. The Howard home stands up on the ridge.

Chief Winameg lies in an unmarked grave in the near vicinity and Col. Howard and his wife, Mary, on the hillside.

They passed a marker on the grave as they left the road and go south across Bad Creek on Beaver Dam Bridge.

At the intersection of County Road K and 11 was the site of the Camp of Chief Ottohee, older brother of Chief Wauseon. This settlement was the first seat of government of Fulton County.

From this point the scouts hiked back to their campsite for supper and arrived back in Tecumseh at 7 p.m. Saturday.

Al Merz, Ronald McKeever and Royal Welch helped with the transportation.

Received In Membership

Sunday, April 13, six members of the Young Peoples' Communicant Class of the First Presbyterian Church were received into membership of the church with the Rev. Raymon Bair, interim minister, officiating.

This public confession of faith on the communicant's part followed a seven-month study of Biblical and historical development of the Christian faith; the faith of the United Presbyterian Church; and what personal faith entails.

Included in the course of study were visits to a number of area churches and talks with the different ministers to learn of their beliefs and methods of worship.

The young people who joined the church were David Henning, Linda Hughes, Pamela Jacoby, John Merz, Beverly Robison and Mark Slagh.

Having previously appeared before session and accepted into membership of the church by that ruling body, the communicants were able to participate in the sacrament of the Lord's Supper celebrated on the same date.

The new members were welcomed into the church by members present at a coffee hour in the fellowship center following the worship service.

TO THE EDITOR:

Since Jan. 1, 1969, the Lenawee County Dog Warden has been called to Clinton many times on complaints about large numbers of stray dogs. Mr. Mitchell spends an average of 8 to 10 hours a day checking out complaints that come into the Sheriffs office.

His is a job that many people think an unpleasant and thankless one. Mr. Mitchell does not feel it is all unpleasant. He takes his job seriously, and feels it is an important contribution to society. He also knows the pleasant side: when people take the time to thank him for the return of their lost dogs, or when he has found a home for strays, or when he has protected the lives of their children.

Yes, there is an unpleasant side, such as having to put dogs to sleep, shooting them when they are destroying livestock or endangering the lives of children, and disposing of them at the tankage plant.

No, he cannot find a home for all the dogs he picks up; some are wild or half wild, starved, ugly, old. Many have been killing cattle and sheep, have been hit by a car, or are already dead. These are picked up and disposed of by Mr. Mitchell when he receives a call about them.

Dogs reproduce rapidly even when no humans care or feed them and they quickly revert to a wild condition, becoming hunters and scavengers, killing livestock and pets. Then you, the taxpayer, pays the bill for the damage they do. If the dog doing the damage is licensed, the owner must pay the bill. Wild dogs become outlaws, and the dog warden is called to hunt them down. Dogs living in a wild state do not respect humans, will attack when cornered, or someone is just trying to be nice to them. These dogs have been known to attack and even kill children. Many dogs dumped in the country revert to the wild state, as do their offspring.

During the mating season, one loose female dog can collect a huge number of male dogs, who roam the streets and roads for days at a time. Where do these dogs eat: from your garbage can? or that at a school or restaurant, or even your own pet's dish. This creates a terrible public health menace.

Mr. Mitchell makes a special trip to East Lansing to the Health Laboratories with the remains of dogs or wild animals suspected of having rabies. Living dogs are confined at a Vet's for 10 days. If the owner of the dog is known, he pays the bill. Most of the owners are unknown, and the taxpayers pick up the bill.

What happens to the stray dog that has puppies under the porch? Mr. Mitchell puts them to sleep painlessly, and on the occasions when the dogs are dangerous and cannot be caught, they are shot. The cost of cattle claims and the various duties of the Dog Warden amounts to more than the amount recently asked to start a Mental Health Clinic. Certainly a high price to pay for the lack of responsibility of thoughtless pet owners.

The dog warden sells all of the kennel licenses, and does all the paper work on stock claims, traveling an average of 125 miles per day, sometimes more, checking all dog calls as they come in.

You might be interested in the dog warden as an individual. (He's really a nice guy — I'm his wife, I know!) He is a fine husband and father, a lifetime pet lover, having four dogs, six cats, hamsters, rabbits, and 13 horses and ponies. He is a 4-H leader and adult advisor, a church member, a Kiwanian, and a member of the Sheriff's posse. He is a farmer, a taxpayer, a volunteer fireman, and a member of the Board of Directors of several local and state organizations.

He has done his job conscientiously, and intends to continue, hopefully with your cooperation and consideration.

Sincerely,
Mrs. Dottie Mitchell,
6502 Mitchell Rd.,
Palmyra, Mich.

Sheriff Richard Germond
Lenawee County Sheriff's Department
Adrian, Michigan
Dear Sheriff Germond:

This is in regard to the letters that were written in the Clinton Local by Mr. Farley and the one in The Tecumseh Herald by Mr. Sanford, entitled, "What to do about Charlie".

The Principal of the Clinton School called the Sheriffs Department about a pack of DOGS at the school and as they had not heard from the Dog Warden the following day, they called the State Police, who in turn called the Sheriff's Department. Mr. Mitchell was only doing his duty.

Last August the little two and a half year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Rochowiak of 205 Clark St., Clinton, was bitten in the face by a dog, and as a result had to have FIFTY stitches and FOURTEEN Rabies Shots, which were very painful; besides being scarred for life.

Did Mr. Farley, Mr. Sanford, or Mrs. Albert Caesar do anything to help the little Rochowiak boy?

The same thing could happen again or even worse to some innocent child. Children think all dogs are nice pets. The dogs should be either tied up, in a kennel, or in a fenced-in area. Then, children will not be bitten and have to go through the pain of Rabie Shots. I have a little 5 year old Granddaughter who is in Kindergarten. She has had to be taken to school quite a few times because of packs of dogs on the street. We all know that one dog will not cause any trouble, but when two or more get together anything can happen.

I have talked to several people in Clinton and they are in favor of Mr. Mitchell making regular trips to Clinton to keep the dog packs under control. I have not seen a pack of dogs, as Mr. Farley said since "D" day (Dog Day) in Clinton.

Gentlemen, I am sending a copy of this letter to Mr. Farley, Mr. Sanford and Mrs. Caesar. I hope they will try to get everyone to take care of their dogs so that some other innocent child will not be bitten. If everyone will cooperate, we will not have to have another "D" day in Clinton. Let's not blame the Dog Warden, Mr. Mitchell. He was only doing the job for which he was hired. Let's blame the people for not keeping the dogs confined to their own homes.

Your very truly,
Fred R. Geiger.

TO THE EDITOR:

Clinton homeowners and school authorities have been plagued for a year by packs of wild dogs, unlicensed, and unsupervised, which have been plaguing its citizens and terrorizing its children. Mr. Mitchell, the dog warden, was called recently when children were not able to proceed safely from school buses across the playground. The law states that in cases such as these the dog warden must dispose of the animals.

It seems strange that a newspaper would raise a hue and cry about the destruction of animals that were a menace to the safety of children then proceed to attack and publicly censor a fine man who was merely carrying out his duties, unpleasant as they were.

An individual's good name is his finest possession. The Mitchell name is highly respected in this area because those who bear it have contributed great service to its citizens, Mr. Jim Mitchell as Raisin Township Supervisor, and Charles Mitchell, as an outstanding human being, and leader in many worthwhile civic organizations.

I feel you have done him and his family a great disservice by your recent editorials and news stories. You ask, "What do we do about Charlie?" For a start, apologizing.

Sincerely,
Virginia Murray.

(Editors Note: We don't believe that dogs should be shot from a vehicle, and we dislike closed door sessions, especially after conflicting stories from involved parties. Sheriff Germond admitted the dog warden used "bad judgment.")

Planner Resigns

Dr. Carlos Knisely, new Council member, submitted his resignation from the Planning Commission to Council Monday evening. His replacement was not discussed and no appointment was made to the Commission.

Golfers Lead League

The Tecumseh High School golf team began the 1969 season last week in defense of the Huron League championship. The Indians, who ran away with the title crown last year, are expected to be strong contenders again in this season.

Four veteran golfers form the nucleus of the squad. These include: Bill Holmes, a senior with three years of varsity experience; John Bryan, a senior who has lettered for the past two years; Ralph Miller, a junior with one varsity letter to his credit; and Frank Geisenhaver, a sophomore who also is a letterman of last year. Strong, supporting strength is provided by Bill Gibson, a junior who lettered last season, Steve Dalton, senior; Bill Damon, ujnior; and Bob Miller, junior; who all are playing their first year of varsity golf.

In their opening match at the Country Club Monday, Tecumseh soundly defeated Airport, 162-198, in a 9-hole contest, but lost a heart-breaker to Ann Arbor Huron by one stroke, 329-330, in an 18-hole affair. A four-stroke penalty to one member for exceeding the legal club limit, proved to be costly to the team in the Huron match. Bill Holmes led the Indians with 41-40—81, Frank Geisenhaver shot 46-36—82, Bryan had 38-45—83, and Ralph Miller added 43-41—84.

At a windy Woodlawn course Wednesday, Tecumseh whipped Blissfield, 151-180. The 151 total achieved by Tecumseh is the best 9-hole score shot by an Indian team in recent years. Holmes was medalist with a one-over par 36, as Bryan carded a 37, and Geisenhaver and Miller contributed 39's.

In the rain and high winds last Monday at the Country Club, Tecumseh bowed in a close match to Adrian, 168-171, but came back and humiliated Gibraltar Carlson, 171-238. The inclement weather, which caused tree limbs to crack and fly across the course, was also a factor in the higher scoring. Geisenhaver posted a 41 for the Indians, as Miller and Bill Gibson had 43's, with Bryan at 44.

Tecumseh's record is a perfect 3-0 in the Huron League and is 3-2 overall.

Walks In House Home From War

S/Sgt. William J. Starkey surprised his wife and family when he walked in the house Tuesday evening after spending the last year in Vietnam. Mrs. Starkey and daughter, Fayette, have been living with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Whelan, this past year.

After a short visit here, Sgt. Starkey will report to Charlestown, Me., where the Starkeys will be living.

Tigers, Birds Shown on Film

Pre-pennant excitement was relived by 72 Presbyterian men and boys at the annual Father and Son Banquet, April 17, sponsored by the Mens Council of the church.

"World Series Highlights", a 16 mm color sound film, obtained through the Tiger Baseball Company, was shown following a Swiss steak dinner prepared and served by the Women's Association under the chairmanship of Mrs. Paul Henning.

The tables were decorated in Tiger orange and blue. Centerpieces, made by Mrs. Carlton Cook, featured styrofoam baseballs with a Tiger pennant flying from each one. The speakers' table featured a miniature ball and mitt with a background of palm leaves.

The boys and their dads each received a color photo of the "Tigers", a '69 schedule of games, a newsletter from the Detroit Baseball Club and a Detroit Tiger souvenir pencil.

These were all picked up at Tiger Stadium by Mrs. Lloyd Slagh when she and her family cheered the Tigers to their 12-3 victory over Cleveland.

Mrs. Lee Purkey was chairman of the kitchen committee and Mrs. Kenneth McElroy was chairman of the dining room committee.

Weekend Guests

Weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Lover were his brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. William Lover and son, John. William Lover will go to Vietnam the end of the month for a year.

Also weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Lover were Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Cullen of Gambier, O.

Conference

The third annual Missionary Conference will be held at the Grace Bible Church April 23-27.

Missionaries Robert Evans and Leonard Swihart serving under International Missions, Inc., Wayne, N. J., will be participating in the conference. Mr. Evans has been serving since 1958 in Mindanao, Philippines. Mr. Swihart has been working in Iran since 1963.

Services will be at 7:30 each evening and at 10 and 11 a.m. Sunday. Saturday evening there will be a fellowship supper at 6:30.

The church is located at M-50 and Carson Highway. The Rev. David M. Holly, pastor, invites the public to attend.

Cleary Grads Are Honored

The Lenawee County Person-Directors' Association held their monthly dinner and meeting at the Tecumseh Country Club April 17.

They were host to Cleary College "Graduation Ceremonies" in honor of the four recent graduates, all from Fisher Body Plant in Tecumseh.

Ron Robson, director of Special Services at Cleary College, presented certificates and gave a brief history of the school, and the role it has been playing toward industry.

Thomas H. Allor, Franklin N. Davis, Glen E. Davis, Jr., and Gary J. Hanna were the recipients of the awards.

President Hugh Fowler closed the meeting.

Suffragan Bishop Confirms Classes

Fifteen persons, adults and young people, received the sacrament of Confirmation at the laying-on-of-hands by the Rt. Rev. Archie H. Crowley, Suffragan Bishop of Michigan, April 20, at St. Peter's Episcopal Church.

Members of the class were from four parishes, Holy Cross, Saline; St. John's Church, Clinton, St. Aidan's Mission, Ann Arbor and St. Peter's Church.

Those confirmed were: Lawrence Bird, Michael Corley, John Getz, Joan and Jeffrey Green, David Keeney, James Manley, Robert Prettyman, Laurie and Teresa Royal, Edna Sager, Michael Westfall, Sharon Pulsipher, Melodie Ann Grinnell and Helen Kash.

Plymouth Scores Most Points in Three Tests

A Plymouth Fury I scored the highest number of points of all 60 cars that competed in fuel economy, acceleration and braking tests of the Union/Pure Oil Performance Trials at Daytona Beach, Fla.

The Plymouth Fury, competing in Class V for cars equipped with standard V-8 engines, scored a total of 98 performance points out of a possible 100.

Two other Plymouth entries finished first in their respective

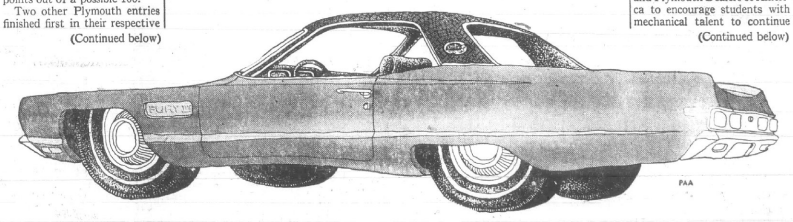
Announcing a special new Plymouth.



At a special low price.

Everyone says special, but we really mean it. Snapper's a new limited edition car like Plymouth has never made before. It'll shield you from weather's whims under a groovy turtle-shell vinyl top and carry you in a metallic muted-gold body. It has a "camp" Snapper emblem, like the one in the middle, on each roof pillar. An extended roofline that lets your rear seat passengers actually lean back (over 3" extra head room). And, of course, many of the "special" features that most people want: deluxe vinyl interior, white sidewalls, deluxe wheel covers, bumper guards, and a kicky little time-delay ignition switch light, all at a special package price (again, we really mean special). Naturally, you can personalize a Snapper even more, with everything from a Super Commando 440 V-8 to air conditioning or 8-track stereo; just ask your dealer. As a limited edition model with your own personal options, Snapper is a truly individual vehicle. See one now, at your Plymouth Dealer.

classes, giving the Plymouth line of cars winners in three out of the nine classes of competition.

Other Plymouth winners were a Valiant Signet in Class VII for six-cylinder compact economy cars, and a Barracuda in Class IX for sports compacts.

The Union/Pure Oil Performance Trials, held under the supervision of the National Association for Stock Car Racing, compared the basic performance characteristics of American-made 1969 models which are in the popular price ranges.

The fuel economy tests measured a car's fuel consumption at an average speed of 40 miles per hour over a distance of 18,567 miles.

The acceleration tests measured the time it took a car to accelerate from 25 to 70 miles per hour.

The braking tests demonstrated the car's high-speed stopping capability immediately after severe brake usage.

The 60 stock cars competing in the tests were taken directly from dealers' showrooms throughout the country to provide a realistic comparison of various makes and models.

Wagon Air Deflector

The 1969 Plymouth Fury station wagon models have a new and efficient air deflector, mounted at the rear of the roof to divert air around and across the big rear window, significantly reducing vision obstruction. By blowing clean air over the window, the deflector prevents rain, dust and grit from accumulating

2,000 Teams of Students Competing in Plymouth's Trouble Shooting Contest

Teams of student mechanics from more than 2,000 high schools and colleges in every state of the Union will compete for $125,000 worth of prizes in the 21st annual Plymouth TroubleShooting Contest.

The contest is sponsored by the Chrysler-Plymouth Division of Chrysler Motors Corporation and Plymouth Dealers of America to encourage students with mechanical talent to continue their education and pursue careers in the growing automotive service business.

The winning two-man team at each of the 100 regional and state contests being held this spring will compete for $125,000 worth of scholarships, prizes, trophies and automotive equipment for their schools at the National Finals at the Indianapolis 500 Speedway in mid-June.

Winners at local and national contests are chosen by the speed and skill with which they find and fix malfunctions under the hood of a new Plymouth and restore the car to normal operating condition. All teams work on identical cars that have been deliberately tampered with in the same way.

Plymouth Dealers sponsor a two-man team from their local school and make a Plymouth car available to practice on. The teams from the 2,000 participating schools, which have a combined enrollment of 150,000 students taking automotive shop courses, are selected by school instructors.

The Plymouth Trouble Shooting Contest originated in Los Angeles in 1949. It was sponsored by Plymouth Dealers there who sought to recruit young men as mechanic trainees. The annual contest grew in size as educators gave it their support.

Since the contest became national in scope in 1962, scholarships have been awarded to 116 students and full or part-time jobs have been found for more than 15,000 young men.

Through My Window

A CHANGE OF MIND

I am about to make a retraction of all I said in last week's article. I went to great length explaining that just perhaps, maybe, someday I might possibly change my mind about the agony of waking up early. If enough fun things, if enough exciting happenings continued to come our way there was, I felt, a slight chance of me being converted and joining that happy group of early morning people. There was a good start in that direction — early mornings are pretty, some of the birds are nice and with rabbits, hawks, and muskrats showing up — well, things were promising.

Please note the "were". All has changed now. I'm completely disenchanted. This getting up with the birds bit is strictly for the birds — the miserable yellow-eyed black birds called grackles.

It happens this way. The black thieves are back from their winter's goofing off in the southland — they are back in full force, too. I'm sure it is not my imagination, I am sure there are more of the dumb black things than ever.

They are everywhere and no matter where one looks it is black, black, black. At least here where Logan Street meets Evans Creek we are blessed with hundreds of thousands of millions of billions of trillions of grackles!

DO I SOUND just the slightest bit unhappy? Well, I am. Grackles are far from being my favorite birds. Of course, to be perfectly truthful and in the cause of being a good sport, I must own up.

Grackles are not completely obnoxious and bad — almost, but not quite all. They are quite large birds and rather graceful in flight. Their black feathers have an iridescent quality which makes them glisten and shine in bright sunlight.

The heads of these birds are particularly striking, the proper light shows them as a deep lush purple. If they did not come in such huge flocks, if they were not so noisy, and if they did not have such unpleasant manners, grackles might not be too objectionable.

But they do, they are, and they have. And in addition to everything else, our yardful of grackles has, just lately, embarked upon the most diobolical plot. I am the innocent victim. I am also the helpless victim.

Somehow the birds know when I am sleeping, or trying to sleep. They concentrate their best efforts and "really go to work" early in the morning but the few minutes, from 12 noon to about 10 after, when I try to catch a fast 40 winks, is another rallying time.

THE CALL GOES out and from all over Southern Michigan grackles come pouring into the yard. They convene beneath my window and there, I am sure at a given signal, every last one of them starts sounding off. Oh, it is a charming sound, so soothing and restful.

My old standby, "Birds of America", does a perfect job of describing a grackles voice. They say that the first mistake that you imagine how not one but a whole host of these characters sound. Such croaking and raspy squeaking. Who could possibly sleep through such a din — and who could possibly enjoy being awakened by such a racket!

So it is that last week we entertained reactionary thoughts about the joy of becoming a happy, bright, and alert morning person but the grackles have taken care of all that. I am my grumpy old self again, and, as for even trying to be any different, I have had a sudden change of mind.

the bird makes is even trying to sing, then they continue. "His demonstration of his proficiency in the 'art divine' consists in drawing in his head turtle fashion, puffing out his body, ruffling up his feathers and then emitting a sort of asthmatic sneak which suggests the protest of a rusty hinge."

How absolutely right. And can

The home of the Myrle Lawheads in Britton was the setting for a quiet wedding April 16 when Mrs. Luella Hayford and Jesse Fuller were united in marriage in a double ring ceremony by the Rev. Duane McNeil.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawhead were the attendants and served supper in their home honoring the newlyweds.

Members of the Bethel Baptist Church congratulated the couple that evening, following the worship service and a decorated cake was featured in a fellowship time. The couple were presented two pictures, "Christ, the Shepherd" and "Christ at the Door."

The couple left Friday on a brief wedding trip.

Opera Singer Wins Western Regional

DAVID R. BORGESON

When the winner of the San Francisco Regional Auditions was announced April 11 in Portland, Ore., there were some happy Tecumseh people also.

In fact Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Damon, 5383 Macon Rd., were awakened by a midnight phone call informing them that their son-in-law, David R. Borgeson, was that winner.

Mr. Borgeson won the Portland Opera Guild Award and an invitation to attend the Merola Opera Program this summer in San Francisco.

On June 28 he will be one of 12 finalists from the Western United States who meet in San Francisco to compete for a $1,000 first prize, a chance for a public recital and a guaranteed contract with the Western Opera — San Francisco's traveling company. The finals will be held in the War Memorial Opera House before a capacity audience of 3,000. A panel of judges will evaluate the 12 finalists as they sing their selected arias, accompanied by the San Francisco Opera Orchestra.

All the finalists participate in the Merola Opera Program, a seven-week workshop devoted to the training of potential opera singers. Here Mr. Borgeson will study languages, be instructed in stage deportment, make-up, costuming and will have a chance to perform in two full-length operas.

Seven full-time opera coaches are hired to assist the singers with the study of Italian, French and German repertoire. This training is entirely free to the singers. In some cases money is given, in scholarship form, to help defray the singers' living expenses.

The Borgesons will be living in married housing on campus at Stanford University, Palo Alto, where Mrs. Borgeson (nee Barbara Damon) will be taking graduate courses in Humanities. They are expecting their first child in late August.

WHY DOES THE CHURCH HAVE HYPOCRITES?

Hypocrites are with us in the churches. To deny this is to be blind. Jesus verbally condemned hypocrites who were already existant in His day. A hypocrite is one who pretends to be what he is not. An actor is a hypocrite and vice versa. There certainly are those in the church who profess much and possess little or nothing.

It must be understood that Satan counterfeits all that God does. The book of Revelation tells of Satan's false trinity, false christ, false resurrection and other fake actions. It should be seen that in the realm of the religious, that hypocrites are a vehicle of Satan. That this method is practical may be realized by remembering the oft-heard comment, "I do not wish to go to church with the hypocrites".

Some quiet meditation will cause one to realize that the presence of the hypocrite is really a declaration in loudest terms that there is something real to the Bible and Salvation. If this were not true, not even Satan would waste his time to produce a counterfeit.

Coaches Needed For Pony League

The expectation to have five teams in the Pony League this year have been diminished by the fact the teams are without coaches. Last year five local businesses or clubs sponsored the teams.

Tryouts for the five teams will be held Saturday, however, if coaches are not available at that time, the program will be cancelled.

Tryouts will begin at 10 a.m. at the high school athletic field. All boys 13 and 14 years of age not assigned to teams, may register at that time.

Anyone who might be available for coach or assistant coach may contact Frank Dalton, 423-4231.

Prepare Reports

The Rev. Blair Bashore of the First Baptist Church asks that chairmen of the various church boards and committees get their reports prepared for printing soon. The annual meeting will be held April 30, followed May 1 by the mother-daughter banquet.

Busy Day Camp Planned

Plans were announced for a busy day camp schedule at the Neighborhood Association of the Irish Hills Girl Scout meeting held Wednesday at the scout cabin. This will take place from June 23 through 27 at Osburns Woods, Mrs. James Hedley will be the camp director.

There is a great need for unit leaders and assistant leaders. Mrs. Hedley will conduct two training sessions for this event. One session will be held May 17 from 9:30 a.m. to 2 p.m., at the scout cabin. This will be on indoor training. The second session will take place June 14 from 9:30 a.m. to 2 p.m., at Osburn's Woods and will be on outdoor training.

Day Camp is open to all girls from second grade through age 17. Progressive camping will be offered. This will teach basic camping for new campers thru pre-primative camping for experienced campers.

A nursery will be provided for unit leaders and assistant leaders for children age three and up. The charge for this service will be 50c per child for milk and insurance.

There will be a nature consultant and craft director available at the camp.

Registrations must be in by June 9 to Mrs. Donald Escott. A physical examination within the last year is necessary.

The cost for day camp is $4 for one child and $3 for each additional child in a family.

On April 22 all junior leaders and co-leaders are invited to a "Let's Get Acquainted" meeting at the Emmanuel Church in Jackson from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m. Anyone interested in attending may call Mrs. Richard Egli for possible pooling of transportation.

The Girl Scouts will have a float in the Memorial Day parade. Mrs. Avery Lee and Mrs. John Robinson are in charge of it.

The Cabana Girls are holding a large rummage sale at the Naval Reserve Training Center on May 24 in Jackson. Contributions may be given to Mrs. John Robinson, 423-4026.

Mrs. James Hedley and Mrs. Robinson will be delegates at the annual delegate council meeting on May 8, at Leadership Center, Hillsdale College.

New leaders and committee workers are needed for next year's scouting program. Any former girl scout or adult with an interest in working with girls can find her place in Tecumseh's Girl Scout program.

CHUCK MUNGER

FFA Member Of The Month

The Tecumseh Future Farmer of the month is Chuck Munger. Chuck is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Munger, 1825 Taylor Rd. They live on a 175-acre livestock farm.

Chuck is a member of the Junior Class, he is the reporter of the FFA and plays the clarinet in the High School band. He plans to attend the leadership training camp in June to learn his duties as reporter for the coming year.

Chuck has taken horticulture, landscaping and farm management in the agriculture curriculum. He has had three acres of corn, and the FFA broiler project for practical experience. He was a member of the local, district, and regional parliamentary procedure team. This year he was a high seed salesman of the FFA.

Minister To Conference

Richard Krebs, Jr., presiding minister of the Tecumseh Congregation of Jehovah's Witnesses, attended a Bible Conference in Ypsilanti last weekend with his wife.

Mr. Krebs said that he was particularly impressed with the Saturday evening program theme: "Sharing in a Most Urgent Work."

"One thing noticeable at the assembly," remarked Krebs, "was the unity and Christian love demonstrated by all present. Difference of races or color presented no obstacle at all."

Mr. Krebs also referred to the principal discourse at the assembly, "Law and Order — When and How?", given by M. L. Holien, district minister for Jehovah's Witnesses, who said, "Lack of law and order touches us personally, affects our thinking and actions, and all indications are for disorder and lawlessness accelerating. However, the speaker continued, those grieved can have hope, as God will shortly remedy the situation."

This coming summer many large conventions of Jehovah's Witnesses are being planned earth-wide. One of the closest ones to Michigan will be in Chicago, Ill. Mr. Krebs and his wife plan to attend.

An Honored Letter

Officers and non-commissioned officers of 83d Radio Research Special Operations Unit have selected Sp/4 John P. Hayden as the "soldier of the month" for that unit in March.

The achievement as stated in a letter from Operation Unit, indicated that Sp/4 Hayden possessed the attributes of an able soldier and the ability to successfully accomplish a given task.

In February it was announced that Hayden had also received the George Washington Honor Medal from the Freedoms Foundation.

The Tecumseh soldier, son of Mrs. Perry Hayden, 512 W. Logan St., and the late Perry Hayden, wrote a letter on "A Free Ballot — A Free Country." He is serving with the army in Cambodia.

Following is a transcript of the letter which won Sp/4 Hayden the medal and $100:

"Gentlemen:

"This morning I dropped my absentee ballot into the mailbox. It was a proud moment, my first chance to really participate in my country's government. From the time I was old enough to understand the fundamental principles of American Democracy, I have known that voting is a basic duty of every American and one of the many freedoms which we must exercise in order to preserve.

"Lately, however, my ideas have developed beyond accepting the free ballot as just 'one of the many freedoms'. The recent headlines about developments in the Iron Curtain countries have awakened me to a fact which has deepened my appreciation of not only for the freedom to vote but for all of the freedoms that Americans enjoy.

"Until late last summer I had been encouraged by what appeared to be a softening in the Communist Party line. I watched hopefully as a few Communist countries became relatively liberal, even restoring some freedoms to the people. But I had forgotten that there is one freedom that no nation can ever hope to achieve under Communism: the freedom to vote.

"Eventually, one satellite country became too liberal, and the Kremlin ordered her invasion. But even on the eve of her invasion, that 'too liberal' country had come nowhere near giving the people a real voice in their government. Why? Because the freedom to vote is so completely alien to Communist doctrine that, of all freedoms, it is the last that could ever be allowed.

"When I considered this I realized the special significance of our commitment in Southeast Asia. Our President has made it very clear to the nation and to the world that our purpose in South Vietnam is to make it possible for the South Vietnamese people to freely participate in the selection of their own leaders, and in the determination of their own destiny as a nation.

"In other words, the United States and other free countries have joined forces to achieve one goal: a free ballot for the people of South Vietnam. Why? Because we know that the freedom to vote is the single most essential ingredient in a truly free country.

"I'm not a philosopher or political scientist. I'm a soldier. But a lot of things aren't as complicated as some people like to think. I believe in the principles that have made the American flag a universal symbol of freedom and justice, and I believe in my mission as an American soldier to defend that flag and those principles.

"I believe in freedom of expression for myself and all men, and I believe that the freedom to vote is the most natural and necessary outgrowth of freedom of expression. It is no mere coincidence that this freedom, which Communism will always be last to acknowledge, is in fact, the very freedom that America will always be first to defend. Why? Because this one principle spells the crucial difference between freedom and dictatorship: a free ballot — free country.

"Respectfully yours,
"John P. Hayden, Sp/4."

America, The Beautiful

By CELESTINE RIDDELL

Once again Spring trails her lovely green flower - bedecked gown over our weary world bringing her promise of bright renewal and inspiring beauty. Alas! her raiment is caught and torn by the debris through which her dancing feet pass, debris which the melting snows of winter reveal to view, in all its ugly reality, bold testimony to the carelessness of many and the neglect of all.

I am reminded of an impression, recorded by a distinguished English visitor to our shores. As he travelled through this great land he was struck by the many drab little towns entered through roadways "strewn with all manners of refuse" and at the ends of which were vast "graveyards of old, discarded cars, old tires and other metal objects" called "junk". While we may wince at the effrontery of a visitor from another land, seeming to be ungracious to his friendly hosts, (are we not always referred to as a very friendlly people?) all of us, at some time, have also been struck by this same untidy picture as we travel through this beloved land.

While loud in our praises of the natural beauties so abundant in this greatly-endowed spot on the planet Earth, we, too, must feel saddened by their disfigurement by a careless, unthinking citizenry. Affluent America, geared to obsolescence, has much to discard, much to be destroyed, to make way for the new. Paradoxically, she has not developed satisfactory ways of controlling this mass "throwing away". We pay a dear price in the destruction of scenic beauty as well as the healthful conditions under which all are entitled to live.

What can be done?

One solution is in the employment of dedicated personal involvement in plans and actions to be carried out at the individual level. Another, is constructive community effort. If each of us made a check of the many ways in which our own home and its surrounding land and road frontage could be improved and invited our children to be a part of this act of good citizenship, much would be accomplished. A concerned community could engage the efforts of groups such as Church Youth Groups, Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, Camp Fire Girls and any adult groups available outside of working hours, to carry out clean-up activities in public areas.

We are aware of the inadequate sums of money which can be allotted to government agencies trying to cope with this increasingly heavy service. However, it would seem not too much to expect one good "Clean-Up" trip down each of the major highways in the Spring of the year. Worn-out and bent signs, tree limbs piled but never burned and tree stumps, left by recent cutting because of elm disease, which marr so much of our road frontage, could receive proper attention. Incidentally, how about old fencing, whose posts lie flat on the ground and obviously keep nothing in but allow any to enter? Is there a law about this?

Let us sincerely do our part in correcting blight on the American scene. Did you enjoy the book "The Ugly American"? Can we foresee one titled "Ugly America"?

I'll settle for "America the Beautiful"! How about you?

(Editor's Note — Celestine Minard Riddell, president-elect of the Macon Woman's Club, writes in conjunction with the annual clean-up campaign at Macon April 26 thru May 3. Mrs. Riddell, of Windsong Farm at Macon, suggests that all residents help with the tidying up project and leave collections of roadside litter for pick-up on Saturday when a truck will make the rounds of the area. All concerned Americans would do well to consider Mrs. Riddell's suggestions.)

Trans-Am Race Opens At MIS

Michigan International Speedway kicks off its "1969 Tournament of Speed" May 11th with the $35,000 Wolverine 4-Hour Trans-American road race for sports sedans.

The event will be the professional premiere of sports sedan racing in Michigan; the first event of the 1969 Trans-Am series; and the debut of the MIS 3-mile grand prix road circuit designed by former world champion driver Stirling Moss.

The Wolverine Trans-Am race inaugurates MIS's first full season of operation. The inaugural event at the multi-million dollar facility in the Irish Hills, was held before a crowd of 55,000 last Oct. 13.

The Trans-American series consists of 12 races sanctioned by the Sports Car Club of America and is a twin-championship for manufacturers of large and small engined sports sedans. The main interest centers on the Detroit-built "pony cars", i.e., Camaro, Mustang, Javelin and Firebird.

A large entry is expected for the 4-Hour Wolverine event to be run in the backyard of the automotive industry. Detroit's factory officials have more than a passing interest in the outcome of the May 11th race. The Motor City's car makers are in heated competition for the youth market, for which the sports sedans have a strong appeal.

Tickets for the May 11 Trans-Am, as well as season tickets for the entire 1969 season at Michigan International Speedway, are now available at the Adrian Chamber of Commerce and at Green's Hardware in Brooklyn.

MRS. CHRISTINE FAULHABER

Clinton Centenarian Is A Spritely Lass

By MAXINE CALHOUN

CLINTON — "The Lord has been good to me," remarked Mrs. Christine Faulhaber, as she looked forward to the observance of her 100th birthday anniversary, Sunday.

For the past 21 years, Mrs. Faulhaber has made her home with her daughter, Mrs. John White, 207 W. Michigan Ave.

The spritely centenarian is able to be up and about the house and she cheerily proclaims, "I can eat just everything."

Perhaps her greatest pleasure is to rock contentedly on the glassed-in porch which looks out on Clinton's main street, to watch the ever-changing panorama of village activity.

Born in Germany, April 28, 1869, Christine Oker was just five years old when she sailed for America with her parents. The Oker family located near Bridgewater where relatives were already settled on the fertile Michigan farms.

She married a farmer, Ferdinand Faulhaber, and the couple moved near Clinton, where she has lived ever since. Mr. Faulhaber died in 1931.

She has attended St. Dominics Catholic Church for 66 years. Noted for her culinary skill, in years gone by, parish priests learned to appreciate her frequent invitations to dinner.

The couple had six daughters and a son. Still living are Mrs. J. E. Hopkins (Celia), of Detroit; Mrs. A. F. Fountain, (Alma), of Detroit; Mrs. George McGuire (Rita) of Dearborn, and Mrs. White (Ida).

The immediate family will get together for a birthday dinner Sunday. Then, from 3 to 5 p.m., there will be an open house for Mrs. Faulhaber at the White home at 207 W. Michigan Ave. Relatives and friends are invited.

Dr. Toussaint Is Guest Pastor

CLINTON — The guest pastor at the United Church of Christ next Sunday, will be Dr. William Toussaint of the History Department of Adrian College.

A special meeting of the congregation will be held following the morning worship service at which time a vote will be taken on a pastor candidate.

On May 4, Dr. John Dawson, president of Adrian College, will be the guest speaker.

New Owners Remodel Salon

CLINTON — Mr. and Mrs. Burton Dannells recently purchased the Chic-Tress Beauty Salon from Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Johnson.

Extensive remodeling on the building at 134 W. Michigan Ave., was begun this week. A new window front and changed entrance will be constructed. It is expected that the beauty salon will be re-opened within a week or so.

Roxana Pilbeam will continue as the manager and her operators are Mrs. Barbara Poore, Mrs. Bobbi Elliott and Mrs. Linda Starks.

—o—

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Johnson are vacationing in Miami, Fla., for two weeks.

School Board Accepts Bids

CLINTON — The Board of Education is arranging for the grading of a bus parking area on the six lots owned by the Clinton Community School, on the north side of E. Franklin St., across the road from the Elementary School.

Bids were accepted from R. H. Miller & Son for the grading, and from the Tecumseh Fence Company for the erection of six foot, chain link fence, to be placed around the area. A process gravel will be used to surface the parking area.

Plans were accepted as submitted by architects for site development for the new high school, including the details for the location of the buildings, parking, play areas, sports field, and streets. Bids for the rough grading are to be taken this week.

The bid for a school bus chassis was accepted from Driscoll Motor Sales for $3,915.00, and the bid was accepted from Great Lakes Coach for a Bluebird bus body at $3,752.00.

Since the annual May school census is now permissive, instead of required, it will not be conducted this year. Last year's census costs were $501, and the data learned was not considered to be of sufficient use to warrant the expenditure.

Two members of the school board are to be elected at the annual school election, June 9. The terms of Roger Waltz and Carl Woodward expire this year. Nominating petitions may be filed at the school office on or before May 12.

The last day to register for the election, June 9, is April 28.

The following guidelines for use of the school facilities by non-school organizations were adopted:

1. The requesting organization must be local to the School District.

2. It should be a non-profit organization beneficial to district residents.

3. Worthy educational, civic, or charitable purposes shall be objectives.

4. The use of the building for private individual gain shall not be condoned.

5. The use of school facilities to perpetuate controversial philosophies or selfish interests shall not be condoned.

6. Adequate charges shall be made to cover custodial costs.

Equipment—

School equipment may be loaned to responsible community groups for a worthy educational, civic or charitable purpose when:

1. The group borrowing the equipment agrees to accept responsibility for repairing or replacing any equipment damaged or lost while in its possession.

2. The equipment is not both unusually expensive and also subject to easy damage.

3. The equipment is in good condition.

A. An operator is provided who is knowledgeable in specifics of operation.

On Sundays —

School equipment, grounds and buildings shall be made available for use by community groups on Sundays only when such use is in the interest of district residents and when such use will not interfere with the religious activities of local institutions.

The Board reserves unto itself the authority to grant approval for school usage in cases when the above policy is not met.

SP/4 LARRY BROWN

Wounded In Action

CLINTON — Sp/4 Larry C. Brown, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Brugger, Clinton, escaped with minor leg injuries when the helicopter in which he was observing enemy forces in Vietnam near the Cambodian border, April 11.

Larry wrote home that the helicopter was cruising at 3,500 feet at 110 mph, when the engine of the craft was struck by artillery fire. The pilot turned off the engine and was able to send a May Day (call for help) before the helicopter struck the ground at 65 knots per hour.

Larry was able to pull out an officer, Lt Peterson who was badly cut from the windshield glass. The men hid from the enemy in the five-foot high elephant grass until they were picked up by a medical evacuation team in another helicopter.

The completely demolished aircraft was valued at $89,000.

Sp. Brown has been stationed at Kontum, Vietnam, with the Army for eight months. His wife, Ruth, is a teacher in Richmond, Ind. The couple resided in Clinton until he entered service.

MUCHA GRANDE FIESTA — Spanish Carnival at Clinton High, attended by 1,200, makes possible a trip to Mexico for third-year Spanish students in 1970.

Enthusiasm Sparks Spanish Carnival

By MAXINE CALHOUN

CLINTON — Little short of astonishing was the enthusiastic attendance by more than 1,200 persons at the Spanish Carnival, which was staged three days last week by the 75 members of the Spanish Clubs in grades eight thru 12 at Clinton High School.

The event grossed over $3,100 with the profit still undetermined, but no doubt, a substantial one. Proceeds will be used to send a group of about 40 third-year Spanish students to Mexico in the summer of 1970. Most of the students have been studying Spanish together since they were in the fourth grade.

The highly imaginative decorations included a crepe paper fling of orange, yellow and brown hues, with fanciful pinatas and balloons hanging overhead. Sketches of senors and senoritas decorated the gym walls.

More than 450 large decorative flowers were hand-made by the students, who worked on the project for months in advance.

Sombreros and other souvenirs from Mexico and donated household articles were on sale.

Visitors munched home-made tacos and cotton candy while they tried their skills at a large variety of game booths.

Over 3,000 drawing tickets were sold, with Lloyd Gibson awarded $5 for selling the most, 200.

Prize winners were:

First, color TV — Michael Moon, a freshman member of the Spanish Club.

Second, clock radio — Mrs. Anna Mae Waterman.

Third, drill set — George Lukasiewicz of Wyandotte.

Fourth, giant elephant — Gerald Manchester.

Mrs. John Truesdale, teacher of the Spanish classes, co-ordinated the event, and she had the assistance of her husband, John.

Mr. Truesdale commented, "We were really surprised and grateful when more than 30 students showed up about noon Sunday to help with the clean-up job. The carnival was such a big success, we'll probably do this again next year."

Britton-Macon Kindergarten Registration

BRITTON — Kindergarten pre-registration for the 1969-70 school year will take place on Thursday, May 8, in the kindergarten room at the Britton-Macon Area School. Parents may register their children from 8:30 a.m. until 3:30 p.m.

Kindergarten children entering school in the fall must have reached five years of age before Dec. 1, 1969. Parents of children whose birthdays are later than Sept. 1, should give serious consideration as to whether their child is ready for school. It takes more time for some of the younger children to adjust to school, according to school authorities.

Parents are invited to bring their child in with them when they register. It is important that the childs birth certificate be brought along.

Registration at this time will enable the school to organize the kindergarten program for the coming year.

Roasted Piglet Served To FFA

By PETER FORGACS

The Britton Chapter FFA held its annual Parent and Son Banquet last Tuesday night, at the high school. The banquet festivities were started out with an invocation by the Rev. G. O. Hannevik, followed by the dinner. The meal consisted of a roasted pig weighing 220 lbs., which was cured for 14 days then roasted for 21 hours, by Carlton's Freezer and Processing Services in Blissfield.

At the conclusion of the dinner came the recognition of the following American Farmers: Lawrence Wagner, Kenneth Bortel, Richard Cox, Barry Brablec, Donald Dickerson. Also attending the banquet were three representatives from the Ida Chapter FFA, Mrs. Berry adviser of the FHA, Brenda Tubbs, president of the Britton ChapterFHA, and many FHA girls who are to be thanked for serving at the banquet. Two other special guests were Clarence Roy, a representative for the Sohigro Company, who presented the Highest Corn Yield Award, and a representative from Walpers Farm Services, who presented a trophy for the lowest production cost per bushel.

Following the recognition of honored guests was a presentation of the FFA 1968 year's activities which were narrated by Harold Jeffers and Doug Steinman.

This year outstanding activities consisted of the annual Tractor Field Day held in the Britton Park, the outcome of the FFA's corn plot, and the FFA's canoe trip.

Slides were shown of the year's activities to add to the interest. Louis Wagner gave a complete rundown on the FFA's pigs and pig barn set while slides of these were also shown.

After the year's activities were completed, a special entertainment was presented by Jim Bush on a string bass, Doug Wielfaert on guitar, and Bob Downing on guitar and harmonica. The three boys played and sang six songs at two different intervals in the program.

Following the entertainment Jim Bush reported on his trip to Kansas City in which he played in the FFA National Band last October after winning the State qualification.

During the program, trophies were awarded to Clifford Logan for the most points on our pest hunt, Gail Spohr for the highest number of soybean pods on a single stalk, Bob Gilbert for the tallest corn stalk. These trophies are awarded each year to get boys to take a real interest in FFA excursions.

Tom Korican won a trophy for the best percent pulled at the Tractor Field Day held last September. Rodney Taylor produced the highest corn yield and had the lowest production cost per bushel and won the two awards given for these two achievements.

Special awards for Star Green Hand and Star Chapter Farmer went to Greg Hamilton and Louis Wagner in order. The Honorary Chapter Farmer Award was bestowed upon Mr. Ericcson for his help to the Britton FFA throughout the year in helping to prepare the leadership teams for competition and for judging at the District leadership contest.

A door prize of a concrete mailbox post was won by Bob Downing of the Britton Chapter.

After all the awards were given out and the program was coming to a close, John Rowe, this years president passed the gavel to next years president, Dick Schroeder. This was followed by a closing benediction by Rev. G. O. Hannevik.

God Is My Landlord

"You shouldn't give away anything," snapped Mr. Ford. "My idea is to create opportunities and jobs for people, and let them learn to take care of themselves. I don't believe in creeds of any kind. We need chapels, schools and workshops."

"Don't you believe in Jesus Christ?" interrupted Perry.

"Surely I do, but he was just a good man, like you or I, or Edison."

"I believe that Christ was divine."

"So are you divine," was Mr. Ford's quick reply.

"But Christ is the son of God and our Lord."

Perry advanced the idea that possibly the Ford Motor Company might distribute the wheat to the far corners of the world where there was dire need.

"I absolutely have no objections to that. We have no enemies."

The conversation drifted to Mr. Ford's experiences with some of the other countries of the world.

"Winston Churchill told me twenty-two years ago, that England 'cawn't' support herself." (He drawled out the word to imitate an Englishman.) "Just to prove that he was wrong, Mrs. Ford and I bought 2,200 acres of land and went to work raising brussel sprouts . . . and we made $25,000 the first year. That shows that there is no such word as 'cawn't' — doesn't it?"

Perry mentioned later, "We haven't the money to properly promote our project."

"Don't go into debt," Mr. Ford warned. "Some of my own family had to go into bankruptcy because they didn't know how to manage. When you borrow money, someone else takes over your business and runs it for you."

"I also had to buy out my business partners. It cost me $55,000,000, and then they drank themselves to death. I haven't touched a drop of liquor in my life. Moderate living has given me health. As you know, I can still read without glasses."

To prove this statement, Mr. Ford picked up a newspaper from the floor and started reading. By sheer coincidence the article that he read aloud was regarding a school pancake supper being managed by Mary Jane Hayden.

Perry suggested that after the war it might be possible to transport some of the wheat to our hungry "enemies" around the world, in some of the very same Ford B-24 bombers which were at that time being used to drop bombs.

Mr. Ford recalled his famous "Peace Ship" after the first World War, and suggested, "They might laugh at us." Mr. Ford couldn't stand ridicule.

In spite of this remark, he was very receptive to the idea of a second Peace Ship carrying wheat to all parts of the world.

"I disagree with you on one thing," insisted Mr. Ford. "I want to build a chapel and school in Tecumseh with the money from the final harvest of this wheat. I have been thinking of it for a long time, and I'll not change my mind. I would even like to have your Pastor Escolme be the teacher of the school.

This verified Perry's worst fears — Mr. Ford's mind was set on the school and chapel.

While driving back to town, Mr. Ford remarked, "We're going to have this country covered with wheat. We don't need corn, because we don't need so many pigs or cattle. I can make milk from soy beans. Wheat is the divine food."

CHAPTER 13

An Anxious Winter for Perry

The growing details, voluminous correspondence, innumerable requests for reams of publicity material, increasing numbers of speaking engagements and constant uncertainty regarding the future, made the long winter slip by like magic.

On November 21, 1944, Frank Campsall called Perry on the phone to deliver a message from Henry Ford, which left him in a cold sweat. He tried to catch his breath as he asked, "What was that again, Frank?"

Perry wanted to be sure that he had heard correctly.

"Mr. Ford asked me to tell you that he didn't want to be bothered with the Dynamic Kernels project any more. He acted as though he wanted to drop the whole affair, but I don't think he means that. He said if he wants you again at any time, he will get in touch with you."

Perry had written a letter to Mr. Ford regarding a number of celebrities as speakers for the next summer and also reminded him of the helicopter.

"Mr. Ford doesn't want to hear anything more about the speakers or helicopter."

Perry explained, "I have been merely trying to keep Mr. Ford posted on every move that I make, but will proceed on my own now until I hear from him again."

Another real scare came a few days later when Perry received a bill outlining the estimated cost of planting the 230 acres of wheat a few months before. It came to $4,140. Mr. Ford had promised that he would furnish the land and put in the seed without obligation, so this left Perry aghast.

Perry drove over to see Edgar Clark about the bill. Clark did not think that The Ford Motor Company expected Perry to pay this bill, but merely wanted him to know what it was actually costing them to put in his wheat. However, Ed did say that Mr. Ford had not even been out to see him since Perry's fateful conversation with Frank Campsall, and he felt suspicious that Mr. Ford might have lost interest in the whole project.

Ed added, "I think that Mr. Ford's desire to build a permanent memorial to Dynamic Kernels would have been a valuable thing for Tecumseh."

Among the notables whom Perry particularly wanted to attend the Fifth Harvest was Hon. Herbert Hoover, because he was a Quaker. He had headed the First World War Flood Relief, and was the only living ex-president of the United States. Three letters failed to bring a reply, so right after the turn of the year Perry phoned to Mr. Hoover's Waldorf Astoria office in New York. He explained to his secretary that he was to be in Philadelphia on January 11, and would like to run up to New York to see Mr. Hoover. Perry was advised to call upon his arrival in Philadelphia, which he did, and was given an appointment for an interview the following day at 4 p.m.

When Perry was ushered into Mr. Hoover's office the ex-president pulled out a pouch of tobacco, filled his pipe and settled back to relax as Perry told his story of Dynamic Kernels. Mr. Hoover listened silently as he drew his famous "doodling designs" on a piece of paper, interrupting only occasionally with a "wise crack," such as, "We've got too much wheat now. Why don't you plant a few ships?"

When Perry invited him to attend and speak at the Dynamic Kernels ceremonies, he merely grunted, "That is too far ahead to answer now."

"Are you a tither?"

"No! . . . Ninety-five percent of my income is paid out in taxes, etc."

Mr. Hoover puffed at his pipe as Perry watched him through a cloud of smoke.

Perry then referred to Mr. Hoover's appearance at the dedication of R. G. LeTourneau's new plant in Peoria some years before. He remarked, "LeTourneau is an unusual chap."

As Perry was leaving, Mr. Hoover said, "You've got a great sermon there!"

Perry asked the secretary for the "doodling paper" on Mr. Hoover's desk, but was told that he never allowed anyone to have them.

All during the first four years of the Dynamic Kernels project, Ralph Comfort, the official photographer, and many others had been taking moving pictures of the history-making event. There was now an increasing demand to see these pictures, so Perry and Ralph spent a great deal of time during the winter months gathering up bits of film from various people, editing them into one continuous story. All of the pictures were taken in color, and made a beautiful movie of the unusual Biblical experiment.

Unfortunately, the first few years were "shot" with 8 mm film, and the balance with 16 mm. Later, Perry took the whole collection to the George W. Colburn Laboratories in Chicago to have copies made and the 8 mm strips "blown up" to 16 mm.

When Perry was introduced to George Colburn, he looked at Perry with a smile, "Didn't I wait table for you 20 years ago in the Theta Chi Fraternity at the University of Michigan?"

They had a good visit over "old times." Perry told him about the tithing wheat project and asked Colburn whether he was a tither. When Colburn admitted he was not, Perry said, "You can start now by giving us a 10% discount on our work!"

As more and more requests came for the Biblical Wheat pictures, a projector of his own became almost a necessity. Extra gasoline, during the war-time gas rationing, was also needed for transportation to fill the dates.

Perry went to God in prayer and then went to work, as he always did, depending on the Lord to take care of the new problems. When he called for his extra gas coupons, they were waiting for him. Within a few weeks the OPA granted him a priority rating for a movie projector, and gifts came in to pay for it.

Early in the spring Perry drove to the Edison Institute to have a little visit with Carl Hood, but was refused admission at the gate. He explained that he had been invited by Superintendent Hood of the Edison School, and after some delay, was allowed to enter. Later he called on Frank Campsall and told him about the experience at the gate, and Frank laughed it off by saying, "The Government Services have been tightening up on us and stopping all unnecessary running around through the buildings."

Mr. Campsall tried to lightly brush off Mr. Ford's attitude toward the Dynamic Kernels project by saying, "Mr. Ford hasn't been feeling very well, and when he isn't well, he often gets 'fed up' with whatever he is doing."

Mr. Ford was in Georgia for a while during the winter, and had now been back in Detroit for several weeks, but no one around the office had seen him. It was reported that he had taken ill and that a specialist from Detroit had been rushed to Georgia.

The office appeared to be in confusion and everyone seemed to be looking for someone to tell him what to do. Ed Clark had not seen Mr. Ford since the previous fall and was at a standstill awaiting the "green light." The only activity was at the Dynamic Kernel grounds, where a crew of workmen were busy completing the plans left by Mr. Ford before he went to Georgia.

On April 20, 1945, reports flashed around the world that Henry Ford had passed away.

These were soon followed with denials . . . then reports came that he had been seen here and there . . . newspaper releases appeared purportedly sent out by Mr. Ford . . . a constant flurry of excitement, rumors and mystery — with no one certain of anything.

CHAPTER 14

Ford Shrouded with Mystery

From this point on, during the great tithing demonstration, Henry Ford became more and more of an enigma. Personal desires for the disposal of the final Dynamic Kernels harvest, sickness which overtook him in Georgia, change of management at The Ford Motor Company, closing of the Ford hobbies, relinquishing control of the giant empire to Henry II, and unpredictable actions of many now in authority — all combined to cast a curtain of secrecy, mystery and uncertainty around the fate of Perry Hayden's famous Biblical Wheat experiment. A seething battle appeared to be raging under the surface in a great empire, to determine who would emerge as the "power behind the throne," now being held by an "inexperienced boy."

Perry had not seen Mr. Ford for six months. May was now here. A date had to be set for the cutting of the wheat and plans made for the ceremonies.

But no confirmation, instructions or authority to proceed could be secured from the Ford offices.

The Biblical Wheat looked hearty, even though the heavy frosts had hurt much of the wheat in the neighborhood. March had been a warm month, and the wheat got a good start, but April turned very cold. A heavy snow fell as late as May 10. "Old Timers" said that it would be a poor wheat year.

Edward Faulkner, author of "Plowman's Folly," stuck to his prediction made the previous fall, that the harvest would average 30 bushels to the acre.

Perry went right on making plans for the harvest, as if there was no doubt in anyone's mind about it, feeling that it would all work out for the best.

Perry now went out with a new vigor to complete the details of the Fifth Harvest. The date was still an uncertainty for several reasons. First, it was definitely agreed that there should be only one celebration this year, because the wheat was to be cut and threshed in one operation with modern combines. The wheat must be exactly at the right stage of ripening in order to be harvested with combines. Because of the cool spring, the wheat was ripening much later this year. Second, no word of any kind had yet been received from the Ford offices. The date was first set for the seventh of July, then later moved up one week, and now it looked as though it would have to be changed once more.

Students Learn From New Books

Students at the elementary schools of Macon and Ridgeway are now benefiting from the new books purchased by the Ridgeway-Macon PTO.

First and second grade students have high interest, limited vocabulary books. This has been an area of great need for some time and hopefully the new books will do much to fill this need.

A new dictionary and stand, along with a complete set of encyclopedias was purchased for use at the Ridgeway school. According to reports from students and teachers alike, they are most appreciated and in constant use.

Members of the Ridgeway-Macon PTO have been happy to purchase these items. The support of the students, parents and the community in past fund raising projects has make it possible.

It is hoped that the forthcoming pancake supper, planned for the evening of May 1, will receive the same support.

Officials Present New School Plans

Superintendent of Schools James McDowell, assisted by Robert Duhan, will present the proposed new school building at the meeting of the Rotary Tuesday evening.

Hugh Walter made arrangements for the meeting when tentative layouts of the building will be shown.

Mr. Walter wrote in last week's Club bulletin that out of 3251 eligible voters, 750 who did vote in the city election was not a good representation. "Let's not let it happen again in future elections," he said.

"The future of this country depends on the citizens," the Rotarian stated. In the bulletin, he printed, "The average age of the world's greatest civilizations has been 200 years. These nations progressed through this sequence:

From Bondage to Spiritual Faith
Spiritual Faith to Great Courage
Great Courage to Liberty
Liberty to Abudance
Abundance to Selfishness
Selfishness to Complacency
Complacency to Apathy
Apathy to Dependency
Dependency back again into Bondage

"In a few years our United States will be 200 years old. This cycle is not inevitable — it all depends on you' was Mr. Walter's comment.

AMAZED...

I tell a few war stories—just like the rest. The censorship of good taste and modesty makes my experiences pretty drab. But Jerry thrills to them. He's proud of his Dad's Purple Heart!

My son would be amazed if I were to tell him the stories we never tell, our thoughts as we hit the beach . . . what it was like in those jungles . . . what war does to its dead . . . and its living.

And in other ways Jerry would be amazed; for he doesn't know me as a man who prays often. He can't realize the depth of my Faith. He has never met the brave chaplain who brought me in when I was hit.

I'll never tell Jerry all of it. I don't think God wants me to!

I pray that Jerry's may be a different world. I want him to learn day by day, step by step, what his religion will mean to him!

That's why we're a church-going family!

Tornado Destructive in Irish Hills Area

By BILL SANFORD

To those who live through a tornado of any size, there is no such thing as a "small" tornado. This can be attested to by the people living in the area struck by a storm which buffeted the north shore of Sand Lake and portions of US-12 near Hayes State Park. The storm hit at approximately 8:40 p.m. Sunday.

Perhaps the most seriously damaged of the area was Stagecoach Stop on US-12. A large tree near the entrance to the amusement park was blown partially onto a 1969 convertible. The car suffered only minor damage, however, as the bulk of the tree fell on a tractor which stood nearby.

Other damages at the replica of the Old West were broken mannequins and a buckboard which was hit by a train used to transport visitors around the grounds. The train was blown by the force of the wind some 50 feet into the buckboard. Indians were strangely silent in their tepees which overlook that portion of the Irish Hills.

A garage at the rear of the building was turned on its foundation by nearly two feet. The huge sign which stood near the entrance from the highway was also blown over by the force of the wind.

The U. S. Weather Bureau in Detroit officially termed the storm a tornado. Monday morning representatives of the weather bureau were on the scene attempting to chart the course of the somewhat baffling storm.

A garage at the Huck Dowling residence was blown into a tree almost 300 feet away and bordering on US-12, the debris falling into the paths of oncoming vehicles. Several trees at the miniature golf course nearby were uprooted and portions of the small course damaged considerably. The office at Mystery Hill also sustained minor damage in the Sunday storm.

Trees were blown onto two houses along US-12 as well as a house trailer being stored. A shed blew over at the same spot, and crashed into another vacant trailer, causing more damage.

On the shores of Sand Lake several aluminum boats were blown from the lake, some as far as 150 feet down the beach from their moorings.

Two rafts were blown considerable distances, one 1,200-lb. craft traveled 40 feet into the side of a cottage. Moments later a large tree measuring nearly three feet in diameter fell in the exact spot where the raft had been.

Several other boats and rafts as well as cottages suffered minor to moderate damage in the storm. Flying limbs and falling trees causing much of the damage to rooftops and windows. No final estimates of the total damage has been determined yet.

As one resident of the north shore of Sand Lake put it when questioned about a "small" tornado hitting the area, "Buddy, if you were in that house last night with that raft and tree flying around, there isn't anything like a small tornado, they're all big."

HEAD SAFETY CHECK — Chuck Butler, Stan Johnson and Lt. Matt Hrebic met here Tuesday to help finalize plans for the city's safety check during Michigan Week.

Safety Check Is for 'Real'

There'll be no safety check lane in Tecumseh during Michigan Week this month, May 17-24, but motorists had better be on the up and up.

Safety checks will be held everywhere!

Lt. Matt Hrebec, member of the Safety and Traffic Division for the Michigan State Police, will head a group of State Police from the 4th District along with officers from the Tecumseh Police Department and the Sheriff's Department, in running automobiles through the standard State Police safety and inspection tests.

This will not only include careful inspection of the vehicle itself but a check on driver's licenses, insurance coverage, and vehicle registration.

Lt. Hrebec said inspections will be conducted throughout the community and the vicinity of Tecumseh, meaning that motorists will be flagged down on Chicago Blvd. and any side street in the community.

This is the first time that such tests have ever been conducted here in such a wide area. State Police are known to set up inspection stations on highways, but it's a first in covering an entire community.

Inspections will be made Monday through Friday, and though there will be no checks on the Tecumseh Products and Fisher Body properties as in the past, drivers from these major plants can expect to be pulled over for inspections.

The State Police officer was in Tecumseh Tuesday to help organize Tecumseh's annual festivities during Michigan Week. Also here and assisting Charles O. Butler, general chairman, was Stanley Johnson, auto industries highway safety committee representatives from Michigan at Washington.

Rotary Club is sponsoring organization for the safety check, and worked with city officials in obtaining the services of the State Police.

Dress Code Is Relaxed for Students

A relaxed dress code has been approved at Tecumseh High School after months of discussion between representatives of the classes, Student Council and Principal Neville Hart.

In a statement to the students, coupled with the code, Mr. Hart reports:

"The administration and faculty of Tecumseh Senior High School desire to promote the best possible atmosphere for learning in the classroom. It is our belief that reasonable and somewhat formal standards of wearing apparel, cleanliness, safety, neatness, and personal hygiene are appropriate for our students.

"These standards are based upon the student's pride in himself, and in his school and its reputation within the community, as well as having an important influence on both his academic achievement and future success."

The principal says students who refuse to adhere to the guidelines will be warned first, and then on a second notice, they will be suspended until the student and parents assure him that the code will be followed.

A Student Council communication to the students asks for their cooperation, but it also states that the code is not exactly what had been requested.

The new guidelines are:

Girls

1. Hair styles for girls shall be in good taste and kept out of face and eyes at all times.
   a. Neither curlers nor hair clips may be worn.
2. Clothing shall be of a type that reflects proper school attire with attention to a fair degree of formality.
   a. Necklines shall be high enough to cover undergarments. Transparents fabrics require proper undergarments. All blouses must be tucked in unless made to be worn outside of the skirt. (Square cut)
   b. Skirts and dresses shall be long enough to cover undergarments whether standing, sitting, bending or reaching but not to exceed five (5) inches above the top of the knee. Culottes and other varieties of pant-type apparel may be worn, but the hem line is not to exceed five (5) inches above the top of the knee.
   c. No types of slacks or shorts will be worn during a regular school day.
   d. Slacks or bermuda shorts of a reasonable length and knee socks may be worn to extra-curricular activities, including informal dances after games.
   e. Sandals, other than the thong type, may be worn with hose during the school day.
   f. Girls shall be neat and clean at all times. Although what you wear is important, how you wear it should also be stressed.

   b. Hair in the back of the head shall be shaped to the contour of the head.

No Decision Is Reached at Britton

A lagoon system or sending sanitary sewage to Tecumseh was not settled at a meeting Tuesday evening in Britton where approximately 100 interested persons met with village and township officials.

Gustav Tiede, township supervisor, says a decision will be made next Tuesday by the Township Board.

Costs of both sewage systems is expensive.

Many factors are being taken into consideration, but the primary one is cost. Estimated cost of the lagoon and partial treatment plant is $294,700, plus another $598,600 for sanitary sewer construction. These figures were drawn from a report from Don Mitchell, county drain commissioner, who attended Tuesday night's meeting and who has been working with the township and village officials. Total cost for the lagoon system has been estimated at $893,300.

An engineer at the session said it would cost about $14,000 more to have sewage forced through a pressure line to the Tecumseh disposal plant.

Mr. Mitchell approached City Manager Cal Zorn last week about the possibility of the city handling Britton-Ridgeway sewage and inquired what the cost would be to residents.

The rate proposed by Mr. Zorn and plant superintendent Allyn Ernst is 30c per 1,000 gallons, less than a penny more than what city users pay. Part of this rate, as is the rate for city users, is diverted for paying off disposal plant bonds.

Mr. Zorn said Tuesday morn that all sewage rates would have to be adjusted in the future when disposal plants in Michigan are required to treat phosphates. This will require improvements at the local plant.

Whichever way Britton and Ridgeway decide to go, some Federal funds are expected to be available for construction. Mr. Zorn, who said that he had not checked out Federal Act 342 carefully, thought that Federal aid would amount to half of the total cost.

At the last Council session here, officials agreed to help and cooperate with Britton and Ridgeway folks if help were needed and sought.

Also attending the meeting in Britton this week were Rep. Robert Stites, and representatives of the Michigan Health Department, Lenawee County Health Department and Water Resources Commission.

Trash Collection Starts Monday

City will start picking up trash next Monday and will conduct the cleanup campaign through Monday, May 12.

Only trash, which will not fit in the regular refuse sacks, will be collected, and this trash must be at the curb. Large limbs and branches also will be collected, provided they're placed near the curb.

NEED $$$$ — Tecumseh Band Boosters need money and first touched for cash by Lisa Pence, band secretary, is John Surratt, manager of First Federal Savings. The Boosters' Tag Day is Friday and Saturday, and your support is needed for new uniforms, instruments and the David Day scholarship fund.

Dam Estimate Now $41,600

Not often these days does one receive an estimate and then have the figure come in about 30% less!

This happened to the City last week when L. E. Winkelhaus, engineer from Ann Arbor, reported to local officials that replacement of the Globe Mill Pond dam would cost $41,600 — not $60,000 as he had previously estimated.

The report showed $34,700 for re-building the dam and spillway and $6,900 for a radial gate, which he has recommended. Total costs, however, did not include general improvement of the pond's depth.

He has suggested that if a decision from Council is to be made, a detailed construction plan with specifications must be drawn and submitted to the Michigan Department of Natural Resources for approval.

City officials have expressed great relief after receiving the Winkelhaus report, which is a far cry from another Ann Arbor firm's estimate of $175,000 for an elaborate construction program.

City Manager Cal Zorn says Federal assistance will be sought in the re-building of the dam, but has no assurance that any monies will be made available.

He, like several other city officials, are proposing a special assessment project. Such a plan would cost the largest property owners on the pond the most. This would include the city, school and Dr. M. R. Blanden.

At least 30 other property owners would share in the expense, many of whom live in Herrick Park. Actual cost for the city, schools and other property owners has not been broken down.

The Winkelhaus report will undoubtedly be discussed at next Monday night's Council meeting.

Area Transfer Hearing Is Set For Monday Night

Lenawee County Board of Education will hold a hearing next Monday evening at Adrian for a request to transfer over 320 acres of the Leland Bush farm from the Tecumseh school district to the Britton-Macon district.

In his request to the county board, Mr. Bush says 21 members of the Bush families will be in the Britton schools and wants his tax monies collected for that district.

The area involved is just south of Macon and east of the Tecumseh-Macon Rd.

The local School Board is opposed to the transfer, since it will mean a loss of nearly $1,700 in tax monies.

The hearing is scheduled at 8:30 and will also include a request from Raymond Martaloch to transfer about two acres from the Tecumseh district to Britton's.

No Factors in County

By BILL SANFORD

Without a voice of dissent and amidst the shouts of platitudes the Lenawee County Board of Supervisors, not to be confused with the township supervisor, passed upon the equalization of Lenawee County last Friday. The vote was 19-0 in favor of passage of the equalization report disallowing factors for any county unit of government.

Tecumseh City increased a total of $2,000,000 over last year's figure. Out in Tecumseh Township the percentage of increase over the previous year was one of the five largest in the county in relation to '68 figures. The township increased a total of $313,445 over last year. There is approximately $4 million in property in the Township.

In the early part of the deliberations by the equalization committee of the supervisors, factors were considered for some areas in the county, including the city of Adrian. Although the city's increase of nearly $4 million dollars seems adequate, it was not felt, in some quarters, to be enough to meet the demands of inflation on the personal and property tax rolls.

The largest increase in assessments in the county in relation to size occurred in Cambridge township where a whopping $2,774,100 was added to the assessed valuation of the township. In 1968 the figure was $9,690,000, for 1969 taxes will be collected on $12,464,100.

The largest single factor for the increase in Cambridge is the new Michigan International Speedway which is on the books at an estimated $2.1 million. The speedway thus becomes one of the largest single taxpayers on property in the county.

General Motors, Fisher Body Division in Raisin Township is on the books at approximately $2 million with a personal property assessment of another $3 million, also one of the largest single taxpayers in the county.

Raisin Township, slapped with a factor last year, also adjusted its figures to be more in line with adjacent units on property within its boundaries. The total last year, $15,661,565. This was not the assessed valuation, however. A factor was applied to a roll that was almost $2 million below the '69 equalized figure. Assessed figures for '68 were $14,467,800 with a factor applied to the rolls of 1.09. This amounts to an assessed valuation increase of $1,826,600.

Franklin Township also had a big boost in its overall assessment picture. Last year a controversial factor of 1.50 was applied to the rolls. Shortly after the report of the equalization director and the committee, the township board met and agreed to hire an Ohio assessing firm to canvass the township in the hopes of upsetting the county's verdict.

However, the enterprise was to no avail as the firm found the township to be below other units of government in assessments. The figures reached by the county board of supervisors was on a par with that of the canvass completed last fall.

As a result Franklin assessed value rose from $5,134,526 to $7,358,585. Last year's equalized total, including the factor was some $333,644 higher than this year's equalized value. While it may show a decrease on paper, the equalization effect was carried out across the rolls rather than a blanket percentage on all property owners.

Clinton Township was another of those given a factor last year. Assessing was done in the township by new Supervisor Earl Roe raising the assessed value of the unit from $12,682,200 to $14,105,568. With the factor last year the township was equalized at $13,478,533.

Other townships felt the factor last year and went through a re-assessing process to bring their units into line with adjoining townships.

The line this year seemed to be that the present county supervisors took into consideration that many of the assessing officers of the cities and townships have not been in their positions long enough due to reapportionment, to wield a heavy hand over them. Also a Township Association chapter is being founded here and may have a healthy effect on county government.

The county as a whole increased in equalized value from $291,629,217 to $306,179,486.

With the prospect of a factor diminished, the Board of Supervisors and the taxpayers can breathe a sigh of relief and return to their remote and esoteric Cathays.

Niblack Ending Ambulance Runs

Stewart Niblack announced Monday that the Niblack Home For Funerals will discontinue ambulance service as of June 30.

"I regret the decision to discontinue but the provisions of the new legislation to regulate the licensing and operation of ambulances effective July 1, makes it economically unfeasible to continue."

"The Sheriff's Department will patrol this section of Lenawee County and should be available at all times," he commented.

"I appreciate the cooperation of the area residents in the past."

Players Comedy Opens May 9

Veterans as well as new faces will appear on the Glass Room stage at the Community Center when the Tecumseh Players will present the comedy, "The Gazebo", May 9, 10, 16 and 17.

Ted Broderick and Judy Doonan, as Elliott and Nell Nash, Phil Baker as Harlow, their next door neighbor, become enmeshed with a varied assortment of supporting characters, sprinkled through the comedy-mystery.

Among the supporting cast as Charlotte Parker, a veteran of many Players' shows, in the role of Mrs. Chandler, a persistent real estate saleswoman. A new face appears in the person of Marie Woszczynski as Mathilda, the maid. She has been a resident of Tecumseh for one year.

The detective who hounds Elliott through the play, is portrayed by Dennis Goller. He is making his return to the theatre after many years of inactivity. Assisting the detective is Tom Marine, a senior at Tecumseh High School.

Elliott's predicament is compounded by the arrival of a pair of unsavory characters, the Dook and Louie, his not too brainy enforcer. Ron Wisner and Ron Wetter, respectively, combine to make life for Elliott touch and go through their hilarious antics. Both are Tecumsehites. Wisner has appeared with the Nankin Mills Players while Wetter is making his debut.

Included in the supporting cast are Lyle Dornan as Mr. Thorpe and Gail Rothfuss as Dr. Wyner. Rothfuss has been active with the Players and Dornan comes to the Glass Room stage via the Grand Rapids Civic Theatre.

Mrs. Dornan is making her debut with the Players, while Broderick and Baker have been seen in other plays which the Tecumseh Players have staged.

Tickets to the comedy are on a reservation basis only. For ticket information call 423-2981.

District LCW Meets Here

The LCW in the Michigan Synod of the Lutheran Church Association is divided for five geographical parts, one of them is the South Central District.

Last week 95 representatives of the Adrian, Lansing, Saline, Ann Arbor, Battle Creek, Temperance, Hillsdale, Albion, Jackson, Mason, Coldwater and Tecumseh were present at the Gloria Dei Church and shared the hospitality of the community.

During the morning worship service the pastor spoke of the theme of the assembly, "Extend" and called the attention of the ladies to more and urgent need of Christian service in their respective communities. Mrs. Earl Mason played the organ and Mrs. Frank McRae was the soloist.

At the meeting Mrs. James Brookhart, Philadelphia, Pa., spoke about illiteracy and asked her audience to help teach children as well as adults to read in their communities.

The business meeting was enjoyably interrupted by a delicious dinner, prepared by Mrs. Melvin Ruettinger and served by the LCW members.

In the afternoon Mrs. E. McClain, president, of Coldwater, and Mrs. M. Frank, secretary, of Adrian, were installed in their offices by Pastor E. Luthy, advisor.

Mrs. James Colson, Mrs. William Rohweder and Mrs. Laszlo Gero organized the assembly and 20 ladies from the local congregation helped to make it a success.

NO DIVING BOARD — Tecumseh Park will not have a diving board this year or the two boats planned on because vandals destroyed plate glass windows costing $250. The money could have been used for the board and boats. Rocks were discovered inside the building that were hurled through the 126" x 26" plate glass window above the entrance and three smaller sliding windows below. No insurance is available against vandalism, the city manager said Wednesday.

Golfers Hopes Dim

The Tecumseh High School golf team's hopes of copping the Huron League crown were given a sharp jolt in the past week of action as the team dropped two of three league decisions.

At the River Raisin golf course Thursday, the Indians were nipped by Monroe Catholic Central by one stroke, 159-160. It was the team's second one-shot loss of the season. John Bryan fired a 38 for Tecumseh as Bill Holmes carded a 40 and Bill Gibson and Ralph Miller added 41's.

Tecumseh bounced back and completely outclassed New Boston Huron Friday at the Carleton Glen Golf Club, 165-213. Bryan was medalist with a fine 38 as Gibson shot 39, Steve Dalton had a 42 and Holmes a 46.

The Indians received a double setback Monday at the rainy Country Club when they lost to league-leading Grosse Ile, 169-174, and also to non-league foe, Jackson Lumen Christi, 160-174. Bryan again was low man for the team with a 41 as Dalton and Frank Geisenhaver shot 44's and Holmes had a 45. The defeat to Grosse Ile was especially costly to Tecumseh as they now trail the Red Devils by two full games.

There is no doubt that Tecumseh possesses the physical ability to play consistent winning golf. So far in the season, however, this ability has been rather latent. The team's overall record presently stands at a mediocre 4-5, with the Huron League record at 4-2.

Savings Bond Drive Begins at Products

The week of May 5 is set for the U. S. Savings Bond Drive at the Tecumseh Products Co., with a goal of in excess of 50% participation.

Jack Curtiss, director of personnel, stated that Elmer Buehrer, works manager, is chairman of the Drive in the Tecumseh plant. He will enlist the cooperation of all foremen to solicit each employee in his respective group.

A solicitors' meeting for all department heads will be held May 1 to kick off the drive. John Vandenberg of the U. S. Treasury Savings Bond Division of Detroit will speak and present a movie.

Each solicitor will be given a tie tac appropriate for the drive.

Mr. Curtiss said that 3,800 letters are in the mail to employees explaining the bond program via the payroll deduction plan. Series E Bonds pay 4¼% interest compounded semi-annually when held to seven years' maturity.

The letters also tell of the new Freedom Shares which mature in 4½ years and bear 5% interest.

If the goal of over 50% participation is reached, an award will be presented to the plant.

Curtiss also reminds employees that there is legislation pending in Congress to allow the Treasury Department to increase the interest rate on savings bonds.

By DOROTHY GRIGG

Great news from the University Medical Center where Michael Bartenslager is recuperating from burns suffered April 7 in an accident at Peerless Gear in Clinton, where he was employed. Skin grafts are being started Wednesday on his ear, hand, arm and knee with the hope that he will be able to return to his home in two weeks.

The plucky repairman was taken from the intensive care unit over last weekend and now has his own room where a bulletin board displays his many greeting cards. These he appreciates since he is not allowed many visitors. His address is 8th Floor Burn Center, University Medical Center, Ann Arbor.

Good news, too, from Britton and Darlene Fairbanks, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Fairbanks. The little lass is able to come home from the hospital on weekends. She is able to walk with help about the village but still does not talk.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Howe arrived home from Florida last week. En route they spent a weekend at the nephews in Charlotte, N. C., with their grandson, John Snyder, who came from Fort Bragg.

Mrs. Allan Ramsay is coming from Trenton to spend the weekend with her mother, Mrs. George Green, Sr., and attend the Mother-Daughter Banquet Saturday at the United Methodist Church.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Jennings and family, Jackie, Bill and Randa, returned Sunday from a tour through Houston, San Antonio and Del Rio, Tex., crossing the border into Old Mexico. They were accompanied by Mrs. Jenning's brother, Charles Goff, and his family. The Jennings also spent a few days at the Goff home in Biloxi, Miss.

Mr. and Mrs. Larry Robison and two sons have moved from California to the Grand Rapids area where Mr. Robison has taken a position with Lear Siegler Co.

Mrs. Edward Sayler and Mrs. Fred Sayler of Britton, in company with Mrs. Durling Somes of Sand Creek, have returned after five months in Sebring, Fla.

Terry Packard, son of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Packard, has been inducted into the Navy from Chicago, Ill., and is presently in boot training at Great Lakes Naval Station.

Mrs. Thomas Donges, nee Joan Wing, and two children of Corbin, Ky., were here over last weekend to attend the Wright-Clary wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. McConnell and Mr. and Mrs. Russell McConnell of Eliot, Me., were guests of honor Sunday at a family gathering in Milan at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wyman Campbell. Other guests included Mr. and Mrs. Jack McConnell and two sons of Ann Arbor, Mrs. Floyd Bryan, Mr. and Mrs. Ray McConnell, Mason, Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Grigg, Norman Grigg and Kathy Butler.

Sgt. Frank Bisher, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bisher, is home on a 30-day leave from Thailand. He will report to Loughlin AFB, Del Rio, Tex.

Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Baily were honored at the family night dinner April 1 at the First Baptist Church when those assembled, sang a greeting to them for their 49th wedding anniversary.

Mrs. Floyd Bryan was happily surprised Friday when three friends arrived at her home in Britton, bringing dinner in observance of her birthday anniversary. Mrs. George Green, Sr., Mrs. Gertrude Bacon and Lily Beagle were the surprisers.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Truesdale arrived home Thursday night from Bradenton, Fla., where they had spent the winter. Accompanying them was their granddaughter, Diana Wilson, who had been their guests for the past six weeks to recuperate from bronchial problems. The eight-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard R. Wilson, flew to Florida by herself to join her grandparents.

Mrs. Maude L. Creger, accompanied by her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Creger, of Clinton, were in Sylvania, O., Sunday to visit another daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Zimmerman. Mrs. Mrs. Zimmerman recently returned home from Toledo Hospital where she had been a medical patient. Other callers were Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Service of Clinton.

The honored couple received many gifts.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Cadmus have recently returned from a trip to Salem, Mass., where they visited her brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Hal E. Hall. Mr. Hall is very ill. After a week there, they drove to Long Island, N. Y., to spend a weekend with Mrs. Cadmus' daughter, Christine and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Beckwith. Be Kind to Animals Week (May 4-10) started early Tuesday morning when Mrs. Mike Shorkey reported to Petwatchers that a small poodle dog had been hit by a car near her home on Stacy Street. The Tecumseh police department was alerted and Officer Jerry Anderson was dispatched to the scene. "He was so gentle with the injured pup" reported Mrs. Shorkey, "I just couldn't believe it"!

The dog was taken immediately to the Tecumseh Veterinary Clinic and is receiving treatment under the direction of Petwatchers while its owner is located.

Vaccine is Effective

Carl Lamb presented Dr. Arnold Monta, professor of epidemiology of the School of Public Health of the University of Michigan, to more than 20 attending the Lenawee-Hillsdale Pharmaceutical Association meeting.

Dr. Monta spoke to the group at the Tecumseh Community Center April 22. He said that the vaccine given to Tecumseh's school children last fall was most effective against the Hong Kong flu in December.

He stated that had the rate of influenza been as great here as in Adrian or Lansing, there would have been 3,000 cases in the school district.

The type B flu that created an epidemic in March was from a different virus, therefore the vaccine was not effective against it.

Dr. Monta is presently working with a team on the rubella vaccine for German measles.

Mrs. W. A. Wright is a delegate to the Michigan State Pharmaceutical Association convention in June. Her husband is an alternate.

Irish Hills Struck by Tornado Sunday Night

MORNING AFTER CLEAN-UP — Early Monday morning workmen from the State Highway Department were working to clear US-12 of the rubble from the roof of the Huck Dowling garage, which was extensively damaged in the storm. Much of the debris hit in the trees and fell to the highway below. The garage is 300 feet from the highway.

CLOSE SHAVE FOR CADILLAC — The tree near the entrance to Stagecoach Stop fell partially onto a new convertible owned by Fred Bahlau, owner of the amusement park. A tractor parked the night before, according to Mr. Bahlau, saved the new car from more damage than was incurred.

DRYDOCKED — The tornado picked a 1,200-pound raft from the Hirsch residence and slammed it against the neighboring cottage, a distance of 40 feet or more. Shortly after the raft crashed into the building, a willow tree fell on the exact spot where the raft was. Another raft further down the shore was also lifted from the water and deposited on land. Many boats were tossed on the Sand Lake shore.

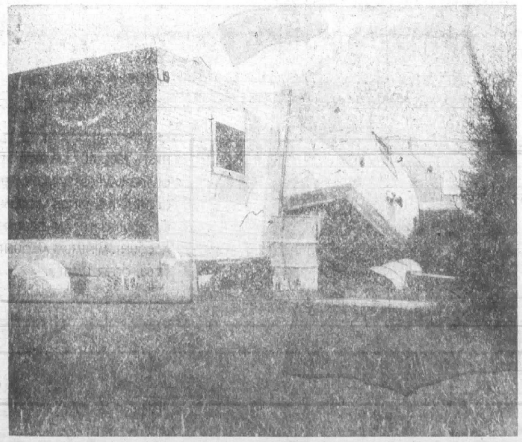
THE TORNADO — The "twister" which hit the Sand Lake-Irish Hills area last Sunday uprooted this huge willow tree on the property of Jeff Hirsch on the north shore of Sand Lake. The winds also carried boats from moorings down the beach and deposited them near the tree.



UNOCCUPIED — During the storm Sunday a utility shed on the residence of Albert Schwellinger on US-12 was blown into two trailers which had been parked for the winter alongside. Also on the Schwellinger grounds, a tree was blown onto another house trailer.

DOUBLE WINNER — Gary Fairbanks is caught by Herald Photographer, Mark Roberts, clearing the low hurdles. Fairbanks was the only double winner for the Indian thinclads at the meet last Saturday in Jackson.

THS Thinclads Bump MCC

Tecumseh thinclads pushed on to their fifth win of the season last Thursday over Monroe Catholic Central, 77½ to 40½, in cool weather under sunny skies. The track was recorded as good and fast.

In the shot put event, Gary Hannibal and Jack Edwards finished second and third to pick up the first points for the Indians. Terry Boldon copped the broad jump with a leap of 20' 9½". Teammate Scott Dalton went 18'5" for third place.

Boldon also picked up a first in the high jump with a 6' even mark. Gary Fairbanks trailed his teammate in third with a 5'10" jump.

In the pole vault, Bruce Costigan went 11'9", the same as Gable of MCC, but the CC vaulter had few misses and Costigan was awarded second place. Jim Collins trailed in third with 11'3".

Richard Graf rambled the two-mile event in the winning time of 10:49.3. Bob Laidlaw was 10 seconds behind in second place.

Dave Gurtzweiler, Terry Boldon, Gerald Girbach and Gary Fairbanks teamed for the 880 relay winners in a time of 1:37.

LaMar Rufner took the mile run in a time of 4:47. Jack Edwards finished in second at 4:54.

Gary Fairbanks won both of the hurdle events, running the 120 highs in 16 seconds flat and the 180-yard low hurdles in 21.5. Gary Hannibal took third in the with a 23 second flat time.

Tony Lisenbee and Paul Randall finished one-two in the 880-yd. run, Lisenbee winning in a time of 2:11.7.

Dave Laidlaw and Mark Goodacre finished second and third in the 440-yd. dash with respective times of 55.0 and 55.5.

Gerald Girbach finished first in the mile run.1 second ahead of Calasco for MCC. Dave Gurtzweiler and Gerweck of CC finished in a tie for third place.

In the 220, the field was reversed as Girbach finished .2 of a second behind Valasco. Gurtzweiler finished in third, another .2 of a second off the winning pace.

The mile relay team of Dalton, Lisenbee, Rufner and Laidlaw, took the honors, outdistancing MCC in a time of 3:45.5.

"The Boss" Is Honored

The press was running full blast on two successive Wednesdays when tours of The Herald plant were made by 66 members of the sixth grade reading classes in two groups. They were accompanied by their teacher, Mrs. Norman Bless and Principal Earl Green.

The tour was climaxed by class member Jim Vaughn's presentation of a plaque to Editor Jim Lincoln inscribed "In recognition of your service to education by the Patterson Sixth Grade from Herald Readers."

The class makes a practice of reading The Herald each Friday in class.

(Editor's note — It seems that two tries at a photo of Jim Lincoln and the plaque presentation came amiss in camera or darkroom. We're not saying he broke the camera, but . . .)

Indians 3rd at Jackson Track Meet

Tecumseh placed third in the Parkside Invitational track meet in Jackson Saturday, losing the meet and dropping to third when the Indians were blanked in the final event, the mile relay.

Gary Fairbanks was the meet's only double winner, copping both the 180 and 120-yard hurdle events.

Terry Boldon, Tecumseh and area's top high jumper, finished second with a 6'2" jump. However, he broke the school's record in the broad jump with a 21'7" leap. This mark was held by Bob Benham since 1954, according to Coach Tom Fagan.

Scott Dalton took fourth place in the broad jump with a 20'2" mark.

Other points were made by:

Gerald Girbach, 4th place, 220.
Lamar Rufner, 3rd, mile.
John Edwards, 4th, mile.

Rufner and Edwards were leading the mile and were nipped at the tape. Their time was 4:41, with both finishing in a near dead heat.

Ten schools participated in the track meet.

Jane Marie Kemner Weds Richard Service

CLINTON — Nuptial vows were exchanged by Jane Marie Kemner and Richard Lee Service before the Rev. Ralph L. Kuether in the Emmanuel United Church of Christ, Manchester, Saturday evening.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert W. Kemner of 18451 Pleasant Lake Rd., Manchester, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Service of 4797 Clinton-Macon Rd.

Mrs. Hazel Davidter played the organ and accompanied the soloist, Richard A. Kuntz.

The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Charles Kemner. The bridal gown featured a bodice of imported Belgian lace with a stand-up collar and the lace sleeves ended in a ruffle of satin-finished peau de soie, matching the full skirt. Bands of lace flowed from the natural waistline to the hem and trimmed the chapel train.

A dutch bonnet, accented with seed pearls and a bow in back, held the bride's tiered veil of illusion and she carried a cascade of stephanotis and gardenias.

The matron of honor was Mrs. Gerald Jacob of Manchester, sister of the bride and the bridesmaids were Mrs. Robert Paul, of Manchester; sister of the bride; Mrs. Charles Kemner of Saline, sister-in-law of the bride; Mrs. Victor Mann, and Patricia Kirk, both of Manchester, and Martha Ayers of Kalamazoo.

All the bride's attendants' gowns were styled of white Dublinaire Leno over powder blue, worn with matching bows as headdresses. Each carried a fan-shaped bouquet of blue-tipped carnations with long, blue velvet streamers.

The flower girls were Gay Service of Clinton, niece of the groom and Judy Jacob, niece of the bride.

David Roehm of Manchester was the best man, and the groomsmen were Gary Service, brother of the groom, Victor Mann, Manchester; Robert E. Hunt, Tecumseh; Roger Bortel, Britton and Ronald Walter, Manchester.

The guests were seated by Gerald Jacob, Grass Lake; Charles Kemner, Saline; and Karl Jacob.

The reception at the church hall was attended by 500 guests. The bride's aunts, Velma Bayley and Irene Kemner, cut the wedding cake at a bride's table, which was skirted in blue and decorated with goblet centerpieces.

The bride is a graduate of Manchester High School and is employed in the accounting department at Double-A Products Co., Manchester. Mr. Service is a graduate of Clinton High School, attended Michigan State University for two years, and is employed at Clinton Grain Co.

The couple will reside at 9986 Bethel Church Rd., Manchester, upon their return from a brief wedding trip.

The bridegroom's parents entertained at the rehearsal dinner, Friday evening, at Bauer Manor.

Lutheran Pioneers Attend Conference

The Lutheran Pioneers, Inc., held their 13th National Convention at the Fox Valley Lutheran High School in Appleton, Wis.

Herb Simon, Carl Wagner and Dean Craig, members of Grace Lutheran Church were among the 40 delegates and wives who attended from 210 units which have been established in 11 states.

Mr. Simon was re-elected to the National Council and was elected as Secretary of the National Council.

Following the business meeting several seminars highlighting the programs for the Lutheran boys in churches of the Wisconsin Evangelical Lutheran Synod were presented.

One of the keynote speakers, the Rev. David Ponath of Antioch, Ill., Public Relations Director of the Lutheran Pioneers, addressed the group on "Patriotism".

A period of discussion was held on the subject "Older Boy Program", by Harold Schanzenbach, assistant national commander in charge of this subject from Minneapolis, Minn.

Gerald Mallman, faculty member of Fox Valley Lutheran High School, Appleton, Wis., lectured on the "Many Fallacies of Evolution".

"Record Keeping and Program Planning" was the seminar topic delivered by National Chairman of the Lutheran Pioneers, Carl Meitner of Appleton, Wis.

Mrs. Simon, Mrs. Wagner and Mrs. Craig accompanied their husbands to the convention. After attending opening church services, the ladies toured the Riverside Paper Company, the Aid Association for Lutherans Insurance building, who also hosted the ladies to their noon luncheon, had a free period for shopping, and a 22-mile sight-seeing tour of the city.

The members and wives from Tecumseh stopped for a visit with the former pastor of Grace Lutheran, the Rev. Kurt Koeplin and family, in Milwaukee, Wis., where he is presently pastor of Atonement Lutheran Church.

Free TV Issue

The national campaign to SAVE FREE TV has enlisted the local support of Lenawee Auto Theatre, in Adrian, it was announced by Bob Woodlock.

Few people, Mr. Woodlock stated, are aware that the Federal Communications Commission has authorized Pay TV beginning June 12, and that unless Congress enacts legislation prior to such date amending the Communications Act, prohibiting the FCC from authorizing Pay TV, it will become a reality on that date and mark the beginning of the end of the public's right to free television viewing.

It was also pointed up that Pay TV, in any form, is a massive giveaway to private interests and that unless the public registers its protest to U. S. Senators and Congressmen, the citizens will find themselves having to subscribe and pay for the same type of television programs they now receive on free television.

"The objective of the national committee," Mr. Woodlock declared, "is to join with local, civic, fraternal, labor, social, old age, school, hospital and other groups in soliciting a minimum of 25,000,000 signatures on petitions urging Senators and Congressmen to take immediate action to preclude the FCC from authorizing Pay TV, in any form, whether over-the-air or by cable, and to preserve the right to free television viewing.

Signatures on petitions are being collected at the theatres and May 1 was set as a deadline to achieve the goal.

Through My Window

UNUSUAL FRONT YARD VISITORS

My duck hunting friends tell me that dark, drizzly fall days are good hunting days because the ducks do not fly high nor far in such weather. I thought about this several weeks ago — April is hardly a fall month but the weather was certainly fallish. On this particular day it was cold and dark with a nasty rain falling. And the ducks were certainly not flying very high because good heavens, there was one waddling across the front yard.

I am absolutely serious — Gertie T and I saw a duck in the front yard. What a surprise. He was a handsome fellow and there was no mistaking his identity. A wood duck. He did not stay with us long and, when he left, we had another surprise. Instead of turning around and heading for the creek, he flew across the street and lit on one of the big limbs of the maple tree by Prettyman's driveway. I could not see this but Gertie T rushed to the front window and, as he settled on the limb, she exclaimed that there was another duck. Mr. and Mrs. Wood Duck.

Even though his front yard visit was short, he left a vivid impression. There is no way to describe a duck walking except by using the word waddle, but there are waddles and then there are waddles.

This was not a shuffling, slouched down, plodding along — he was, instead, stepping off at a rather smart clip. His head was high and his stride was the neatest thing to a proud march that... his widely spread legs and big webbed feet would allow.

SEVERAL YEARS ago Clint and Kate Cameron saw wood ducks on the creek; this, however, was our first really good look. Had our fellow been trying to show off, he could not have done a better job — holding his head high was the perfect nose to give full benefit to the distinctive crest or plume of feathers which fell from the back of his head. Colorwise, of course, he was gorgeous.

Even on a gloomy day his head was a dark, velvety, iridescent green, and the white facial markings — the stripes running back over his eyes, under his chin, through his crest, and around his throat — were most striking. When he flew up to meet his mate, his white underside contrasted with the dark chestnut of his chest, and his buffy sides (yet as the books said it should. The male wood duck is by far the most gorgeously garbed of any North American duck.

The female was too far away and the light was far too poor for Gertie to pick out any distinctive features. There wouldn't be too much to pick out anyway because Mrs. Wood Duck must true to form and is an inconspicuous blend of non-attention attracting colors.

Like most of the gals of the bird world at this time of year, she was playing it cool and being a bit coy. Once he had comfortably settled down next to her, she flew up to the next branch of the tree. He immediately followed. They moved this way several times until finally she took off and headed north towards Dorothy U.'s house and the creek.

LATER IN THE day we saw a pair of ducks flying and we kept our fingers crossed. The next day we again saw a "ducky twosome" circling but, as for a return visit, there has been none. We keep hoping though.

In addition to their almost gaudy appearance, wood ducks are interesting because of their unusual habits. They are aptly named, they are as much at home in trees as they are in the water. In fact, a hole in an old decayed tree is a preferred nesting site — and, surprisingly enough, nests have been found in trees which were quite far from water. As woodlots and streamsides were cleared to make for better farming, these natural home-sweet-homes became harder and harder to find and the wood duck population was rapidly disappearing.

This, plus heavy shooting, had them in serious trouble. More and more, however, people are putting out nesting boxes and, although the ducks are a mite fussy, they do use some man-made homes and thus are increasing in numbers.

So it is that there was great excitement for a few minutes here and a gloomy morning was completely forgotten when a pair of wood ducks were our unusual front yard visitors.

Pastor tell me

By DUANE H. McNEIL

DOES GOD LOVE ME?

God could not possibly have declared His love for everyone more plainly that He has done in the Bible. Each reference in the Bible that tells of God's love is in the past tense. For example — God so loved the world, He first loved us, He loved us and sent His Son. All these statements point back to the cross of Calvary.

It is there that God's love is presented in brilliant colors. God says in effect, I love you — if you don't believe it, look at what I did for you at Calvary.

God's love is available and knowable in daily life. He declares He will answer prayer. He says I care for you, I will help you, I will strengthen you, call on Me. Then, too, God presents many promises. Each one tried is found to be true.

God's love can be felt by each person who accepts God's whosoever will. Whosoever will call on the name of the Lord shall be Saved.

We know God's love is real when we can feel it down in our heart.

God's love will continue on in our behalf in the future as well. He promised to raise our bodies from the dead. He promised to come again for us. Best of all He promises a place for us in Heaven.

Smile — God loves you!

Letters to the Editor

TO THE EDITOR:

18 April 1969
Osan AB, Korea

Dear members of The Herald family:

The thought suddenly occurred to me, upon receipt this morning of my weekly Herald, that it might be prudent to notify you of the fact that, as of April 23, I will be addressed as "Mr. Fero" or "Mike". What that obviously indicates is that I am leaving Korea, returning to embattled and embittered America to take my place in the mainstream, and to become a civilian once again.

Therefore, it would seem ridiculous to continue sending copies of The Herald to South Korea — although you'd be surprised at the readership it has had over the past 14 months. From now until my subscription runs out, I would appreciate it being sent to the following address:

142 Young Street
Owosso, Michigan 48867

Reflecting upon my tour here along "Freedom's Frontier" I can only say that there have been moments of pleasure to counteract the hours of work and boredom. It has been better than what I would imagine life is in other areas of Asia for the American soldier but far less enjoyable than Miami Beach or Las Vegas. (Or is that an understatement??)

Sometimes Korea is difficult to understand in the military sense. The probability of U. S. presence for many years to come is disheartening until one contemplates the sobering influence it has had (until recently at least) on those who would covet this country. It is difficult to understand until one sees the friendliness and gratitude, most often felt rather than expressed, of the South Koreans who have as much, or more, reason to dislike the tall, boisterous and often unthinking GI who inhabits their country, than do many other peoples who stone our embassies, spit in our official's faces, and otherwise defame the symbols of the United States.

In a time when our overseas commitments are scrutinized closely by many and criticized by others, it is my opinion that Korea is, at least, one place where we are needed . . . and, perhaps more importantly, wanted. I would only hope that this aid we are providing is expanded to include more projects such as Peace Corps. But all of this is getting off the point of my communique . . . .

My regards to all of you and my thanks again for having provided me with 60 weekly editions of what's what in Tecumseh and environs. Before I end this, there's one other point I would very much like to bring up: the new proposed high school complex for the city. Education does not come cheaply nor should it as it amounts to the most important asset we, as Americans, can provide for our children. I'm immensely happy to see that Tecumsehites realize this and are not merely paying lipservice to it. My heartiest congratulations!

Looking forward to seeing you in the near future, I remain,

Sincerely yours (and short on paper)—
Mike.

TO THE EDITOR:

I am writing in reference to several letters in last week's Herald concerning the controversy of the Lenawee County Dog Warden's recent action in Clinton. I, too, realize the dog problem in Clinton, and feel that something had to be done for the protection of the town's children, but as the owner of a murdered dog, I object to his methods and his deliberate lies that followed the incident.

My dog was shot by the warden while standing in his own yard. A neighbor who saw the wounded dog, went out to inquire and was told that the dog was hit by a car, and he was loaded into the truck. My neighbor was not even allowed to see the dog to see if it was actually dead yet.

This dog was properly licensed but that seemed to make no difference, as we were never contacted as to what had happened to our dog. I feel that the dog warden, a tax-paid public servant, should make some effort to contact a dog's owner, if possible. He could have at least left a note at our house.

When I called him to inquire about my dog, he denied having him. In a later hearing that was held he did finally admit to shooting my dog and several others, but I never really knew what happened to my dog.

I know that this will not bring back my dog, who was well-known and liked by many children in the neighborhood, but in the future I hope some effort will be taken to catch or tranquilize innocent dogs instead. I am not entirely attacking Mr. Mitchell because he was doing his very undesirable job and I would like to thank Sheriff Germond for giving the matter the careful investigation that it deserved.

Sincerely,
Tom Bihlmeyer,
Clinton, Michigan.

Touch of Past

By MAXINE CALHOUN

1879

Peach trees are ready to bloom.

W. and S. W. Anderson are building a new sidewalk in front of their new store.

The ladies will wear striped kid gloves, the top stripe matching that on the stocking — but you can't prove it. (Editor's note — How times have changed!)

The whole country has an air of prosperity. Farmers are all making improvements.

1889

F. S. Marsteller is moving and enlarging his marble shop at Clinton.

George H. Seelye of Lapeer has bought the boot and shoe stock of groceries.

1899

The immigration laws of the United States have been extended to Cuba, Puerto Rico and the Philippine Islands.

President McKinley has announced the new extradition treaty between the United States and Mexico.

George Lancaster is the new proprietor of the Lancaster Hotel, assuming his duties May 1.

G. H. Tansley has moved his undertaking rooms to the Cheever block.

1909

Howard Matthews has rented his restaurant to Fred Miller and has taken a traveling position.

Marking the beginning of the local option law, 585 saloons and 10 breweries in Michigan counties closed their doors April 30.

The Macon church celebrated its 60th anniversary April 30th.

1919

Mrs. Eva Powers, manager of the Clinton telephone exchange for many years, will resign next month.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Pangburn have bought the first cottage on Rainbow Row.

Ralph Oliver and Lillard Brown have returned from overseas duty to their homes in Britton.

1929

Ira W. Ashley purchased a lot with 700-foot frontage on Pearl St. of Emil H. Ahrens.

Tecumseh's telephone company is to have a new switchboard. New phones will also be installed for all subscribers.

The continual spring rains have put the farmers so far back in their work that many have decided not to sow any oats.

1939

Ground was broken today for the first of six new homes in Tecumseh's newest subdivision, located at the northeast corner of N. Union and Bidwell Sts.

Neil Jones, tuba, and Kenneth Abbott, baritone, were given superior ratings in the state solo contest at Ann Arbor recently and are elicible to attend the national music festival in Indianapolis, Ind., in May.

The Alonzo Lidster farm house located four miles southwest of Britton was destroyed by fire Sunday morning.

Fire destroyed a large building at the Puritan Sand and Gravel Company's pit, west of Tecumseh.

1949

Chamber of Commerce officials recently visited Tecumseh, Ont., and that community is anxious to share in the International Day festivities which will take place here during the four-day celebration of Tecumseh, Michigan's 125th anniversary.

Forty-five seniors accompanied by their sponsors, Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Dickinson and Coach and Mrs. Elven Duval, will leave Detroit, May 8, for a cruise on the Canadian steamship Noronic.

1959

Russell Steinke captured a second place in the oil painting division with his canvas entitled "Weathervane," at the Toledo Area Artists Exhibitions.

Russell Cooper, junior warden of St. Peter's Episcopal Church, was recently installed as a lay-reader by the Rev. Frank W. Hawthorne, rector.

Extension Club Is Entertained

The Northeast Tecumseh Extension Club was entertained at the home of Mrs. Lester Ruhl April 22.

Eight members answered the roll call with "a poison experience."

Fortunately, not many had had such an experience.

Mrs. Wilbur Boyce gave the lesson on "Poison in the Home."

Aspirin tops the list of common household items included as poison. Rhubarb leaves, and poinsettia leaves are among the danger items, especially for little children.

Mrs. Boyce remarked that fumes from carbon tetra-chloride are poisonous and plenty of ventilation should be in evidence when it is used. She said never to put the substance in a cup or pop bottle and leave it due to the danger of someone drinking it.

Mrs. Donald Whelan conducted a fashion party following the lesson.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Marvin Johnson when officers will be elected.

EDUCATIONAL TV — Students at THS are becoming more used to the idea of being on TV these days. With the aid of a new video-tape machine, purchased, in part, through the efforts of the Varsity Club, pupils are now able to see themselves in action in the classroom as well as the playing field. Hugh Conklin is shown here as he tapes a speech in a social studies class.

Stationed In The Country

Construction Electrician 3/c Frederick J. Withrow, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry A. Withrow, Sr., 9424 Tipton Hwy., Tipton, is serving with Mobile Construction Battalion 62 in Vietnam.

While in Vietnam, his battalion will help to improve highways, install electric and water distribution systems, erect bridges and put up buildings for U. S. installations throughout the five northernmost provinces of South Vietnam.

His unit is also engaged in a civic action program designed to assist the Vietnamese people in completing self-help projects, such as the building of wells, culverts, small bridges and schools. Equipment and materials are made available through the Marine Corps Reserve Civic Action Fund.

Friends in Tecumseh have learned of the death of Mrs. Henry Becker of Pontiac who died Jan. 16. The Beckers were formerly of Tecumseh and visited here a couple of times each year. Mr. Becker was a cigar maker here.

Airport Hosts Conference

Parachuting Service of Tecumseh will host the 1969 Mid-Eastern Conference Meet at the Tecumseh Airport May 3 and 4.

Forty of the outstanding male and female jumpers of Michigan and Ohio will be competing. After eliminations approximately 15 of these competitiors will attend the National Parachuting Championship in Tucson, Ariz., in July.

Last year David Sauve of East Lansing was one of the representatives from the Mid-Eastern Conference who attended the National competition. There he was one of six men who won a berth on the United States Parachuting Team. They competed at the World Parachuting Meet in Austria last August.

Sauve, as a member of a four-man team representing the United States, won a gold medal and a silver medal in accuracy competition.

Mr. Sauve has also won many trophies in Michigan meets. He was the State Champion for three years in a row and last year placed second behind Gordon Collins of Royal Oak.

Other top jumpers who will be competing in the Conference Meet are Gerald Marklin of Detroit and Jim Kunard of Jackson.

These four jumpers have over 500 jumps each with Sauve in the lead with 1650. They can be seen adding to this number any weekend at the Tecumseh Airport.

Plymouth Scores Most Points in Three Tests

A Plymouth Fury I scored the highest number of points of all 60 cars that competed in fuel economy, acceleration and braking tests of the Union/Pure Oil Performance Trials at Daytona Beach, Fla.

The Plymouth Fury, competing in Class V for cars equipped with standard V-8 engines, scored a total of 98 performance points out of a possible 100.

Two other Plymouth entries finished first in their respective classes, giving the Plymouth line of cars winners in three out of the nine classes of competition.

2,000 Teams of Students Competing in Plymouth's Trouble Shooting Contest

Teams of student mechanics from more than 2,000 high schools and colleges in every state of the Union will compete for $125,000 worth of prizes in the 21st annual Plymouth TroubleShooting Contest.

The contest is sponsored by the Chrysler-Plymouth Division of Chrysler Motors Corporation and Plymouth Dealers of America to encourage students with mechanical talent to continue their education and pursue careers in the growing automotive service business.

Other Plymouth winners were a Valiant Signet in Class VII for six-cylinder compact economy cars, and a Barracuda in Class IX for sports compacts.

The Union/Pure Oil Performance Trials, held under the supervision of the National Association for Stock Car Racing, compared the basic performance characteristics of American-made 1969 models which are in the popular price ranges.

The fuel economy tests measured a car's fuel consumption at an average speed of 40 miles per hour over a distance of 18.567 miles.

The acceleration tests measured the time it took a car to accelerate from 25 to 70 miles per hour.

The braking tests demonstrated the car's high-speed stopping capability immediately after severe brake usage.

The 60 stock cars competing in the tests were taken directly from dealers' showrooms throughout the country to provide a realistic comparison of various makes and models.

Wagon Air Deflector

The 1969 Plymouth Fury station wagon models have a new and efficient air deflector, mounted at the rear of the roof to divert air around and across the big rear window, significantly reducing vision obstruction. By blowing clean air over the window, the deflector prevents rain, dust and grit from accumulating.

The winning two-man team at each of the 100 regional and state contests being held this spring will compete for $125,000 worth of scholarships, prizes, trophies and automotive equipment for their schools at the National Finals at the Indianapolis 500 Speedway in mid-June.

Winners at local and national contests are chosen by the speed and skill with which they find and fix malfunctions under the hood of a new Plymouth and restore the car to normal operating condition. All teams work on identical cars that have been deliberately tampered with in the same way.

Plymouth Dealers sponsor a two-man team from their local school and make a Plymouth car available to practice on. The teams from the 2,000 participating schools, which have a combined enrollment of 150,000 students taking automotive shop courses, are selected by school instructors.

The Plymouth Trouble Shooting Contest originated in Los Angeles in 1949. It was sponsored by Plymouth Dealers there who sought to recruit young men as mechanic trainees. The annual contest grew in size as educators gave it their support.

Since the contest became national in scope in 1962, scholarships have been awarded to 116 students and full or part-time jobs have been found for more than 15,000 young men.

Presidents Honor Lady

CLINTON — The centennial birthday anniversary observance of Mrs. Christine Faulhaber was held last weekend, with the honored lady able to enjoy every bit of it. A fitting climax to the celebration took place Monday evening, as the honored lady's natal day was drawing to a close, she was dining with her daughters at a local restaurant, when congratulatory telegrams were delivered to her from President Richard Nixon, former President Lyndon Johnson, and from Congressman Marvin Esch.

A special birthday mass was arranged by the Rev. Fr. Leon Kennedy in St. Dominic's Catholic Church. Mrs. Faulhaber attended the service with her family. Special music was provided by a vocal trio from Boysville and their director, Brother James. The mass was served by Mrs. Faulhaber's grandsons, Jim Woodward and Tim Bowman.

Attending a family birthday dinner, Sunday, at the home of Mrs. Faulhaber's daughter, Mrs. John White, were her other daughters, Mrs. J. E. Hopkins, of Detroit; Mrs. A. F. Fountain, of Detroit; and Mrs. George McGuire of Dearborn and the Rev. Fr. Leon Kennedy.

Sunday afternoon, more than 75 relatives and friends attended an open house at the White home, coming from Toledo, Adrian, Kalamazoo, Bridgewater, Ann Arbor and Dearborn.

Also attending was the Rt. Rev. Msgr. Joseph Pfeffer, recently retired from St. Elizabeth Church parish, Detroit. He was the St. Dominic's parish priest in Clinton, for many years and made his residence in the Faulhaber home.

Many floral tributes to Mrs. Faulhaber decorated the home for the occasion and she received numerous greeting cards and telegrams. She wore an orchid corsage presented by her grandson, Thomas McGuire and his wife, Mary, of Dearborn.

The refreshment table was covered with a birthday cloth decorated with roses and centered with a bouquet of red roses. A three-tiered birthday cake was a gift from her granddaughters, Mrs. George Bowman, Mrs. James Woodward and Mrs. Wendell Smith. Ice cream, punch and coffee were also served.

Mrs. Fountain noted Monday that, surprisingly, her century-young mother didn't seem a bit more tired from all the festivities than the rest of her family did.

Local Artists Will Exhibit

CLINTON — Local artists will exhibit more than 30 paintings at an Art Show, Sunday afternoon, May 18, in the lobby of the Clintonian Arms.

The paintings are by Iris Gage and her nine students, Mrs. Donald Houghton and Mrs. Anthony Caruso; the Weigle sisters of Tecumseh — Diane in seventh grade and Pat, in high school; and five Clinton sixth graders, Becky Miller, Susan Frolich, Jacki Faulhaber, Denise Buda and Barbara Blom.

The show will include paintings in oil, polymer, water colors, pastels and charcoal.

Mrs. Richard Gage has been conducting her art workshop for about two years. She resides with her husband and two children at 501 Sunset Dr.

Before moving to Clinton four years ago, Mrs. Gage had majored in art at Royal Oak's Kimball High School, where she graduated in 1960. She has also had private art instruction.

She has always been interested in art, and recalls placing second in a national poster contest when she was just 11 years old.

Last year, Mrs. Gage exhibited her water colors at the Dundee Art Show, with 100 area artists.

In recent months several of the paintings from the Gage studio have been displayed at Steve's Restaurant.

Youngsters Visit Farms

CLINTON — A springtime visit to four area farms was taken by 86 kindergarten children from Clinton Elementary School, last Thursday.

The morning and afternoon groups were driven about the countryside by Arthur Gamboe. They were accompanied by their teachers, Mrs. George Heimerdinger and Kathy Person and student assistants, Jannalee Welch, Susan Drexler and Teresa McDermott.

Parents who went along were Mrs. Richard Gage, Mrs. Patrick Porter, Mrs. John Sell, Mrs. Joseph Busch, Mrs. Edward Handley, Mrs. Forrest Porterfield, Mrs. Ray Craft and Conrad Hiser.

At the Sure-Rich Farm, owned by Mr. and Mrs. Richard Carlson, north of Clinton, the youngsters saw the Arabian horses.

At the Harold Calhoun farm they saw a farrowing house full of baby Landrace pigs, and they had a chance to pet a little pig. They also saw feeder cattle.

The dairy cows and milking parlor were visited at the Heimerdinger Bros. farm.

At the Jack Hartung horse farm, there were several mares and their small colts to be admired.

It sounded as though the children were having a great time, if their excited squeals were any indication.

Members Attend FHA Convention

CLINTON — Kathy Kershner and Bonnie Waters, sophomores at Clinton High School, attended the Michigan convention of the Future Homemakers Association at Western Michigan University, Kalamazoo, Thursday and Friday.

The girls were accompanied by the home economics teacher, Mrs. Nancy Shave.

Rotarians Hear Conservationist

CLINTON — The Clinton Rotary Club listened to Martin Urka, Soil Conservationist with the U. S. Soil Conservation Service of Adrian, at the meeting April 23.

The club learned of the great need for landowners and land developers to practice good land use management, and to use good, sensible and soil conservation practices.

Urka stated that since roughage consuming livestock, like dairy cattle are fast leaving the average farm scene, whose acreages are now in cultivated crops instead of hay and pasture which kept the land well-covered and tied down. He stated that it was more important than ever to practice conservation.

It was stated that contour farming has lost its appeal in some localities, but that it was still a very important practice. He told about the many alternate ways in which soil or land could be properly and well-managed.

Mr. Urka showed colored slides which well-illustrated his presentation. Forest Swift was the program chairman.

Two Attend Graduation

Mrs. Ivah McCombs, accompanied by her granddaughter, Connie Crane, a teacher in Royal Oak, went to Oxford, O., for the weekend. They attended the Miami University Commencement, Sunday morning, at which Connie's sister, Jane, received her business law degree. The commencement address was given by Bob Hope.

Also present were Connie and Jane's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Crane, of Radnor, Pa. The Crane family returned to Clinton with Mrs. McCombs to visit briefly with Mr. Crane's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Amos Crane.

The aircraft and pilot for his flight were provided by Training Squadron Six, the Navy's all-weather and instrument training squadron for prehelicopter students at Pensacola.

Dan, a Tecumseh High School Senior, won a ribbon and $5.

Mike House, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carson House, of 708 Outer Dr., a junior in high school, entered a Chemistry project with an analysis of bile.

Ready Flowers for Show in '70

In this age of "instants," one group still is willing to plan and work for results that may not be visible for a year or more. That group is gardeners, such as members of the Little Garden Club.

In May, 1970, the club will have a flower show featuring springs blooms, many of them from bulbs the members will plant this fall. This year's May meeting will be a trip to the Holland, Mich., tulip festival. The April meeting included a talk by Jack Wikle, naturalist and educator from Hidden Lake Gardens, with slides showing many ways to use bulbs in landscaping.

Mr. Wikle showed pictures of mass plantings of flowers, in broad bands of brilliant, even gaudy, color. He preferred the simple, natural settings. Gardening books suggest planting at least six tulip or narcissus bulbs of one variety in a group, but he showed a single tulip plant with two bright pink-and-white blooms backed by the silvery sheen of a weathered railroad tie.

Such a planting needs to be where it can be viewed closely, he noted, while mass plantings are effective when seen from a distance.

Hidden Lake Gardens has both formal tulip beds and naturalistic hillside plantings of bulbs, he added.

Bulbs are one of the most forgiving of plant types, Mr. Wikle added. They can survive considerable neglect, and need only a small amount of fertilizer.

While the bulbs will accept moist conditions, they won't tolerate being planted where water is likely to stand for some time, or where the water level in the soil nears the depth where the bulbs are planted. He suggested raised beds in these areas.

Another problem is mice, they delight in feeding on tulip bulbs. Narcissus bulbs don't seem to be so tasty. Where this is a problem, the bulb can be planted in a box made of screening large enough to let the stems out but not the mice in. Another way is to use a beverage or soup can, placed over the bulb with open end down and triangular holes punched in the upper end to allow the stems to grow.

A ground cover such as ivy or myrtle will improve the appearance of areas where bulbs are planted, and keep them green the year around. Mulches such as wood chips, make a neater bed and also keep weeds from being such a bother, he noted. A sprinkling of high-nitrogen fertilizer over the chips will wash into the soil to replace the nitrogen temporarily lost when the wood chips decay, he added.

Another part of the program was a movie, "Lassie's Litter Bit," in which the famed dog presents an anti-litterbug message in a half-hour action script like the television series. The movie will be shown by club members to interested youth groups or school classes. Mrs. Howard Furry is in charge.

Hostess for the club meeting was Mrs. Judson Miles, assisted by Mrs. John Walper and Mrs. Glenn Breckenridge.

Coast Guard Cadet Is Executive Officer

Coast Guard Cadet 1/c Jerry L. Hale, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Hale, 108 Evans Creek Dr., has been named executive officer for one of the two battalions which make up the cadet regiment at the U. S. Coast Guard Academy.

The 1965 Tecumseh High School graduate will serve in this position at the New London, Conn., academy for the remainder of the academic year.

While attending high school he played baseball, basketball and football, and since entering the Academy, in 1965, has continued in the latter sport, and was also on the wrestling team one year.

He has also been named on the Commandant of Cadets' List, for outstanding military performance, or the Dean's List, for superior academic ability, or both, every semester since arriving at the New London School.

Cadet Hale will graduate with a bachelor of science degree in June, and will receive a commission as ensign in the Coast Guard. He will then report for duty aboard the Coast Guard Cutter, Mackinaw, an icebreaker operating out of Cheboygan, Mich.

Senator Bursley's LANSING REPORT

Millions of dollars often turn on the answer to one question in Lansing. And that situation is considered likely when the answer comes to the question: "What shall the DDT tolerance level be for fish?"

An unrealistic tolerance level on one side could well end, and for some years at least, the coho salmon boom, with its attendant boost to Michigan's economy.

An unrealistic tolerance level on the other side could well cost Michigan farmers and orchardists untold added expenses and costs of operation, costs which necessarily would have to be passed on to the consumer of fruits and vegetables.

Both the Michigan Department of Agriculture and the Department of Natural Resources are extremely interested in a forthcoming decision on the tolerance level to be made by the federal Food and Drug Administration.

There are some indications that the FDA will set an interim DDT limit of 3.5 parts per million for the edible part of fish. Currently, for beef and pork the overall limit is 7, but only one part per million for the edible part of the meat.

Unfortunately, most fish in Lake Michigan and lake trout and other large fish in Lake Superior might not qualify under the 3.5 parts per million limit although this point is still subject to conclusive verification.

Fish appear to be especially vulnerable to accumulating DDT because of their fat, where the heaviest accumulations are found. Here again some fish have much more fatty tissue than others.

Even if DDT use is banned in the United States as it is being banned in Sweden, experts contend that it will take several years before it will show up in lesser quantities of fish.

If the coho are found to be too dangerous to eat by the FDA — and I personally doubt if this will happen — then west Michigan may suffer a heavy economic loss.

The importance of the "coho fever" to west Michigan was shown recently by a survey of the Manistee County Chamber of Commerce, which disclosed that 1967 sales tax records in that county showed an increase of $1 million in retail sales over the previous year. And last year, the second year of the coho boom, the increase was $1.5 million.

The survey also showed that last year 24 new retail businesses had opened in the county, many of which were a direct result of the coho boom.

On the other side of the coin, it has been estimated that the use of pesticides has saved 100 million lives in the world from insect-borne diseases since DDT came into use in the 1940s.

It has been estimated, too, that since 1940 pesticides alone have increased our national farm output by 10 to 15 percent. Dr. Warren Shaw of the United States Department of Agriculture predicts that elimination of DDT and other pesticides from agricultural operations would cut output sharply and increase the cost of farm products — meat, fruit and vegetables — from 50 to 75 percent.

So the forthcoming decision of the Food and Drug Administration could mean near disaster to Michigan either through its effect on conservation or on agriculture.

God Is My Landlord

William Ford, brother of Henry Ford and distributor of Fordson Tractors in the state of Michigan, had a pair of fine oxen. Perry thought they would add color to the event, so he drove to William's farm, east of Brighton, to see whether he would bring them to the harvest ceremonies. He found William Ford to be a very delightful fellow, and a larger man in stature than his famous brother, Henry. He willingly offered to send the oxen to Macon. . . . "Amos" and "Andy" weighed 2,300 pounds apiece, but were as gentle as kittens. Billy and Joseph Hayden and a neighbor boy by the name of Charles Manley, climbed on the back of the oxen and rode them around the lot while perry talked to Mr. Ford.

"Are you a Christian?" asked Perry.

"I hope so. Henry and I were confirmed the same day in the Episcopal Church in Dearborn. Henry was 22 and I was 14."

The next night Perry was showing his moving pictures at the William Ford High School Auditorium in Dearborn, where he met a young man by the name of Davis Martin who became a great inspiration to him. Mr. Martin had been in the employ of the Ford Motor Company for 17 years. Several years before, he had organized a small group of Bible students in the plant. On Good Friday he had 5,000 people in one service. Mr. Ford was particularly happy about Dave Martin's success in this Bible work. Just before Henry Ford started for Georgia on his vacation, he called Dave into the office to commend him on his fine efforts.

"Dave, I'd like to see gospel meetings in every one of our plants all over the world. Come in and let's talk it over when I get back from Georgia."

The following morning, Perry met Ed Clark in the Tecumseh Post Office.

"I haven't seen nor heard a word from Mr. Ford or the office yet. However, work is still progressing at a terrific rate on the grounds. The water wheel for the mill is expected today — but I am helpless to make definite plans for the ceremonies until I am given the authority to do anything more. It has me worried sick."

Neither Perry nor Ed Clark had spent many waking hours, during the past year, without some thought of the Dynamic Kernels problems.

Mrs. Sam Raymond, a sister of Mrs. Henry Ford, gave Perry his first authentic information regarding Mr. Ford's real physical condition.

"Henry likes to have me take care of him," said Mrs. Raymond. "A special doctor flew down to Georgia to see him, and reported that he was "starving to death." It appears as though he has been following another of his eating fads and not getting the proper diet. His nerves are bare. They need more covering, so they are now feeding him richer food. He is gaining weight, but being 'up in years' anything can happen."

A few days later, Ed Clark went to Dearborn to see whether he could get instructions from someone, as to what he should do. He was told that everything was at a standstill awaiting orders from Mr. Ford — a sick man who probably could not give any orders.

"What are you going to do if Mr. Ford withdraws from your project?" Ed asked Perry when he returned from Dearborn.

"I'm not worrying about it. If the Lord wants Ford to finish the project, He will let him know in time. If not, He will let me know what to do then. I'll carry out God's will as it is revealed to me."

The next report from Mrs. Sam Raymond sounded a little better for Mr. Ford. She thought he was gaining some weight, but that it was a case of "nerves" with him.

"I think that Edsel's death several years ago was a terrible shock to him and he keeps it to himself. He would be much better if he talked with someone."

A few days later, Mrs. Raymond reported to Perry again, "I laughed right out loud when I saw Mr. Ford this last time. His cheeks were puffed out just like a squirrel. I had never seen him fat before and he really looked funny, but much healthier."

During the early part of June, Edward Faulkner, his son, John, Jim Dall and Carl Fowl of Elyria, O., visited the wheat field. Because of the dampness during the spring months, black smut was very bad. In some places actually 15% of the heads were black.

"You'll never need 5,000 acres for your sixth year, if this keeps up," said Mr. Faulkner.

It was now obvious that neither the wheat nor the mill would be ready for the 14th of July date, so it was definitely changed to July 21. This was a great disappointment because all plans had been made with the Columbia Broadcasting System, prominent speakers, newspaper reporters and newsreel men to be there.

The next report on Mr. Ford's condition, from Mrs. Raymond was the most encouraging so far. He was now taking regular daily rides around the country. He was still very weak and did nothing which required much energy. Mr. Ford was seeing more of the surrounding country than he had seen for years.

Mrs. Hayden sent a loaf of homemade bread to Mr. Ford. Sometime later his wife, Clara Ford, wrote Mrs. Hayden a lovely letter with some interesting information and thanked her for the bread. She mentioned how much Mr. Ford enjoyed it. She also explained that she was taking care of all of Mr. Ford's personal affairs and was very busy, but nothing was said about the Wheat Harvest.

On the 7th of June, a month from the day originally set for the fifth harvest, Perry saw Ed Clark in the Tecumseh Bank, and he shook his head, "I'm under orders you know, and can only go so far without instructions. I haven't heard one word yet."

On the same day, Mrs. Clara Ford called her sister, Mrs. Raymond, in Adrian, and reported that Henry was doing fine. Perry asked whether she thought that Mr. Ford might get out to the Wheat Harvest.

"I think he will, if he is feeling well enough."

In the meantime, the uncertainty, the waiting from hour to hour of some kind of word, and the constantly changing of plans were beginning to wear on the nerves and dispositions of everyone concerned.

Dr. Charles De Vol, a botanist who served as a missionary in China and was returned on the SS Gripsholm, examined the wheat field and warned against its being replanted as seed the following season. He took samples to be analyzed and reported later that the rust would ruin the next crop. This seemed like "the last straw to break the back of the whole project" . . . but even in the face of this Perry said, "God is the one to guide us."

Now as a final "cap sheaf," word was received two days later that Ed Clark, Perry's most loyal supporter, was very ill. The uncertainty, anxiety and worry in not hearing from Mr. Ford had created a nervous stomach ailment. It was also learned that Frank Campsall was not well. . . . Perry still refused to worry, saying "The Lord is in good health and He knows what He is doing."

But the final crash came in the morning mail of June 14. It was exactly a month before the second date which had been set for the harvest. In a letter from Frank Campsall, Mr. Ford's secretary, were these words:

"Your letter proposing dates for harvesting the Biblical Wheat on the Ford Farms has been discussed here, and I thought best to tell you frankly what to expect.

"As you know, this is to be a very busy year for Mr. Ford. A large part of the burden of industrial and national reconstruction will fall on Detroit and Dearborn. It is extremely doubtful that Mr. Ford will find time for any harvesting ceremonies. In fact, I believe it certain that he will not.

"I may also relay to you the opinion here that the purpose you had in mind of publicizing the idea of Tithing — that is, the religious purpose of the experiment — probably has been accomplished. To go on with the festivities in these times might undo whatever good has been done.

"With your religious idea fully demonstrated, what remains would be in the nature of a rather artificial economic experiment which would prove nothing more than that wheat re-produces itself plentifully. Mr. Ford's assistance has permitted it to take on proportions far beyond what the average farmer would expect to do, and therefore on that side, it contributes nothing to economic knowledge.

"That is, the work has been done, and I think that on the whole, you must not count further on Mr. Ford." . . .

Everyone was stunned . . . The women cried . . . The words of Ephesians 6:13 immediately flashed through Perry's consciousness and he repeated them aloud: "Wherefore take unto you the whole armor of God, that ye may be able to withstand in the evil day, and having done all, to stand."

Several days later, while in Detroit following up every possible "hunch" that might lead to a change in the Ford plans, Perry phoned the law offices of Ford's attorney, I. A. Capizzi.

Mr. Capizzi was very cordial and explained, "The Ford Motor Company is facing some very serious problems and changes in coming months. They expect to lose millions of dollars in the re-conversion from war to peace-time production. Furthermore, O.P.A. is not permitting them to realize even the cost price from the cars that they are permitted to make. Mr. Ford has turned his farms over to The Ford Motor Company and they simply cannot go any further with your project. As far as I am concerned, the matter is closed."

Ed Clark made many more attempts, in the days following, to reach Frank Campsall for instructions of some kind. Ed was a sick man by this time. The loss of a son, over-work, and this continued uncertainty, were more than he could bear. Frank Campsall had sent Ed a copy of the letter to Perry. Ed did not have the heart to tell Perry about it; and Perry not knowing that Ed had received a copy did not want to worry him . . . So each was carrying the burden alone.

Several weeks before the date set for the harvest, Perry made one last frantic effort to obtain a statement from the Ford offices, but could not reach anyone with authority to give a decision. On the way back to Tecumseh, he stopped at the Romulus Air Base to ask about a helicopter. Nothing definite could be arranged without a lot of typical Army red-tape.

Perry then stopped off at Ed Clark's country home. He found Clark confined to his bed and learned that he had received a copy of Campsall's letter.

"I take this to mean that there will be no ceremony on the Ford property this summer." Ed explained, "and that Mr. Ford is all through with the entire project."

"I don't think that Henry Ford had a thing to do with this. It appears to me to be the action of the officials of The Ford Motor Company who hesitate to give us the 'go sign' without the word from Mr. Ford," was Perry's reaction.

The above statement was borne out by subsequent developments, which indicated that some kind of shift in management was taking place. This was further emphasized in a letter from the law offices of I. A. Capizzi, saying that he had been instructed by The Ford Motor Company to refuse the use of the land for the following year. He further stated that nearly all of the farms previously owned by Henry Ford were now owned by the Ford Corporation. Public statements were also issued by The Ford Motor Company, saying that many of Mr. Ford's hobbies and farms were being sold.

Even though Perry could find the land some place else for the sixth crop, where in the world would he get the money to finance the planting? It was estimated that the sixth crop would require about 3,000 acres, if the farmers followed Perry's practice of sowing only one bushel of seed per acre. The cost of fitting the land for planting the seed would run about $18 per acre, which would be $54,000. Taxes at $1.25 per acre would add another $3,750. Threshing the wheat would cost about $7,500. Other incidentals, such as hauling, storage, extra labor, etc., making a total of almost $100,000.

Ed Clark was taken to The Henry Ford Hospital in Detroit. Harry Downing, his farm foreman, felt that possibly Ed might yet be able to change the plans regarding the harvest set for July 21. He took a number of heads of the wheat from the field to Ed and expressed the belief that the wheat was ripe enough for combining if he could give the order.

Melburn Partridge, William Swick and Leland Bush felt as though the Ford people should at least permit a little wheat to be cut, to satisfy the crowd.

"You must not do a thing out there, unless I hear otherwise," Clark whispered weakly.

That night it was further learned that the national broadcast of the "Ford Sunday Evening Hour," at the Macon Chapel, had been called off. This had been set up to broadcast a nation-wide story on the famous Biblical Wheat project. The program was cancelled without a moment's notice, after radio technicians had been working for a week preparing the details and the children had been practicing special songs for a long time.

Perry drove to the Ford Hospital once again, on the faint hope that Ed Clark might be able to authorize at least a little harvesting in the field for the benefit of the newspapers. He also took a few heads of the wheat again, to show Ed that it was plenty ripe . . . He received the same answer.

hymn of the skies

David lived almost thirty centuries ago. He knew nothing of outer space . . . of galaxies hurtling through the void . . . of particles of energy and matter spinning their way from a one-time explosion toward the edges of the universe.

He knew only the skies of his native land . . . their lights and shadows and ever-changing drifts of cloud.

But he knew, as millions before and since, that these skies were no accident. They told him of the Mind and Heart that rules the domain of life. They told him we are not alone.

"The heavens declare the glory of God," he wrote in the 19th Psalm, "The firmament showeth his handiwork."

Through those same skies rode the star that drew men to the scene of our Savior's birth. Against those skies is always silhouetted the Cross on which He died for us.

Under those skies we'll worship together the Risen Lord.

All Celebrate

Mrs. Ilah Mead entertained 16 former telephone operators for a reunion at her home April 18. The guests were all employed by the phone company before dial service in 1961.

A red telephone centered the refreshment table which featured two cakes, one said "Number Please", the other, "The House is Always Open to You Girls". Mrs. Mead made the cakes and Mrs. Rose Service decorated them.

The evening was spent looking at old pictures and reminiscing.

Those attending were Mrs. Gilbert Nighswander, Mrs. Arnold Hoffman, Mrs. Raymond Morley, Mrs. R. J. Roost, Mrs. Ester Shaw, Mrs. Bert Wade, Mrs. Darwin Harvey, Marie Phillips, Mrs. James Shields, Mrs. Maurice Bonnell, Mrs. Loren Gall, Mrs. Dorman Mobley, Mrs. Harland Parker, Mrs. R. J. Holcomb, Mrs. Wendell Crowell and Mrs. Wendell Crowley.

Mrs. Frank Verrier was unable to attend because of a slight accident. As she was getting out of bed that morning she caught her foot in the bedspread and broke her big toe. A card was signed by all guests and sent to Mrs. Verrier.

They presented Mrs. Mead with a bracelet and pin in the shape of an umbrella and Mrs. Mead is slowly locating each one and giving them a penny so as not to break friendship. (The pin had a sharp point.)

Wife Cleared in Shooting, Killing Mate

Twenty-three-year-old Agnes G. Baker was cleared of murder charges here Sunday when Harvey Koselka, Lenawee County prosecuting attorney, told local police that there was no case against her.

Mrs. Baker reportedly shot and killed her husband, Norman A. Baker, 28, with a .22 caliber Mossberg-magnum rifle after he smashed through her apartment door early Saturday morning at the Mulvaney apartment house at 303 W. Chicago Blvd.

According to Police Chief Murell Clark, Baker appeared at the apartment house shortly after his wife left her bartending job at the Eagles Lodge. When she refused to let him in, he broke through, breaking two locks on the door. He had the couple's two young children, Regina and Deborah, with him.

After breaking through the door, Mrs. Baker reportedly told her husband not to come any closer, and when he did, she shot and killed him. Police here received a call from her at 2:57 a.m.

Shot in the abdomen, Baker staggered back down the steps and out to his car, where local police found him.

Officer Bill Mini says he was still conscious and slumped over the steering wheel. He was bleeding profusely.

Before passing out, Mini says Baker told him, "My wife shot me."

The Bakers had been separated for nearly a year, and he is believed to have been seeking a reconciliation.

Chief Clark says the two had been having troubles in the past, and he is known to have threatened his wife on several occasions. Once, he threatened her while carrying a revolver, registered in his name. Although unarmed at the time of his death, police theorize he had left his gun in his trailer at Manitou Beach.

After the shooting, Baker was immediately sent from Herrick Hospital to University Hospital at Ann Arbor. He died en route.

Witness to the shooting, besides the children, was Lois I. Waidelich, 34, who shared the apartment with Mrs. Baker.

Chief Clark says Baker had no past record here but had one with the Adrian police department.

Funeral services were held Tuesday and interment was at Lenawee Hills Memorial Gardens, at Billington Corners.

DARLENE FAIRBANKS

$844 Added To Account

If she could, 12-year-old Darlene Fairbanks would extend a big "thank you" to the entire Britton community, sponsors of a benefit card party for her April 29, in the school gym.

Someday, we hope she will.

A total of $844 was added to her savings account at the United Savings Bank, proceeds from the party and a sale of baked goods and ceramics, all donated by friends of the convalescent.

Darlene is home now after 12 weeks spent in the University Medical Center, where her medical expense, not covered by insurance, is tremendous. She suffered a severe setback from two days of extremely high body temperature which physicians could not control.

Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Fairbanks, and her two brothers, David and Douglas, are undertaking the task of caring for Darlene as she recuperates.

Thirty-three tables were arranged for cards last Tuesday evening. Mrs. Elmer Eberhardt won the first of 12 door prizes awarded, all donated.

Tammy Fairbanks drew names and Elwood Tucker read them for the prizes.

Mrs. Douglas Palmer, Mrs. Martin Ivan and Mrs. Robert Osterhout, handled the baked goods and ceramics sale and Mrs. Lawrence Ash, Mrs. Roger Gillespie and Mrs. Harold Rohrback, the refreshments of cookies and coffee.

Mrs. Paul Rowlands, who started the benefit, said that "everyone pitched in and helped."

She will continue to accept donations at her home 297 W. Chicago St., in Britton, for Darlene, and anyone desiring to do so may deposit to her account at the bank here in Tecumseh.

Insurance Agency Sold

A. B. "Al" Hammond, an insurance agent here since 1938, has sold his insurancee business to Amelia Anthony of Personalized Services, 112 E. Logan St.

Mr. Hammond has spent most of his time in recent years as a broker for investments and securities, and this business he will continue to operate.

Only the F. C. Hanna Agency here is an older agency in length of service than Mr. Hammond's old State Auto agency.

Miss Anthony has been in the insurance business for approximately 12 years, writing for an agency in Jackson. She has operated Personalized Services, family consumer financing, here for the past three years.

Rodeo Here Next Week

First annual Jaycee Rodeo will be held here May 17-18 by the Midwest Cowboy Association at the corner of Green Hwy. and Russell Rd.

The rodeo will consist of calf tying, bull riding and other features, according to Arnold Sayler, assistant chairman.

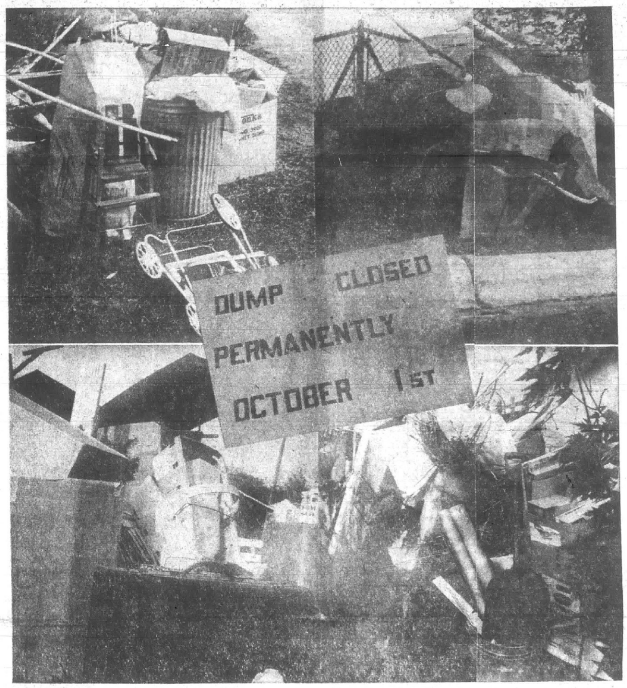
Cheaper, advance tickets may be purchased now from any Jaycee. Bleachers are to be set up to handle crowds of about 1,500 for each afternoon. Seats have been obtained from the high schools at Tecumseh, Britton and Onsted.

Proceeds from the event will be used by the Jaycees for civic projects.

File Petitions

Petitions for posts on the Tecumseh School Board must be filed at the Board of Education office by May 12.

Dr. Fred Freeman and William Macbeth have filed. Two other petitions are out, but have not been returned yet.



BIGGEST EVER — City officials are shaking their heads over the amount of trash residents have collected at the curb for the free city pickup. Cal Zorn says 75 dump truck loads were hauled Monday, and they barely made a dent. Since the city closed the local dump last Oct. 1, it is apparent that folks have just been saving. Free pickups will continue through May 16.

4-Hour MIS Race Sunday

That roar of staggered valves and the smell of burning rubber will cover the area surrounding Michigan International Speedway at Cambridge Junction Saturday and Sunday when nationally and internationally known drivers will vie for the winner's circle of the first race of the 1969 season at the newly-constructed track.

The race, 4-hour Trans-American sedan race, will have such entries as the Shelby Racing Co. of Torrence, Calif., driving Ford Mustangs. Also rounding out the four-car Mustang team will be Bud Moore Engineering with a pair of the fastbacks.

Pilots for the two entries will be Peter Revson of New York and Horst Kwech of Illinois in the Shelby cars and Indianapolis winner Parnelli Jones and road racing champ George Follmer at the wheels of Moore Engineering fastback entries.

The Mustangs lost the Trans-Am Championship last year to Chevrolet's hot Camaros. Ford held the championship in '66 and '67.

Penske-Donohue Camaro won the '68 championship and will be among the 45 competitiors on hand Sunday for the race at MIS. At the wheel of the GM cars will be Ronnie Bucknum, last year's winner of the inaugural race at MIS, and Trans-Am Champion

'Safety' Arrest Fear Is Eased

Fear that mass arrests will be made here during the State Police safety-checking of vehicles, May 19 through May 23, is understandable but wrong, according to Lt. Matt Hrebic, member of the Safety and Traffic Division of the Michigan State Police.

"There will not be any tickets issued or arrests made unless a driving license privilege is being wilfully violated," said the officer.

Lt. Hrebec says everyone will be treated fairly, courteously and honestly. If a minor infraction found during the inspections, a driver will be given ample time to correct it.

State Police, along with officers from the Tecumseh Police Department and the Sheriff's department, will conduct safety-checks throughout Tecumseh and the immediate area during Michigan Week.

No particular safety-check lane will be established, as in past years, but inspections will be made at numerous sites. Motorists will be stopped at random, and the standard Michigan State Police inspection made, as performed throughout the state.

It is the first time that State Police have concentrated on any community.

Tecumseh Rotary Club, along with city officials, are sponsoring the safety-check project here again, and are working closely with the State Police and state safety representatives.

Directors and committees organized for Michigan Week activities are:

- Directors — Clayton Greenwald, Fred Freeman, Graham Fleming, Pat Meadows, Spec Simmons, Bill Love and Walt Daniels.
- Finance — Mr. Meadows, chairman; Ken McElroy, C. M. Brown, R. H. Moore, Franz vanWestrenen, Willis Haselwood, Harold Easton, Cal Zorn and Lew Lamb.
- Solicitations — Bob Bonner, Leon Bruner, Cliff Knudson,

Health Study Report Shows 'Shot' Success

Doctors from the School of Public Health of University of Michigan prevented more than 3,000 cases of illness in Tecumseh by vaccinating school children here against Hong Kong influenza, according to a report from the local Health Study.

Nearly 90 percent of the 3,600 school children in the Tecumseh district were given vaccine provided by the National Institutes of Health in the fall of 1968.

As reported by Dr. Arnold S. Monto and colleagues at a recent meeting of the American Epidemiological Society in Philadelphia, influenza virus is usually spread by school-age children who bring the disease home.

Vaccination was intended to block this route of transmission and such an approach to control of an epidemic in an entire community had never been tried before.

Results of the influenza vaccination were measured by comparing the level of school absences in Tecumseh with that in Adrian, where vaccination was not generally used.

While 15 percent of all school children in Adrian were absent in mid-December, Tecumseh absences remained at their usual levels.

Families were followed in Tecumseh as part of the Community Health Study and their illnesses were determined in the Hong Kong influenza period. Similar families were also questioned on their experience with influenza in Adrian under the direction of Dr. Thomas Hamilton.

This was part of the Project ECHO run jointly by the Lenawee County Health Department and the Michigan Department of Health.

During December and January, Hong Kong influenza caused high rates of illnesses in the Adrian families.

In Tecumseh there were only one quarter as many illnesses, and this was not only true for the vaccinated children, but also for their parents and younger brothers and sisters.

The Hong Kong influenza outbreak also hit Lansing and Flint hard as measured by the ECHO surveillance program in those cities. The illness rates there were 3.3 and 2.8 times higher than in the vaccinated Tecumseh area.

How about a loan, buddy?

Turn about fair play? Pat Meadows and Merlyn Downing thought so Friday when they jokingly put the touch on customers for loans at the United Savings Bank.

Lenawee County's largest bank had lots of cash — all stashed away in the bank's "locked" vault.

At the close of the business day Thursday, the timer on the vault was set for Saturday by mistake. And, the timer worked. It didn't let bank officers open the vault until Saturday morning!

Other banks in the area gave a helping hand, however, and Tecumseh's bank actually had ample funds for the day.

Asks for Change

A request for a change in zoning to permit multiple dwellings in the Indian Hills Subdivision was referred by Council Monday day night to the Planning Commission.

Dean Cunningham, of Aylings[illegible] Asphalt and developer in the subdivision, is planning on apartments on Waskins Dr.

Play Opening Friday Night

After six long weeks of preparation, a play is about to open on the Glass Room stage at the Community Center. The Tecumseh Players, long-time tenants of the Glass Room, have applied the finishing touches to "The Gazebo", a mystery-comedy by Alec and Mary Coppel. It opens tonight and will run through next weekend, May 9, 10, 16 and 17.

A special performance will be held during dress rehearsal this evening for senior citizens and students, who may attend for the ticket price of $1.

"Gazebo" concerns a mystery-writer Elliott Nash (Ted Broderick) and his wife, Nell, (Judy Dornan). Nash runs into problems throughout the play that make his creative instincts seem drab in comparison. The Nashes run a gamut of "did he or didn't he" in hilarious fashion.

Sprinkled through the play are an assortment of other funny people such as "Harlow" (Phil Baker), the next door neighbor who is interested in other people's goings on.

A persistent real estate saleswoman, Mrs. Chandler (Charlotte Parker) leads the supporting cast along with the maid, Mathilda (Marie Woszczynski), a detective (Dennis Goller) and his assistant (Tom Marine).

Unsavory characters that hound the fiction writer Nash come through in Dook and Louie (Ron Wisner and Ron Wetter).

Other wanderers in the cast are Mr. Thorpe (Lyle Dornan) and Dr. Wyner (Guil Rothfuss).

Directorial reins are guided by Larry Ruff, a newcomer to the director's chair for the Players. He has extensive training in the theatrical field both from behind of and in front of the footlights.

Archbishop OK's Dropping Grades

In a letter from John Cardinal Dearden, St. Elizabeth's School was granted permission to drop the seventh and eighth grades from their curriculum next year.

The problem of teachers and finances have called for several schools in the Detroit Archdiocese to close, including Catholic Central in Adrian and now the St. Elizabeth closings.

Merlyn Downing, Donald LaBounty Are New Planners

Mr. Downing was appointed to succeed Dr. Carlos Knisely, new Council member, who resigned. His term was up in May, however, and Mr. Downing was appointed to a full term.

American Motors Javelin Racing Team have also signed in to compete on the grueling road course designed by British racing great, Stirling Moss. Guiding the Javelins around the course will be Ron Grable and John Martin.

A major change on the grand prix road circuit has been made at the speedway and will be completed in time for the time trials Saturday.

Les Richter, vice-president and director of operations for MIS, announced that "following Trans-Am testing sessions at the speedway we made a decision to re-route the road racing cars around the north turn of the banked oval for the May 31 race.

A "bump" had formed where the road circuit leading out through the oval infield, crossed the back straight of the oval. The bump caused suspension problems at a closed session of the track two weeks ago. The teams had agreed to run the race in spite of the "bump", but officials at the speedway decided to divert the cars, utilizing more of the speedway's 2-mile oval.

The road course was changed in length slightly from 3.18 miles to 3.31. Anticipated increase in speed from five to 10 miles per hour may result.

Starting time for the test of man and machine is 1 p.m., Sunday. Pre-race activities including a one-hour test session gets underway at 10 a.m. The track will also be open to spectators for practice and qualifying runs on Saturday.

If, for any reason, you are not satisfied with the results of this Scotts weed control, simply send us evidence of purchase and we will mail you a refund promptly.

That's how sure we are of Scotts famous TURF BUILDER PLUS 2. Time and again we've seen it turn straggly weed patches into thick, vibrantly green turf. Put PLUS 2 on your lawn this weekend. For the first few days nothing much will seem to happen. Then one day you'll notice that the weeds have begun to shrivel. A few days later they'll disappear completely — roots and all. In their place will be healthy green turf — the result of the fertilizing action of PLUS 2. It's a full-feeding too, equivalent to SCOTTS FAMOUS TURF BUILDER.
Time to use PLUS 2 is right now.

VFW Readies Poppy Sales

The Veterans of Foreign Wars are sponsoring the Annual Buddy Poppy Sales May 16 and 17 in the Tecumseh Area to raise money for needy and disabled veterans.

The Buddy Poppy, which is assembled by permanently disabled, hospitalized veterans throughout the United States, has been the symbolic flower of Memorial Day since its first sale by the Veterans of Foreign Wars in 1922.

A portion of the proceeds, contributed by the public thru their purchase of the VFW Poppy, help establish claims or gain other veteran benefits thru a nationwide system of veterans service officers, maintained by the Veterans of Foreign Wars.

Local veterans and widows with dependents have received assistance through the service officers.

More than 200 orphans of veterans are cared for in the Veterans of Foreign Wars National Home in Grand Rapids.

A part of the cost is raised through the annual sales of the Buddy Poppy, the traditional way to bring attention to the sacrifices made by the nation's war dead in the struggle to keep America free.

Chairmen for the VFW Buddy Poppy Sales are, Everett Fielder and Mrs. Walter Mueller of the Auxiliary.

"Can Your Faith Die?" is Sermon

The Rev. Laurence N. Woodruff of Ypsilanti will speak at the First Presbyterian Church Sunday. Mr. Woodruff, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church of Ypsilanti, has exchanged pulpits with the Rev. Raymon Bair, to give him, as pastor emeritus, an opportunity to preach again in Ypsilanti. Mr. Woodruff's sermon topic will be "Can Your Faith Die".

A family social evening is planned for May 15 when a film, "Operation Get Acquainted", will be shown to members and friends of the church.

This program, sponsored by the session, will present an opportunity for the church family to decide whether or not they would like to be involved in a family-to-child relationship with an under-privileged child of 8-12 from Lenawee County.

The program started in Lansing with just a few participants and has grown statewide in just two years with support from many service organizations.

The program here is sponsored by the 4-H Extension Service with the cooperation of the Jaycees, County Welfare, County Health Department and a number of other services.

A nursery will be provided for infants and young children May 15, when the entire family is urged to attend to learn of this program and enjoy an evening of fellowship.

"Classical Gas" Fills The Air

"Classical Gas" will be presented May 8 and 9 at 8 p.m., in the Tecumseh High School gym.

The high school band will present such numbers as "Civil War Fantasy", and music from "The King and I". Also featured will be the stage band, the "Salvation Army" band of THS and their very own German band.

Tickets are available at the door.
